Mick and Susie McMurry High Altitude Performance Center Featured on Cover of Athletics Administration Magazine

One of the premier college athletics facilities in the country, the Mick and Susie McMurry High Altitude Performance Center was featured on the cover of the March 2019 issue of Athletics Administration Magazine, the official magazine of the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics.

Wyoming's $44 million state-of-the-art Mick and Susie McMurry High Altitude Performance Center opened in August 2018. The new facility, located at the north end of War Memorial Stadium, expanded the original Rochelle Athletics Center by 71,000 square feet to a total of 118,000 square feet.

Design Credit: Hugh West of Hugh West Design designed both the cover and editorial pages for this year's Wyoming Football Media Guide. It is always a pleasure to work with you, Hugh. We can't thank you enough for your creativity and the extra time and effort you put into making this publication the best it can be.

Photography Credits: To our outstanding colleagues at UW Photo Service — Ted Brummond and Kyle Spradley — you always go the extra mile in meeting our needs. We also want to extend our sincere thanks to Troy Babbitt, Paul Kanaly, Michael Smith and John Durgee for their beautiful photographic contributions to this year's publication.

Content Credits: The 2022 University of Wyoming Football Media Guide was produced by the University of Wyoming Athletics Media Relations Office. It was edited by Tim Harkins, Associate Athletics Director for Media Relations and Nick Seeman, Assistant Athletics Director for Media Relations. Many thanks to Diane Dodson, Media Relations Office Manager; John Durgee, Manager of Digital Strategy; and Assistant Media Relations Directors Kevin DeVries, Cobe Wastler and Bud Denega for their contributions to this year's guide.

THE COWBOY SPORTS NETWORK

Reece Monaco

Kevin McKinney

Reece Monaco and Kevin McKinney to Call Games in 2022

All Wyoming Cowboy Football games may be heard live on the affiliate radio stations of the Cowboy Sports Network throughout the states of Wyoming, Colorado and South Dakota. The flagship station for the network is KFBC 1240 AM in Cheyenne, Wyo.

Each Wyoming Football game is also broadcast on the official University of Wyoming athletics website: www.gowyo.com.

Reece Monaco enters his first season as the "Voice of the Cowboys" for Wyoming Football in 2022. He has been selected by his peers of the National Association of Sportswriters and Sportscasters as the Wyoming Sportscaster of the Year five times. Monaco began his affiliation with the University of Wyoming as a UW student in the early 1990s. A long-time sportscaster and newscaster for KFBC Radio in Cheyenne, Wyo., Monaco was the play-by-play voice of Cowgirl Basketball for 19 seasons before taking over as the voice of Cowboy Basketball in the 2020-21 season. He served as the sideline reporter for Cowboy Football for the past 10 years up through the 2021 season.

Kevin McKinney first served as color analyst for Cowboy Basketball beginning with the 1973-74 season and continues as color analyst today. The upcoming 2022-23 basketball season will be McKinney's 50th season providing color commentary. Since 1996, he has also added color analysis on Cowboy Football games and will continue in that role in 2022. McKinney was inducted into the Wyoming Association of Broadcasters (WAB) Hall of Fame in the summer of 2015. McKinney was inducted into the University of Wyoming Intercollegiate Athletics Hall of Fame in the fall of 2013. In 2000, he was named Wyoming's Sportscaster of the Year, and in 2011 he was honored with a lifetime achievement award from the Wyoming State Athletics Hall of Fame. McKinney is a Cheyenne, Wyo., native and University of Wyoming graduate.

Taking over for Monaco as Wyoming's sideline reporter for Cowboy Football in 2022 will be Erick Pauley, who is currently the Vice President of Operations for The Radio Network in Green River, Wyo. Pauley, like Monaco and McKinney, is a former Wyoming Sportscaster of the Year (2018). He will bring a unique perspective to Cowboy Sports Network broadcasts as he is a former football lettermen at the University of Wyoming where he played defensive line. A native of Green River, Wyo., Pauley was a standout prep athlete in the state of Wyoming.

2022 FOOTBALL MEDIA INFORMATION

Welcome to the University of Wyoming, and Cowboy Football. The information on these pages is presented to assist the working media in its coverage of the upcoming season. The Wyoming Media Relations Office will be available throughout the year to assist you.

Credential Requests

Requests for press box and photo credentials should be directed to the University of Wyoming Media Relations Office. To ensure consideration, requests should be submitted on company letterhead — either by email, fax or mail — two weeks prior to the game. Requests made the week of the game will be handled as space allows. No requests will be processed later than noon on the day prior to the game. Credentials will either be mailed, or will be held at Will Call.

Media Parking at Jonah Field at War Memorial Stadium

Wyoming's Jonah Field at War Memorial Stadium is located on the north side of Grand Ave. at the intersection of Grand and 22nd Street in Laramie, Wyo. Most media members will be assigned parking in the FA or S lots on the west side of War Memorial Stadium and the Arena-Auditorium. The FA or S lots may both be accessed by taking Willett Drive, which runs on the north side of War Memorial Stadium. On the west side of the Arena-Auditorium turn south off of Willett Drive into the FA or S parking lots.

Media Facilities

The War Memorial Stadium Press Box facility is located on the top of the Stadium's West Stands. Working media are accommodated in the main "Larry Birleffi Media Area", while broadcast personnel are assigned booth space as available. The Press Box is accessible via an elevator, located in the southwest corner of War Memorial Stadium.

Photographic Services

Photographers can either shoot from designated areas on the sidelines or from the camera deck that is located in front of the press box and is accessible from the main press area. Wireless internet access is available in the press box. There is also a room available to photographers during and after games on field level in the former Stadium Club room located underneath the southwest corner of War Memorial Stadium. Wireless internet and high speed data lines will also be available in this room.

Media Services

Complete team and individual stats, running play-by-play and postgame coach and player quotes are provided for working media. A media folder including flip-card, updated statistics and game-day notes will be provided pregame. An internal public address is provided for updated information and notes throughout the game. A pregame meal is served through the first quarter, and coffee, soft drinks and snacks are available during and following the game. For radio, internet lines, as well as regular land lines are available. Ample phone lines and wireless internet are available in the press box.

Ticket Information

Tickets to all University of Wyoming Athletics' events may be purchased through the UW Athletics Ticket Office. Tickets may be ordered over the phone by calling 307-766-7220, or online at www.gowyo.com, and go to the ticket links on the front page.

Practice

Media members are required to check with the Wyoming Media Relations Office prior to attending a practice sesson.

Craig Bohl Weekly Press Conference and Interviews

Wyoming head coach Craig Bohl will be available on a weekly press conference each Monday during the season from Noon-12:30 p.m. The press conference will be held in the High Altitude Performance Center Team Room. Contact the UW Media Relations Office for details regarding the weekly press conference.

Player and Assistant Coach Weekly Interviews

Requested Wyoming football players and assistant coaches will be available to the media to interview during the weekly press conference each Monday following Coach Bohl's portion of the press conference.

Video Services

Media in need of assistance with video may contact the UW Athletics Media Relations Office.

Postgame Press Conferences for 2022

Wyoming postgame press conferences following Home Games will take place in the High Altitude Performance Center Team Room at the north end of War Memorial Stadium. Entrance for credentialed media members will be through the center doors immediately off the north end zone. Each press conference will begin approximately 10 minutes after conclusion of each home game. Wyoming head coach Craig Bohl will begin each press conference followed by select Wyoming players. Opponent postgame press conferences will be conducted in War Memorial Fieldhouse.

Wyoming postgame press conferences following Road Games will vary depending on the interview space provided by the host school.

Real Time Data Rights Policy

The acceptance of media credentials is an acknowledgment of the University of Wyoming's rights to the game and play-by-play coverage and your agreement to abide by any restrictions the University of Wyoming may place on real-time play-by-play coverage and use of comprehensive game statistics. Failure to abide by these restrictions implemented by the University of Wyoming may result in revocation of press credentials. The University of Wyoming reserves the right to grant approval for distribution of real time play-by-play, game-related statistics and information through the Internet.

Media Relations Office

The Wyoming Media Relations Office is located at the north end of the Intercollegiate Athletics Building in the Fieldhouse North Addition. The office is located on the second floor, Room 206. The phone number is 307-766-2256.

Cowboy Locker Room

MICK & SUSIE McMURRY

HIGH ALTITUDE PERFORMANCE CENTER

New Strength and Conditioning Center

In the summer of 2018 a new strength and conditioning center opened for Cowboy Football. The new area contains 12,000 square feet of space, and features the newest and the best in strength training equipment.

MICK & SUSIE McMURRY

HIGH ALTITUDE PERFORMANCE CENTER

New Training Table

With completion of the Mick and Susie McMurry High Altitude Performance Center (HAPC) in the summer of 2018, there has been a dramatic change in how the nutritional needs of student-athletes have been met. A new Training Table area opened in the HAPC and is available for UW student-athletes in all 17 NCAA-sanctioned sports offered by the University of Wyoming. The Training Table is located on the second level of the High Altitude Performance Center.

MARIAN H. ROCHELLE

ACADEMIC CENTER

The Wyoming Athletics Office of Academic Support (OAS) focuses on providing UW student-athletes the academic support system they need to reach the ultimate goal of their college experience — graduation. Five full-time academic counselors are part of the UW Athletics staff, and are available to assist UW student-athletes in pursuing their academic and career goals.

Malcom Floyd

An outstanding receiver for the Wyoming Cowboys from 2000-03, Malcom Floyd went on to play 12 NFL seasons, all with the San Diego Chargers.

THE MALCOM FLOYD FAMILY

RECRUITING LOUNGE

A new addition to the High Altitude Performance Center is the Malcom Floyd Family Recruiting Lounge that was funded by a generous donation from former Wyoming Cowboy and San Diego Charger Malcom Floyd. The beautiful area overlooks Jonah Field at War Memorial Stadium and is used to host Wyoming football recruits when they come to visit campus.

UNIVERSITY OF WYOMING

If you are looking for a wonderful college environment, look no further than the University of Wyoming. From its' beautiful mountain setting in Laramie, to its wide range of academic offerings and its nationally-respected football program, UW offers a memorable college experience to its students.

UW provides an atmosphere that allows you to achieve both your academic and athletic goals.

The University was founded in 1886. It opened with one building, five professors, two tutors and 42 students. Programs of study included philosophy, arts, literature and science. We've come a long way since then.

Today, UW offers approximately 180 undergraduate, graduate and professional degree programs through the colleges of Agriculture, Arts and Sciences, Business, Education, Engineering, Health Sciences and Law, as well as through the Graduate School and the Outreach School, including the University of Wyoming/Casper College Center. This wide range of choices allows each student to explore many options to find his or her career niche. Another way we contribute to the success of our students is by offering a large number of courses each semester, making it possible for most to graduate in four years.

The Marian H. Rochelle Gateway Center

Opened in the fall of 2014, the Marian H. Rochelle Gateway Center was built to be a "Gateway" to the University of Wyoming. It houses the UW Foundation, Alumni Association, Admissions Office and Career Services Center. The Gateway Center serves as a fantastic recruiting tool for UW Athletics. The Cowboy Football team hosts recruiting functions in the Gateway Center.

The Jonah Bank Atrium is the centerpiece of the beautiful new College of Business building. Wyoming's new College of Business building features a trading room, behavioral and multi-media laboratories, an executive boardroom, conference and seminar rooms and an auditorium. College of Business students benefit from the latest wired and wireless technologies, including high-definition playback and projection systems in each classroom, a video production and editing facility, video conferencing capabilities, financial data feeds and a stock ticker in the atrium.

At UW, we encourage students to develop their full potential by becoming involved as active members of the university, local community and the world. Opportunities for involvement in some 200 recognized student organizations include student government, publications, the speech and debate team and religious and cultural organizations. Many of our students also take advantage of exceptional international opportunities to become part of the world community through Study Abroad and International Programs. With so many choices, our students enjoy the benefits of meeting new people, making good friends, developing leadership skills and gaining invaluable life experiences.

UW offers a true college-town atmosphere. Laramie has a population of approximately 30,000 with a student enrollment of 11,829. The Laramie campus is composed of 80 major buildings on 785 beautifully landscaped acres. There is a pleasant mix of modern and traditional structures, many built of native Wyoming sandstone quarried northeast of Laramie. At the heart of the campus is the Wyoming Student Union. Fresh from a new multi-million dollar renovation, the Union is where students can kick back between classes, have a sandwich, meet friends, check out an art exhibit or study.

UW is the perfect place for learning in a friendly yet achievement-oriented environment.

As the state's sole four-year educational institution, the university receives strong support from the state and its residents. There is a dedication to making UW the best it can be in terms of its facilities, programs, people and aesthetics. Capital improvements on campus are a high priority, reflecting a commitment to maintaining UW's world-class stature.

In 2008, Wyoming defeated the Tennessee Volunteers, 13-7, in Knoxville's Neyland Stadium, becoming the first team from a non-automatic qualifying BCS conference to win there since 1986.

Wyoming hosted the No. 2 ranked Texas Longhorns before a sellout crowd in War Memorial Stadium in 2009. Texas made its first-ever appearance in Laramie, and went on to finish the '09 season as the national runnerup.

SUCCESS

VS. THE FBS

COLLEGE FOOTBALL PLAYOFF

In 2019, Logan Wilson (#30) and Cassh Maluia (#46) helped lead Wyoming to a 37-31 win over SEC member Missouri in Laramie.

The biggest home game in University of Wyoming school history was played in 2011, as Wyoming hosted Nebraska for the first time before a sellout crowd.

In the 2009 season, Wyoming hosted the then No. 2 ranked Texas Longhorns. It was the Longhorns' first-ever appearance in Laramie, Wyo. Wyoming led the Longhorns 10-6 late in the first half before losing to the eventual national runnerup in front of a sellout crowd in War Memorial Stadium.

Not only have the Cowboys played the best in the nation, but over the past 18 seasons, Wyoming has enjoyed success against those teams, recording victories over:

- Missouri of the Southeastern Conference (37-31 in Laramie, Wyo., in 2019)
- Tennessee of the Southeastern Conference (13-7 in Knoxville, Tenn., in 2008)
- Virginia of the Atlantic Coast Conference (23-3 in Laramie, Wyo., in 2007)
- Ole Miss of the Southeastern Conference (37-32 in Laramie, in 2004, and 24-14 in Oxford, Miss., in 2005)
- UCLA of the Pacific-10 Conference (24-21 in the Pioneer PureVision Las Vegas Bowl in 2004)

UW has faced numerous Top 25 ranked programs over the past 25 years, including: Ohio State (1997); Colorado (1997); Georgia (1998); Tennessee (1999, 2002 and 2008); Auburn (2000); Texas A&M (2000, 2001, 2004); Kansas (2001, 2003); Washington (2002); Oklahoma State (2003); Ole Miss (2004, 2005); Florida (2005); Virginia (2006, 2007), Texas (2009 and 2010), Nebraska (2011, 2013, 2016), Michigan State (2014), Oregon (2014 and 2017), Missouri (2018, 2019) and Washington State (2018).

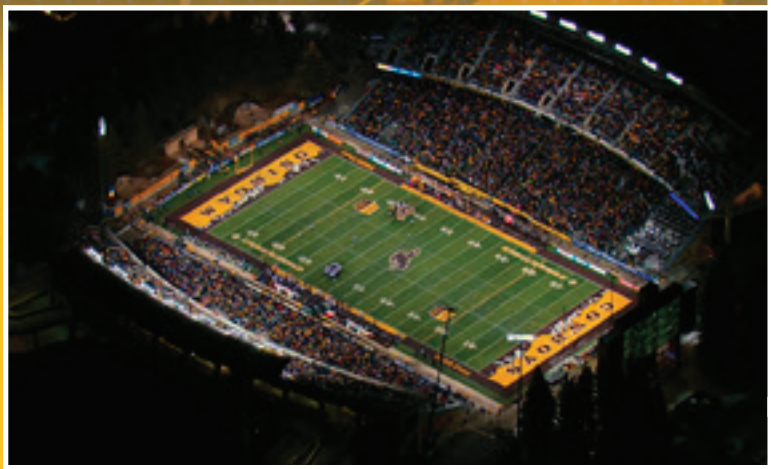

Looking to the future, Wyoming has upcoming games with: Illinois (2022); BYU (2022, 2024); Texas (2023); Texas Tech (2023, 2028); Arizona State (2024); Colorado (2025); Utah (2025, 2027); Cal (2029, 2032); and Arizona (2030, 2033). Texas Tech (2023), BYU (2024), Utah (2025), Cal (2029) and Arizona (2033) are scheduled to appear once each in Laramie.

IN THE NATIONAL SPOTLIGHT

WYOMING vs. NEBRASKA
The Biggest Event in the History of War Memorial Stadium

On Sept. 24, 2011, Wyoming hosted Nebraska in the Cornhuskers' first-ever appearance in Wyoming's War Memorial Stadium. The sellout crowd and regional appeal of the game made it the biggest event in the history of War Memorial Stadium.

National Television Coverage in 2016

This aerial view of the 2016 Mountain West Conference Championship Game was taken by ESPN during the game hosted by the University of Wyoming. The Cowboys were featured on ESPN networks seven times in 2016, and were featured on CBS Sports Network four times.

