Wyoming vs. Fresno State Preview

•Wyoming and Fresno State will be playing for the 12th time in history this Saturday. The Cowboys trail by one game in the overall series, 5-6. See more on Page 4 and 14.

•All but one of the previous 11 meetings was a conference matchup (Western Athletic Conference 1992-97) and Mountain West Conference (2012-Present). Wyoming won that lone non-conference meeting by a score of 35-28 in double overtime in the 2009 New Mexico Bowl. See more on Pages 4 and 14.

•Wyoming senior running back Nico Evans has 612 rushing yards this season to lead the MW and rank No. 14 nationally. See more on Page 2.

•The Cowboy roster has 28 players on it from the state of California -- more than any other state. See additional information on Page 2.

Nico Evans Sets New Personal Best With 192 Rushing Yards at Hawai'i, Ranks No. 1 in MW and No. 14 in NCAA in Total Rushing Yards:

Cowboy running back Nico Evans returned to action on Sept. 29 against Boise State after missing the previous 2 1/2 games due to injury. The senior picked up right where he began the season, rushing for over 100 yards vs. the Broncos.

He added a second consecutive 100-yard game on Oct. 6 at Hawai'i, marking his third 100-yard rushing game of the season.

At Hawai'i, Evans set a personal best with 192 rushing yards, eclipsing his previous high of 190 in the 2018 season opener at New Mexico State. He averaged 8.0 yards per carry vs. the Rainbow Warriors, and had a long run of 63 yards.

Evans rushed for 141 yards against Boise State, including a 75-yard touchdown run to begin the second half. He averaged 11.8 yards per carry on 12 carries.

The Los Angeles native recorded his first 100-yard rushing game in the Cowboys' season-opening win at New Mexico State. Evans rushed for 190 yards vs. NMSU, averaged 7.9 yards per carry and scored two rushing TDs of 24 and 56 yards.

He had rushed for 89 yards against Washington State in the second game of the season, before he was injured on the first possession of the third quarter.

2018 Wyoming Team Notes University of Wyoming Football

Cowboy Defense Has One of the Best Performances of the Season at Hawai'i:

Wyoming's defense put together one of its best performances of the season against the Hawai'i Rainbow Warriors. The Cowboys:

- Held Hawai'i to 17 points -- 25 points under its season average of 42 points per game and its lowest point total of the season.
- Limited the Rainbow Warriors to 304 yards of total offense -- 191 yards under their average of 495 yards.
- Allowed Hawai'i only 148 passing yards -- 203 yards below its 351-yard average.
- Generated two takeaways, one interception by defensive end Carl Granderson and a fumble recovery by nickel back Tyler Hall, who also forced the fumble by ripping the ball out of a UH running back's arms.
- Scored their first defensive touchdown of the season on a 61-yard interception return for a "Pick Six" by Granderson.
- Tackled Hawai'i players for 7.0 tackles for loss for -22 yards and sacked the UH quarterback 5.0 times for 17 yards in losses.
- Broke up five Hawai'i pass attempts -- two by defensive tackle Youhanna Ghaifan.

Playmakers vs. Hawai'i: There were several Cowboys who made big plays in last Saturday's game. Here is a selection.

Nico Evans, Running Back

- The running back had five runs of 10 yards or more, including rushes for 16, 12, 10, 17 and 63.
- Evans rushed for a combined 38 yards on opening drive of the game to set up a field goal, giving the Cowboys a 3-0 lead.
- In the fourth quarter, he rushed for a combined 67 yards, including a 63-yard scamper, that set up Wyoming's second field goal to give the Cowboys a 13-10 lead.

Carl Granderson, Defensive End

- The defensive end returned an interception 61 yards for a "Pick Six" in the third quarter to give Wyoming a 10-3 lead. Granderson added two tackles, 1.0 sack and 1.0 tackle for loss.

Logan Wilson, Linebacker

- Led Wyoming with 11 tackles, nine solo tackles, 3.0 tackles for loss for six yards and 1.0 sack for three yards.

Tyler Hall, Nickel Back

- The junior nickel back forced a fumble and recovered that same fumble, ending a Hawai'i scoring threat at the Wyoming 25-yard line. He also had six tackles.

Youhanna Ghaifan, Defensive Tackle

- The defensive tackle had five tackles (all solos), 1.0 sack, 1.0 TFL, two pass breakups and one quarterback hurry.

James Price Among Nation's Leaders in Yards Per Catch: Senior wide receiver James Price is having one of his best seasons as a Cowboy. Price has already caught 12 passes for 236 yards and one touchdown. His 236 yards leads the team.

His one TD reception was a 72-yard catch and run against Boise State in Week 5.

Price is averaging 19.67 yards per reception to rank No. 28 in the nation in that category.

Dontae Crow Plays a Unique Dual Role for Pokes -- Punter and Punt

Returner: In Wyoming's game at Hawai'i on Sept. 6, 2018, sophomore wide receiver Dontae Crow from Sheridan, Wyo., started his first college game. But he didn't start at wide receiver, he started at punter for the injured Cowboy Tim Zaleski.

Crow punted five times for a 43.2-yard average, with a long punt of 46 yards. He was extremely consistent in punting the football for 40, 43, 46, 45 and 42 yards. The last time he had punted in a game was in high school. Crow was one of the greatest soccer players in Wyoming state history in high school.

But Crow also took the field at another position vs. Hawai'i. He was back as a punt returner along with wide receiver Austin Conway. Crow did field one punt on a fair catch in the fourth quarter.

California Cowboys Represent the Largest Group of Players From Any One State on the Wyoming Roster:

Wyoming has 28 players on its roster from the state of California. That is the most of any state represented on the Cowboy roster. The next two closest states are Colorado (24) and Wyoming (21).

•Of Wyoming's 28 players from California, five are from the immediate Fresno area: Jevon Bigelow, RB from Fresno; Nick Szpor, Holder/QB from Fresno; Sidney Washington Jr., CB from Fresno; Sean Chambers, QB from Kerman; and Isaac Leppke, WR from Dinuba.

•Fresno is also close for a lot of other Cowboys. UW has 14 players from Northern California. The distance to Sacramento from Fresno is approximately 170 miles.

•There are also 14 Cowboys from Southern California. Fresno is approximately 220 miles from Los Angeles.

Andrew Wingard Moves Into Third on Wyoming Career Tackle List:

Andrew Wingard has moved into very rare company this season. With his 48 tackles in 2018 as a senior, 114 tackles as a junior in 2017 (24th best single-season in school history), 131 tackles as a sophomore in 2016 (10th best single-season total in UW history), combined with his 122 tackles as a true freshman in 2015 (16th best single-season total), gives him 415 career tackles.

