'Cowboy Tough' - The Tradition Continues

The University of Wyoming has had its share of wrestling success, including 31 All-America honors, 185 conference titles and 24 conference team championships. The 2013 postseason marked the 39th consecutive year that a Cowboy wrestler had competed at the NCAA Championships. Since 1974, the Wyoming Cowboy wrestling program has sent 172 participants to the highest stage of collegiate competition.

UW Mission Statement

The mission of the University of Wyoming Department of Intercollegiate Athletics is to provide an environment in which student-athletes complete their undergraduate college education and achieve athletics success at the highest possible level. - Our work environment will be positive, enjoyable, and family friendly.

EXPECT YOUTHFUL COWBOYS TO GROW UP FAST

UW's top returners are juniors or sophomores. But don't mistake youth for inexperience. Of the group of 12, nine have seen time in duals for the Cowboys and four have qualified for the NCAA Championships.

"This is a unique year for me because we have a well-balanced team and we're not overloaded with older guys," Wyoming head coach Mark Branch said. "We've got a lot of young guys that I'm pumped about seeing out there and we've got some veterans. It's a good mix. I have a lot of high expectations for this team."

Who's back?

Returning 2013 All-America finisher Tyler Cox is a team leader and takes aim at having an even more impressive junior season. He'll be joined by fellow juniors and NCAA qualifiers Brandon Richardson (149), Andy McCulley (157) and Shane Woods at 197. Other notable returners include juniors Robert Stroh (149/157), Dakota Friesth (165) and Leland Pfeifer (184/197). Some talented newcomers include two transfers, senior Dallas Bailey (165) who comes to UW from Oklahoma State and redshirt freshman Brandon Tribble (197) from Western State in Colorado. Heavyweight sophomore Tanner Harms returns from injury, while senior Kyle Komata (141) has his eyes on a starting spot in his last season.

How did last year go?

Branch, who begins his sixth year at UW in 2013, expects the best from his program. In 2012, he got it again as UW won its fourth-straight Western Wrestling Conference tournament title. Seven Cowboys earned nods to the NCAA Championships and Wyoming was 23rd in the nation when it was all said and done.

Wyoming compiled a 9-6 dual mark, defeating two ranked teams. UW spent time in both the national dual and tournament rankings for a majority of the season.

Nine Cowboys earned All-WWC honors last season and four were weight-class champions at the conference tournament. UW now has claimed 20 total individual titles at the West Regional and has never finished outside the top two under Branch. The total number of Cowboys to earn All-WWC honors moved to 39.

Seven Cowboys claimed spots in the NCAA Championships last season. Cox (125) and Alfonso Hernandez (197) earned All-America honors by placing eighth and seventh, respectively. That duo led UW to its 17th top-25 finish at the event.

Cowboy wrestlers have earned eight All-America honors under Branch.

The slate

Competition is tough early on, and doesn't let up as the season goes. The Pokes battle the likes of Boise State, Minnesota, Oklahoma and Oklahoma State, along with tough conference matchups with North Dakota State, Utah Valley and Air Force.

The postseason

UW begins with the NCAA West Regional/Western Wrestling Conference Championships, which take place March 8 in Orem, Utah. The Cowboys hope to defend their title at the event, and will seek their fifth-straight WWC crown. The NCAA Championships are March 20-22 in Oklahoma City, Okla.

Weight Class-Roster Breakdown

125 - A returning All-America finisher and a team leader, junior Tyler Cox solidifies the Cowboy lineup with his presence at 125 pounds. He wrestles a very exciting style, and he has shown the capability to beat some of the nation's best. Expect another great year for Cox as he will aim at another top finish at NCAAs. Redshirt freshman Drew Templeman adds depth at this weight.

COX

133 - The 2013 season will bring about a new starter in the 133-pound slot. In the running for the starter's spot are sophomore Sean O'Leary and Templeman. The older O'Leary worked hard in the offseason and is steadily improving, while Templeman added size to his frame. Both are capable and confident wrestlers, and will challenge one another in the room daily.

O'LEARY

141 - Two main contenders will emerge at this weight, senior Kyle Komata and redshirt freshman Cole Mendenhall. The elder Komata brings experience and savvy to the spot, while Mendenhall comes off a very successful redshirt season. The coaching staff will match these two up in the room daily to find the best option.

KOMATA

149 - Junior Brandon Richardson returns after a great end to his 2012-13 season, and looks confident and capable after a good offseason. Redshirt freshman Jake Elliott made great strides over the summer and will push for time on the mat for the Pokes.

RICHARDSON

157 - Andy McCulley returns for his junior year and hopes to continue the success he found last season, appearing in the national rankings and making his first trip to the NCAAs. Redshirt freshman Tanner Miller will push for the spot throughout the year, and has shown a great work ethic and competitive nature.

MCCULLEY

165 - Junior Dakota Friesth returns bigger and stronger than he was last season and has momentum after finishing last year on a high note with a third-place conference finish. But he will have to battle senior Dallas Bailey, who transferred from Oklahoma State in the offseason. The coaching staff is eager to see how Bailey adapts to the program and there should be a fine competition between Friesth and Bailey for the spot.

FRIESTH

174 - Two youngsters will vie for the starting spot at this weight, as sophomore Jace Jensen and redshirt freshman Brent Havlik are in the running. Jensen, who appeared in two duals last season, worked hard over the summer to improve his craft, and Havlik comes off a strong redshirt campaign. The coaching staff has high hopes for contributions from this weight in competition.

