2022-23 DUAL RESULTS

 DUAL 1 NOV. 18, 2022   Stillwater, Okla.
WYOMING	3
#7 Oklahoma State	34

Stillwater, Okla. (Nov. 18, 2022) – The Wyoming Cowboy wrestling competed in their first dual of the season on Friday night taking on Big 12 rival No. 7 Oklahoma State inside of Gallagher-Iba Arena. OSU took the dual 34-3, but Job Greenwood provided a big highlight for Wyoming with an upset win over No. 13 ranked Carter Young

"Job showed heart and guts tonight when he was exhausted." Head Wrestling Coach Mark Branch said, "We know our wrestling shape is in its infancy and that's ok for November, but when you're tired you got to dig deep and that's what Job did."

After moving up a weight during the offseason, Greenwood continued to look like a threat at 141 pounds as he squared off with No. 13 Young. Greenwood struck first scoring the only takedown of the match early on and adding a second period reversal to go up 4-1. After building up his lead, Greenwood showed grit down the stretch denying No. 13 Young multiple times on the edge of the mat to seal a 4-3 victory. The ranked win is Greenwood's first at 141 pounds as he improves to 6-0 on the season.

"You're not going to hear me say this often after a lopsided loss, but I'm proud of these guys. Each guy went out and fought hard and didn't wrestle intimidated." Branch Said, "We had five guys wrestling in their first college dual and three guys up a weight class. The odds were certainly stacked against us but we showed heart. Give a coaching staff heart and hard work and you do a lot of work with that."

True Freshman Jore Volk (133) and Logan Ours (157) both looked promising in their dual debuts with each grappler coming up short in tightly contested matches against top 10 opponents.

WYOMING	11
Air Force	25

Colorado Springs, Colo. (Dec. 10, 2022) –The Wyoming Cowboy wrestling squad was in action Saturday night competing in their second dual of the season on the road against Air Force inside Clune Arena. Three Cowboys picked up wins on the night, but the Cowboys dropped the dual 11-25.

"We saw a mixture of great things and not so great things tonight. Darren coming out and setting the tone in that first match with a big win was great." Head Wrestling Coach Mark Branch said, "We still got to grow in the room but it's a work in progress."

The first Cowboy to pick up a win on the night was Darren Green making his first dual start of the season at 141 pounds as he took on Nick Krug. Green got to his offense early scoring the first takedown of the match and never looking back. Green cruised to a 9-1 major decision win over Krug for his first dual win of the season.

At 157 pounds Bryce Dauphin took the mat against Garrett Bowers in his first career dual in the Brown and Gold. It was a gritty bout that saw Dauphin give up the first takedown of the match to trail 2-0. From there Dauphin fired back scoring four straight points and shutting down Bowers in the third period to seal the 4-2 victory and earn his first career dual win at Wyoming.

Competing in just his second competition of the season, No. 14 Hayden Hastings had a return to form in his 9-0 shutout win over Gage Musser. Hastings opened the scoring early with a takedown and then put Musser to his back to break the match open and cruise to the major decision victory.

Up next for the Cowboys is a trip top Reno, Nevada to compete in the Reno Tournament of Champions on Dec. 18.