In his most recent game, Wingard recorded six tackles at Hawai'i. Wingard moved into the No. 3 spot on Wyoming's career tackle list with 12 tackles at Missouri on Sept.

8, 2018, passing former Cowboy safety John Salley. Wingard has also passed two other former Cowboy greats this season -- Chris Prosinski and Gabe Knapton.

ESPN Telecast to Feature Another One of the Mountain West's

All-Time Tackle Leaders: Andrew Wingard is pursuing the Mountain West's career tackle record this season, currently sitting in third place. One of the great former Mountain West players that Wingard passed this season on that list was Kirk Morrison, who played linebacker for San Diego State from 2001-04. Morrison is No. 5 on the MW list. Morrison will also be the color commentator on ESPN's telecast of Saturday's Wyoming at Fresno State game.

Andrew Wingard Named to Associated Press Preseason All-America Team:

Andrew Wingard earned another prestigious honor when he was named to the 2018 Associated Press Preseason All-America Team in August.

Wingard was one of only three Group of Five players in the country named to the first or second team. He was named to the Second Team and joined Houston defensive tackle Ed Oliver (First Team) and Buffalo wide receiver Anthony Johnson (Second Team).

Wingard was a First Team All-Mountain West selection in 2016 and '17. He also was named the 2017 and 2018 Mountain West Conference Preseason Defensive Player of the Year. In both 2017 and 2018 he was named to the Paycom Jim Thorpe Award Preseason Watch List, the Bronko Nagurski Award Watch List and the Chuck Bednarik Award Watch List as announced by the Maxwell Football Club.

For the Sixth Time in Seven Games the Cowboys Will Face a 2017

Postseason Team: Wyoming's 2018 season features a challenging schedule that includes seven opponents who advanced to bowl games a year ago and three who won bowl games. In addition, the Cowboys hosted Wofford on Sept. 15. Wofford posted a 10-3 record in 2017 and advanced to the National Quarterfinals of the NCAA FCS Playoffs before losing to eventual national champion North Dakota State. Each of Wyoming's first five opponents this season -- New Mexico State, Washington State, Missouri, Wofford and Boise State -- appeared in postseason last season. Wyoming's opponent in Week 6, Hawai'i, didn't play in a bowl in 2017, but currently has a 6-1 record this season. This week's opponent, Fresno State, won last year's Hawai'i Bowl over Houston.

2018 Opponents 2017 Postseason Appearances

at New Mexico State	NOVA Home Loans Arizona Bowl Champions (vs. Utah State)
Washington State	San Diego County Credit Union Holiday Bowl (vs. Michigan State)
at Missouri	Academy Sports+Outdoors Texas Bowl (vs. Texas)
Wofford	Quarterfinals of FCS Playoffs (Lost to eventual FCS Champion N. Dakota State)
Boise State	Las Vegas Bowl Champions (vs. Oregon)
at Fresno State	Hawai'i Bowl Champions (vs. Houston)
Utah State	NOVA Home Loans Arizona Bowl (vs. New Mexico State)
at Colorado State	Gildan New Mexico Bowl (vs. Marshall)

2018 Schedule Poses Similar Stiff Competition to 2017: Playing the best is nothing new to the Wyoming Cowboy Football team. In the first three weeks of this season, Wyoming hosted a Pac-12 member in Washington State and played on the road against an SEC school in Missouri. A year ago, the Pokes played Big Ten member Iowa on the road and hosted the Pac-12's Oregon Ducks. The Cowboys went on to post an 8-5 record in 2017 and a 5-2 conference mark, finishing second in the Mountain Division.

All But One of Wyoming-Fresno State Meetings Have Been Conference

Affairs: Wyoming and Fresno State will be playing each other for the 12th time in the two schools histories. Wyoming trails in the series 5-6. From 1992-97, the two teams played as members of the Western Athletic Conference. From 2012 to 2018, both schools have been members of the Mountain West Conference

The only non-conference meeting between the two was in the 2009 New Mexico Bowl, which was won by the Cowboys 35-28 in double overtime.

Other Series Notes

- Overall series, Wyoming trails 5-6
- Non-Conference Meetings, Wyoming leads 1-0, winning the 2009 New Mexico Bowl, 35-28
- Western Athletic Conference series, Tied at 3-3
- Mountain West Conference series, Wyoming trails 1-3

Consistent Cooper, Cowboy Place-kicker is Becoming One of the Best in the Nation:

Junior place-kicker Cooper Rothe is having another outstanding season in 2018. Rothe is a perfect 8 of 8 in field-goal attempts this season, including making a career long 51-yarder at Missouri. His eight field goals this season have come from 36 and 39 yards at New Mexico State, 30 yards vs. Washington State, 51 and 36 yards at Missouri, 20 yards versus Wofford and 40 and 23 yards at Hawai'i.

A year ago, Rothe made 15 of 18 (83.3 percent) field-goal attempts. Combined over the past two seasons, he is now 23 of 26 (88.5 percent).

He has made his last 11 consecutive field goals, including making 3 for 3 in the Famous Idaho Potato Bowl victory. His last miss was a 49-yarder in his final attempt at San Jose State in the last regular-season game of the 2017 season.

Wyoming Coming Off Two Consecutive Eight-Win Seasons, Two Straight Bowl Appearances and a Bowl Victory Last Season:

The Wyoming Cowboys are coming off two of their most successful seasons in 2016 and 2017.

- The past two seasons, Wyoming has posted records of 8-6 (2016) and 8-5 (2017).
- The Cowboys earned back-to-back bowl appearances in 2016 and '17, appearing in the 2016 San Diego County Credit Union Poinsettia Bowl vs. BYU (losing 21-24) and the 2017 Famous Idaho Potato Bowl, defeating Central Michigan 37-14.
- UW captured the 2016 Mountain West Conference Mountain Division title and finished second in 2017.
- The Cowboys earned the right to host the 2016 Mountain West Championship Game as the highest rated team in the conference before losing a 24-27 game to San Diego State.
- The Cowboys accomplished all that against the 19th most difficult schedule in the country in 2016 and the second most difficult schedule among all Group of Five schools.
- Wyoming defeated two Top 25 ranked teams in 2016 and received votes itself in the national polls.
- UW was named the National Team of the Week by the Football Writers Association of America (FWAA) for one of those Top 25 wins in 2016.