JENSEN

184 - A team-first wrestler, junior Leland Pfeifer has seen time at three weights in his time at UW. This year, he'll return to a more natural weight and brings a gritty competitive nature to the spot. He'll be pushed by one of the more notable recruits in recent history, redshirt freshman Benjamin Stroh, who has the reputation as a hard-working, talented and exciting wrestler.

PFEIFER

197 - Moving up a weight class from a year ago, junior Shane Woods will rely on his quickness and athleticism to find success at 197. He earned his first trip to NCAAs last season, and returns to the room with confidence. A late addition to the squad, redshirt freshman Brandon Tribble transferred from Western State and will try to break into the lineup with his athletic ability.

WOODS

285 - After an injury cut his season short, sophomore Tanner Harms returns to the lineup this season with more size, strength and determination. He was having a fine season when he was forced out early in the year, but the added bulk to his already impressive frame should allow him to stay healthy and productive. Pfeifer will add depth to the top three weights and could step in, if necessary.

MARK BRANCH

Head Coach (Oklahoma State '97)
Sixth Year at Wyoming (57-22, 26-2 WWC)

After five years at the helm, it's safe to say that Mark Branch has made his mark in the Wyoming Wrestling history books as one of the most successful coaches in program history. The team found more success under Branch in 2012-13, finishing 23rd at the NCAA Championships thanks to seven NCAA qualifiers and two All-Americans.

Milestones for the program under Branch include first-time wins over Cal Poly and Oklahoma in 2012, and being named a top-30 academic program by the National Wrestling Coaches Association in 2011 and 2013.

He has made UW a constant presence on the national scene, with top finishes in some of the nation's best tournaments like the Cliff Keen Las Vegas Invitational and Reno Tournament of Champions. In 2013, he and the Pokes finished 23rd with 20.5 points at the NCAA Championships, just the 17th time in program history UW has finished in the top 25. He guided two Cowboys to All-America finishes, including two-time AA Alfonso Hernandez (seventh at 197 pounds) and Tyler Cox, who was eighth at 125. Under Branch, UW has had at least one All-America finisher in each season, and over the past three years, Wyoming has had two each year. He has produced eight UW All-America honors, and four-straight conference tournament titles.

Branch has compiled a 26-2 mark against Western Wrestling Conference teams with three regular-season dual titles. Nine Cowboys received All-WWC honors in 2012-13, for a total of 39 since Branch began coaching. He has been named WWC Coach of the Year three times. UW has claimed 20 total individual titles at the event under Branch and has finished first or second in each of those years.

"Mark has done a phenomenal job since 2008 in terms of developing a nationally competitive program and helping our student-athletes achieve their goals," Wyoming Athletic Director Tom Burman said. "He and his family have proven to be a great fit for Wyoming and he understands the state and the values of its residents. The Cowboys have reached unprecedented heights on the mat and in the classroom and I expect that to continue into the foreseeable future."

With Branch's help, senior Joe LeBlanc capped off a stellar career in 2012, earning four All-America nods, the first wrestler in UW history to do so. That same season, UW finished 19th in the team standings in 2012, the first top-20 finish for the Pokes since 1996. The dual season was a successful one, as the Cowboys were 10-3 and a 6-0 in WWC action. Wyoming won its third-straight West Regional tournament team title as four Wyoming wrestlers won titles.

In 2010-11, Branch had a stellar campaign. After spending the season ranked in the top 20 in the nation, Wyoming won its second consecutive West Regional title with five individual titles. Branch was named Western Wrestling Conference Coach of the Year at the event for a second time in his career. Branch also helped six Cowboys earn berths to the NCAA Championships. Shane Onufer (165) and LeBlanc (184) earned All-America honors by placing fifth and sixth, respectively, to lead Wyoming to a 28th-place team finish. The Cowboys compiled an 11-7 overall dual mark and 5-1 in the WWC. UW's lone dual loss in WWC action came against Northern Iowa.

In 2009-10, Branch directed the Cowboy wrestlers to the West Regional team title over 24-time defending champion Northern Iowa. The come-from-behind championship was Wyoming's first-ever West Regional team title and UW's first tournament conference championship team since 1992. Four UW wrestlers went to the NCAA Championships, as LeBlanc went on to finish fourth at the event to earn his second All-America accolade and was named the WWC Wrestler of the Year. The Cowboys finished 33rd and Branch was named the 2010 West Region Coach of the Year by D1CollegeWrestling.net.

Wyoming also had a successful dual season in 2009-10, winning the WWC regular-season dual title for the second-straight year with an overall season record to 12-3 and a WWC record of 6-0. The Pokes ended the regular season 25th in the nation in the National Wrestling Coaches' Association/USA Today Coaches Poll. UW had seven wrestlers earn All-WWC honors.

On July 14, 2008, Branch was selected as the 14th head coach in the history of the University of Wyoming Wrestling program. Branch's first season guiding the Cowboys (2008-09) signaled an immediate turnaround for the program. UW earned a share of the WWC regular-season dual title with a 5-0 record. At the West Regional tournament, Wyoming finished second with four champions and sent four Cowboys to the NCAA Championships, where LeBlanc finished fifth to become the first freshman in UW wrestling history to earn All-America honors.

Following his first season at UW, Branch was named WWC Coach of the Year, the West Region Coach of the Year by D1CW and the Top Rookie Coach in the nation by Amateur Wrestling News. Branch also oversaw a squad which earned nine All-WWC honors in 2008-09, the most of any WWC member institution. He was nominated by his peers to be a part of the 2009 National Wrestling Coaches Association Leadership Academy Class.