The Mountain West Conference's television package includes exciting partnerships with CBS Sports Network and FOX Sports for the coming season.

Wyoming Cowboy Football is accustomed to playing on national television and against some of the top college football programs in the country — and they've enjoyed success against the best in the country.

Most recently, Wyoming's 52-28 victory over Kent State in the 2021 Famous Idaho Potato Bowl was televised on ESPN.

Wyoming was featured on ESPN twice during the 2016 postseason. ESPN televised the Mountain West Conference Championship from Laramie. ESPN also televised the 2016 San Diego County Credit Union Poinsettia Bowl versus BYU.

The Cowboys kicked off the 2009 bowl season in an ESPN nationally-televised game that was one of the most exciting of the college bowl season. In double overtime, Wyoming defeated Fresno State, 35-28 in the New Mexico Bowl.

In addition to more wide-ranging television coverage of University of Wyoming football games, in 2010 CBS Sports Network aired a special on Wyoming Football entitled "College Football Confidential".

GAMEDAY

ATMOSPHERE

Gameday at War Memorial Stadium is the place to be in the state of Wyoming on Saturdays. As the only NCAA Division I university in Wyoming, everyone is a Cowboy fan.

There is nothing like a college football gameday. From pregame tailgating to the pageantry of bands, cheerleaders and mascots entertaining loyal fans, college football is unmatched in the excitement it generates.

Sharing the day with a group of close friends makes the experience that much more exciting.

And when the game is over and another Wyoming home victory is a reality, the team and Cowboy fans celebrate together by singing the traditional victory song — Ragtime Cowboy Joe.

GAMEDAY

TRADITIONS

There are many traditions associated with Wyoming Football gamedays. From Pistol Pete to the Cowboy Joe Pony and a new tradition, the Cowboy Walk.

The Cowboy Walk sees fans lineup to wish the Cowboys well as they make their way to the locker room prior to each home game.

And of course prior to the game plenty of tailgating activities can be found centered around Wyoming's Tailgate Park.

Cooper Rothe and head coach Craig Bohl attended the 2018 Home Depot College Football Awards Show. Rothe was one of three national finalists for the Lou Groza Award.

Marcus Harris

1996 Biletnikoff Award Winner and Consensus All-American

Marcus Harris accepts the Biletnikoff Award in 1996. The award is symbolic of the nation's outstanding receiver. Harris also finished ninth in the 1996 Heisman Trophy balloting, and was named a Consensus All-American.

NATIONAL AND CONFERENCE AWARD HONOREES

Logan Wilson was awarded the 2016 Mountain West Conference Freshman of the Year Trophy.

Mitch Donahue finished fourth in balloting for the Outland Trophy his senior season of 1990. The Outland Trophy is given to the top college lineman in the nation each season. Donahue was also a two-time conference Defensive Player of the Year for the Cowboys in 1989 and '90.

Marcus Epps was one of three national finalists for the 2018 Burlsworth Trophy, honoring the most outstanding football player in America who began his career as a walk-on. Epps is pictured with his son Braxton, girlfriend Megan and the Burlsworth Trophy.

SUCCESSFUL COWBOYS

RETURN HOME TO LARAMIE

Matt Lehning

Julius Stinson

The wonderful college experience that is offered by attending the University of Wyoming is one that remains with student-athletes long after they complete their eligibility as Wyoming Cowboys. The University, the Laramie community and the beauty of the Rocky Mountains draw UW alumni back to the region.

Included among the many former Cowboys who have returned to Wyoming to make their homes is the Cowboys' all-time leading tackler, Galand Thaxton. Thaxton was an Associated Press All-American in 1987 as a middle linebacker. He was part of the Cowboys' 1987 WAC Championship season. Thaxton returned to Laramie in 1999 to establish his own State Farm Insurance agency. He is a native of Denver, Colo.

Randy Welniak returned to Laramie in the summer of 2007. The 1988 WAC Offensive Player of the Year as a quarterback, Welniak led the Cowboys to the 1988 WAC Championship. A native of Ord, Neb., he is currently a Senior Associate Athletics Director at UW.

Eric Worden, a four-year letterwinner from 1988 through 1991, is an engineer for the TriHydro Corporation, an environmental engineering firm located in Laramie. A native of Loveland, Colo., Worden was an outstanding offensive linemen for the Cowboys during that era. He was a member of the 1988 WAC Championship team.

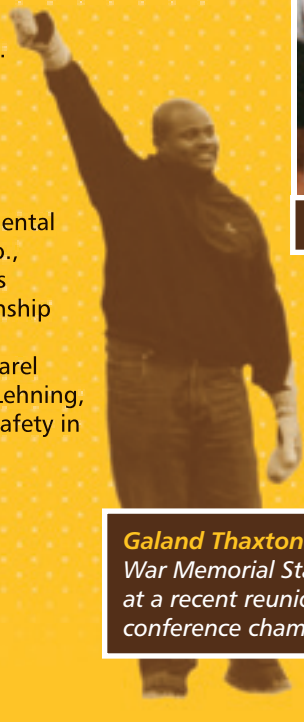

Matt Lehning, owner of Brown 'N Gold Outlet, a retail apparel company in Laramie, was a standout player for the Cowboys. Lehning, who lettered in 1998 and 1999, was a First Team All-MW free safety in 1999. Lehning's hometown is Sublette, Kan.

Julius Stinson was a First Team All-Conference cornerback in 2007, and was one of 12 semifinalists for the 2007 Jim Thorpe award, which honors the top defensive back in the nation each season. Stinson currently works for Cathedral Home for Children in Laramie.

These individuals are only a few of the former Cowboys who make Wyoming their home.

WYOMING BOWL HISTORY

1968 Sugar Bowl

Wyoming had posted a perfect 10-0 record in 1967 entering its game versus LSU in the 1968 Sugar Bowl on Jan. 1, 1968. While Wyoming lost to the Tigers, 13-20, the Cowboys appearance in the Sugar Bowl is still remembered by Cowboy fans as one of the greatest moments in school history.

Bowden Wyatt

Wyoming Head Coach of 1951 Gator Bowl Champions

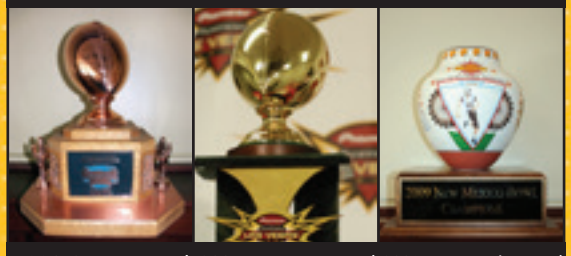

Bowden Wyatt guided the Wyoming Cowboys to its first-ever bowl appearance in the 1950 season, when on Jan. 1, 1951, Wyoming defeated Washington & Lee, 20-7, to complete an undefeated, 10-0, season.

1987 Holiday Bowl

The Wyoming defense, seen swarming an Iowa ballcarrier here, played an outstanding game in the 1987 Holiday Bowl. UW's defense held the Hawkeyes to only one offensive touchdown. But Iowa returned a blocked punt for a TD and returned an interception for another score to give the Hawkeyes a one-point, 20-19, victory.

Wyoming quarterback Josh Allen accepts the Most Valuable Player Award for his performance in Wyoming's 37-14 win over Central Michigan in the 2017 Famous Idaho Potato Bowl.

Tom Corontzos

Quarterback of 1990 Copper Bowl Team

Tom Corontzos threw for 226 yards against the California Bears in the 1990 Copper Bowl. The game came down to the last 49 seconds, but Wyoming lost a 15-17 heartbreaker.

Jim Kiick

MVP of the 1966 Sun Bowl

Wyoming running back Jim Kiick scored two touchdowns, including one on a 43-yard run in leading Wyoming to a 28-20 victory over Florida State in the 1966 Sun Bowl to earn Most Valuable Player honors.

1955 Wyoming Cowboys

Capture Sun Bowl Championship, Jan. 2, 1956

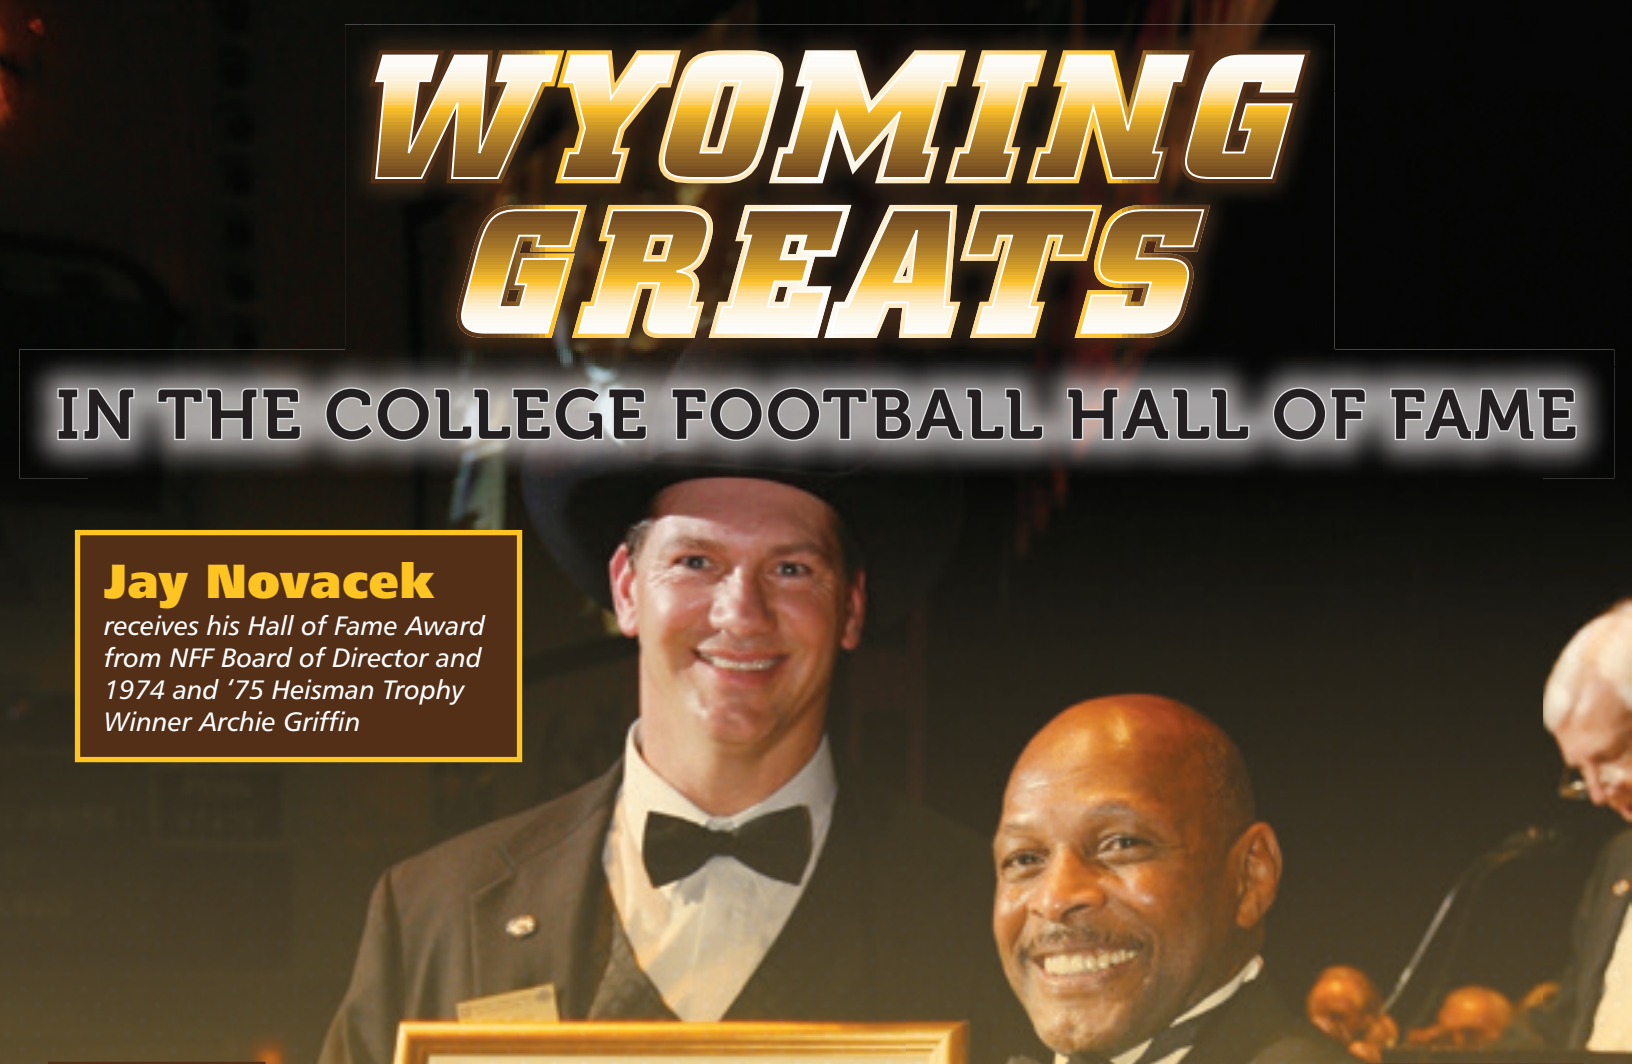

The 1955 Wyoming Cowboys defeated Texas Tech, 21-14, on Jan. 2, 1956, to capture the 1956 Sun Bowl Championship. The following season of 1956, Wyoming posted a perfect 10-0 record.

WYOMING GREATS

IN THE COLLEGE FOOTBALL HALL OF FAME

Jay Novacek
receives his Hall of Fame Award from NFF Board of Director and 1974 and '75 Heisman Trophy Winner Archie Griffin

Bob Devaney

Eddie Talboom

Dennis Erickson

The University of Wyoming is proud to have seven former football greats inducted into the National Football Foundation's College Football Hall of Fame. Former Cowboy head coaches Bob Devaney (Inducted 1981), William H. "Lone Star" Dietz (2012), Pat Dye (2005), Dennis Erickson (2019) and Bowden Wyatt (1972 Player, 1997 Coach), along with former Wyoming All-Americans Eddie "Boom Boom" Talboom (2000) and Jay Novacek (2008) have all been elected to the distinguished Hall.

Devaney coached five five years (1957-61) as head coach at Wyoming, posting a record of 35-10-5 and a winning percentage of 75.0 percent, which still ranks as the best winning percentage in Wyoming Football history. Devaney became head coach at Nebraska after leaving Wyoming, and he led the Cornhuskers to two national championships in 1970 and '71, a 32-game unbeaten streak and a 101-20-2 (.829) record. He was named the National Coach of the Year in 1971. His combined head-coaching record was 136-30-7 (.806), which when he retired in 1972 was the winningest among active coaches at the time.

Dietz coached Washington State to a 7-0 mark and a Rose Bowl victory over Brown in 1915. He coached three seasons at Wyoming from 1924-26, where he also spent time coaching the baseball team

Dye was Named National Coach of the Year in 1983 at Auburn. He is one of only seven coaches in history to have coached a winner of the Heisman, Outland and Lombardi trophies. Dye was the head coach at Wyoming for one season in 1980.

Erickson's 23-year career as a head coach was highlighted by two national titles at Miami in 1989 and '91, He coached the Cowboys for one season in 1986.

Wyatt was elected to the College Football Hall of Fame as a player in 1972 and as a coach in 1997. He became the third man to be elected in both categories. In this respect he followed A.A. Stagg and Bobby Dodd. He played end for Tennessee 1936-38 and in his senior year was a team captain and All-American. Wyatt served in the Navy in World War II. He was head coach at Wyoming 1947-52. His 1949 and 1950 teams won Skyline Conference championships. The 1950 team went to the Gator Bowl, beating Washington & Lee 20-7, and finished with a 10-0 record.

Talboom was Wyoming's first All-American in 1950 and led the Cowboys to their first bowl appearance and bowl victory that season in the Gator Bowl.

Novacek was a Consensus All-America tight end at Wyoming in 1984. He went on to win three Super Bowls with the Dallas Cowboys following the 1992, '93 and '95 seasons.

The mission of the National Football Foundation is to promote the power of amateur football in developing the qualities of leadership, sportsmanship, competitive zeal and the drive for academic excellence in America's young people. The NFF was founded in 1947.

The Wyoming Chapter of the National Football Foundation (NFF) was founded in 1993 by former UW head coach and athletics director Paul Roach when he gathered a group of interested ex-players, businessmen, coaches, athletic administrators, educators and football fans together.

The Wyoming Chapter is currently the largest in the nation out of 120 chapters. If you would like to become a member or help support the Wyoming Chapter as it strives to continue to be No. 1 please contact the Wyoming Chapter at: wyofootballfoundation@gmail.com

Wyoming Head Coach 1991-96

- Won conference championships in 1993 and '96 with the Cowboys
- His 1996 Cowboy squad led the nation in passing offense
- Twice Named AFCA Region Coach of the Year at Wyoming

Some of the greatest names in college football have held the position of head coach of the Wyoming Cowboys. Bowden Wyatt, Phil Dickens, Bob Devaney, Lloyd Eaton, Fred Akers, Paul Roach and Joe Tiller have all led the Cowboy Football program to exciting victories, conference championships and bowl games as head coach of the Cowboys.