Pokes Looking to Even Their Road Record at 2-2 This Season, Craig Bohl's First Road Win as Wyoming Head Coach Came in 2014 at Fresno State:

This week's trip to Fresno State will be the fourth road game of the season for the Cowboys. Wyoming began the season with a 29-7 win at New Mexico State. The Cowboys fell at Missouri by a score of 13-40, and lost at Hawai'i 13-17.

Back in 2014 during head coach Craig Bohl's first season as head coach at Wyoming, his first road win coaching the Cowboys came on the Road at Fresno State. Wyoming won 45-17.

Wyoming Continues Home Success, Winning 13 of Last 18 Home Games:

The Wyoming Cowboys have been very successful at home over the last three seasons, most recently defeating the Wofford Terriers for their 13th home win in their last 18 home games.

Wyoming's 13 home wins during this stretch began with the last game of the 2015 season (a 35-28 home win over UNLV); all six of its 2016 regular-season home games against Northern Illinois, UC Davis, Air Force, No. 13 Boise State, Utah State and No. 24 San Diego State (in the regular season); its 2017 home wins over Gardner-Webb, Hawai'i, Texas State, New Mexico and Colorado State; and its 2018 home victory over Wofford. The Cowboys had won seven consecutive home games before losing a close 24-27 game to San Diego State in the 2016 Mountain West Conference Championship Game played in Laramie. The Cowboys only five losses during this stretch were: the 2016 MW Championship Game to SDSU; a 2017 regular-season loss to Oregon; a 2017 loss to Fresno State, who won the MW West Division; a 2018 loss to Washington State and a 2018 loss to No. 25 ranked Boise State.

Wyoming One of the Best Teams in the Nation in Committing Turnovers:

This year, the Wyoming offense is doing an outstanding job of protecting the football. UW's offense ranks No. 6 in the nation in fewest turnovers lost (4), No. 9 in fewest interceptions thrown (2) and No. 17 in fewest fumbles lost (2).

Wyoming ranked No. 1 in the nation in forcing turnovers in 2017 (38). The Cowboy offense also did an excellent job of not turning the ball over, ranking No. 19 in the nation in fewest turnovers committed (14). That led UW to rank No. 1 in the nation in turnover margin. The Cowboys continue to maintain a positive turnover margin in 2018.

2018 Wyoming Rankings

Team Statistical Category	MW Rank	NCAA Rank

Wingard, Granderson and Ghaifan Named to Preseason All-Mountain West Team:

A trio of Wyoming Cowboys were named to the 2018 Preseason All-Mountain West Conference Team announced on Tuesday, July 24 at the Mountain West Media Summit in Las Vegas, Nev. Wyoming senior strong safety Andrew Wingard, senior defensive end Carl Granderson and junior defensive tackle Youhanna Ghaifan were all selected to the team in a vote by Mountain West Conference media members.

At the conclusion of the 2017 season, the same three Cowboys were named First Team All-Mountain West Conference selections in voting by Mountain West head coaches and media. Wingard was also a First Team All-

Mountain West selection at the end of the 2016 season, and was a Second Team All-MW honoree as a true freshman in 2015.

It was also announced on July 24, that Wingard was voted the 2018 Preseason Defensive Player of the Year. It is the second consecutive season that Wingard was named the Mountain West Preseason Defensive Player of the Year.

Wyoming was one of only four Mountain West schools to have three or more players named to the Preseason All-Mountain West team. The Cowboys had three players selected as did Nevada and San Diego State. Boise State led the All-Conference selections with eight players named.

Of the 25 individuals selected, 11 are seniors, six are juniors and eight are sophomores.

WYOMING FOOTBALL 2018

Andrew Wingard Named to Athlon and NFLDraftScout.com Preseason All-America Teams:

Wyoming senior safety Andrew Wingard has earned two preseason All-America honors in 2018. He was named to both the 2018 Athlon Sports and 2018 NFLDraftScout.com Preseason All-America teams. Wingard was named to the Second Team by both Athlon and NFLDraftScout.com.

He was one of only four Group of Five players in the country named to the first or second team by NFLDraftScout.com, joining Houston defensive tackle Ed Oliver (First Team), Toledo punt returner Diante Johnson (Second Team) and Memphis kick returner Tony Pollard (Second Team).

Wingard was a First Team All-Mountain West selection in 2016 and '17. Last season, he was also selected to the 2017 Paycom Jim Thorpe Award Preseason Watch List, the Bronko Nagurski Award Watch List and the Chuck Bednarik Award Watch List as announced by the Maxwell Football Club.

Wingard concluded his junior season of 2017 ranked No. 4 among all active Football Bowl Subdivision (FBS) players in total career tackles, averaging 9.41 tackles per game, and he ranked No. 2 among all active FBS players in career solo tackles per game (5.85 per game).

Andrew Wingard and Carl Granderson Selected to the Chuck Bednarik Award Watch List:

On Monday, July 16 the Maxwell Football Club announced its 2018 Chuck Bednarik Award Watch List and University of Wyoming seniors Andrew Wingard and Carl Granderson were both named to the list.

The Bednarik Award is presented annually to the College Defensive Player of the Year.

Wyoming has never had two defensive players named to the Bednarik Award Watch List in the same season before.

Wingard and Granderson were both First Team All-Mountain West Conference selections as juniors in 2017. Wingard was also a First Team All-MW selection as a sophomore in 2016.

A year ago, strong safety Wingard tied for No. 1 in the Mountain West and ranked 15th nationally in interceptions, intercepting five passes on the season. He also ranked No. 7 in the conference and No. 37 in the nation in total tackles (averaging 8.8 tackles per game), and led all MW defensive backs in that category.

Granderson also enjoyed an outstanding senior season at defensive end, ranking No. 2 in the league and No. 16 in the nation in sacks (0.73 per game and a total of 9.5 sacks on the season). He ranked No. 2 in the Mountain West in tackles for loss (1.23 per game and 16.0 total). Granderson led all MW defensive linemen in tackles in 2017, averaging 5.9 per game.

Andrew Wingard Makes Paycom Jim Thorpe Award Watch List for Third Straight Year:

For the third consecutive season, Wyoming safety Andrew Wingard has been selected to the 2018 Paycom Jim Thorpe Award Watch List. As a sophomore in 2016, Wingard was one of 16 national semifinalists for the award that is presented annually by the Oklahoma Sports Hall of Fame to the best defensive back in college football. He was also named to the Thorpe Award Watch List as a junior in 2017.