Branch came to Wyoming from Oklahoma State University where he was the associate head wrestling coach for six years, as well as a four-time NCAA finalist as a student-athlete. He was a part of five NCAA team championships as a coach and student-athlete at OSU. As a college wrestler, Branch was a member of OSU's 1994 NCAA Championship team, and served on the coaching staff for OSU's 2002, 2003, 2004 and 2005 NCAA titles.

While competing for OSU, Branch was a four-time NCAA All-

Head Coach

American (1994-97), four-time NCAA national finalist (1994-97), two-time NCAA national champion at 167 pounds (1994 and `97) and a two-time national freestyle All-American (1998 and `99). In 1997, he was named the Big XII Athlete of the Year, OSU Student-Athlete of the Year and the top graduating senior for OSU wrestling. He was a four-time NWCA Academic All-American, received an NCAA Postgraduate Scholarship and a Big XII Post-Graduate Scholarship.

As a member of the OSU coaching staff, Branch was named the NWCA Assistant Coach of the Year in 2004. He helped coach OSU to seven Big XII Championships, four NCAA Championships and three Dual Team Championships. He was named the Associate Head Coach at OSU in 2002 and served as an assistant coach for five years prior. He coached 57 All-Americans and 16 NCAA champions.

He was instrumental in the recruiting of student-athletes to Stillwater, as well as organizing fundraising projects, promotional strategies and assisting in public relations functions with student-athletes.

"For me, this is the realization of my goal to become an NCAA head coach," Branch said. "I'm from a competitive background, and I was looking for a place where I could build a nationally competitive program. I believe there is a great deal of support from the Athletic Department and the University as a whole at Wyoming. Wyoming is the right program for me and the right fit for my family and I. I appreciate the confidence that Tom Burman and (UW Senior Associate Athletics Director) Matt Whisenant have shown in me to get the job done."

Branch has been a freestyle wrestling coach for the Gator Club in New Orleans, La., since 1997 where he provides personal instruction and training in freestyle wrestling. His teams have participated at various World Team training camps. He has coached at the U.S. Nationals and World/Olympic Team Trials.

Branch earned his bachelor of science degree in secondary education from Oklahoma State in 1997 and earned his master of science degree in athletic administration from OSU in 2000.

A native of Newkirk, Okla., he and his wife Susan have a daughter, Maggie Belle, and a son, Mason Layne.

MARK BRANCH'S COACHING PHILOSOPHY

"My team is expected to believe in me and what I am telling them. We train for a specific reason and that is to improve throughout the year, learn from both wins and losses and be at our best in March. I teach my guys to be technically sound. I want the team to be in good physical condition heading into the season. As our season progresses, we will focus on skill and technique while making constant strides in improving our physical strength and conditioning. It's important to keep mental focus all year. We want to be in peak condition at the right time, and that is at the end of the season.

"I expect my student-athletes to emphasize getting their degree and becoming a better wrestler and person. I demand a lot out of those areas. There are academic standards that we hold the team to internally and we demand that they excel in the classroom.

"As a program we will reach out, connect with former wrestlers and alumni and make sure they are around and a part of this program. We want their support any way we can get it. It will strengthen us to have the current wrestlers realize that the tradition here at Wyoming goes way back and those guys are still around. I've asked them to help with training opportunities outside of what I can provide via the Cowboy Wrestling Club."

ETHAN KYLE

Assistant Coach (Oklahoma State '07)
Fifth Year at Wyoming

Ethan Kyle completed his third year as a full-time assistant coach with the wrestling program at the University of Wyoming in 2012-13. He previously served as the head coach for the Cowboy Wrestling Club and as a volunteer assistant coach for UW.

Kyle had a great season in 2012-13 with the success of sophomore Tyler Cox, who was an All-America finisher at 125 pounds. WWC ENTERS EIGHTH SEASON OF COMPETITION IN 2013-14

Coming off of one of its best seasons of competition, the Western Wrestling Conference -- an NCAA Division I wrestling-only alliance -- will begin its eighth year of competition in 2013-14.

Current members of the Western Wrestling Conference include: the United States Air Force Academy, North Dakota State University, the University of Northern Colorado, South Dakota State University, Utah Valley University and the University of Wyoming.

The WWC had another solid year in 2012-13, with three league wrestlers earning All-America honors and Wyoming leading the conference by placing 23rd at the NCAA Championships. The conference has now had 14 All-Americans in its first seven years of existence. In 2013, North Dakota State's Trent Sprenkle led the way by finishing fifth at 125 pounds at the NCAA Championships while the Cowboys' Alfonso Hernandez (197) and Tyler Cox (125) placed seventh and eighth, respectively. Hernandez earned his second career All-America award (also placed sixth in 2012) while Cox and Sprenkle each recorded their first. Sprenkle also became NDSU's first-ever All-American at the Division I level after he upset two-time national champion and three-time national finalist Matt McDonough of Iowa to stay alive in the consolation bracket.

UW's Joe LeBlanc became the WWC's first four-time All-American in 2012 after the 184-pounder placed fifth in 2009, fourth in 2010, sixth in 2011 and seventh in 2012. Former WWC member Northern Iowa's Moza Fay was a two-time placer during his tenure by finishing sixth at 165 pounds in 2009 and fifth at that same weight in 2008. Northern Colorado's Justin Gaethje (157) finished seventh in 2010 and UNI's Jarion Beets (174) placed eighth that same year. In 2011, Utah Valley's Ben Kjar became the Wolverines' first-ever wrestling All-American by placing fourth (125) and Wyoming's Shane Onufer finished fifth (165).