Five former Wyoming head coaches have been enshrined in the College Football Hall of Fame. Those five are; Wyatt, who was inducted in 1997; Devaney, inducted in 1981; Pat Dye, who went on to great success at Auburn and was inducted in 2005; Lone Star Dietz in 2012 and Dennis Erickson in 2019.

ACADEMIC ALL-AMERICANS

Trenton Franz was a First Team Academic All-American in 2004, and earned a prestigious Postgraduate Fellowship from the National Football Foundation. After completing his bachelor's degree in civil engineering, he pursued his graduate studies at Princeton where he earned his master's degree in civil and environmental engineering in June 2007 and his Ph.D. in January 2011. Franz was also a team captain of Wyoming's 2004 Las Vegas Bowl Championship Team.

Luke Ruff

Wyoming's Most Recent First Team Academic All-American, 2012

Luke Ruff, a civil engineering major with a 3.66 cumulative grade-point average was named First Team Capital One Academic All-American in 2012.

The University of Wyoming Football program has enjoyed a rich tradition of attracting outstanding student-athletes to UW. The quality of these young men is perhaps best represented by the number of Academic All-Americans who have worn the Cowboy colors.

Since 1952, when the College Sports Information Directors of America began selecting Academic All-America teams, the University of Wyoming has produced 18 First Team Academic All-Americans.

In both 1996 and 1997, Wyoming's football program led the nation in First Team honorees with two First Team selections in 1996 and three in 1997.

The most recent honoree was senior free safety Luke Ruff in 2012. Ruff graduated from UW in 2013, earning a bachelor's degree in civil engineering with a 3.66 cumulative grade-point average. He chose to continue his graduate studies at the University of Wyoming, where he completed his master's degree in environmental engineering in December 2014.

At the conclusion of his undergraduate studies, Ruff was chosen to receive an NCAA Postgraduate Scholarship, helping him to pursue his graduate studies in engineering at Wyoming.

Among his other honors were: being named a semifinalist for the National Football Foundation's William V. Campbell Trophy, also referred to as the "Academic Heisman"; being selected as one of 30 football national finalists for the Senior CLASS Award; and being honored by the National Football Foundation as a 2013 Hampshire Honor Society member. He was a 2012 Preseason First Team All-Mountain West Conference selection by conference media members. His junior season, Ruff earned Second Team All-Mountain West Conference honors for his achievements on the football field.

Brian Lee

First Team Academic All-American and Consensus All-American

In 1997, Brian Lee accomplished a very rare feat as he earned First Team Academic All-America honors and Consensus All-America honors in the same season. He is the only Cowboy in school history to achieve both those honors.

Cory Wedel and Jay Korth

Two-Time Academic All-Americans

Teammates Jay Korth and Cory Wedel share the distinction of being the only two Wyoming Cowboys to earn First Team Academic All-America honors twice. Wedel and Korth were both named to the Academic All-America First Team in 1996 and 1997.

NATIONAL FOOTBALL FOUNDATION

SCHOLAR-ATHLETES

John Wendling was one of only 17 national finalists for the National Football Foundation's Draddy Trophy in 2006. The Draddy Trophy, renamed the Campbell Trophy in 2009, is often referred to as the "Academic Heisman". It is awarded each year to the top football scholar-athlete in the country. Here Wendling is pictured with 2006 NFF College Football Hall of Fame Inductee Emmitt Smith at the annual NFF & College Hall of Fame Awards Dinner.

Each year since 1959, the National Football Foundation (NFF) has honored the nation's best all-around college football players with its National Scholar-Athlete program. The top college football student-athletes have been recognized by the NFF for their athletic ability, academic prowess and civic leadership.

Through the years, four Wyoming Cowboys have received this prestigious honor. Pat Smyth in 1959, Marty Eliopulos in 1986, Trenton Franz in 2004 and John Wendling in 2006 were chosen by the National Football Foundation for this elite honor.

Wyoming's most recent honoree, John Wendling, was named one of only 17 national finalists for the NFF's Draddy Trophy in 2006. The Draddy Trophy, renamed the Campbell Trophy in 2009, is presented annually by the NFF to the top football scholar-athlete in the country. It is often referred to as the "Academic Heisman". By being named a finalist, Wendling was also named to the NFF's National Scholar-Athlete team, and he was awarded an $18,000 postgraduate scholarship.

Former Cowboy center Trenton Franz earned the honor in 2004. Franz went on to pursue his graduate studies in engineering at Princeton University, where he earned a master's degree in civil and environmental engineering in June 2007 and then received his Ph.D. in January 2011.

Former Wyoming Cowboy Chris Prosinski joined some very elite company when the National Football Foundation (NFF) selected him as one of only five high school student-athletes in the nation to be honored in its 2006 NFF High School Scholar-Athlete Class. Prosinski was the West Region honoree.

Over one million high school student-athletes play football each season. The NFF, through its 120 chapters nationwide, honor approximately 2,500 of these high school student-athletes with over $800,000 in annual scholarships.

From that group of 2,500 scholarship recipients, the NFF chooses only five for the distinct honor of National High School Scholar-Athlete.

HAMPSHIRE HONOR SOCIETY

Beginning in 2007, the National Football Foundation created the Hampshire Honor Society to honor college football players across the country who achieved both on and off the football field.

Wyoming has had players receive the honor in 14 of the first 15 years of the award's existence. Those former Cowboy honorees are listed below.

THE "BORDER WAR" AND THE BRONZE BOOT

The annual Wyoming-Colorado State "Border War" football game has evolved into one of the most bitterly contested rivalries in college football.

The series began in 1899, and has been played in three different centuries. Wyoming and CSU have waged the "Border War" every year but six since the schools began playing, and the 2022 season will mark the 77th consecutive season the two border rivals will meet, dating back to 1946. This year will mark the 114th overall meeting.

In 1968, the ROTC detachments of the respective schools initiated the "Bronze Boot", traveling trophy awarded to the winner of the contest each year. The Boot was originally worn in Vietnman by Dan Romero, a CSU ROTC instructor. The boot has rested in UW's possession in 29 of the 54 years since its inception.

The "Bronze Boot" has become one of the most famous traveling trophies in college football. This year's 2022 meeting will be the 55th time the trophy has been fought over.

The Bronze Boot Series

Wyoming 29 Wins, CSU 25 Wins

The statue "Fanning a Twister", depicting the great Wyoming bucking horse Steamboat was erected in 1991 north of War Memorial Stadium to welcome visitors to the University of Wyoming Athletics complex. Sculptor Peter Fillerup from Cody, Wyo., created "Fanning a Twister".

BUCKING HORSE AND RIDER

SYMBOL OF WYOMING

Cowboy Tough Statue

The sculpture "Cowboy Tough" was added to the UW Athletics facilities in the early 2000s. Casper, Wyo., artist Chris Navarro created this new bucking horse and rider sculpture.

There are two full-size originals of the statue that are located in the UW Athletics Department — one is on the second floor of the Rochelle Athletics Center and the second sits at the north endzone of War Memorial Stadium. It has become a tradition for the Wyoming Cowboy players and coaches to touch "Cowboy Tough" as they enter and exit the field at War Memorial Stadium on gamedays.

The symbol on the Wyoming Cowboy football helmet depicts a Cowboy riding a bucking horse. That symbol has been a part of the University of Wyoming Athletics Department since the early 1920s, when UW equipment manager Deane Hunton obtained a photograph of cowboy Guy Holt riding the world famous bucking horse "Steamboat" at the Albany County fairgrounds in 1903. Hunton traced the photo of Steamboat and Holt and turned it into a logo for use on athletics equipment. Steamboat was born on a ranch between Laramie and Bosler, Wyo., in 1901, and is regarded as one of the greatest bucking horses in history.

In later years, the symbol used by Wyoming Athletics more closely resembled the logo on the state's automobile license plates., which depicted another famous bucking horse "Deadman" with a rider by the name of "Stub" Farlow atop it. "Deadman" was owned by the Jackson Hole Frontier Association. The license plate design was developed by the then Secretary of State, Lester C. Hunt, who later became the Governor of Wyoming and a United States Senator in 1935. Hunt utilized a photograph of "Deadman" and Farlow for the design of the state's license plates, which first appeared in 1936.

While there are differing opinions on exactly which horse and rider are depicted on all of UW's athletics uniforms today, it is the symbol that is important. The bucking horse and rider represents the toughness, and the never-say-die spirit that is Wyoming. Whether it is "Steamboat" or "Deadman", the bucking horse and rider logo is without a doubt one of the best and most distinctive symbols in college sports.

Stadium Dedication

Sept. 23, 1950, Versus Baylor

War Memorial Stadium was dedicated on Sept. 23, 1950, in a game versus Baylor. The Bears came to Laramie nationally ranked. They were led by quarterback Hayden Fry, who later went on to a College Hall of Fame career as head coach at SMU and Iowa. But Wyoming recorded a 7-0 victory over the Bears led by single-wing tailback Eddie "Boom Boom" Talboom, who would also later be inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame as a player. Wyoming went on to achieve an undefeated season, 10-0-0, and earned the school's first bowl bid to the 1951 Gator Bowl.

Jonah Field at War Memorial Stadium

2005 — First Season of Artificial Turf

In 2005, artificial turf was installed in War Memorial Stadium for the first time after 55 seasons of featuring a natural grass surface in the stadium. This photo from the 2005 TCU game shows the artificial surface that was installed in the summer of 2005 at a cost of slightly more than $1 million.

In conjunction with the installation of the artificial surface, the field at War Memorial Stadium was named Jonah Field to recognize a very generous gift of $5 million by the John and Mari Ann Martin and Mick and Susie McMurry families to the UW Athletics Department. The Martin and McMurry families developed the Jonah Field natural gas field in western Wyoming.

JONAH FIELD

AT WAR MEMORIAL STADIUM

The words Jonah Field are displayed prominently on the playing surface in War Memorial Stadium to recognize the generous gift of the John and Mari Ann Martin and Mick and Susie McMurry families.

Martin and McMurry Gift Makes Jonah Field Surface Possible

The University of Wyoming named the playing surface at War Memorial Stadium, "Jonah Field" following a $5 million gift from the John and Mari Ann Martin and Mick and Susie McMurry families. Pictured at the press conference are left to right: UW's former NCAA 400-meter hurdle champion Shauna Smith, Senator Alan K. Simpson, Susie McMurry, the late Mick McMurry, John Martin, Mari Ann Martin and former UW quarterback Corey Bramlet.

For the 2013 college football season, a brand new FieldTurf Revolution playing surface with a distinctive Wyoming design was unveiled on Jonah Field at War Memorial Stadium. The new surface was installed in June 2013, and was selected by Wyoming Athletics due to its elite-level playability. FieldTurf has been installed at many of the top NCAA and NFL football stadiums in the country for its grass-like performance and safety.

Jonah Field will continue as the name of Wyoming Football's playing surface to commemorate the generous donations to UW Athletics by Casper entrepreneurs Susie and the late Mick McMurry and John and Mari Ann Martin and their families.

Sporting one of the finest grass gridirons for its first 55 seasons, the initial switch to artifical turf was completed in August of 2005.

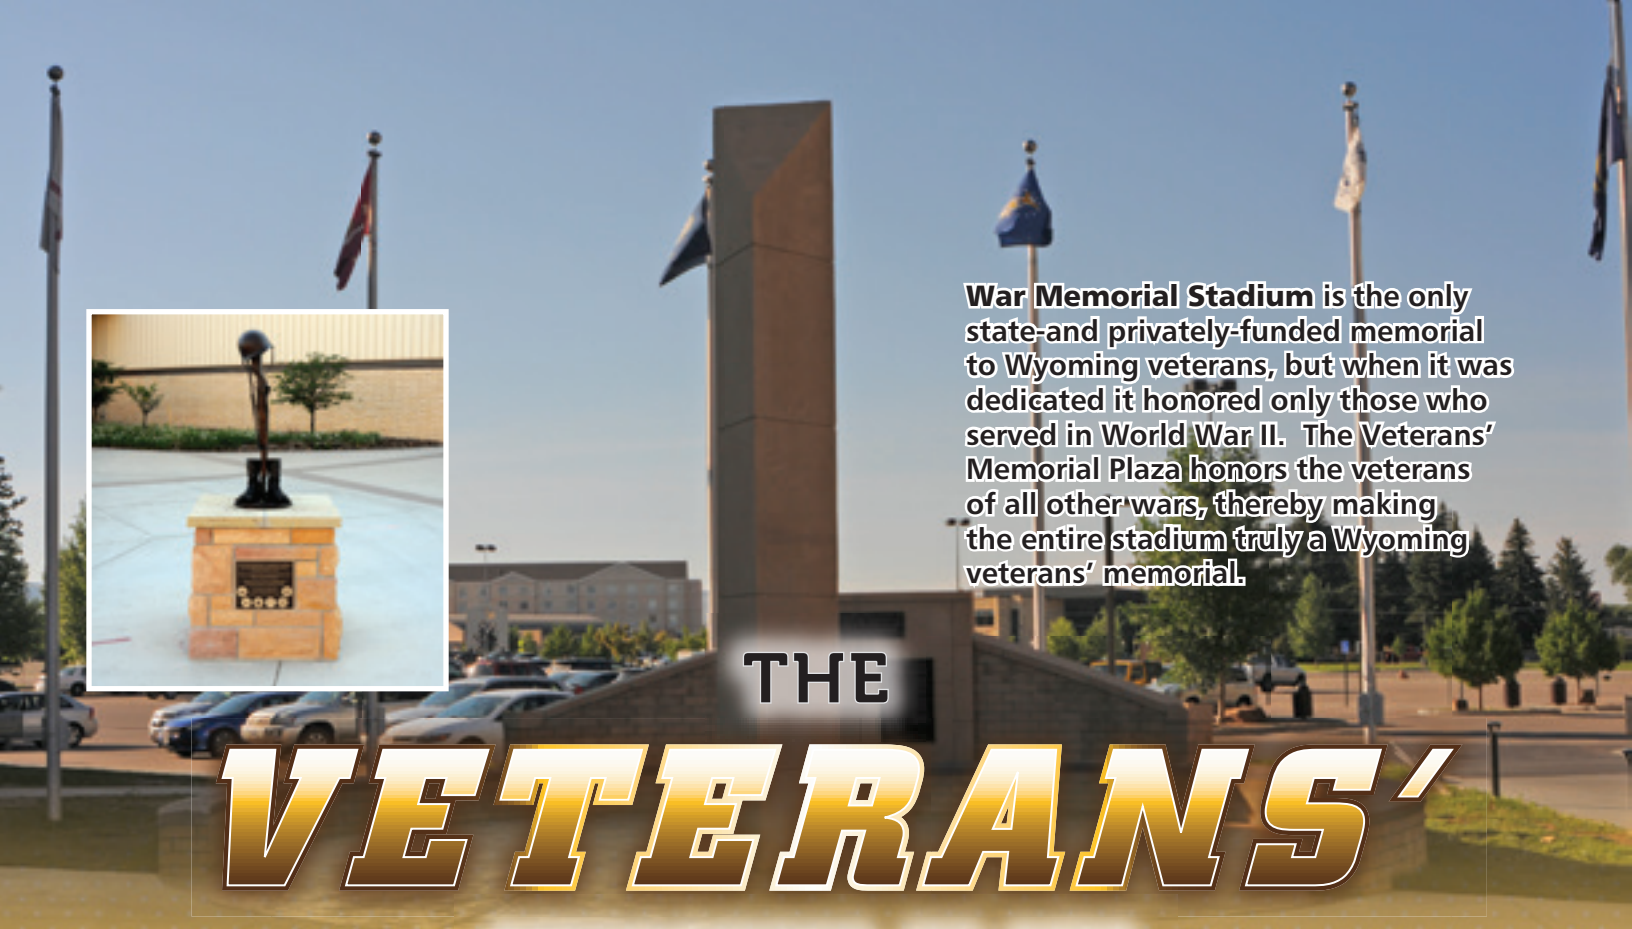

The Martin and McMurry families donated $5 million to UW Athletics in May 2005. That gift was matched by the state of Wyoming for a total of $10 million. The new surface was originally named Jonah Field to recognize not only the prolific natural gas field in Sublette County (Wyoming) that made the Martin-McMurry gift possible, but also to recognize the financial contributions to state funding projects, including higher education, made over time by Wyoming's extractive industries.

Gifts totalling $2 million by George and Dianna Archuleta of La Barge and Ron and Linda Flack of Cheyenne, launched UW's Intercollegiate Athletics capital campaign for facilities. Their gifts were made in March of 2004. Many other alumni, friends and Cowboy supporters also contributed through the Strategic Plan for Intercollegiate Athletics,

The new elements of the 2013 design include the words "Jonah Field" prominently displayed on both sidelines. A depiction of Wyoming's iconic Teton Mountains are prevalent in both end zones along with the traditional words "WYOMING" and "COWBOYS" in brown on a gameday gold background in opposite end zones. Those words appear in a new western-style font. Also new is the lettering "7220 Feet" on both sidelines, indicating the elevation of War Memorial Stadium as the highest NCAA Football Bowl Subdivision field in the nation. Wyoming's traditional "Steamboat" symbol of a bucking horse and rider will remain at midfield in brown, outlined in white and gameday gold.