Youhanna Ghaifan

Wingard, Granderson and Ghaifan Selected to Bronko Nagurski Trophy Watch List:

For the first time in University of Wyoming school history three Wyoming Cowboys were named to the Bronko Nagurski Trophy Watch List on Tuesday, July 24 when the Football Writers Association of America (FWAA) released its 2018 list. The three Cowboys are senior strong safety Andrew Wingard, senior defensive end Carl Granderson and junior defensive tackle Youhanna Ghaifan.

It marked the second straight year that Wingard made the list. It was the first time Granderson and Ghaifan were selected.

A total of 97 defensive players from 61 schools, including three returning players from last year's FWAA All-America team are on the 2018 Bronko Nagurski Award Watch List.

The three Cowboys were all 2017 First Team All-Mountain West Conference selections.

Wyoming's Youhanna Ghaifan Named to Outland Trophy Watch List:

Wyoming junior defensive tackle Youhanna Ghaifan was named to the 2018 Outland Trophy Watch List on Tuesday, July 24. The Outland Trophy is for the first time being presented by the National Foundation for Infectious Diseases (NFID). The Outland Trophy honors the top interior lineman in the country. A total of 82 players were named to the 2018 watch list.

This is the first year of a partnership with the NFID to present the Outland Trophy as part of a public awareness campaign focused on the importance of influenza (flu) prevention during the 2018-19 flu season. The award will continue to be selected by the FWAA membership and has been rebranded as the Outland Trophy presented by the National Foundation for Infectious Diseases with a social media hashtag of #FightFlu.

Ghaifan ranked No. 1 in the Mountain West and No. 23 nationally in tackles for loss (1.29 per game/15.5 total) in 2017 as a sophomore. He also ranked No. 4 in the league in sacks (0.73 per game/7.0 total) and No. 43 in the nation. Ghaifan was second in among all MW defensive linemen in tackles (5.9 tackles per game) in 2017, trailing only Granderson.

Wyoming Football Receives Multiple Preseason Honors From Street & Smith's 2018 College Football Yearbook:

Several key performers and an assistant coach from the Wyoming Cowboy Football program have been recognized by Street & Smith's 2018 College Football Yearbook with preseason honors. The magazine in its section titled "Rating the Mountain West Conference" recognized five members of the Cowboy Football program in the 18 categories it rated. That was the most of any Mountain West school. Street & Smith's 2018 College Football Yearbook is available at newstands now.

Wyoming senior strong safety and All-America candidate Andrew Wingard, was rated as the "Top NFL Prospect" by Street & Smith's. The article also points out that Wingard is rated as the second best strong safety in the nation by draftscout.com.

Street & Smith's tabbed Cowboy junior defensive tackle Youhanna Ghaifan as the "Best Athlete" in the Mountain West. While you don't often see an interior defensive lineman rated as the best athlete among all positions on a football team, opposing offensive linemen in the conference would likely agree with this selection as Ghaifan became a force in the league as a sophomore in 2017 joining Wingard on the All-MW First Team last season.

In the category of "Coordinator to Watch", Wyoming defensive coordinator and linebackers coach Scottie Hazelton earned that honor while guiding the Cowboys to the No. 1 spot in the league (No. 9 in the nation) in scoring defense, allowing opponents only 17.5 points per game. The Cowboys also led the nation in forcing opponent turnovers, taking the ball away from opponents 38 times. Hazelton's defense accomplished all that in his first year as the Pokes' defensive coordinator.

Street & Smith's Rating the Mountain West

Andrew Wingard, Strong Safety, "Top NFL Prospect"
Youhanna Ghaifan, Defensive Tackle, "Best Athlete"
Tyler Vander Waal, Quarterback, "Top Freshman"
Nick Smith, Quarterback, "Top Scholar"
Scottie Hazelton, Defensive Coordinator, "Coordinator to Watch"

Street & Smith's Preseason All-MW Team

Craig Bohl Signed Through 2023 Season: As the Wyoming Cowboys were preparing to play for the 2016 Mountain West Conference Championship on Saturday, Dec. 3, University of Wyoming Athletics Director Tom Burman announced the day before the MW Championship Game that Wyoming head coach Craig Bohl had been signed to a new seven-year contract that will run through the end of the 2023 season.

In only his third year as head coach of the Cowboys, Bohl led UW to the 2016 Mountain West Conference Mountain Division title and a spot in the 2016 Mountain West Championship Game. Bohl was named the 2016 Mountain West Coach of the Year in voting by MW head football coaches and media members covering the conference.

"When I hired Craig (Bohl) three years ago, I believed he was the best coach to turn around our football program," said Burman. "He has certainly delivered and the turnaround is evident in the performance of our team this season.

"What excites me most about this new contract is the opportunity to develop stability in our football program. Our fans, our student-athletes, donors and our state legislators will now get an opportunity to watch this football program continue to grow. I believe Coach Bohl is going to be the head football coach at the University of Wyoming for the rest of his career."

"This is a mutual agreement to continue to move Cowboy Football forward," said Bohl. "I can't thank Tom Burman, Governor Mead, President Nichols and numerous members of the state legislature enough for the support they've provided our football program to help us be successful. And to our donors, fans and the UW student body, I want to thank them for the enthusiastic manner in which they have embraced our team and our coaches.

"It is exciting to see the further commitment from the state, the University, UW Foundation and Cowboy Joe Club and donors like the McMurrays and Rochelles to make the Mick and Susie McMurry High Altitude Performance Center a reality. All of these elements will provide the resources necessary to give Cowboy Football the opportunity for long-term success, which the people of Wyoming deserve."

Team Captains Selected in Voting by Their Teammates -- Senior Marcus Epps Becomes the First Cowboy in Wyoming History to be a Three-Time Team Captain:

In voting by Wyoming Cowboy team members, six Cowboys were voted as team captains for the 2018 season.

•The six 2018 Cowboy captains are: senior nose tackle Conner Cain, senior free safety Marcus Epps, senior running back Nico Evans, senior tight end Austin Fort, senior strong safety Andrew Wingard and junior linebacker Logan Wilson.

•Senior free safety Marcus Epps was selected by his teammates as a captain for the third consecutive season. He becomes the only Cowboy in the history of Wyoming Football to earn team captain honors in three different seasons. Epps was first voted as a team captain as a sophomore in 2016. There have been only six Cowboy sophomores to earn that honor, including Epps and his current junior teammate Logan Wilson.