In all, 19 wrestlers from the WWC qualified for the 2013 NCAA Division I Wrestling National Championships, 16 via automatic slots and three as at-large selections. The WWC had six competitors who were seeded in the top-12 of their brackets. At 125 pounds three were seeded as NDSU's Sprenkle was seeded ninth, Air Force's Josh Martinez was 10th and UW's Cox was 12th. AFA's Cole VonOhlen (149 pounds) and UW's Hernandez (197) both earned the league's highest seed, at fourth, while NDSU's Steven Monk (165) was seeded fifth.

The 2013 NCAA West Regional served as the conference tournament for the seventh straight season. The qualifying tournament was held at Wyoming's Arena-Auditorium in Laramie, Wyo. In the team race, Wyoming came from behind in the final matches to win its fourth straight tournament title as it finished with 79 points, just three more than the WWC regular season champs North Dakota State (76). With all 10 of their wrestlers in the championship finals, the Cowboys won nine of their 10 bouts to take home the tournament title.

NDSU won its first WWC regular season dual title after going a perfect 5-0 last season. In years past, Wyoming won the regular season crown in both 2012 and 2010 while UNI won it in 2011. The Cowboys and Panthers shared the league title in 2009 and UNI was also tops in the conference in both of its first two seasons, 2007 and 2008.

North Dakota State took home two of the league's three major postseason awards in 2013, as Sprenkle was named the Wrestler of the Year and head coach Roger Kish was tabbed Coach of the Year. Air Force's Martinez won the other major award as he earned Freshman of the Year accolades.

Kish picked up his first coaching award after the second-year head man led his Bison to their first-ever league title last season with an unblemished conference record. Kish also had his team ranked nationally in the NWCA/USA Today Division I Team Coaches Poll during the season after the Bison knocked off three ranked schools (No. 14 Wyoming, No. 24 Boise State, No. 25 Old Dominion). He also coached NDSU's first-ever Division I All-American last year in the WWC Wrestler of the Year Sprenkle.

In the near future, the goal of the league is to replace the West Regional with the conference tournament, which would then serve as the NCAA qualifier.

The 2014 NCAA West Regional/WWC Championships will be held on Saturday, March 8 at the PE Building on the campus of Utah Valley University in Orem, Utah.

The WWC recognizes student-athletes on both a weekly and full-season basis. Individual awards include Wrestler of the Week; All-Conference teams; an Academic All-Conference team; and Wrestler, Newcomer and Coach of the Year awards. The league also crowns a team champion following the conclusion of the regular season conference competition and the postseason tournament.

The governance of the Western Wrestling Conference remains primarily with the member institutions. Scheduling of contests, assignment of officials and certain media relations functions remain with member institutions.

A major benefit of having a league that is geographically spread out over five states and two time zones is the added exposure -- both in terms of media and recruiting -- in new destinations. The conference affiliation also generates much interest within the six schools' substantial alumni base, which numbers nearly 800,000 combined.

North Dakota State, Northern Colorado and South Dakota State have all made the move from Division II to Division I since joining the WWC. UVU moved directly from Junior College (NJCAA) Athletics to NCAA Division I and completed its reclassification prior to the 2009-10 season.

The Cowboys At Home On The Range

Training and competing at 7,220 feet has its advantages. The Cowboys use their offseason to improve their conditioning, training in various outdoor locations. During the season, the Pokes train in the team wrestling room with high intensity. That has led to a lot of success on the home mats.

Since 1931-32, the Cowboys are 246-150-6 at home, a winning percentage of nearly 62 percent.

At neutral sites, Wyoming is 80-53-1 (.601), and 198-180-8 (.523) at away locations.

The Wyoming crowd cheers on a UW pin in a 2013 dual.

UW Hall of Fame

University of Wyoming Athletics Hall of Fame Wrestling Inductees

The University of Wyoming Athletics Hall of Fame was established in 1993, in order to honor individuals and teams who have brought honor and distinction to the Intercollegiate Athletics Department of UW over its long and storied history. A total of 123 individuals and 12 teams have been inducted into the Hall of Fame since its inception in 1993. That total includes six Cowboy wrestlers, two wrestling coaches/administrators and one Wyoming Wrestling team.

The inductees must fit into one of five categories: student-athlete, coach, team, athletics staff members or special achievement. Special achievement includes individuals who have contributed to the ideal of sports at the University. Each nominee must receive at least 75 percent of the committee's vote to be eligible for induction.

Dick Ballinger (1958-60) - Class of 1993
Dick Ballinger is the only wrestler in University of Wyoming history to win an NCAA championship. A native of Cody, Wyo., Ballinger won the 1960 NCAA Wrestling championship at 167 pounds. During his outstanding career he was named an All-American three times. He placed second in the 1958 NCAA Championships and fourth in the 1959 NCAA Championships. Ballinger guided Wyoming to a sixth-place national team finish in 1959 and a Wyoming all-time best third-place team finish in the 1960 NCAA Championships.

Dr. Everett D. Lantz (1937-65) - Class of 1994
Everett Lantz served Wyoming wrestling for 25 years as head coach, the longest tenure of any coach in the UW history. Over that period, Lantz compiled a 141-75-9 dual record, 11 Skyline Conference championships and two WAC titles. His teams won eight titles in a row from 1955 to 1962. He notched seven top-15 NCAA finishes, including a third-place national showing in 1960, the best in team history. Lantz was named the NCAA Wrestling Coach of the Year in 1960. He coached six NCAA place-winners, 10 three-time conference champions and 30 other conference winners.

