Cowboy Traditions

STEAMBOAT

The logo on the Wyoming uniforms depicts a Cowboy riding a bucking horse. This symbol has been a part of the University of Wyoming Athletics Department since the early 1920's, when UW Equipment Manager Deane Hunton obtained a photograph of a cowboy, Guy Holt, riding the world famous bucking horse Steamboat. Steamboat was born on a ranch between Laramie and Bosler in 1901, and is regarded as one of the greatest bucking horses ever. Hunton traced the photo, and had it made into a logo, that was utilized by UW athletic teams. In later years the symbol more closely resembled the logo on the state's automobile license plates which was a depiction of another horse and rider. That bucking horse also was world famous and was called "Deadman".

While there are differing opinions on exactly which horse and rider is depicted on all of UW's athletic uniforms today, it is the symbol that is important. The bucking horse and rider represents the toughness, and the never-say-die spirit that is Wyoming.

The horse and rider that Hunton traced was of Steamboat with Holt hanging on. The photo was taken at the Albany County Fairgrounds in 1903. The symbol that is currently utilized more closely resembles the bucking horse and rider on the State of Wyoming's automobile license plates. That design was developed by the then Secretary of State, Lester C. Hunt (who later became the Governor of Wyoming, and a U.S. Senator) in 1935. It was his idea to use the bucking horse and rider. The horse and rider he utilized for the license plates differs from the Steamboat image. For the plates, Hunt used a photo of a rider named "Stub" Farlow, and a horse called "Deadman". Deadman belonged to the Jackson Hole Frontier Association. The bucking horse and rider first appeared on the Wyoming license plate in 1936.

A statue honoring the symbol called "Fanning a Twister", was erected at the entrance to War Memorial Stadium in 1991.

Whether it is Steamboat or Deadman on those Cowboy and Cowgirl uniforms, one thing is certain ... the bucking-horse-and-rider logo is one of the nation's best, and most distinctive.

COWBOY JOE

Cowboy Joe IV, a fourth generation Wyoming mascot, trots around War Memorial Stadium after each Cowboy touchdown, a tradition which started in 1950 when the Farthing Family of Cheyenne made a generous donation of a young pony to become Wyoming's mascot. This beautiful little pony is very popular with Cowboy fans of all ages.

SIXTH MAN CLUB

Wyoming's students cheer on the Cowboys as members of the Sixth Man club. UW's student section is one of the loudest and most enthusiastic in the nation, inspiring the Cowboys to greater heights.

PEP BAND

The popular Cowboy Pep Band performs at every Wyoming basketball game. The band's rendition of Ragtime Cowboy Joe never fails to get fans on their feet.

CHEERLEADERS

Cheerleading is the spirit of Wyoming Athletics where traditions run deep and the enthusiasm never dies. Cowboy sports are flying high and the cheerleaders are leading the way. Under the direction of Traci Ries, the UW Cheerleaders will be working to get the crowd involved and to boost the level of excitement to new extremes. Make this the year to get involved, share the excitement, and cheer for the Cowboys!

PISTOL PETE

The entertaining antics of Pistol Pete are a longtime tradition at Cowboy home games.

WILDFIRE

Wildfire, Wyoming's dance team, performs in conjunction with the band and cheerleaders at Cowboy football and basketball games. Wildfire is under the direction of Nicole Haun.

COWBOYS

The nickname "Cowboys" was applied to Wyoming athletic teams as early as 1891 - two years before the first official football game. The story is that the Wyoming pick-up football team appealed to a 220 pound cowpuncher, Fred Bush, for help in a game against the Cheyenne Soldiers. Bush signed up for a course or two and came out for the team. When he trotted onto the field decked out in a checkered shirt and Cowboy hat, someone yelled, "Hey, look at the cowboy!" Since many of the members of the team were also ex-cowboys, the name stuck.

RAGTIME COWBOY JOE

The familiar fight song of the Wyoming Cowboys is Ragtime Cowboy Joe, which is performed by the band as the teams enter the court and to fire up the fans. The Cowboy players traditionally sing this song in the locker room following each Wyoming victory.

RAGTIME COWBOY JOE

"He always sings Raggy music to the cattle as he swings back and forward in the saddle, on a horse - a pretty good horse! - he's got a syncopated gaiter, and you ought to hear the meter to the roar of his repeater; how they run - YES RUN! - when they hear him a-comin', 'cause the western folks all know, he's a high-falootin', rootin', tootin', son of a gun from ol' Wyoming, Ragtime Cowboy, Talk about your Cowboy, Ragtime Cowboy Joe!"