•None of the other sophomore captains went on to earn the honor three times. The other sophomore captains in school history have been: wide receiver Ryan McGuffey in 2001, quarterback Austyn Carta-Samuels in 2010, quarterback Brett Smith in 2012, and quarterback Josh Allen in 2016.

•Junior linebacker Wilson from Casper, Wyo., was elected for the second straight season. Prior to Wilson, the most recent Wyoming native to be voted a team captain was former Cowboy safety Chris Prosinski from Buffalo, Wyo., who was named a team captain in 2010.

Last Meeting -- Wyoming 7, Fresno State 13 on Nov. 18, 2017:

The Wyoming Cowboys' rallied late, scoring their only touchdown of the day to narrow Fresno State's lead to 13-7 with 2:25 remaining in the game. Wyoming then followed that scoring drive with a final drive of the game that saw the Cowboys take the ball all the way down to the Fresno State 27-yard line. But on the final play of the game, Cowboy quarterback Nick Smith was unable to escape the Fresno State pressure and was tackled before he could get a pass off as time expired. Fresno State held on for the 13-7 victory to capture a road win in Wyoming's War Memorial Stadium.

Individually, Wyoming's Smith completed 20 of 32 passes (62.5 percent) for 231 yards, one touchdown and no interceptions. Fresno State's Marcus McMaryion completed 14 of 23 passes (60.9 percent) for 186 yards, one TD and no interceptions. Wyoming's Conway led all receivers with seven catches for 105 yards. FS's Josh Hokit led all rushers with 21 carries for 69 yards.

University of Wyoming Football

About Fresno State: The Bulldogs head into the weekend with a 4-1 overall record and a 1-0 record in Mountain West play. Fresno State picked up a 21-3 win over Nevada on the road last Saturday.

Fresno State is one of the nation's top defenses. The Bulldogs are ninth in the nation in scoring defense allowing 15.6 points per game. Fresno State allows 317.2 yards of total offense per game, as that number ranks No. 18 in the nation.

Offensively, Fresno State averages 40.2 points per game for third in the MW and No. 24 in the nation. The Bulldogs average 267.6 yards passing per and rush for 138.4 yards per game. Fresno State has been one of the nation's top teams on third down, as the Bulldogs converge on 50 percent of their attempts.

The Fresno State offense is led by quarterback Marcus McMaryion. He throws for 258.2 yards per game with nine touchdowns on the season and two interceptions. He has also rushed for five touchdowns on the year. His top receiver is KeeSean Johnson, as he has 33 catches for 459 yards. He is averaging 91.8 yards receiving per game with four touchdowns. He ranks No. 21 in the nation in receiving yards per game.

Defensively, the Bulldogs are led by linebacker Jeff Allison. He has 53 tackles on the season with two interceptions. Safety Mike Bell has 32 tackles on the season and also has an interception. Linebacker George Helmuth leads the team with three sacks on the season. Cornerback Tank Kelly leads the team with three interceptions on the season and has broken up eight passes on the season.

The Fresno State special teams are punter Blake Cusick. He averages 43.6 yards per punt on the season with 14 punts inside the 20 yard line. Kicker Asa Fuller is 2-of-4 this season.

Head Coach Jeff Tedford: Fresno State head coach Jeff Tedford enters his second season at the helm of the Bulldog program. He led the Bulldogs to the Mountain West Championship game in his first season.

With a 10-4 record in his first season, Fresno State became the second team in FBS history to turn a double-digit loss season (2016) into a double-digit win season (2017) the following year. The season included an appearance in the nation's top 25, clinching the Mountain West's West Division crown and leading the 'Dogs to their first appearance in the MW Championship Game since 2014. He also guided the 'Dogs to the program's first bowl victory since 2007 with their win at the Hawai'i Bowl.

Great success brought great notoriety as Tedford was named the 2017 Mountain West Coach of the Year, was a semifinalist for the George Munger College Coach of the Year Award presented by the Maxwell Football Club, a finalist for the Eddie Robinson Coach of the Year Award presented on behalf of the Football Writers Association of America in conjunction with the Allstate Sugar Bowl, and the AFCA Region-5 Coach of the Year.

Tedford, a former Bulldog quarterback and Fresno State assistant coach, returned to the Valley after holding the position of offensive consultant for the Washington Huskies.

Tedford, who is a proven winner on the West Coast, came to the Valley with 11 years of head coaching experience at the Division I level – having led the California Golden Bears to 82 wins from 2002-2012. He left as the school's all-time winningest coach.

Tedford's ties to the Valley and Fresno State run deep. He played quarterback at Fresno State in 1981-82 under Jim Sweeney and coached at Fresno State under Sweeney from 1987-88 and 1992-96, and under a then-first-year head coach Pat Hill in 1997.

Pokes' Overtime History: Wyoming has played 15 overtime games in its history. The most recent overtime game the Cowboys played was on Sept. 23, 2017. The Cowboys defeated Hawai'i in that game by a score of 28-21 in a single overtime. Wyoming has played four overtime games at home in War Memorial Stadium. Two of Wyoming's 15 overtime games have been played on neutral sites. The other nine overtime games have been played on the road.

As Craig Bohl enters his fifth season leading the University of Wyoming Football program and his 16th season as a head coach at the collegiate level, the success that Cowboy Football has enjoyed and the excitement generated around the program is just what UW Athletics Director Tom Burman had hoped for when he hired Bohl.

In terms of success, the Cowboys have become regular contenders in the race for the Mountain West Conference title. UW won eight games in both 2016 and '17, hosted the 2016 Mountain West Championship Game, earned consecutive bowl bids and won the 2017 Famous Idaho Potato Bowl with a convincing 37-14 victory.

The excitement surrounding Wyoming Football has included former Cowboy quarterback Josh Allen being selected as the No. 7 overall pick in the 2018 NFL Draft by the Buffalo Bills. That marked the highest selection by a Wyoming Cowboy in the history of the program and was the second highest selection by a Mountain West player since Utah's Alex Smith was selected No. 1 in 2005. Leading up to Allen being drafted, Wyoming's Pro Day was covered live by both ESPN and the NFL Network. At the conclusion of the 2017 football season and the 2018 NFL Draft, media coverage of Wyoming Football for the past year was estimated by Joyce Julius & Associates at over $159 million.

Excitement surrounding Wyoming Football continues into the 2018 season as Wyoming returns one of the nation's top defenses led by All-America candidates Andrew Wingard at safety and Carl Granderson at defensive end.

When Bohl was hired as head football coach at Wyoming, he was open in saying that he wanted to bring Cowboy Football back to a place of national prominence.