1959-60 team - Class of 2003
The 1959-60 Wyoming Cowboys became the first and only wrestling team in school history to finish in the top five at the NCAA Wrestling Championships. The Pokes won the Skyline Conference and finished the season with an 11-1 dual record. The team boasted five conference champions and seven Cowboys competed at the 1960 NCAA Wrestling Championships where UW came only 13 points away from the title, finishing third. Dick Ballinger won the national championship at 167 pounds, Jerry Frude finished second at 147 pounds and Dave Hansen placed third at 123 pounds, all earning All-American honors. Wyoming head coach Everett Lantz earned 1960 NCAA Coach of the Year honors from the National American Wrestlers Association.

Reese Andy (1993-96) - Class of 2004
Reese Andy was a three-time NCAA All-American. Wrestling at 177 pounds, he placed second nationally in 1994, sixth in 1995 and second in 1996. He was a three-time Western Athletic Conference champion and was named Outstanding Wrestler in the conference three straight years (1994-96). Andy's overall record at Wyoming was 110-29, and he compiled a record of 38-4 in his senior season.

Joe Dowler (1973-87) - Class of 2005
In his 14 seasons as head wrestling coach at Wyoming, Joe Dowler led the Pokes to a 104-64-1 dual record while capturing four straight Mountain Intercollegiate Wrestling Association (MIWA) Championships, and three Western Athletic Conference titles. Dowler coached 35 conference champions, two NCAA placewinners, and two All-Americans at Wyoming. Named WAC Coach of the Year three times (1983, 1985 and 1986), he was a finalist for 1986 NCAA Wrestling Coach of the Year. Dowler was an Associate Athletics Director at UW from 1987-2001. Following his retirement, he initiated and coordinated the "W" Club for all UW athletic letterwinners.

Dave Myers (1989-92) - Class of 2008
One of Wyoming's only four-time conference champions, Myers won Western Athletic Conference titles at three different weights and represented Wyoming at the NCAA Championships four times. He was named Outstanding Wrestler of the WAC Tournament in both 1991 and 1992. He led the Wyoming wrestling team to conference championships in 1990 and 1992. In his senior year (1992) he earned All-America honors by finishing eighth at the NCAA Championships. He won 121 matches as a Cowboy, tied for sixth on Wyoming's all-time victory list.

Jerry Frude (1959-60, 1962) - Class of 2010
Jerry Frude was a two-time All-America, earning the honors in 1959 and 1960. In 1959 as a sophomore, he won the Mountain States/Skyline Conference title at 147 pounds and then went on to a second-place finish in the NCAA Championships, helping the Cowboys to a sixth-place team finish. He again finished second in the nation in the 147-pound weight class in 1960, while Wyoming finished third as a team. After sitting out a year in 1961, Frude rejoined the team in 1962 and was named co-captain. He won his second Skyline Conference championship at 147 pounds and won his first two matches at the NCAA Championships before falling to eventual national runner-up Kirk Pendleton of Lehigh. A native of Laramie, Frude was never pinned by an opponent during his college career. Wyoming's wrestling teams finished sixth (1959), third (1960), and 11th (1962) in the nation during Frude's time at UW and won the Mountain States/Skyline Conference team championship each year (1959, 1960 and 1962).

Dr. Robert Mason (1949-51) - Class of 2011
A high school football and basketball star, Bob Mason had never seen a wrestling match before he came to the University of Wyoming. After watching the sport and talking to wrestling coach Everett Lantz, he decided to join Wyoming's wrestling team. A native of Burns, Wyo., he won the conference championship in his first year of competition. Wyoming's first wrestling All-America, Mason placed fourth in the nation at 155 pounds in 1950. He repeated that feat in 1951 to gain his second All-America honor. In the Mountain States Conference, Mason won championships at 165 pounds in both 1949 and 1950 and, as team captain both years and led his team to conference titles in 1950 and 1951. At NCAAs, the Cowboy wrestling team finished 12th in 1950 and 13th in 1951. Mason was a three-time letterwinner for the `Pokes and earned his bachelor's and master's degrees from the University of Wyoming. He went on to a distinguished career as a high school and college wrestling coach and official and earned a doctorate in education from the University of Washington. He was inducted into the National Junior College Athletic Association Hall of Fame in 1980 and inducted posthumously into the National Wrestling Hall of Fame in 2008. Mason died on March 18, 2000, at the age of 70.

Ray Sanchez (1967-68) - Class of 2012
One of the greatest Wyoming high school wrestlers in state history, Ray Sanchez came to the University of Wyoming after compiling an amazing record of 98-0 and winning four state championships at Cheyenne Central High School. He was a two-time senior men's National AAU champion in 1965 and 1966 and a two-time Great Plains National Champion representing Wyoming in 1966 and 1967. Sanchez was undefeated competing for the Cowboys' Freshman Team in 1966. As a Cowboy sophomore on the varsity in 1967, despite battling an elbow injury, Sanchez finished fourth in the nation at 115 pounds and earned All-America honors. Unfortunately, he suffered a back injury the following year and was forced to give up wrestling. He went on to a successful career as a teacher, coach and high school administrator.

Cowboy Tough - Sports Performance

"The sports performance programs utilized by the wrestling team at the University of Wyoming are essential for player development through strength, power, flexibility, aerobic fitness, mental toughness and leadership abilities. The goals developed for each student-athlete are designed to deliver comprehensive, scientific-based training programs specific to each student-athletes' needs in order to maximize athletic performance. The year-round training program consists of explosive strength training through multi-joint and ground-based movements as a way to prepare each athlete for competition, all while reducing the risk of injury and preparing for peak performance at the conference and NCAA Championship tournaments."