The field design was provided by award-winning graphic designer David Coleman, who is a Wyoming native and UW graduate.

The project was supervised by the Mountain West Regional Manager for FieldTurf, Jed Easterbrook, who is also a UW graduate and Cowboy baseball letterwinner.

War Memorial Stadium is the only state-and privately-funded memorial to Wyoming veterans, but when it was dedicated it honored only those who served in World War II. The Veterans' Memorial Plaza honors the veterans of all other wars, thereby making the entire stadium truly a Wyoming veterans' memorial.

THE VETERANS' MEMORIAL PLAZA

Gen. Pete Schoomaker, former U.S. Army Chief of Staff who lettered for the Cowboys from 1966 to 1968, spoke to the team prior to a game.

Cowboy fans have witnessed the glory of Wyoming Football in the beautiful confines of War Memorial Stadium since 1950. However, the magnificent football venue, along with its fieldhouse counterpart, had very humble beginnings. The very thought of the two structures started out as just a dream by the UW Board of Trustees at the end of World War II in 1946.

The 'War to End All Wars' hit the University of Wyoming hard, as many of its students left school to serve their country. But at the conclusion of the war, UW President George 'Duke' Humphrey, Athletics Director Glenn 'Red' Jacoby and the UW Board of Trustees started a state-wide campaign to help raise additional money for the construction of a new football stadium and basketball fieldhouse for the Cowboys. The two structures would be living memorials to honor those Wyoming natives who served in World War II. The Board of Trustees believed that such facilities would serve an important role in the physical development of Wyoming's future generations.

On September 16, 1950, the Cowboys downed Montana State 61-13 in their new stadium. A week later, September 23, 1950, President Humphrey, along with Athletics Director Jacoby, dedicated War Memorial Stadium to over thirty-thousand Wyoming veterans who bravely served in World War II. The Pokes went on to win their second home game in the stadium, 7-0 over Baylor.

"War Memorial Stadium is a state memorial to our war heroes. Surely, there could be no better way the people of Wyoming could memorialize the men and women of our state who served so bravely in World War II," said Jacoby in 1950.

Since World War II, many citizens of Wyoming have served their country during times of conflict. Some even gave the ultimate sacrifice for the values of freedom, independence and liberty — values every person in Wyoming holds close to their heart.

The University of Wyoming, along with the Veterans' Memorial Plaza committee dedicated an addition to this beautiful stadium in 2003.

The Veterans' Memorial Plaza recognizes all Wyoming veterans who have bravely and faithfully served their country in any time of armed conflict. This dedication makes true to the title "War Memorial Stadium". In 2017, the Veterans' Memorial Plaza was moved to the northeast corner of War Memorial Stadium.

The Veterans' Memorial Plaza was funded almost identically to how the stadium was funded. The committee received funds from the Wyoming State Legislature, University of Wyoming, the Wyoming Governor's Office, along with veterans, corporations and general public donations. War Memorial Stadium was funded in the same manner as the Wyoming State Legislature and public donations footed much of the cost of its construction.

Prior to its move to the northeast corner of War Memorial Stadium in 2017, the Plaza was separated into two sections in the north end zone. As you looked north, the section on the right displayed flags of every military branch: Army, Navy, Marines, Air Force, Coast Guard and Merchant Marines. That structure also featured a dedication plaque to all Wyoming veterans, as well as two plaques listing all contributors to the memorial funding. The section to the left proudly displayed the United States flag and Wyoming's state flag, along with the P.O.W./M.I.A. banner. The original plaque that dedicated War Memorial Stadium to the veterans of World War II on September 23, 1950, also is located there as is a plaque presented to UW by Vice President Dick Cheney on Veterans Day 1999 (during the 20th Century Commemorative of Veterans celebration.)

The Veterans' Memorial Plaza honors the bravery and faithful service Wyoming veterans have given our country for over half a century. A nation, along with the state of Wyoming, will forever be indebted.

Opened in the fall of 2010, the Wildcatter Stadium Club & Suites features 12 individual suites and 256 club seats.

WAR MEMORIAL STADIUM'S WILDCATTER STADIUM CLUB AND SUITES

A look inside one of the 12 suites contained in the Wildcatter Stadium Club & Suites.

An exciting new facility, offering University of Wyoming Football fans the advantages of indoor, luxury seating, began construction in the spring of 2009 and was named the Wildcatter Stadium Club & Suites at War Memorial Stadium. The new facility project was completed for the start of the 2010 football season.

A total of 12 individual suites along with a stadium-club area that contains 256 indoor seats is located on the upper east side of War Memorial Stadium and is named after the many successful "Wildcatters" of Wyoming. A Wildcatter is a person who displays the strength and courage to risk drilling oil or gas wells in areas where there is no guarantee that oil or gas will be found.

The project was funded with private donations and matching funds appropriated by the Wyoming State Legislature.

The world-renown architecture and design firm Populous served as designer for the Wildcatter Stadium Club & Suites at War Memorial Stadium. Populous has designed athletic facilities around the world for the past 25 years. Included in its recent projects are: the University of Phoenix Stadium, home of the Arizona Cardinals of the NFL; Heinz Field, home of the Pittsburgh Steelers; a renovation of the University of Oklahoma Stadium; the new Busch Stadium, home of the St. Louis Cardinals; AT&T Park, home of the San Francisco Giants; the new Yankee Stadium; and the London 2012 Olympic Stadium.

In connection with the Wildcatter Stadium Club & Suites at War Memorial Stadium, the new War Memorial Stadium east side renovation was completed at the same time. The renovation of the east side of War Memorial included improved seating, enhanced concession areas and improved and expanded restroom facilities for fans.

Wyoming's War Memorial Stadium,"The War", is the highest NCAA Football stadium in the country at 7,220 feet. It has gone through extensive renovations and new construction over the past decade. The new Wildcatter Stadium Club and Suites, pictured above, were completed in 2010. An extensive renovation of the east side seating, bathroom and concession areas was completed at the same time the Wildcatter addition was constructed.

In the fall of 2007, Wyoming's new Indoor Practice Facility (IPF) opened for use. Containing over 80,000 square feet, the facility includes a full-size 100-yard by 50-yard football field, featuring a state-of-the-art artificial turf surface. A new FieldTurf surface was installed in the summer of 2018.

The Indoor Practice Facility was built at a cost of $11 million.

Wyoming's Indoor Practice Facility is a full-size football field, allowing the Cowboys' workouts to be as efficient as possible with no limitations due to size.

"PEPSI PREGAME ZONE" PROVIDES EXCEPTIONAL TAILGATING EXPERIENCE FOR WYOMING FOOTBALL FANS

Wyoming football fans were offered a new tailgating experience in 2014 as the "Pepsi Pregame Zone" kicked off a new era of Cowboy Football. The "Pepsi Pregame Zone" shifted the pregame tailgating area to the Indoor Practice Facility and Ford Stadium Lot, and incorporated a new "Tailgate Alley" adjacent to Indoor Practice Facility.

"Fan Fest" was held for all six home games in 2014. It was open to all fans, and kicked off three hours prior to each home football game in the Indoor Practice Facility. Food and drink vendors, WYO merchandise sales, kids' games and activities, live music and televised national football games were featured for fans' enjoyment.

"Taligate Alley", adjacent to the south side of the Indoor Practice Facility and at the north end of the Ford Stadium Lot, was a reserved area for the truest of tailgaters. Reserved spots in "Tailgate Alley" are limited, so make your reservations with the Cowboy Joe Club now for the coming season.

The "Pepsi Pregame Zone" provides a fun, family atmosphere for Wyoming fans — many of whom drive several hours from every corner of the Equality State to come cheer on their Pokes.

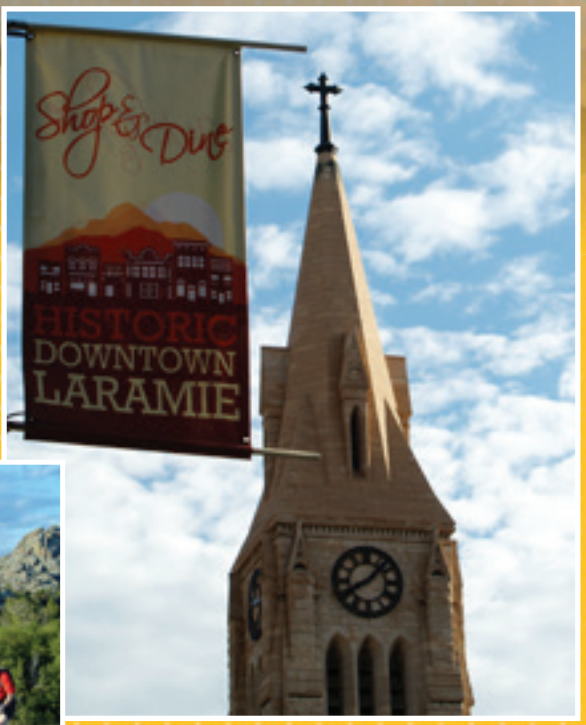

Fans can share some food and drink as they talk about the day's upcoming game, while their kids play a game of catch. Others listen to a local band, or wait to see Wyoming's marching band, "Western Thunder", make their regular appearance prior to every home game.

LARAMIE

...BEAUTIFUL COLLEGE TOWN

One of the best things about Laramie is its location between two beautiful mountain ranges — the Snowy Range to the west and the Laramie Range to the east. It's a place of blue skies and clean air. Much of the area surrounding Laramie is public National Forest land. That means great access! You can head for the nearby mountains and find yourself on a hiking, biking or skiing trail within 15 minutes. There's also nearby rock climbing at the impressive Vedauwoo formations. You can be downhill skiing in the Snowy Range within 45 minutes. Laramie is convenient to the world-class skiing offered in Steamboat Springs and other nearby resorts.

For a different kind of fun, you can be in Denver within two and a half hours. There is an amazing array of culture throughout the area, plus the tremendous sports heritage of the Rockies, Broncos, Nuggets and Avalanche.

With its colorful Western heritage, cultural activities and outstanding outdoor recreation, the Laramie area captivates visitors from all over the world.

WYOMING

...THERE'S NO PLACE LIKE IT

They say it's beauty is like no other, and you fall in love with its people.

Wyoming, it is like no place on earth. Within it's boundaries is America's first and largest national park, Yellowstone. The unbounding beauty there includes "Old Faithful" geyser and Yellowstone Lake, the world's largest high-mountain lake. There is Yellowstone Falls, so awe-inspiring, it'll take your breath away. There are over 260 different species of animals and birds located there.

Wyoming's wonders seem to be unending. There is Grand Teton National Park, whose centerpiece is the spectacular Teton Mountain Range. There is Devil's Tower, America's first national monument. There is the world's largest mineral hot springs located in Thermopolis. There is the beauty of Ten Sleep Canyon and a hundred other places.

For breathtaking beauty, Wyoming is unmatched. Its reputation brings millions of visitors to its borders each year. Plus, some of the best skiing in America can be found in Wyoming. Tourists and sportsmen can't wait to get here to enjoy the clean mountain air and limitless outdoor attractions.

The history of the great American West can be heard whistling through the trees of Wyoming. Wyoming had an historic place in the taming of the West in the late 1800's. Butch Cassidy and the Sundance Kid were two of Wyoming's most famous citizens during the era of lawlessness. There remain plenty of reminders of an age that will live forever in American lore.

People are Wyoming's strongest resource. These folks are down to earth, friendly and helpful. And, oh how proud they are of their Cowboys. Wyoming has some of the best fans in America. As their only four-year university, Wyoming folks are tremendously supportive of their teams.

Yet, as down to earth as they are, many Wyomingites are on the cutting edge of politics, entertainment and business. Among some of the most famous are: former Vice President of the United States Dick Cheney; the late Dr. Jerry Buss, owner of the Los Angeles Lakers; Dean Conger, former chief photographer of the National Geographic Society; the late Curt Gowdy, the most decorated national sportscaster in history; Alan Simpson, former United States Senator; Gerry Spence, attorney and television personality; and General Pete Schoomaker, former U.S. Army Chief of Staff.

For great people, great scenery and a great education, there is no place quite like Wyoming.

SEASON OUTLOOK

A YOUNGER BUT TALENTED COWBOY FOOTBALL TEAM

WILL TAKE THE FIELD FOR WYOMING IN 2022

The Wyoming Cowboy Football team will see a number of new players take on leading roles this coming 2022 season. While the team will be younger, it is a team that features a lot of talented players.

Among the talented returners for the Cowboys are running back Titus Swen, linebacker Easton Gibbs, nose tackle Cole Godbout, offensive tackle Frank Crum and kick returner/cornerback Cam Stone. All five of those individuals earned All-Conference recognition a year ago. Stone is a sophomore. All the other All-Conference returnees are juniors.

Other top returners on offense include: senior offensive lineman Eric Abojei, sophomore wide receiver Joshua Cobbs, sophomore fullback/tight end Parker Christensen and junior tight end Treyton Welch.

The defensive side of the ball will also see other talented players return including: sophomore defensive tackle Jordan Bertagnole, sophomore nickel back Keonte Glinton and sophomore safety Isaac White. All three ended the 2021 season as starters for the Pokes.

TITUS SWEN
RUNNING BACK

The offensive group will be led by running back Swen, who rushed for 785 yards as a sophomore in 2021. He led Wyoming in rushing TDs (7) and yards per carry (5.95 yards per attempt) and became more impactful on the Wyoming offense as the season progressed.

Wide receiver Cobbs was second on the team in receptions in '21, with 25, and third in receiving yards (245). Tight end Welch had 19 receptions for 163 yards and two TDs, while fullback/tight end Christensen caught 13 passes for 127 yards.

The Cowboy defense returns two of its top three tacklers from last season in linebacker Gibbs and nose tackle Godbout. Gibbs recorded 90 tackles in 2021 to rank second behind team leader Chad Muma, who had 142 from his middle linebacker spot. Godbout was third for the Cowboys with 70 total tackles a year ago. Godbout led Wyoming in sacks in 2021 with 5.0. He and Gibbs tied for second on the team in tackles for loss with 7.0 each, trailing only Muma's 8.0 tackles for loss. Defensive tackle Bertagnole ranked eighth on the Cowboy defense in tackles with 38. Safety White concluded the 2021 season ranking 10th in tackles for the Cowboys, with 35. Glinton finished the season as the starting nickel and was among the team leaders in passes defended, with one interception and three pass breakups.

The Cowboys concluded last season with a 7-6 record and captured a convincing 52-38 win over Kent State in the Famous Idaho Potato Bowl.

Building on Success

Wyoming head coach Craig Bohl is entering his ninth season guiding the UW football program in 2022. During his time in Laramie, Bohl and his coaching staff have accomplished several notable firsts in school history.

FRANK CRUM
OFFENSIVE TACKLE

Last season, Bohl and his staff became the first Wyoming football staff to lead four of their teams to bowl game appearances.

Bohl and his staff also became the only Wyoming football staff to guide three Cowboy teams to bowl victories.

With Wyoming's fourth bowl bid in the past six seasons (2016, '17, '19 and '21), that was the first time that feat had been accomplished in the 125-year history of Wyoming Football. The previous best was four bowl games in seven seasons (1987, '88, '90 and '93).

Returning Cowboy Veterans, Who Have Enjoyed Great Success, Will Now Be Asked to Teach Their Winning Ways to Young Pokes

The returning Cowboy veterans, who have been a huge part of Wyoming's recent success, will be key to teaching UW's younger players how to win in the Mountain West Conference.

The 2022 team is made up of only three seniors, 15 juniors, 38 sophomores, 31 redshirt freshmen and 23 true freshmen. Part of the imbalance in classes is due to COVID circumstances. Several Cowboys who had an additional year of eligibility remaining graduated last year and decided either to: declare for the NFL Draft, transfer to another university for their final year or not utilize their extra year. Regardless of those facts, it is a year where Wyoming will be transitioning from an extremely experienced team in 2021 to a much younger team in '22.

With that being said, head coach Bohl is looking forward to coaching his 2022 squad.

"It is an exciting time. There are probably more questions heading into fall camp than what we've had since I've been the head coach with the exception of maybe our first year," said Bohl. "But we have great optimism going into fall camp. There are some question marks certainly, but I think we've got a lot of good players who are really eager to move our program forward.

"There is certainly a lot of potential within the squad, but due to the questions we have we didn't release a depth chart at the conclusion of spring practice."

Given the fact that the 2022 Cowboys are younger, Bohl was asked what that is like for himself and his coaching staff heading into the fall.

"I think it is exciting because you have guys who are bright-eyed and excited to get their opportunity to shine," said Bohl. "We have players with good ability.

"What you want to do as a coach is to maximize your potential. Many times when you have a football team that is unproven you don't have as much complacency as you might have with a veteran team. You have guys who are hungry to prove themselves.

"Some of the most enjoyable years since I've been here at Wyoming have been years when we had young players come to the forefront. In 2016, we had a young, unproven football team that ended up to be pretty dynamic. That is not to compare our current team to that 2016 group, but we have some real promise here. It will take a great deal of encouragement by our coaches to bring this team along, but as a head football coach I'm invigorated and excited to coach this football team."