The 2017 season saw the Cowboys post an 8-5 record and finish second in the MW Mountain Division. The Pokes were led by their defense in 2017, ranking No. 1 in the nation in forcing turnovers (38) and leading the Mountain

West and ranking No. 9 in the nation in scoring defense, allowing opponents only 17.5 points per game. Wyoming's defense also ranked No. 1 in fumbles recovered (18), No. 2 in interceptions (20), No. 8 in defensive touchdowns scored, 13th in the NCAA in pass defense, and 23rd in total defense

In 2016, his team defeated two Top 25 ranked opponents, was named the National Team of the Week by the Football Writers Association of America (FWAA) for one of those wins and received votes itself in the national polls. Wyoming also captured the Mountain Division title of the Mountain West Conference, earned the right to host the 2016 MW Football Championship Game as the highest ranked team in the conference and was invited to the San Diego County Credit Union Poinsettia Bowl. His Cowboys ended the year with an 8-6 record and featured one of the NCAA's top scoring offenses, averaging 35.9 points per game to rank No. 25 in the nation. Bohl was recognized for his turnaround of Cowboy Football by being named the 2016 Mountain West Conference Coach of the Year in voting by conference head coaches and media.

Two Cowboys earned All-America honors in 2016 in running back Brian Hill and center Chase Roullier. Linebacker Logan Wilson earned Freshman All-America honors in 2016, joining Andrew Wingard, who earned Freshman All-America honors a year earlier.

Bohl, who was part of building National Championship teams at North Dakota State and Nebraska, was introduced by University of Wyoming Athletics Director Tom Burman as the new head football coach of the Wyoming Cowboys on Sunday, Dec. 8, 2013. Bohl became the 32nd head football coach in University of Wyoming history.

He came to Wyoming after building a national power at North Dakota State as a head coach for 11 seasons from 2003-13. His teams won three consecutive National Championships at the NCAA Football Championship Subdivision (FCS) level in 2011, '12 and '13. NDSU became only the second FCS school in NCAA history to win three consecutive national football titles, tied the FCS record for consecutive wins (24 from 2011-13) and became the first undefeated FCS National Champion since 1996.

"Rarely do you get an opportunity to hire a head coach who has won multiple National Championships and has a reputation as a program builder," said Burman.

"I am absolutely confident we hired one of the best football coaches in the country. All you have to do is look at Craig's record."

"I understand the awesome responsibility to lead this football team," said Bohl. "I also understand how important football is in the fabric of this institution and not only this institution but around the state. Whether you're in Sheridan, Casper or Thermopolis, this is the state team, and I embrace that.

"I'm looking forward to getting to know the people of our great state of Wyoming. It will be an exciting time for us. We understand that the bar is high. I also appreciate the vision that Tom (Burman) has, and I want to thank him for having faith in me to lead this football program. He was able to articulate to me where our football program needs to go and the resources that are going to be provided to allow us to experience success.

"I can't tell you how excited I am to embrace the Cowboy tradition."

Not only has Bohl won three national titles at the FCS level, but he was the linebackers coach at his alma mater, Nebraska, when the Huskers won the 1995 and 1997 National Championships.

Bohl currently serves on the American Football Coaches Association (AFCA) Board of Trustees, having been elected by a vote of the membership at the 2012 AFCA national convention. He was also appointed to the 13-member NCAA Division I Football Competition Committee in January of 2017.

Bohl concluded his career as head coach of the NDSU Bison, with a 104-32 (.765) record. He guided the Bison to the FCS Playoffs each of his final four seasons, posting a 14-1 record in the FCS Playoffs. His last three teams posted records of 14-1 (2011), 14-1 (2012) and 15-0 (2013) for a combined record of 43-2 (.956) on way to their three consecutive FCS national titles.

By winning the 2013 FCS National Championship, North Dakota State extended its winning streak to 24 consecutive games, which tied both the NDSU and FCS records for consecutive victories. The Bison teams from 1964-66 originally set the school record with 24 straight victories. The University of Pennsylvania set the FCS record of 24 consecutive wins from 1992-95. That record was later tied by Montana from 2001-02.

The 2013 NDSU team also set a North Dakota State single-season record for wins, posting a perfect 15-0 record. The Bison became the first undefeated FCS National Champion since Marshall went 15-0 to win the 1996 FCS title.

In 2012 and '13, Bohl received both The Sports Network Eddie Robinson FCS National Coach of the Year Award and the American Football Coaches Association (AFCA) FCS National Coach of the Year Award. He became the first coach in the first 27 years of the Eddie Robinson Award to win it in consecutive seasons. In 2013, he also received the Liberty Mutual FCS Coach of the Year Award, which is presented in partnership with the National Football Foundation and College Football Hall of Fame. His other National Coach of the Year honor came in 2006, when he was recognized by the Football Gazette as the FCS National Coach of the Year and the Northwest Region Coach of the Year.

Bohl grew up in Lincoln, Neb., and went on to attend the University of Nebraska where he was a reserve defensive back from 1977 to 1979 under head coach Tom Osborne. Bohl was part of Nebraska's 1979 Orange Bowl and 1980 Cotton Bowl teams.

The 2018 season will be Bohl's 38th year coaching at the college level. Born July 27, 1958, Bohl will be 60 years old when the 2018 season kicks off. He earned his bachelor's degree in business administration from Nebraska in 1982. Bohl's family includes wife Leia, and children Mallory and Morgan, Aaron and Elijah.

WYOMING FOOTBALL 2018

2018 Marks the 122nd Season of Wyoming Football:

The 2018 season marks the 122nd season of Wyoming Football. The Cowboys first season was 1893.

Since that first season, there have been only four seasons in which Wyoming has not played football. In 1918, while Wyoming had a team they played no games due to an influenza epidemic. The other three seasons Wyoming did not field a team were 1943, '44 and '45 during World War II.

Wyoming Football's All-Time Record:

The Wyoming Cowboy Football program has played a total of 1,129 games in its history. Wyoming is 41 games under .500 all-time (530 wins to 571 losses), and has played 47 more road games than home games in its history (532 home games to 579 road games). The Cowboys played their 1,000th game on Sept. 6, 2008, against Air Force.

War Memorial Stadium Hosts Its 69th Season in 2018:

The 2018 college football season is the 69th season of War Memorial Stadium

Wyoming has won 65.4 percent of its games in War Memorial Stadium.

"The War" first opened on Sept. 16, 1950, with UW recording a 61-13 win over Montana State. War Memorial's original capacity was 20,000 in 1950. It was expanded to 25,500 in 1970, and the seating was increased to a capacity of 33,500 in 1977.