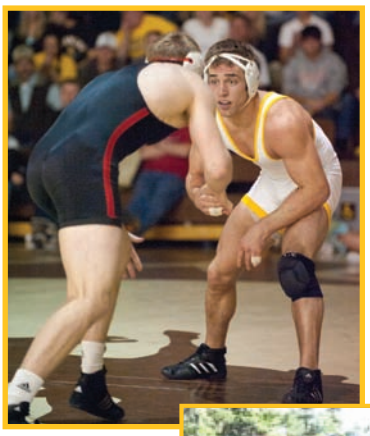

Jason Dronen
Cowboy Sports Performance Coach

Office of Academic Support

The Office of Academic Support provides assistance to UW student-athletes in a variety of areas, including academic development, career development, and personal growth and development.

Cowboy wrestlers meet with Academic Coordinator Steven Cox weekly, bi-weekly, or monthly to discuss their current classes and to cover academic success and career preparation topics. Cox pre-advises the wrestlers for their semester class schedules, ensuring that their classes apply directly to their degree program, in order to meet NCAA eligibility benchmarks and to guarantee that the student-athletes graduate from UW within five years. Student-athletes must be enrolled in a minimum of 12 credit hours each semester, and they must take into consideration their practice and travel schedules when registering for classes. The Office of Academic Support helps student-athletes in this process.

A staff of nearly 80 tutors is also available to assist student-athletes. The tutors work with student-athletes to clarify problems the students may have with class material and, in some cases, to help the students develop study skills, note-taking strategies, and time management techniques. Freshmen student-athletes also meet weekly with an assigned mentor, who assists them with organization and with transitioning to the academic demands of college. Tutors and mentors are upperclassmen or graduate students with at least a 3.0 GPA, or individuals from the community who have already earned at least a Bachelor's Degree.

The NCAA Student-Athlete Affairs and UW S.A.D.D.L.E. Cup program offers programming centered on career development and personal growth and development. Presentation and workshops include topics such as Drug/Alcohol Abuse, Sexual Responsibility, Money Management, Job Searching, and Cultural Diversity.

The Office of Academic Support provides UW student-athletes with resources to be successful in the classroom, to prepare for a career after athletics, and to make informed decisions about their personal behavior.

UW Traditions

RAGTIME COWBOY JOE

The familiar fight song of the University of Wyoming athletics teams is Ragtime Cowboy Joe. This song is performed by the band as UW teams enter the playing surface, following a score or big play, and to fire up the fans. The Cowboy and Cowgirl student-athletes traditionally sing this following each Wyoming victory.

RAGTIME COWBOY JOE

"He always sings raggy music to the cattle as he swings back and forward in the saddle, on a horse - a pretty good horse! He's got a syncopated gaiter, and you ought to hear the meter to the roar of his repeater; how they run - yes run! - when they hear that he's 'a-comin', cause the western folks all know, he's a high-falootin', rootin, tootin', son of a gun from ol' Wyoming, Ragtime Cowboy, Talk about your Cowboy, Ragtime Cowboy Joe."

THE WILD BUNCH

The Wild Bunch is the official athletics fan club for University of Wyoming students. The Wild Bunch is one BIG fan club for all 17 NCAA Division I sports at the University of Wyoming. The Wild Bunch leads Wyoming fans in spirit, tradition and passion for Wyoming Athletics. Members of the Wild Bunch receive multiple benefits, and as a student at UW, The Wild Bunch is the best way to become involved in Wyoming Athletics.

COWBOY NICKNAME

The nickname "Cowboys" was applied to Wyoming athletic teams as early as 1891 - two years before the first official football game. The story is that the Wyoming pick-up football team appealed to a 220-pound cowpuncher, Fred Bush, for help in a game against the Cheyenne Soldiers. Bush signed up for a course or two and came out for the team. When he trotted onto the field decked out in a checkered shirt and Cowboy hat, someone yelled, "Hey, look at the Cowboy!" Since many of the members of the team were also ex-cowboys, the name stuck. When women's sports were added at UW, the nickname of Cowgirls was applied to those squads.

COWBOY JOE PONY

Cowboy Joe IV, a fourth generation Wyoming mascot, trots around War Memorial Stadium after each Cowboy touchdown, a tradition which started in 1950 when the Farthing Family of Cheyenne made a generous donation of a young pony to become Wyoming's mascot. Cowboy Joe also represents UW in parades around the region, appears in Tailgate Park on football game days and leads the band and team in the pre-game Cowboy Walk. This beautiful little pony is very popular with Cowboy & Cowgirl fans of all ages.

UW Traditions

SPIRIT SQUADS

The primary purpose of Wyoming's Spirit Squads is to support the Cowboys and Cowgirls, and to serve as public relations ambassadors for the University of Wyoming. The UW cheer and pom squads work hard to get the crowd involved, lead cheers, entertain, and to boost the level of fan excitement and support to new extremes. In addition to their game-day involvement at UW Athletics' contests, Wyoming Spirit Squad members also make numerous appearances at university activities, functions, programs, charitable and public events. Cowboy and Cowgirl sports are flying high and the Wyoming Spirit Squads are leading the way.

PISTOL PETE

Pistol Pete is a UW student mascot who works alongside the Wyoming Spirit Squads, encouraging the crowd and getting fans involved in the game.

WESTERN THUNDER MARCHING BAND

The University of Wyoming Marching Band - "Western Thunder" - features musicians from nearly every major on campus, who perform for thousands of football fans each year at home and road Cowboy football games. The Wyoming Pep Band plays at numerous other UW sporting events.