SCHEDULE

The Wyoming Cowboys will kick off their 2022 schedule in "Zero" Week on Saturday, Aug. 27 when they will travel to Champaign, Ill., to play the University of Illinois Fighting Illini in the first-ever meeting between the two football teams. The game will kick off at 2 p.m., Mountain Time and will be televised by the Big Ten Network.

There are seven teams on Wyoming's 2022 schedule who, like the Cowboys, earned bowl bids last season, including non-conference opponents BYU and Tulsa and Mountain West Conference opponents Air Force, Boise State, Fresno State, Hawai'i and Utah State. Four of those postseason teams will play in Laramie -- Tulsa, Air Force, Boise State and Utah State.

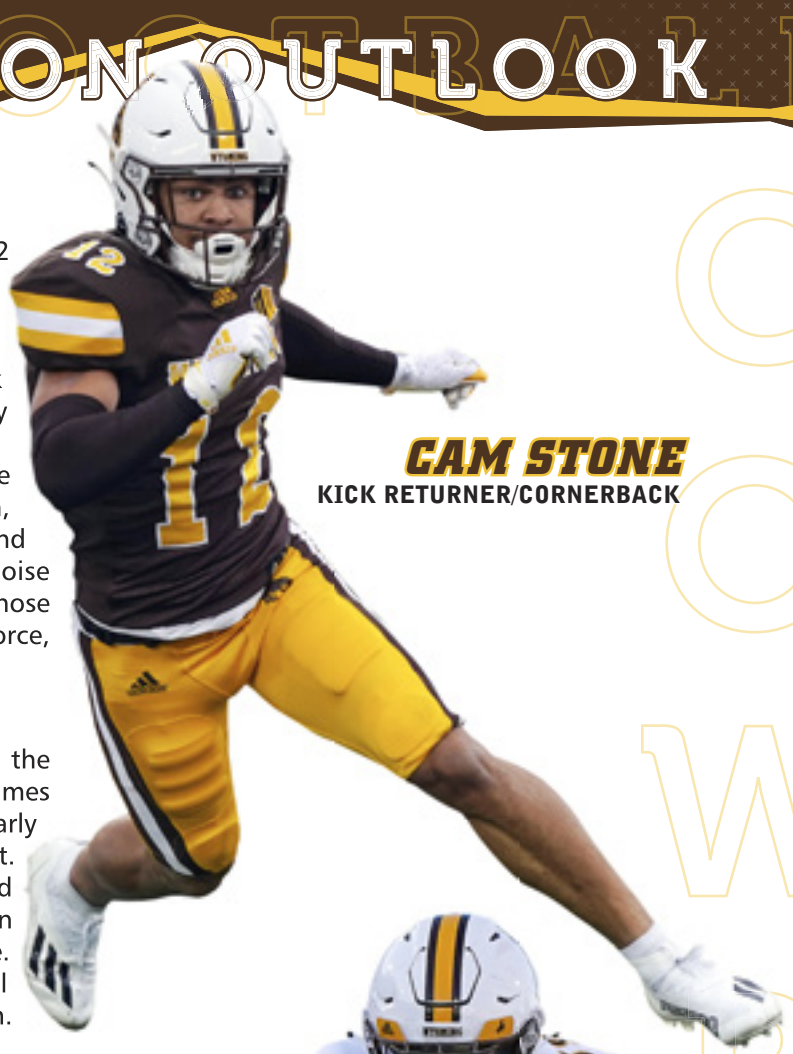

Home Schedule

Wyoming will have four of its first six games of the season at home in 2022, and three of those home games will be in the month of September, including two early afternoon kickoffs. The home opener vs. Tulsa on Sept. 3 will kick off at 1:30 p.m., M.T., and will be televised on FS1. The following Saturday on Sept. 10 Northern Colorado will come to Laramie for a 2 p.m., M.T. game. A nationally-televised Friday night game Sept. 16 will feature Wyoming vs. longtime rival Air Force at 6 p.m. on CBS Sports Network (CBSSN).

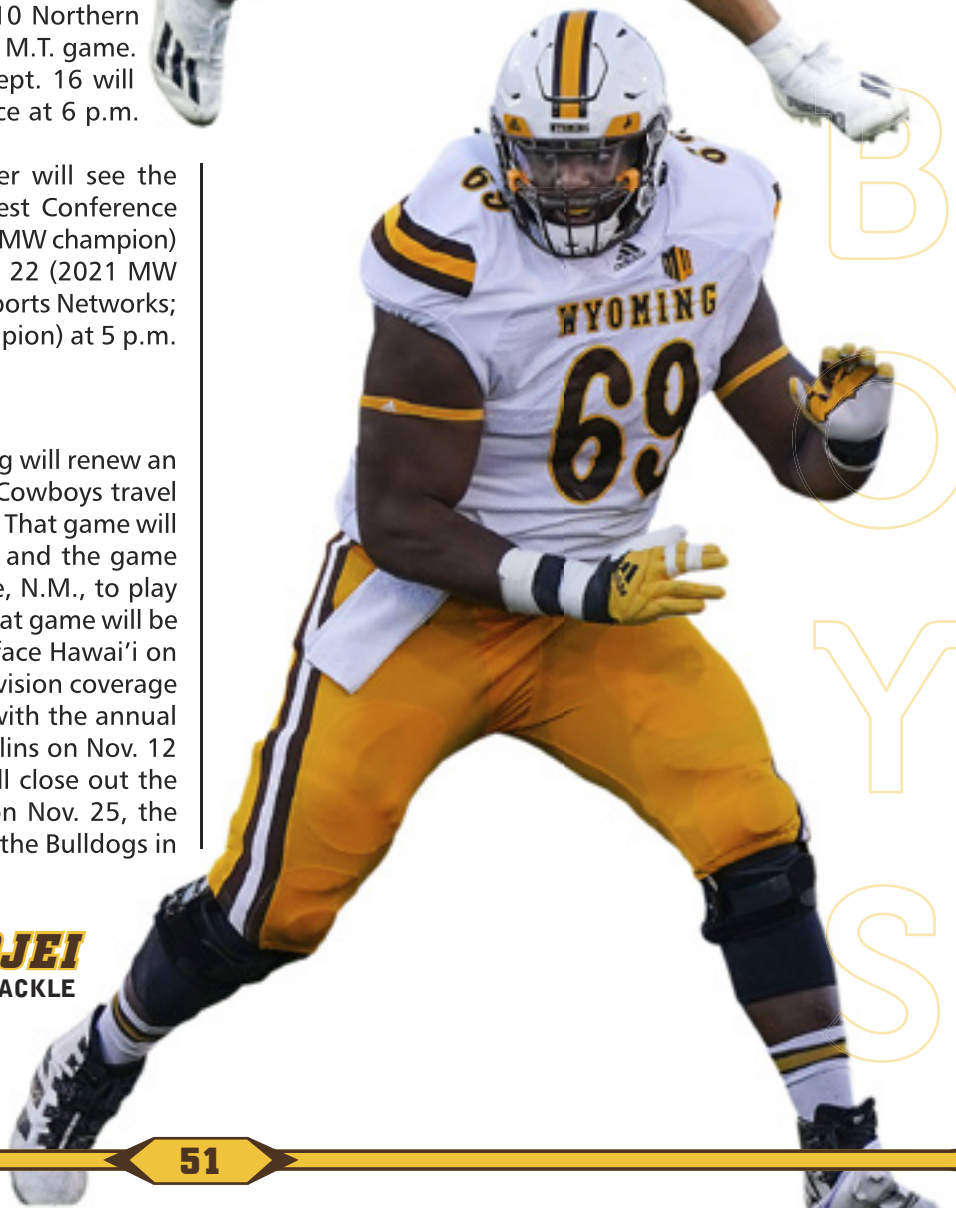

The months of October and November will see the Cowboys host the last three Mountain West Conference champions in: San Jose State on Oct. 1 (2020 MW champion) at 5:30 p.m. on CBSSN; Utah State on Oct. 22 (2021 MW champ) game time TBA on one of the FOX Sports Networks; and Boise State on Nov. 19 (2019 MW champion) at 5 p.m. on CBSSN.

Road Schedule

In addition to its trip to Illinois, Wyoming will renew an old rivalry on Saturday, Sept. 24 when the Cowboys travel to Provo, Utah, to take on the BYU Cougars. That game will be televised on one of the ESPN Networks and the game time is TBA. UW will travel to Albuquerque, N.M., to play New Mexico in a 5 p.m. kickoff on Oct. 8. That game will be televised on CBSSN. A trip to Honolulu to face Hawai'i on Oct. 29 will follow. The game time and television coverage of that game is TBA. November will start with the annual "Border War" vs. Colorado State in Fort Collins on Nov. 12 in a 5 p.m. game on CBSSN. Wyoming will close out the regular season with a Friday night game on Nov. 25, the day after Thanksgiving, in Fresno, Calif., vs. the Bulldogs in an 8 p.m. kickoff on FS1.

Quarterbacks

When the Cowboys take the field for their Aug. 27 season opener at Illinois, they will have one quarterback on the roster who has seen extensive experience playing at the NCAA FBS level. That QB is junior Andrew Peasley, who transferred to Wyoming in January from Utah State with two years of eligibility remaining. The other quarterbacks that competed in the spring for the starting spot included redshirt freshman Hank Gibbs, redshirt sophomore Jayden Clemons and junior-college transfer Evan Svoboda. True freshman Caden Becker joined the team this summer. The competition for the starting spot will continue in fall camp.

Peasley's best career games at Utah State were at Air Force and at Washington State in 2021 and vs. New Mexico in 2020. Last season with Utah State trailing Air Force 24-20 in the third quarter, Peasley rallied the Aggies to a 49-45 road win. He threw three second-half touchdown passes of 5 yards, 37 yards and 72 yards to three different receivers to fuel the comeback. Peasley completed 10 of 15 passes (.667) on the day for 195 yards. He added 29 rushing yards on five carries to tally 224 yards of total offense. He also scored a two-point conversion, scrambling into the end zone for the successful PAT. In the 2021 season-opening win at Washington State, Peasley completed 6 of 12 passes (.500) for 76 yards and ran four times for 43 yards to account for 119 yards of total offense in a 26-23 road victory.

In 2020, Peasley earned Mountain West Offensive Player of the Week honors with an outstanding performance against New Mexico in a 41-27 home victory. Peasley completed 14 of 21 pass attempts (.667) for 239 yards and threw three TD passes versus the Lobos. He also ran for 118 yards on 11 carries against UNM, including a 62-yard touchdown run, and accounted for 357 yards of total offense. That performance also earned him recognition as a Manning Award Star of the Week.

During his college career, Peasley has completed 70 of 127 passes (.551) for 830 yards, seven touchdowns and five interceptions. He has also rushed for 515 yards on 57 carries, averaging 9.0 yards per carry and scoring three rushing touchdowns.

"When you talk about a football team the first position most people want to hear about is quarterback," said head coach Craig Bohl. "Andrew Peasley really did some good things during the course of spring, and I think he finished off with a good spring game. He really made progress in learning our system. He's an experienced player, but he's not played in our system before in a game. It will be important for him to continue to make progress in fall camp.

"Hank Gibbs had a good spring, as well. Evan Svoboda has a lot of ability and is still finding his way moving up in competition from junior college after transferring in from Snow College. Jayden Clemons did some good things this spring, and then we have a freshman in Caden Becker, who joined us in the summer."

Running Backs

Wyoming is fortunate to have an outstanding group of running backs returning for the 2022 season, highlighted by junior Titus Swen. Swen is coming off an extremely productive 2021 season. He earned Second Team All-Mountain West Conference honors from Pro Football Focus last season. He rushed for a career high 785 yards and seven touchdowns while sharing carries with Wyoming's second all-time leading rusher Xazavian Valladay.

Swen averaged 5.95 yards per carry to rank No. 2 in the Mountain West and No. 26 in the nation. He recorded two 100-yard rushing games in '21 -- 166 yards in a home win over Colorado State and 169 yards in a road win over Utah State. The 169 yards at Utah State included a 98-yard run for a touchdown that put on display Swen's explosive running style.

Joining Swen in the backfield this season will be sophomore Dawaiian McNeely, who also saw significant game action last season and is as healthy as he has been during his Wyoming career. Sophomore Jeremy Hollingsworth injured a knee in spring and likely will be out for much of the 2022 season. There are a number of young, talented backs vying for playing time in redshirt freshmen Joey Braasch, D.Q. James and Jordon Vaughn and true freshman L.J. Richardson.

"Last year, Titus Swen led our football team in yards per carry," said Bohl. "He's an explosive runner, capable receiver, and I think he has certainly improved in his pass protection. I really believe Titus is a dynamic running back. He possesses good speed to go with his ability to break a lot of tackles. We're excited about Titus' future.

"Dawaiian McNeely played some for us a year ago. He had a big-time run for a long touchdown in the spring game. He's come back in good shape from surgery to his abdominal area.

"Along with Titus and Dawaiian, we have D.Q. James, who is an exciting player when he has the ball in his hands. He can make a lot of people miss.

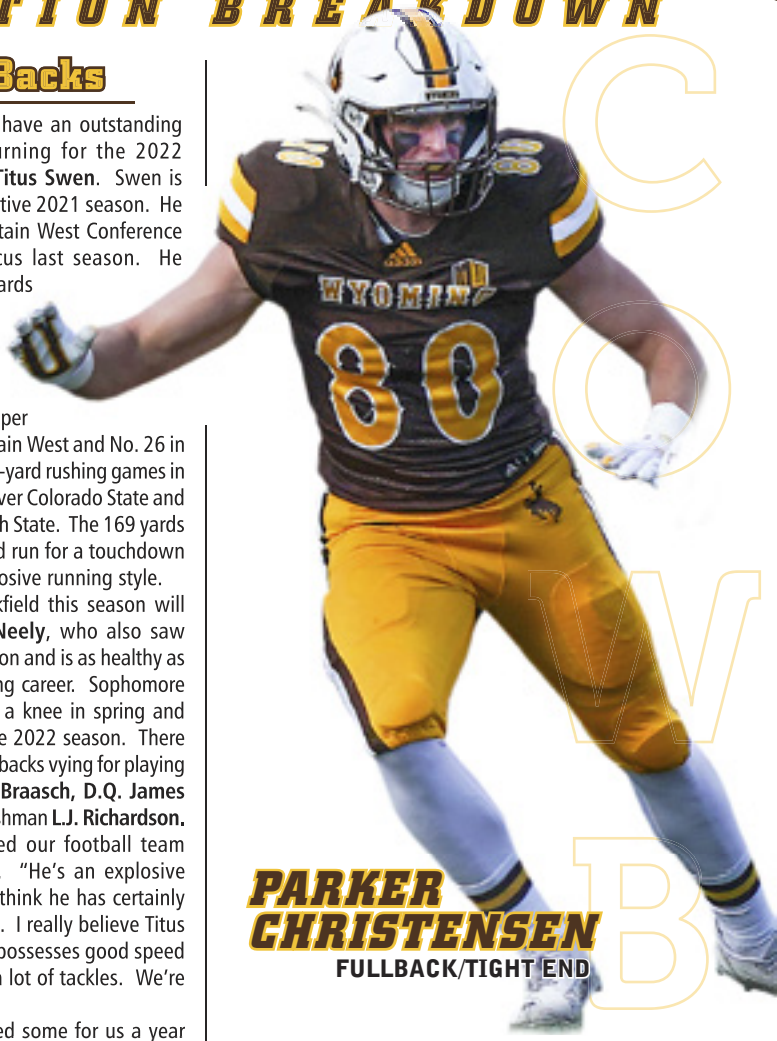

"Jeremy Hollingsworth is a veteran who suffered a knee injury in spring and won't be participating, particularly earlier in the year.

"And then we have some younger players who we will be taking a look at in the fall. We feel good about the number of players we have at running back and certainly feel good about what Titus showed last year."

Fullbacks

The Cowboys' fullback position definitely has a Wyoming flavor to it, with three of the four fullbacks coming from the state of Wyoming. Sophomore Parker Christensen from Sheridan, Wyo., is Wyoming's most versatile offensive performer, playing both fullback and tight end and starting 11 of 13 games last season. In four of those games, he was joined in the starting lineup by Caleb Driskill from Gillette, Wyo. Rounding out the fullback position are redshirt freshmen Kimball Madsen from Mountain View, Wyo., and Dalton Strouss from San Luis Obispo, Calif.

"It's always good to have a couple experienced players there and great to have a couple Wyoming natives there," commented Bohl. "Parker Christensen, from Sheridan, shifts between fullback and H-Back positions for us. He can also line up as a traditional tight end. He's gained some weight, and he's a talented player whether he's running the football, catching it or blocking. Caleb Driskill is from Gillette and is more of a traditional fullback. We are one of the few teams who still features a true fullback in our offense and it's great to have those two guys there."

POSITION-BY-POSITION BREAKDOWN

JOSHUA COBBS
WIDE RECEIVER

Wide Receivers

Sophomore Joshua Cobbs played his best football at the end of the 2021 season. He enjoyed the best game of his career in Wyoming's road win at Utah State, catching seven passes for 76 yards. Cobbs caught four passes for 31 yards in the regular-season finale vs. Hawai'i and concluded the season with two receptions for 17 yards in the bowl win over Kent State. The biggest hole in Wyoming's receiving corps was left by sophomore Isaiah Neyor, who earned Second Team All-Mountain West honors and transferred to Texas after the conclusion of the 2021 season. Redshirt junior Gunner Gentry missed all of the 2021 season due to injury, but if he is able to return to form he could provide a big boost to the receiving corps. Other juniors who return with game experience are Wyatt Wieland, Caleb Cooley and Ryan Marquez. Cooley is also the Pokes' punt returner. Sophomores Alex Brown, Tyrese Grant and Will Pelissier are other young players who should challenge for playing time along with redshirt freshman Jaylen Sargent. The Cowboys also added a transfer in former Southern Cal wide receiver Chase Locke, who joined the team this summer.