Following reconstruction of the upper deck on the West side of War Memorial Stadium in the summer of 2004, the new capacity of War Memorial Stadium was 30,514. With the construction of the Wildcatter Stadium Club & Suites in 2009-10, the current capacity is 29,181.

2018 Wyoming Team Notes University of Wyoming Football

Mick and Susie McMurry High Altitude Performance Center Will Benefit All UW Student-Athletes:

The University of Wyoming broke ground Saturday, Oct. 29 on the Mick and Susie McMurry High Altitude Performance Center (HAPC). The HAPC will be one of the preeminent athletic facilities in the country. It will add 71,000 square feet of new space and will expand the current Curtis and Marian Rochelle Athletics

Center to over 118,000 square feet. The HAPC opened in the summer of 2018.

The HAPC groundbreaking was held on the same day the Wyoming Cowboys hosted the Boise State Broncos in a battle for first place in the Mountain West Conference's Mountain Division.

"A successful athletics program generates excitement," Wyoming Gov. Matt Mead said in April, when fundraising was announced. "This leads to better student recruitment, better alumni support and stronger schools. I recommended $20 million in matching funds for the expansion and renovation of the Rochelle Athletics Center for these reasons. I thank Marian H. Rochelle for this generous gift and her continued support of the University of Wyoming."

The project is funded by $24 million in private donations that were raised by UW Athletics and the UW Foundation and $20 million in state matching approved by Gov. Mead and the Legislature. Overwhelming interest by donors—55 total—saw the fundraising efforts completed ahead of schedule. Marian Rochelle and her family donated $3 million as a leadership gift to kick off the project, and the combined gifts of Marian Rochelle and her daughter April Brimmer Kunz have since grown to $4.1 million.

"Mick and Susie McMurry's generosity and their commitment to making the University of Wyoming a premier university in both athletics and academics will be symbolized by the High Altitude Performance Center that will bear their name," says Tom Burman, UW athletics director. "We also want to thank Marian Rochelle and April Brimmer Kunz for their generous lead gift for this project. And we of course want to thank Governor Mead and the members of the Wyoming State Legislature for making funds available to match the private funds that we raised for this facility."

"The High Altitude Performance Center will be one of the best facilities of its kind in all of college athletics. It will provide the student-athletes in all of our sports the athletic training resources to compete with the best in the nation, and it will provide our academic counseling unit exceptional resources to help our student-athletes achieve their educational and career goals."

"The Mick and Susie McMurry High Altitude Performance Center will redefine Cowboy football," says UW Head Football Coach Craig Bohl. "This facility will play a critical role in our vision of recruiting to what we call the Wyoming Profile. That recruiting effort involves attracting a young man who is committed to earning a meaningful degree from an outstanding academic institution and has a laser-like focus to win Mountain West Conference championships. The High Altitude Performance Center will put us at the top of the league in terms of training and academic facilities, which is where we also aspire to be on the field of competition."

The new facility will focus on the unique advantages of training at an altitude of 7,220 feet. From strength and conditioning training, to nutrition, to recovery and rehabilitation services following injuries, the HAPC will serve the needs of all of Wyoming's 400-plus student-athletes.

The facility's design will stay true to the architectural tradition of iconic sandstone buildings featured throughout the UW campus.

Located just beyond the north end zone, the High Altitude Performance Center will enhance the aesthetics of War Memorial Stadium. Due to its location, the HAPC will be highly visible for national television audiences. It will show the commitment that the state of Wyoming has in ensuring Wyoming Athletics continues to successfully compete at the NCAA Division I level -- the highest level of competition in college sports.

The ground level of the HAPC will house both an Olympic sport weight-training area and a separate strength and conditioning center for the Cowboy football team that will overlook Jonah Field. Also on the first floor will be a sports medicine area that will nearly double the size of its previous space, allowing for more effective and efficient treatment of UW student-athletes. The football locker room, like the football strength and conditioning area, will overlook the field and will include a player lounge.

The second floor will include an expansive academic center to house academic counselors, tutoring areas and a computer lab, as well as enhanced and renovated football offices, meeting rooms, a new recruiting lounge and the nutrition center/training table. The theater-style team meeting room will span both the first and second floors.

Construction on the project will begin after the conclusion of the 2016 Cowboy football season. It is estimated that the project will take 18-20 months to complete.

The original Curtis and Marian Rochelle Athletics Center was opened in 2001 at a total cost of $9.4 million. Fundraising for the RAC included a historic $4.2 million gift from the Rochelles, which was the largest donation in school history at the time. A total of 167 donors contributed to the original RAC.

GAME #1

Wyoming 29, New Mexico St. 7

Aug. 25, 2018

Aggie Memorial Stadium - Las Cruces, N.M.

The Cowboy defense held New Mexico State to 135 yards of total offense and the rushing attack of Wyoming racked up 312 yards in a dominate 29-7 win on Saturday evening in Las Cruces, N.M.

Evans shined for the Brown and Gold rushing for a career-high 190 yards with two touchdowns. It was the most in a game by a Cowboy since Brian Hill did so with 289 against Nevada. Defensively, it was the fewest yards allowed by the Cowboys since 100 total offensive yards in the 2007 season opener against Virginia.

The Pokes' defense recorded four sacks and seven and a half tackles for loss. Junior linebacker Logan led the Pokes with four tackles. The Wyoming defense also added six pass breakups on the night by five different players.

Redshirt freshman quarterback Tyler Vander Waal began the game a perfect 7 of 7 passing for 56 yards to end the first quarter before missing his first pass attempt of the second quarter. He finished 13-21 passing for 137 yards. Redshirt freshman Xazavian Val-laday added 61 yards rushing with freshman Jevon Bigelow adding 55 yards. Tyree Mayfield grabbed a career-high four passes for a career-best 39 yards. Junior kicker Cooper Rothe added a pair of field goals in the second quarter.

GAME #2

Wyoming 19, Washington St. 41

Sept. 1, 2018

War Memorial Stadium - Laramie, Wyo.

The Wyoming Cowboys held a 16-13 lead at halftime and extended that lead to 19-13 on its first possession of the second half. But the Cowboys were unable to score any points thereafter, while the Washington State Cougars scored a touchdown in the third and three TDs in the fourth to capture a 41-19 win over the Cowboys in Laramie.

Forcing turnovers, converting those turnovers into points and making a big play on special teams put the Cowboys in a position to win its home opener. Entering the fourth quarter, the game was a one-point game with Washington State holding a slim 20-19 lead. But an inability to put any pressure on WSU's quarterback throughout the game and a lack of offensive production for the Pokes.