UW'S LOGO - STEAMBOAT

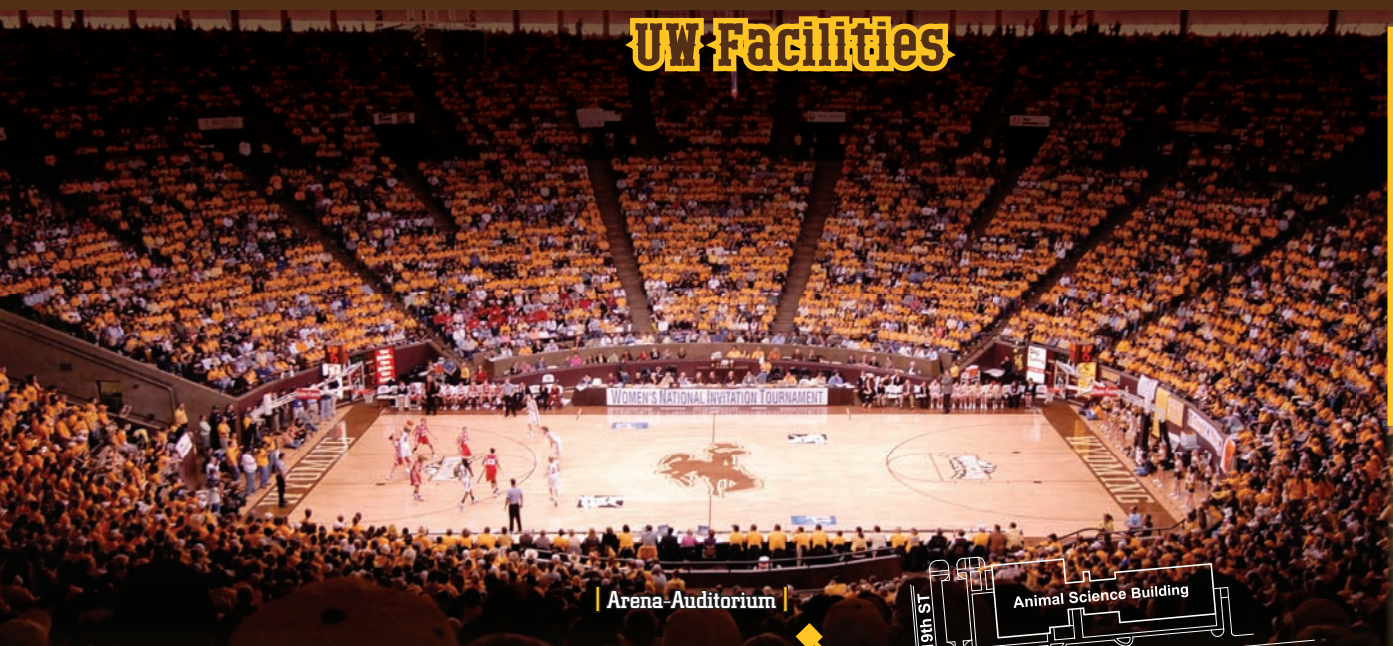

One of the nation's best, and most distinctive logos, the image on Wyoming's uniforms depicts a cowboy riding a bucking horse. This symbol has been a part of the University of Wyoming Athletics Department since the early 1920's, when UW Equipment Manger Deane Hunton obtained a photograph of a cowboy, Guy Holt, riding the world famous bucking horse Steamboat. Hunton had the photo made into a logo, which was then utilized by UW athletic teams. While there are differing opinions on exactly which horse and rider is depicted on all of UW's athletic uniforms today, it is the symbol that is important. The bucking horse and rider represents the toughness, and the never-say-die spirit that is Wyoming. A statue honoring the symbol called 'Fanning a Twister', was erected at the north entrance of UW's athletics facilities in 1991.

BROWN AND GOLD COLORS

The story behind the colors of the University of Wyoming dates back to 1895. In the spring of that year, the first ever UW Alumni Banquet was held. Decorations for the banquet included Brown-Eyed Susans, a flower native of Southeastern Wyoming. The Alumni were so impressed with the colors (brown and yellow) and the beauty of the flowers that they decided to select these colors as the official school colors at UW. Currently, the colors are described as brown and gold.

Spend some time here and you'll agree that much of UW's character is shaped by this great "home on the range." Laramie, the location of the main campus, is a safe, friendly community of 30,000 people. Nestled between the Laramie and Snowy Range mountains in southeastern Wyoming, it's a beautiful, unspoiled place with a special life-style.

The campus extends over 785 tree-shaded acres. There's an attractive mix of modern and traditional structures; many were built with native Wyoming sandstone. It's a place where the sun shines 320 days each year. It's hard to be gloomy here. When you view it from 7,200 feet, you see things more clearly. But it's not just a pretty place; it's also a place that works.

Up-to-date facilities support the learning and research mission that makes UW special. There are classrooms with state-of-the art computer technology, laboratories with the latest equipment, excellent libraries, computer systems with universal Internet access, and a long list of premier research facilities both on campus and in the surrounding area.

Wyoming...Like No Place on Earth

They say its beauty is like no other, and you fall in love with its people.

Wyoming, it is like no place on earth. Within its boundaries is America's first and largest national park, Yellowstone. The neverending beauty there includes "Old Faithful" geyser and Yellowstone Lake, the world's largest high-mountain lake. There is Yellowstone Falls, so awe-inspiring, it'll take your breath away. There are over 260 different species of animals and birds located there.

Wyoming's wonders seem to be unending. There is Grand Teton National Park, whose centerpiece is the spectacular Teton Mountain Range. There is Devil's Tower, America's first national monument. There is the world's largest mineral hot springs located in Thermopolis. There is the beauty of Ten Sleep Canyon and a hundred other places.