"Josh (Cobbs) is a young man who football is really important to him, and he's a guy who has high expectations for himself," said Bohl.

"Wyatt Wieland is another experienced player who really made some great catches last year.

"When we look through our roster of receivers, Alex Brown is a guy who has great height at 6'4" and when he stretches out can really cover a lot of ground.

"And then we are really excited to see where Gunner Gentry will be at when we get to fall camp. Gunner has unfortunately been sidetracked with some injuries, but we think he is in good shape right now. Before he was injured last year, he had really looked good in practice.

"Then we'll see who among a host of younger players come to the forefront."

Tight Ends

The tight end position will be among Wyoming's most experienced position groups in 2022. That experience starts with sophomore hybrid fullback/tight end Parker Christensen and junior tight end Treyton Welch, who have made 13 and 17 career starts, respectively. Juniors Jackson Marcotte and Colin O'Brien played key roles for the Pokes last season and sophomore Nick Miles also saw playing time in 2021.

"Tight end is the deepest position on our football team when you throw Parker (Christensen) in that grouping," said Bohl. "Obviously, Treyton Welch did some really good things for us last year and is an older, seasoned guy. He is a really good blocker, has good speed for a tight end and has really strong hands.

"Jackson Marcotte will be entering his second year of Law School at Wyoming this fall. He's really an accomplished person on and off the field. He adds great leadership and he's a bigger tight end. Jackson is up to 263 pounds. He has overcome a tremendous number of injuries and returned to play for us midway through last season.

"Colin O'Brien is really coming into his own, as well. We kind of have two groupings here. We have some H-Back type guys who can move really well in Parker and Treyton and then we've got some bigger more traditional tight ends when you look at Jackson and Colin and Nick Miles, who is one of those bigger guys at around 260 pounds. We also have a couple younger guys, so we have a really deep position there.

"Having a group of tight ends like this opens up our playbook. We're a pro-style offense as opposed to a spread offense that a lot of college teams run. This grouping of tight ends fits wells for us as we want to play Cowboy Tough football. When you have this diverse group of tight ends, you can play with a lot of different combinations of tight ends to help create matchups and it poses a lot of problems defensively for opponents."

Offensive Line

While the offensive line lost several seniors from last year's team, there are a number of experienced, talented players returning to blend with a group of younger players on the rise.

The veterans returning include current senior tackle Eric Abojei, junior tackle Frank Crum and junior guard Zach Watts. They will team with the likes of sophomore center Nofoafia Tulafono, redshirt freshman guard Emmanuel Pregnon, redshirt freshman guard Jack Walsh and redshirt freshman tackle Caden Barnett.

Abojei has started 26 of the 33 career games he has played in as a Cowboy, and Crum has started 24 of his 31 career games. Watts also has eight starts in his 22 career games played. Crum was named Honorable Mention All-Mountain West by Pro Football Focus in 2021.

"At the center position, Fia (Nofoafia Tulafono) has some good ability there," said Bohl. "Sometimes we will interchange centers and guards to find our best combination and Fia is certainly one of those in the mix inside. Emmanuel Pregnon is another inside guy. Zach Watts has played a lot of football for us at guard. Jack Walsh is a freshman, who redshirted last year and who we feel has a lot of ability, so inside those are the guys we are really going to count on. I want to make note that Latrell Bible has chosen to discontinue his football career but is going to finish up school, and I want to wish Latrell the best.

TREYTON WELCH
TIGHT END

POSITION-BY-POSITION BREAKDOWN

"When we look at tackles, Eric Abojei is our most experienced offensive lineman. We moved Eric from left guard out to left tackle this spring, and he showed some really good promise there. Frank Crum is a multi-year starter, and we feel good with where he is at at right tackle. Caden Barnett is a redshirt freshman who's done some really good things, so those are our three main guys at the tackle positions coming out of spring."

DEFENSE

Cornerbacks

The Cowboy defense will be looking to replace its two starting cornerbacks from last season in C.J. Coldon and Azizi Hearn. One of the leading contenders will be sophomore Cam Stone, who served as the back-up to both Coldon and Hearn last season. Wyoming fans are of course already aware of Stone's athletic abilities as he starred as UW's kickoff returner last season, including returning a kick 99 yards for a touchdown to help fuel UW's 44-17 road win over Utah State. Stone earned Honorable Mention All-MW honors from Pro Football Focus in 2021 as a kick returner.

Two key transfers will also factor into the competition at cornerback. Deron Harrell, a native of Denver, transferred to Wyoming from the University of Wisconsin with one year of eligibility remaining, and Jakorey Hawkins, transferred to UW from Ole Miss with two remaining years of eligibility. A group of younger players in redshirt freshmen Jovan Marsh and Kolbey Taylor and sophomore Mathew Posas also return. True freshman Josh Dixon will join the team in the summer of 2022.

"At the cornerback position, Cam Stone is a young man who has been here a couple years now and played quite a bit last year. When he was on the field, he played really well and is a very competitive guy," said Bohl. "Jakorey Hawkins is a transfer, who had significant playing time at Ole Miss. He really showed good ability during the course of this past spring. He came up with some interceptions and certainly has good size for a cornerback. Deron Harrell transferred from the University of Wisconsin and is originally from the Denver area. Those three all possess good size. Along with them Kolbey Taylor is a younger player who has done some good things. He needs to mature, but he has good ability and is another big corner. Those will be the main four guys we are going to take a hard look at entering fall camp."

Safeties

A bright spot in the final five games of the 2021 season was the emergence of then redshirt freshman safety Isaac White. White stepped in for injured senior Esaias Gandy and made an immediate impact. Another experienced returning safety is senior Miles Williams, who had an outstanding spring. Sophomore Wyett Ekeler, who was one of UW's top special teams' players last season, is also a leading candidate for a starting safety spot.

"Wyett Ekeler -- I know everybody has been talking about his brother (Austin Ekeler) having a great career as a running back with the Los Angeles Chargers -- but Wyett has been here a couple years now and is starting to come into his own," commented Bohl. "He's been a little bit nicked up with injuries but he had a good spring. Isaac White played a lot last year as the year went along, and Miles Williams had a great spring and that was probably the best he has played during his time as a Cowboy. We feel like we have a good grouping with those three and then we are looking for a fourth guy. Andrew Johnson, a redshirt freshman who hails from Cheyenne, is a young player who had a nice spring."

Nickel Backs

While he technically is only a sophomore due to how the COVID season of 2020 provided players with an added year of eligibility, Keonte Glinton will provide Wyoming's secondary with a veteran presence. Glinton has played in all 19 of Wyoming's games over the past two seasons, and he has started seven games. A versatile player, who can play both corner and nickel, Glinton settled into the nickel spot last season and is the favorite to fill that role again in 2022. Beyond Glinton, competition for playing time will be contested between a trio of redshirt freshmen in Wrook Brown, Buck Coors and Zaire Jackson and a true freshman in Malique Singleton.

"We are really excited about Keonte Glinton. Each year he's gained more experience," said Bohl. "He is up to 190 pounds and is moving really well. Keonte is a smart player and has a great understanding of our defense. Behind him we've got competition between a group of young players."

Linebackers

Gone is All-America middle linebacker Chad Muma, who was drafted in the third round of the 2022 NFL Draft by the Jacksonville Jaguars. Muma's running mate at linebacker last season, sophomore Easton Gibbs, returns and has shifted from his weak-side linebacker (WILL) slot to take over the middle linebacker position. Gibbs was recognized by Pro Football Focus as an Honorable Mention All-Conference selection last season.

Who will move into Gibbs WILL position is still up for competition. Among three leading contenders are sophomores Shae Suiaunoa, Connor Shay and Cole DeMarzo. DeMarzo transferred to Wyoming in January from Michigan State.

"We moved Easton Gibbs from the WILL (weak-side) linebacker position to the MIKE (middle) linebacker position this past spring," said Bohl. "That has become somewhat of a traditional move that we've made the last few years. We really feel good about Easton's progress. Shae Suiaunoa is a guy who's played some in the past, and it's going to be important for him to continue to improve this fall. Connor Shay is another guy who did some good things last year in his first year on the field for us. Cole DeMarzo is a young man who transferred from Michigan State this past offseason and will probably be among the top four candidates at linebacker. We are set in stone that Easton will be our middle linebacker, we just need to solidify our weak-side spot."

KEONTE GLINTON

Defensive Line

The interior defensive line looks to be one of the strengths for the Cowboys in 2022. Led by All-Conference performer Cole Godbout at nose tackle and Jordan Bertagnole at defensive tackle, the Poke interior front will have two veterans anchoring the defensive line. Godbout was named Second Team All-Mountain West by Pro Football Focus and Honorable Mention by MW head coaches and media. Two other interior linemen who have gained game experience over the past two seasons are nose tackle Gavin Meyer and defensive tackle Caleb Robinson.

While the interior portion of the defensive line will feature a number of experienced players, the defensive end position will be filled with young players, who are talented but inexperienced. Lost to graduation is former team captain Garrett Crall. Other 2021 starters Solomon Byrd and Jaylen Pate also graduated and chose to transfer.

JORDAN BERTAGNOLE
DEFENSIVE TACKLE

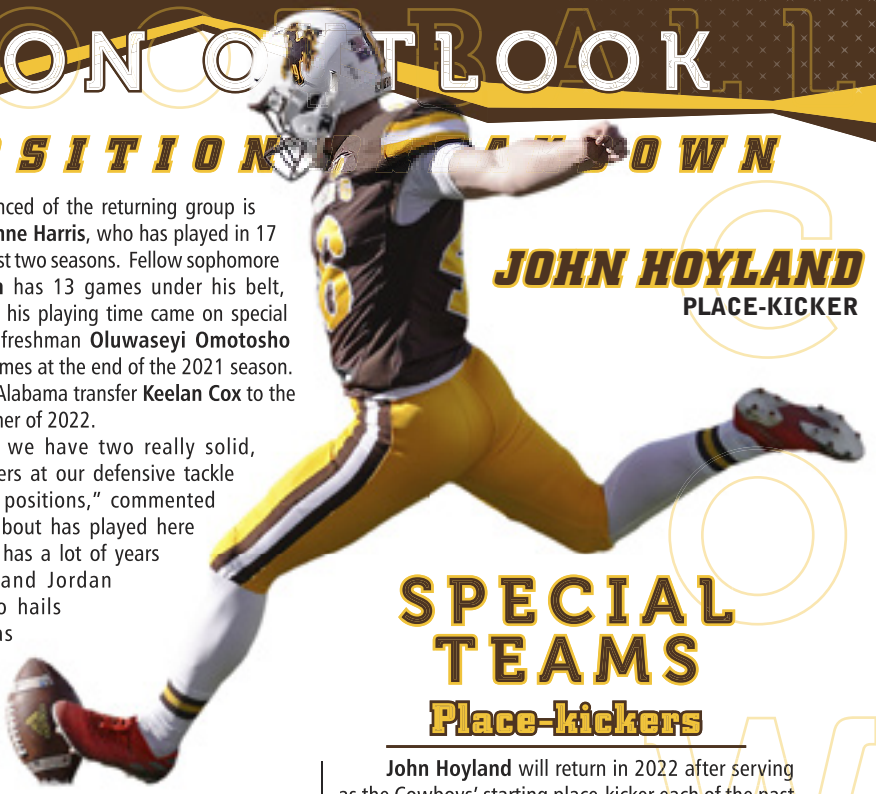

The most experienced of the returning group is sophomore DeVonne Harris, who has played in 17 games over the past two seasons. Fellow sophomore Sabastian Harsh has 13 games under his belt, although much of his playing time came on special teams. Redshirt freshman Oluwaseyi Omotosho played in three games at the end of the 2021 season. The Pokes added Alabama transfer Keelan Cox to the roster in the summer of 2022.

"I feel like we have two really solid, experienced players at our defensive tackle and nose tackle positions," commented Bohl. "Cole Godbout has played here a long time. He has a lot of years of experience, and Jordan Bertagnole, who hails from Casper, has gained a lot of experience the past two years and has played well. Caleb Robinson is a player who has really good ability but would probably be behind those two guys right now. Then our fourth guy, we're waiting to see whether it will be Gavin Meyer or whether we'll see Ethan Drewes rise to the top.

"Moving on to the defensive end position, we felt like Sabastian Harsh had an outstanding spring. Last year, he played some on defense and was a great player on special teams. DeVonne Harris also played well last season. DeVonne has gained some weight, and he has good length. Double O as we call him or Olu (Oluwaseyi Omotosho) is a dynamic pass rusher. He has improved his run-game defense. He is also up to almost 250 pounds, and then Braden Siders is behind him. We feel pretty good about the defensive end position. We also added Keelan Cox from the University of Alabama, so he'll be in there competing at defensive end, as well."

JOHN HOYLAND
PLACE-KICKER

SPECIAL TEAMS

Place-kickers

John Hoyland will return in 2022 after serving as the Cowboys' starting place-kicker each of the past two seasons. In 2020 as a true freshman, Hoyland was named a First Team Freshman All-American by the Football Writers Association of America and he earned Second Team All-Conference honors in voting by MW head coaches and media. He will be backed up again by fellow sophomore Luke Glassock.

"I think John Hoyland has really established himself as a very, very consistent place-kicker," said Bohl. "He's accurate. We'd like to improve his range a little bit more. Last year, he also served as our kick-off guy. The kick-off role may be open for some competition this fall."

Punting

In his first season as Wyoming's starting punter, Ralph Fawaz averaged 42.4 yards per punt, had 16 punts go for over 50 yards and placed 42 percent of his punts (24 of 57) inside the opponents' 20-yard line. His backup also returns in junior Clayton Stewart.

"At the punting position, Ralph Fawaz held down the position last year and did a nice job," added Bohl. "He did get challenged this spring by Clayton Stewart. We'll continue to evaluate that position throughout fall camp."

Return Specialists

Wyoming's kickoff return game was strong in 2021 as cornerback Cam Stone proved to be a huge threat. Stone returned the second longest kickoff return in school history -- a 99-yard return for a touchdown at Utah State. Stone averaged 40.0 yards per return on the five kickoffs he returned in 2021. UW's punt returner, wide receiver Caleb Cooley, is also back.

SEASON OUTLOOK

COWBOY COACHES

CRAIG BOHL

(Nebraska '82)

Head Coach, University of Wyoming

Craig Bohl will be entering his ninth season leading the University of Wyoming Football program in 2022 and his 20th season as a head coach at the collegiate level. During the past eight seasons under the direction of Bohl, Wyoming Football has enjoyed a level of excellence that has never been reached in the rich history of Cowboy Football.

Bohl and his coaching staff became the first Wyoming Football staff to lead UW to three straight bowl victories — the 2017 Famous Idaho Potato Bowl, the 2019 NOVA Home Loans Arizona Bowl and the 2021 Famous Idaho Potato Bowl.

He and his staff also are the only football staff in Wyoming history to lead four different teams to bowl appearances. Wyoming's 2021 bowl appearance marked the fourth time in six seasons (2016, '17, '19 and '21) that Bohl guided the Cowboys to a bowl bid, which is a first in school history. The previous best was four bowl appearances in seven seasons (1987, '88, '90 and '93).

Bohl currently serves as President of the American Football Coaches Association (AFCA), having been elected as President at the 2022 AFCA Convention, and serves on the AFCA Board of Trustees. He was appointed to the 13-member NCAA Division I Football Competition Committee in January of 2017 and has also served on the NCAA Division I Football Oversight Committee.

The success that Cowboy Football has enjoyed and the excitement generated around the program under Bohl's direction is just what UW Athletics Director Tom Burman had hoped for when he hired Bohl on Dec. 8, 2013.

When Bohl was hired as head football coach at Wyoming, he was open in saying that he wanted to bring Cowboy Football back to a place of national prominence.

In terms of success, the Cowboys have become regular contenders in the race for the Mountain West Conference title. UW won eight games in 2016, '17 and '19, and hosted the 2016 Mountain West Championship Game by virtue of being the highest ranked team in the conference at the time of the championship game.

The Cowboys earned bowl eligibility a fifth time in the 2018 season.

During Bohl's tenure, Wyoming has had more former Cowboys on NFL rosters than at any other period in Wyoming history. There were a total of 16 former Cowboys on NFL rosters as of Jan. 1, 2022 — some on active rosters and others on developmental squads.