Wyoming was able to record 6.0 tackles for loss on the day, but was unable to record a single quarterback sack. The Pokes did force two WSU turnovers -- a fumble that was forced by and recovered by sophomore defensive end Garrett Crall that led to Wyoming's first touchdown and an interception by redshirt junior cornerback Antonio Hull that led to UW's second TD.

GAME #3

Wyoming 13, Missouri 40

Sept. 8, 2018

Memorial Stadium - Columbia, Mo.

The Wyoming Cowboys (1-2 overall) dropped a 40-13 contest to Missouri (2-0 overall) on the road in what was the first meeting against a team from the Southeastern Conference in a decade in Columbia, Mo. The matchup against the Tigers was the first meeting between the schools and marked the third-straight contest Wyoming faced a team that played in a Bowl Game last season.

Senior safety Andrew Wingard led the Wyoming defense with 12 tackles moving into third in all-time tackles at Wyoming with 387 stops. He passed former Cowboy safety John Salley (1979-82). Redshirt junior Antonio Hull recorded a forced fumble and recovery in the game, as he has two this season.

Wyoming freshman running back Jevon Bigelow rushed for a career-high 56 yards with a touchdown. Redshirt freshman Tyler Vander Waal threw for a career-high 160 yards. Kicker Cooper Rothe hit two field goals including a career-best 51 yarder in the second half. He has hit 20-of-23 field goals over the past two seasons for 87 percent.

Missouri quarterback Drew Lock, an All-SEC performer, threw for 398 yards and four touchdowns on the night. The Tigers were an impressive 14-of-20 on third down for 70 percent. Wyoming finished the contest with 248 yards of total offense.

GAME #4

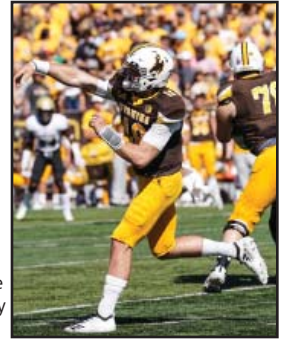

Wyoming 17, Wofford 14

Sept. 15, 2018

War Memorial Stadium - Laramie, Wyo.

Two great defensive stands followed by a dramatic offensive drive to score the game-winning touchdown fueled the Wyoming Cowboys' 17-14 home win over the Wofford Terriers.

Trailing 14-10 with 7:27 remaining in the game, the Wyoming defense came up with a big defensive stand and forced a punt to give the Cowboy offense the ball at its own 20-yard line. The Pokes proceeded to drive 64 yards in nine plays and had the ball at the Wofford 16-yard line when UW redshirt freshman quarterback Tyler Vander Waal was hit from his blind side as he was throwing the ball. Wofford linebacker Weston Rountree intercepted the pass at the 15-yard line and returned it to the 31, with only 3:25 left in the game.

But the Cowboy defense would respond again allowing the Terriers only 22 yards on the ensuing drive. Wyoming head coach Craig Bohl called all of his team's three timeouts during the series to conserve time and after Wofford punted the Pokes had 1:59 remaining in the game with the ball again at its 20-yard line. Vander Waal showed the composure of a veteran QB on the final drive for the Pokes. He completed six of 13 passes for 79 yards and connected with five different receivers. On second and goal from the nine, Vander Waal hit Ismail on a crossing route and Ismail fought his way into the end zone to give the Cowboys the lead.

GAME #5

Wyoming 14, Boise State 34

Sept. 28, 2018

War Memorial Stadium - Laramie, Wyo.

The Wyoming Cowboys were unable to slow down a potent Boise State passing attack, and the Cowboys were only able to find the end zone twice themselves as the No. 25 ranked Broncos captured the Mountain West Conference opener for both schools by a score of 34-14.

The highlights for the Cowboys were a 75-yard touchdown run by senior running back Nico Evans on the first play from scrimmage in the second half and a 72-yard TD pass from redshirt freshman quarterback Tyler Vander Waal to senior wide receiver James Price on Wyoming's final possession of the game. It was the longest run of Evans career and the longest pass completion and longest reception of Vander Waal's and Price's careers. Three Cowboys recorded double-figure tackle games. Junior safety Alijah Halliburton and junior linebacker Logan Wilson led the way with 11 tackles each. Senior strong safety Andrew Wingard made 10 tackles. It was the first double-figure tackle game of Halliburton's career, the eighth of Wilson's and the 22nd of Wingard's career.

With his 10 tackles, Wingard moved into third place on the Mountain West career tackle list. He improved his career total to 409. He moved past former New Mexico Lobo Dakota Cox (403 career tackles) for third place. He now trails only Adam Seward of UNLV by 24 tackles (433 career tackles) and MW record-holder Carmen Messina by 45 tackles (454 career tackles).

GAME #6

Wyoming 13, Hawai'i 17

Oct. 6, 2018

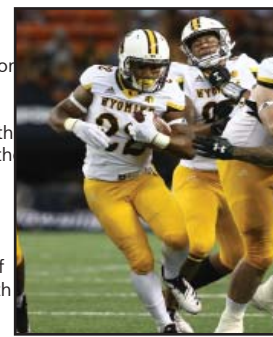

Aloha Stadium - Honolulu, Hawai'i

A touchdown pass by Hawai'i with just under 90 seconds remaining in the game lifted the Rainbow Warriors (6-1 overall, 3-0 in MW) past the Cowboys (2-4 overall, 0-2 MW) 17-13 on Saturday evening in Aloha Stadium in Honolulu, Hawai'i. Wyoming drove down the field after the UH score going to the 14-yard line, but time ran out for the Cowboy offense.

Wyoming held Hawai'i to 304 yards of total offense, as it was 191 yards fewer than their season average. The Rainbow Warriors also averaged nearly 42 points per game entering Saturday. Wyoming recorded 244 yards of total offense with 147 of those yards coming in the fourth quarter.

Senior running back Nico Evans rushed for a career high 192 yards on 24 carries. It was his third 100-yard rushing game this season. He has rushed for 612 yards this season, which would have been the best for any Poke running back last season.

The Wyoming defense was paced by linebacker Logan Wilson, as he recorded 11 tackles with a career-high three tackles for loss including a sack. Redshirt freshman cornerback Keyon Blankenbaker recorded a career-high seven tackles. Senior defensive end Carl Granderson recorded a pick-six and added a sack in the contest.