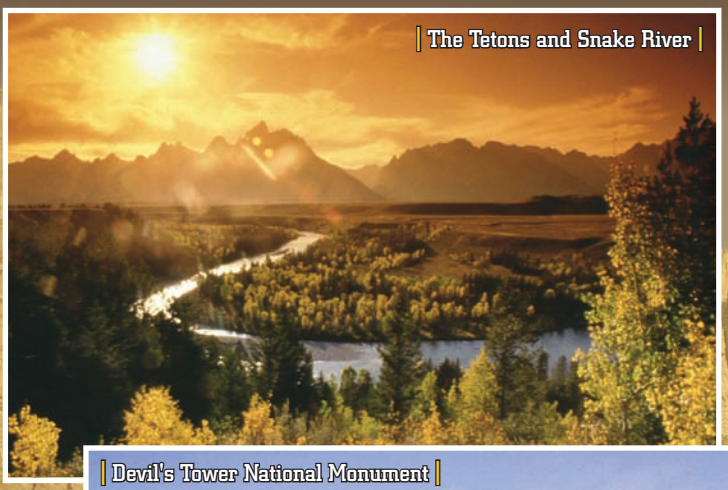

For breathtaking beauty, Wyoming is unmatched. Its reputation brings millions of visitors to its borders each year. Plus, some of the best skiing in America can be found in Wyoming. Tourists and sportsmen can't wait to get here to enjoy the clean mountain air and limitless outdoor attractions.

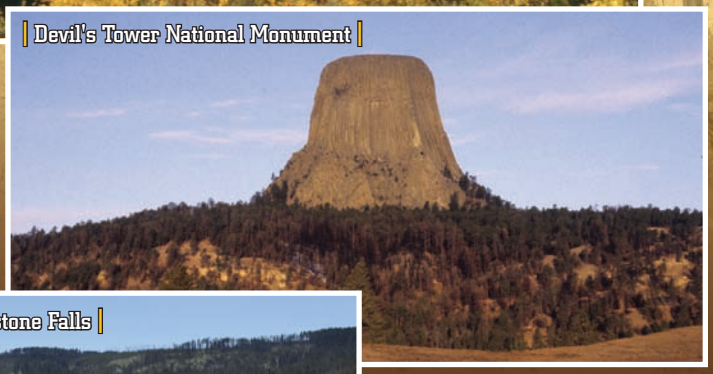

The history of the great American West can be heard whistling through the trees of Wyoming. Wyoming had an historic place in the taming of the West in the late 1800's. Butch Cassidy and the Sundance Kid were two of Wyoming's most famous citizens during the era of lawlessness. There remain plenty of reminders of an age that will live forever in American lore.

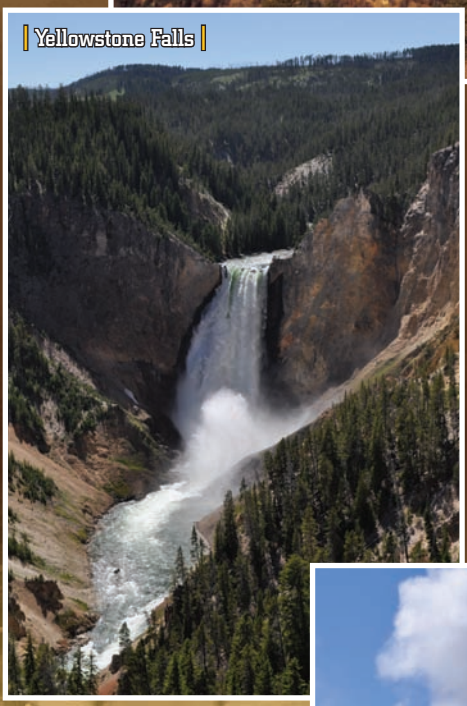

People are Wyoming's strongest resource. These folks are down to earth, friendly and helpful. And, oh how proud they are of their Cowboys and Cowgirls. Wyoming has some of the best fans in America. As their only four-year university, Wyoming folks are tremendously supportive of their teams.

Yet, as down to earth as they are, many Wyomingites are on the cutting edge of politics, entertainment and business. Among some of the most famous are: former Vice President of the United States Dick Cheney; Dr. Jerry Buss, owner of the Los Angeles Lakers; Dean Conger, former chief photographer of the National Geographic Society; Curt Gowdy, the most decorated national sportscaster in history; Alan Simpson, former United States Senator; Gerry Spence, attorney and television personality; and Gen. Pete Schoomaker, former U.S. Army Chief of Staff.

For great people, great scenery and a great education, there is no place quite like Wyoming.

Laramie...the Clear Choice

One of the best things about Laramie is its location between two beautiful mountain ranges. It's a place of blue skies and clean air. Much of the area surrounding Laramie is public National Forest land. That means great access! You can head for the nearby mountains and find yourself on a hiking, biking or skiing trail within 15 minutes. There's also nearby rock climbing at the impressive Vedauwoo formations. You can be downhill skiing in the Snowy Range within 45 minutes. Laramie is convenient to the world-class skiing offered in Steamboat Springs and other Colorado resorts.

For a different kind of fun, you can be in Denver within two and a half hours. There is an amazing array of culture throughout the area, plus the tremendous sports heritage of the Rockies, Broncos, Nuggets and Avalanche.

With its colorful Western heritage, cultural activities and outstanding outdoor recreation, the Laramie area offers a unique flavor that delights visitors from all over the world.