In terms of NFL Draft picks, UW's most recent was linebacker Chad Muma, who was selected as the 6th pick in the 3rd round of the 2022 NFL Draft by the Jacksonville Jaguars. Muma became the eighth Wyoming Cowboy to be selected in the NFL Draft during the first eight seasons Bohl has been the head coach at Wyoming. The previous NFL Draft picks during the Bohl era include: 2015 Mark Nzeocha (Dallas Cowboys, 7th Round, 19th Pick); 2017 Brian Hill (Atlanta Falcons, 5th Round 12th Pick); 2017 Chase Roullier (Washington Commanders, 6th Round 15th Pick); 2018 Josh Allen (Buffalo Bills, 1st Round, 7th Pick); 2019 Marcus Epps (Minnesota Vikings, 6th Round, 18th Pick); 2020 Logan Wilson (Cincinnati Bengals, 3rd Round, 1st Pick); and 2020 Cassh Maluia (New England Patriots, 6th Round, 25th Pick).

Wyoming has had at least one player selected in six of the last eight NFL Drafts (2015, '17, '18, '19, '20 and '22) and twice had two players taken in the same draft (2017 and 2020).

Craig Bohl and former FOX Sports and current ESPN color analyst Troy Aikman talk during Wyoming's NFL Pro Day.

The excitement surrounding Wyoming Football included the extensive coverage of former Cowboy quarterback Josh Allen, who was selected as the No. 7 overall pick in the 2018 NFL Draft by the Buffalo Bills. That marked the highest selection by a Wyoming Cowboy in the history of the program and was the second highest selection by a Mountain West player since Utah's Alex Smith was selected No. 1 in 2005 by the San Francisco 49ers. Leading up to Allen being drafted, Wyoming's Pro Day was covered live by both ESPN and the NFL Network. Beginning with the 2017 football season through the 2018 NFL Draft, media coverage of Wyoming Football for that time period was estimated by Joyce Julius & Associates at over $159 million.

Cowboy linebackers Wilson (in 2019) and Muma (in 2021) were each one of only six national finalists for the 2019 and 2021 Butkus Awards, respectively. The Butkus Award honors the nation's top collegiate linebacker. Wilson earned multiple All-America honors, including being named a First Team All-American by Pro Football Focus, Second Team by USA Today and Third Team by the Associated Press. Muma was named a Second Team All-American by both the Walter Camp Football Foundation and Pro Football Focus, while earning Third Team All-America honors from the Associated Press.

In 2018, Wyoming had two finalists for national awards for the first time in program history. Place-kicker Cooper Rothe was one of three national finalists for the Lou Groza Collegiate Place-Kicker Award, that honors the nation's top collegiate place-kicker each year. Free safety Marcus Epps was one of only three national finalists for the Burlsworth Trophy, which is awarded to the most outstanding football player in America who began his career as a walk-on. Epps went on to be drafted by the Minnesota Vikings in the sixth round of the 2019 NFL Draft.

During Bohl's tenure as Wyoming's head coach, he has had a freshman earn Freshman All-America honors from the Football Writers Association of America (FWAA) five times. The most recent Cowboy freshman to receive the honor was place-kicker John Hoyland in 2020. The other four Pokes coached by Bohl to be named Freshman All-Americans by the FWAA were: safety Andrew Wingard (2015), linebacker Logan Wilson (2016), center Keegan Cryder (2018) and defensive end Solomon Byrd (2019).

The 2021 season saw the Cowboys score its most points ever in a bowl game in a dominant 52-38 win over Ken State. The Cowboy rushing attack once again ranked among the best in the nation at No. 20, and the Wyoming pass defense ranked No. 12 in the country in fewest passing yards allowed. Wyoming was again one of the most disciplined teams in the country, ranking No. 26 in fewest penalties committed. The Pokes concluded the season with a 7-6 record for their fourth winning record in the past six seasons.

In the COVID-shortened season of 2020, Wyoming's defense ranked among the Top 30 teams in the nation in 10 defensive categories, including ranking: No. 16 in total defense, No. 21 in rushing defense, No. 24 in scoring defense and No. 29 in pass defense. Wyoming's 2020 offense ranked No. 7 in the NCAA in passing yards per completion, No. 14 in rushing offense and No. 24 in fewest turnovers committed.

The Cowboy defense ranked No. 11 in the nation in scoring defense and No. 11 in rushing defense in 2019. Wyoming's defense also was No. 6 in the country in red-zone defense and scored three defensive touchdowns to rank No. 12 in the FBS. The UW offense ranked No. 10 in the nation in passing yards per completion, was No. 23 in the country in rushing offense and No. 32 in third-down conversions. That combination of offensive and defensive balance led to an 8-5 record and a victory in the NOVA Home Loans Arizona Bowl.

Wyoming was also one of the best defensive teams in the nation in 2018. The Cowboys ranked No. 19 in the nation in total defense, No. 25 in rushing defense, No. 28 in scoring defense and No. 32 in pass defense on way to a 6-6 record to earn bowl eligibility for the third straight season.

The 2017 season saw the Cowboys post an 8-5 record and finish second in the MW Mountain Division. The Pokes were led by their defense in 2017, ranking No. 1 in the nation in forcing turnovers (38) and leading the Mountain West and ranking No. 9 in the nation in scoring defense, allowing opponents only 17.5 points per game. Wyoming's defense also ranked No. 1 in fumbles recovered (18), No. 2 in interceptions (20), No. 8 in defensive touchdowns scored, 13th in the NCAA in pass defense, and 23rd in total defense. UW captured the 2017 Famous Idaho Potato Bowl in a convincing 37-14 win over Central Michigan.

ESPN's Todd McShay and Mark Schwarz with Coach Bohl at Wyoming's NFL Pro Day

In 2016, Bohl's team defeated two Top 25 ranked opponents, was named the National Team of the Week by the Football Writers Association of America (FWAA) for one of those wins and received votes itself in the national polls. Wyoming also captured the Mountain Division title of the Mountain West Conference, earned the right to host the 2016 MW Football Championship Game as the highest ranked team in the conference and was invited to the San Diego County Credit Union Poinsettia Bowl. His Cowboys ended the year with an 8-6 record and featured one of the NCAA's top scoring offenses, averaging 35.9 points per game to rank No. 25 in the nation. Bohl was recognized for his turnaround of Cowboy Football by being named the 2016 Mountain West Conference Coach of the Year in voting by conference head coaches and media.

Two Cowboys earned All-America honors in 2016 in running back Brian Hill and center Chase Roullier. Linebacker Logan Wilson earned Freshman All-America honors in 2016, joining Andrew Wingard, who earned Freshman All-America honors a year earlier.

Bohl, who was part of building National Championship teams at North Dakota State and Nebraska, was introduced by University of Wyoming Athletics Director Tom Burman as the new head football coach of the Wyoming Cowboys on Sunday, Dec. 8, 2013. Bohl became the 32nd head football coach in University of Wyoming history.

He came to Wyoming after building a national power at North Dakota State as a head coach for 11 seasons from 2003-13. His teams won three consecutive National Championships at the NCAA Football Championship Subdivision (FCS) level in 2011, '12 and '13. NDSU became only the second FCS school in NCAA history to win three consecutive national football titles, tied the FCS record for consecutive wins (24 from 2011-13) and became the first undefeated FCS National Champion since 1996.

"Rarely do you get an opportunity to hire a head coach who has won multiple National Championships and has a reputation as a program builder," said Burman.

"I am absolutely confident we hired one of the best football coaches in the country. All you have to do is look at Craig's record."

"I understand the awesome responsibility to lead this football team," said Bohl. "I also understand how important football is in the fabric of this institution and not only this institution but around the state. Whether you're in Sheridan, Casper or Thermopolis, this is the state team, and I embrace that.

"I'm looking forward to getting to know the people of our great state of Wyoming. It will be an exciting time for us. We understand that the bar is high. I also appreciate the vision that Tom (Burman) has, and I want to thank him for having faith in me to lead this football program. He was able to articulate to me where our football program needs to go and the resources that are going to be provided to allow us to experience success.

"I can't tell you how excited I am to embrace the Cowboy tradition."

Not only did Bohl win three national titles at the FCS level, but he was the linebackers coach at his alma mater, Nebraska, when the Huskers won the 1995 and 1997 National Championships.

Bohl concluded his career as head coach of the NDSU Bison, with a 104-32 (.765) record. He guided the Bison to the FCS Playoffs each of his final four seasons, posting a 14-1 record in the FCS Playoffs. His last three teams posted records of 14-1 (2011), 14-1 (2012) and 15-0 (2013) for a combined record of 43-2 (.956) on way to their three consecutive FCS national titles.

By winning the 2013 FCS National Championship, North Dakota State extended its winning streak to 24 consecutive games, which tied both the NDSU and FCS records for consecutive victories. The Bison teams from 1964-66 originally set the school record with 24 straight victories. The University of Pennsylvania set the FCS record of 24 consecutive wins from 1992-95. That record was later tied by Montana from 2001-02.

Craig Bohl pictured with the Eddie Robinson Coach of the Year trophy. Bohl became the first coach in the first 27 years of the award to win it in consecutive seasons (2012 and 2013).

The 2013 NDSU team also set a North Dakota State single-season record for wins, posting a perfect 15-0 record. The Bison became the first undefeated FCS National Champion since Marshall went 15-0 to win the 1996 FCS title.

The Bison had great success against FBS teams to go with their elite status at the FCS level. In each of his last four seasons at NDSU, Bohl's Bison defeated all four of the FBS teams they faced, and captured all of those wins on the road. NDSU won at Kansas in 2010 (by a score of 6-3), at Minnesota in 2011 (37-24), at Colorado State in 2012 (22-7), and at Kansas State in 2013 (24-21). Overall during his 11 years at North Dakota State, Bohl's teams built a 7-3 record against FBS teams.

In 2012 and '13, Bohl received both The Sports Network Eddie Robinson FCS National Coach of the Year Award and the American Football Coaches Association (AFCA) FCS National Coach of the Year Award. He became the first coach in the first 27 years of the Eddie Robinson Award to win it in consecutive seasons. In 2013, he also received the Liberty Mutual FCS Coach of the Year Award, which is presented in partnership with the National Football Foundation and College Football Hall of Fame. His other National Coach of the Year honor came in 2006, when he was recognized by the Football Gazette as the FCS National Coach of the Year and the Northwest Region Coach of the Year.

He was a finalist for The Sports Network Eddie Robinson Award in 2011, 2007 and 2006, and was the 2011 and 2013 AFCA Region 4 FCS Coach of the Year.

His North Dakota State teams were built on an exciting West Coast offense and a physical, aggressive defense. In the 2013 season, North Dakota State's offense ranked No. 7 in the nation in rushing offense (257.3 yards per game), No. 10 in scoring offense (38.7 points per game) and No. 14 in total offense (457.5 ypg). The Bison defense ranked No. 1 in the nation in scoring defense (11.3 points allowed per game), No. 2 in the nation in pass defense efficiency (97.59 rating), No. 3 in rushing defense (91.3 yards allowed per game) and was No. 3 in total defense (255.9 yards allowed per game). The Bison led all FCS teams in scoring defense three consecutive seasons (2011-13).

In addition to his 18 years of experience as a head coach, Bohl has 19 years of experience as a full-time assistant coach at the collegiate level and three seasons as a graduate assistant. His last eight years as an assistant coach were spent at Nebraska. He was the linebackers coach under head coach Tom Osborne for five of those seasons and was part of the 1995 and '97 Nebraska National Championship teams. Bohl's final three seasons (2000-02) at Nebraska, he served as the Cornhuskers' defensive coordinator under head coach Frank Solich, before accepting the head-coaching job at North Dakota State in 2003. Bohl was part of 11 bowl-game appearances while at Nebraska — eight as an assistant coach from 1995 to 2002 and three as a graduate assistant coach for the Huskers from 1981-83.

As the defensive coordinator and linebackers coach at Duke in 1994, he helped coach the Blue Devils to the Hall of Fame Bowl in his only season at Duke.

Bohl's North Dakota State teams were ranked in The Sports Network or FCS Coaches Top 25 polls for 107 weeks since beginning FCS play in 2004, and earned the No. 1 ranking in both the final 2011, 2012 and 2013 polls, including being named a unanimous No. 1 following the 2013 campaign. The Bison's record versus FCS Top 25 ranked teams under Bohl's direction was 30-8.

From 2004-2007, Bohl helped lead North Dakota State through its transition to the NCAA FCS level. During that transition period, his teams posted back-to-back 10-1 seasons in 2006 and 2007, but weren't eligible for postseason play due to NCAA rules regarding teams moving up a division.

During his time in Fargo, N.D., Bohl coached 10 Academic All-Americans and 37 All-Americans, while six student-athletes in the last 10 years were named to the Allstate/AFCA Good Works team. He added a seventh Allstate/AFCA Good Works team member in 2014 at Wyoming, when senior wide receiver Dominic Rufran earned that honor.

Bohl grew up in Lincoln, Neb., and went on to attend the University of Nebraska where he was a reserve defensive back from 1977 to 1979 under head coach Tom Osborne. Bohl was part of Nebraska's 1979 Orange Bowl and 1980 Cotton Bowl teams.

He began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at his alma mater in 1981, assisting with the Nebraska linebackers and defensive backs for three seasons from 1981-83. His first full-time coaching position came at North Dakota State in 1984, coaching the defensive backs. He moved on to coach the linebackers at the University of Tulsa for the 1985 and '86 seasons. In 1987 and '88, Bohl was the linebackers coach at the University of Wisconsin. He earned his first defensive coordinator position in 1989 at Rice, where he served as the defensive coordinator for five seasons from 1989-93. In 1994, Bohl accepted the defensive coordinator position at Duke. The following season in 1995, he had the opportunity to return to Nebraska as the linebackers coach, and in his first season back in Lincoln the Huskers won the National Championship. Two seasons later, they captured their second National Championship during Bohl's time as an assistant coach.

Born July 27, 1958, Bohl will be 64 years old when the 2022 season kicks off. He earned his bachelor's degree in business administration from Nebraska in 1982. Bohl's family includes wife Leia, and children Mallory and Morgan, Aaron and Elijah.

Wyoming head football coach Craig Bohl announced on Jan. 21, 2022, the promotion of Mike Grant to the position of Associate Head Coach. Grant has been on the Wyoming coaching staff since 2016. The 2022 season will be Grant's seventh season with the Cowboys and his 30th in college coaching. He will continue to serve as the Offensive Passing Game Coordinator and Wide Receivers Coach for the Pokes.

During his time at Wyoming, Grant has coached former Cowboy standout receivers Tanner Gentry, Isaiah Neyor, Austin Conway, Jake Maulhardt and Raghib Ismail Jr.

Among the 16 bowl bids he has been part of as a coach are four bowl appearances in his six previous seasons at Wyoming. Grant has been part of 21 total bowl appearances as a player and coach, including five as a player at his alma mater, the University of Nebraska, where he played quarterback for the Huskers.

Grant was promoted to Offensive Pass-Game Coordinator in February of 2021. Prior to coming to Wyoming, Grant spent the previous five seasons at the University of North Texas where he coached the wide receivers, the running backs and served as recruiting coordinator during his time there.

In 2021, Grant coached Cowboy wide receiver Isaiah Neyor, who earned Second Team All-Mountain West Conference honors while leading the conference and ranking No. 8 in the nation in touchdown receptions, with 12. Neyor also led the Mountain West and ranked No. 6 in the FBS in average yards per reception (19.95 yards per catch). Wyoming's rushing attack ranked No. 2 in the Mountain West and No. 20 in the NCAA in 2021, averaging 211.7 yards per game. UW's passing attack was fourth best in the MW and No. 38 in the nation in average yards per completion (13.06 yards). The Cowboys posted a 7-6 record and won their third consecutive bowl game, with a convincing 52-38 win over Kent State in the Famous Idaho Potato Bowl. The 52 points scored in the bowl victory was a school record for a bowl game.

Wyoming's 2020 offense featured one of the most effective rushing attacks in the country. The Pokes ranked No. 14 in the nation in rushing, averaging 219.5 rushing yards per game. UW's passing attack also ranked No. 7 nationally in passing yards per completion (14.84 yards per pass completion). The Cowboys ranked No. 24 in fewest turnovers committed (9 total turnovers) and were No. 32 in red-zone offense (converting 23 of 26 red-zone opportunities into points). Wide receiver Neyor earned Honorable Mention All-Mountain West honors from MW head coaches and media, while averaging 31.0 yards per reception. If Neyor would have caught four more passes, he would have met the NCAA minimum of 2.0 catches per game and would have led the nation in yards per catch.

The 2019 season saw the Cowboy offense rank No. 2 in the Mountain West and No. 23 in the nation in rushing offense, averaging 214.8 yards per game. The Cowboy offense also ranked No. 10 in the NCAA in passing yards per completion (14.75 yards per completion), No. 14 in fewest tackles for loss allowed (4.62 per game), No. 26 in fewest fumbles lost (6), No. 32 in third-down conversions (43.3 percent), No. 32 in fewest sacks allowed (1.62 per game) and No. 33 in fewest turnovers committed (15). The Cowboys concluded the season with an 8-5 record and captured the Arizona Bowl championship.

In 2018, the Wyoming Cowboys would win their last four games of the season to earn bowl eligibility at 6-6. In spite of the UW offense being in transition after former Cowboy quarterback Josh Allen became the No. 7 overall selection in the 2018 NFL Draft, the Wyoming offense hit its stride during that four-game winning streak to end the 2018 season. During that four-game win streak, the Pokes averaged 31.0 points and 415.5 yards per game. UW's 2018 offense also ranked No. 1 in the MW and No. 4 in the nation in fewest turnovers, committing only 11 total turnovers for the year.

Grant helped coach a Wyoming offense in 2017 that was extremely efficient in the red zone, scoring on 33 of 34 red-zone opportunities to rank No. 2 in the nation. The offense also did an excellent job of protecting the ball, committing only 14 turnovers to rank No. 19 in the country. UW's offense combined with its defense (38 turnovers forced) to rank No. 1 in the nation in turnover margin, with a +24 turnover margin. Wyoming would record eight wins for the second straight season, and the Pokes posted a convincing 37-14 win in the Famous Idaho Potato Bowl over Central Michigan. In that bowl victory, all three of Wyoming's offensive touchdowns came on touchdown passes to Wyoming wide receivers.

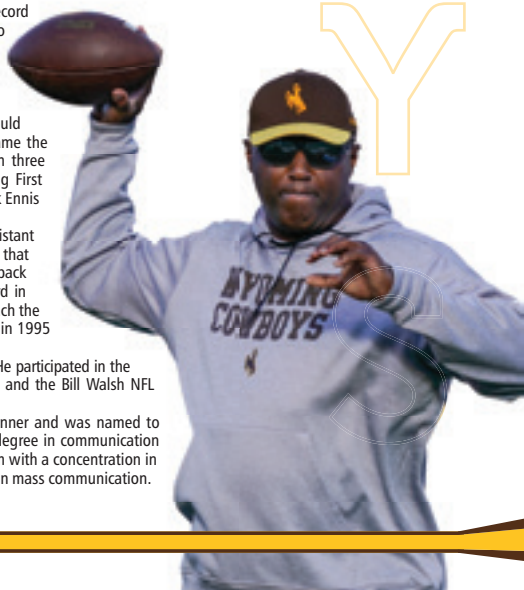

During Grant's first season with the Wyoming Cowboys in 2016, he coached senior wide receiver Tanner Gentry, who earned Second Team All-Mountain West honors and signed a free-agent contract with the Chicago Bears in the spring of 2017. Gentry was named to the Biletnikoff Award Watch List for the second consecutive year. He caught 14 touchdown passes in 2016 to lead the Mountain West Conference and rank No. 9 in the nation. Gentry's 1,326 receiving yards in 2016 also led the MW and ranked 12th in the NCAA. He averaged 94.7 receiving yards per game, ranking him No. 3 in the conference and No. 21 in the country. His 18.42 yards per reception was 27th best in the nation. Grant also coached senior wide receiver Jake Maulhardt, who was invited to the New Orleans Saints rookie camp in the spring of 2017.

Grant was part of a coaching staff that led the 2016 Cowboy offense to a very productive season. The Pokes averaged 35.9 points per game to rank No. 2 in the Mountain West and No. 25 in the nation. The passing game, averaged 15.3 yards per completion to rank No. 8 in the NCAA, and in red-zone offense the Pokes converted 90.6 percent of their red-zone opportunities into scores to rank 14th in the country. Wyoming's offense ranked No. 1 in the MW and No. 22 in the NCAA in first downs (312), was No. 32 in the nation in time of possession (31:34), ranked No. 33 in the country in passing efficiency (143.82 rating) and No. 36 in the nation in rushing offense, averaging 205.4 yards per game.

Grant earned his first full-time coaching position in 1997, coaching the wide receivers and tight ends at James Madison University. Grant has coached at the Football Bowl Subdivision (FBS) level for the past 24 seasons, including: nine seasons at Iowa State (1998-06), one season at Southern Miss (2007), three at Western Michigan (2008-10), five seasons at North Texas (2011-15) and now six seasons at Wyoming (2016-Present).

While at North Texas, Grant started out as the running backs coach for two seasons in 2011 and '12. As the running backs coach, Grant coached Lance Dunbar, who became the career rushing leader in North Texas history and earned All-Sun Belt Conference honors. Grant took over as the wide receivers coach from 2013-15 and added recruiting coordinator responsibilities in 2014 and '15. Among the top receivers he coached at North Texas were Brelan Chancellor, who in 2013 became the first player in Conference USA history to earn First Team All-Conference honors as both a punt returner and kickoff returner. Chancellor also earned Second Team All-Conference honors at wide receiver. Wide receiver Darnell Smith was an Honorable Mention All-Conference honoree in 2013. In 2015, wide receiver Carlos Harris finished his career No. 2 in North Texas school history in career receptions, No. 5 in career receiving yards and No. 9 in career all-purpose yards.

While coaching the wide receivers at Western Michigan from 2008-10, Grant coached four All-Mid-American Conference receivers. In 2010, he had two receivers, Jordan White and Juan Nunez, record 1,000-yard receiving seasons and each caught over 90 passes. White set a school single-season record with 1,378 receiving yards in 2010 on way to earning Honorable Mention All-America honors from CNN/SI and First Team All-MAC honors. He also concluded his career as Western Michigan's career record holder for receiving yards. Nunez had 1,032 yards receiving in 2010 and also earned First Team All-MAC honors. In 2008, Grant coached wide receiver Jamarko Simmons, who led the MAC in receptions (98) and receiving yards (1,100). Simmons ranked No. 3 in the NCAA in receptions in 2008 and earned Second Team All-America honors.

Grant's time at Iowa State included him coaching two receivers who would break the Iowa State career receiving record. In 2002, Lane Danielson became the Cyclones' all-time leading receiver and earned All-Big 12 recognition. Then three years later in 2005, Todd Blythe broke Danielson's record on way to earning First Team All-Big 12 honors. Grant also coached First Team All-Big 12 running back Ennis Haywood in 2000.

In his four seasons (1993-96) as a recruiting assistant and graduate assistant at his alma mater, the University of Nebraska, he was part of Husker teams that won National Championships in 1994 and '95. Nebraska posted back-to-back undefeated seasons in 1994 (13-0) and '95 (12-0), and posted an 11-2 record in 1996, finishing that season ranked No. 6 in the national polls. Grant helped coach the tight ends and offensive tackles at NU. He was on the same staff at Nebraska in 1995 and '96 as current Wyoming head coach Craig Bohl.

Grant has continued to develop his coaching skills throughout his career. He participated in the 2009 NCAA Football Coach's Academy, the 2013 NCAA/NFL Coach's Academy and the Bill Walsh NFL Minority Internship Program, serving an internship in 2013 with the Buffalo Bills.

A quarterback at Nebraska from 1988-92, he was a three-year letterwinner and was named to the Phillips 66 Academic All-Big Eight Honor Roll. He earned his bachelor's degree in communication studies from Nebraska in 1993, added a second bachelor's degree in journalism with a concentration in advertising in 1995 and has completed his course work for his master's degree in mass communication.

He and his wife, Nina, have one daughter, Mireia.

TIM POLASEK

(Concordia '02)

Offensive Coordinator/Quarterbacks

Tim Polasek will serve as Wyoming's offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach for the second consecutive season in 2022. Polasek was the offensive line coach at the University of Iowa the four seasons (2017-20) prior to coming to Wyoming. Before Iowa, Polasek (pronounced PAWL-uh-seck) was the offensive coordinator and running backs coach at North Dakota State for three years from 2014-16. He was a record-setting quarterback himself at Concordia University in Wisconsin.

In his first season guiding the Wyoming offense in 2021, the Cowboys' rushing attack ranked No. 2 in the Mountain West and No. 20 in the NCAA, averaging 211.7 yards per game. UW's passing attack was fourth best in the MW and No. 38 in the nation in average yards per completion (13.06 yards). Wyoming's second all-time leading rusher, Xazavian Valladay, recorded a 1,000-yard rushing season (1,070 yards) and earned Second Team All-Mountain West honors in voting by MW head coaches and media and sophomore running back Titus Swen added 785 rushing yards and Second Team All-Conference honors from Pro Football Focus. Cowboy wide receiver Isaiah Neyor earned Second Team All-Mountain West Conference honors while leading the conference and ranking No. 8 in the nation in touchdown receptions, with 12. Neyor also led the Mountain West and ranked No. 6 in the FBS in average yards per reception (19.95 yards per catch). Three Cowboy offensive linemen earned All-Conference recognition — center Keegan Cryder (First Team by Pro Football Focus), guard Logan Harris (Second Team by PFF) and tackle Frank Crum (Honorable Mention by PFF). The Cowboys posted a 7-6 record and won their third consecutive bowl game, with a convincing 52-38 win over Kent State in the Famous Idaho Potato Bowl. The 52 points scored in the bowl victory was a school record for a bowl game. Wyoming scored 40 or more points four times during the season in victories at Northern Illinois (50 points), vs. Ball State (45), at eventual MW champion Utah State (44) and vs. Kent State.

Polasek was part of four FCS national championships, five Missouri Valley Football Conference titles and one Great West Football Conference title at North Dakota State.

At Iowa in 2020, the Hawkeyes won six straight games, all in Big Ten play, to conclude the regular season. The Hawkeyes scored at least 26 points in each of those six wins. The winning streak included road wins at Minnesota, Penn State and Illinois, and trophy game victories over Minnesota, Nebraska and Wisconsin. The Hawkeyes were ranked No. 15 in the nation in the final College Football Playoff (CFP) rankings and the final Coaches Poll rankings, while ranking No. 16 in the final Associated Press media poll.

Iowa won three straight postseason games and 12 straight non-conference games during Polasek's time in Iowa City. The Hawkeyes were selected to compete in the 2020 Music City Bowl, but that event was canceled due to Iowa's scheduled opponent, Missouri, having COVID issues. Iowa's streak of eight straight bowl invitations through the end of the 2020 season matched the longest in school history. The Hawkeyes won 27 games the last three seasons that Polasek was on the Hawkeye coaching staff.

Iowa's offense in 2020 led the Big Ten in red-zone offense (0.917), ranked second in scoring (31.8) and third in fewest tackles for loss allowed (5.1). Sophomore center Tyler Linderbaum and senior tackle Alaric Jackson earned First Team All-Big Ten honors, while senior guard Cole Banwart was a Second Team selection. Linderbaum was one of three finalists for the Rimington Trophy. Linderbaum and Jackson each earned First and Second Team All-America honors from media outlets. Immediately following the conclusion of the 2021 NFL Draft, Jackson signed as a free agent with the Los Angeles Rams. Banwart signed with the Tennessee Titans as a free agent, and tackle Coy Cronk signed as a free agent with the Green Bay Packers.

In 2021 as a junior, Linderbaum would go on to be a unanimous Consensus All-America selection, and won the Rimington Trophy as the nation's most outstanding center in the nation. Linderbaum declared for the 2022 NFL Draft and was selected as the 25th Pick in the First Round of the 2022 NFL Draft by the Baltimore Ravens.

The Hawkeyes won their final four games in 2019 and ranked 15th in the nation in the final Associated Press and Coaches Polls. Iowa concluded the 2019 campaign with a 10-3 record and defeated No. 22 USC, 49-24, in the Holiday Bowl. Iowa's three losses were all to ranked opponents by a combined 14 points. The Hawkeyes were 4-1 in trophy games for the third straight season. Iowa ranked third in the Big Ten in fewest sacks allowed in 2019 (1.8), led the league in red-zone offense, ranked second in fourth-down conversions and fourth in time of possession.

Iowa's efficient offense in 2019 featured junior tackle Tristan Wirfs, the Big Ten's Rimington-Pace Offensive Lineman of the Year. Wirfs earned First Team All-America honors from as many as three national outlets. Jackson earned Third Team All-Big Ten honors and Linderbaum was named Honorable Mention All-Big Ten. Wirfs declared for the 2020 NFL Draft following his junior season and was the 13th player selected in the first round. Wirfs started every game in his rookie season at right tackle for Tampa Bay, including starting in the 2021 Super Bowl victory.

Iowa won six of its first seven games in 2018 and closed the season with wins in the final three games, including a 27-22 Outback Bowl win over No. 18 Mississippi State. The Hawkeyes won three of four trophy games for the third time in four seasons. The four losses came by a total of 23 points and all were decided in the final minutes of play. Iowa's 5-4 Big Ten record earned a tie for second place in the West Division.

The Iowa offense in 2018 set a school record for most points scored in road games, averaging 42.8 points in the five Big Ten contests. The Hawkeyes averaged 31.2 points in all games, the ninth highest single-season total in school history. Iowa led the Big Ten and ranked 14th in the nation in fewest sacks allowed (1.2 per game).

Four of Iowa's offensive linemen earned postseason recognition in 2018. Jackson and senior guard Ross Reynolds earned Second Team All-Big Ten honors, while senior center Keegan Render earned Third Team honors and Wirfs gained Honorable Mention recognition. Render and Reynolds were invited to NFL camps immediately following the 2019 NFL Draft, with Reynolds earning a spot on the practice squad of the NFC champion San Francisco 49ers. Quarterback Nate Stanley passed for over 2,800 yards and 26 touchdowns, while Iowa's trio of running backs combined to rush for 1,723 yards and 16 touchdowns.

Iowa won eight games in 2017, including a 27-20 Pinstripe Bowl victory over Boston College to conclude the season. The Hawkeyes scored over 50 points in November wins over third-ranked Ohio State (55-24) and Nebraska (56-14).

Due to injuries to returning senior starters Boone Myers and Ike Boettger in 2017, the Hawkeye offensive line included a redshirt freshman at left tackle and a true freshman at right tackle for the majority of the season. The offensive line paved the way for running back Akrum Wadley (1,109) to surpass 1,000 rushing yards for the second straight season, while Stanley passed for 2,437 yards and 26 touchdowns.

Senior guard Sean Welsh earned First Team All-Big Ten honors, junior center James Daniels earned Honorable Mention recognition, and Jackson was named First Team Freshman All-American by the Football Writers Association of America (FWAA).

Daniels declared for the 2018 NFL Draft and was a second round selection of the Chicago Bears. Boettger and Myers, who both missed the majority of the season due to injury, signed free-agent contracts following the draft.

Polasek is the all-time leading passer at Concordia University in Wisconsin. He set single-game, single-season and career records in TD passes, passing yards, completions and completion percentage. Polasek was the 2000 Badger-Illini Conference Player of the Year. He was a two-time First Team All-Conference selection in 2000 and 2001 and was a Second Team selection in 1999.

Polasek graduated from Concordia in 2002 with a bachelor's degree in physical education. He earned his master's degree from Wisconsin-Stevens Point in 2005. A native of Iola, Wis., he and his wife, Jill, were married in May 2014.

JAY SAWVEL

(Mount Union '93)

Defensive Coordinator/Safeties

Jay Sawvel joined the Wyoming coaching staff in February 2020 as defensive coordinator and safeties coach. Sawvel previously served as the defensive coordinator at the University of Minnesota and Wake Forest University. He will be entering his 28th season as a college coach in 2022 and his third as defensive coordinator and safeties coach for the Wyoming Cowboys. Over his career, he has been part of 19 teams who advanced to postseason play, including 12 bowl appearances and seven NCAA Playoff appearances

The Cowboy defense in 2021 was one of the top pass defenses in the nation. Wyoming allowed opponents only 189.8 passing yards per game to rank No. 1 in the Mountain West and No. 12 in the nation. The Cowboy defense was also No. 13 in the nation in defensive touchdowns scored, with three. Wyoming held opponents to 23.7 points per game in the 2021 season to rank No. 5 in the MW and No. 43 in the country out of 130 FBS programs. The Cowboys posted a 7-6 record and won their third consecutive bowl game, with a convincing 52-38 win over Kent State in the Famous Idaho Potato Bowl.

Linebacker Chad Muma was one of six national finalists for the Butkus Award in 2021. Muma earned Second Team All-America honors from the Walter Camp Football Foundation and Pro Football Focus and was a Third Team selection by Associated Press. He was selected as the Sixth Pick in the Third Round (70th overall) by the Jacksonville Jaguars in the 2022 NFL Draft. Sawvel also had six of his defenders earn All-Mountain West Conference honors in 2021. Muma was a First Team selection (MW Coaches/Media and Pro Football Focus), cornerback C.J. Coldon (Second Team MW Coaches/Media), nose tackle Cole Godbout (Second Team Pro Football Focus and Honorable Mention MW Coaches/Media), cornerback Azizi Hearn (Second Team Pro Football Focus), defensive end Garrett Crall (Honorable Mention MW Coaches/Media), linebacker Easton Gibbs (Honorable Mention Pro Football Focus).

In his first season guiding the Wyoming defense as defensive coordinator in 2020, the Cowboys were among the best in the country, ranking No. 16 in the nation in total defense, allowing opponents only 328.0 yards per game. UW's defense also ranked No. 21 in rushing defense (125.3 yards per game), No. 24 in scoring defense (21.0 points per game) and No. 29 in pass defense (202.7 yards per game). Three of his Cowboy defenders earned All-Conference recognition in 2020. Junior linebacker Chad Muma earned First Team All-Mountain West honors from MW head coaches and media. Senior free safety Esaias Gandy earned Honorable Mention honors from the conference head coaches and media, and sophomore cornerback C.J. Coldon earned Fourth Team All-MW from Phil Steele.

Before coming to Wyoming, Sawvel served as the defensive coordinator at Wake Forest University in 2017 and '18. He was named the defensive coordinator at Wake Forest in January 2017 and helped the Demon Deacons to the 2017 Belk Bowl. During his first season at the helm of the Wake Forest defense, the Demon Deacons set school records for tackles for loss in a single season and finished the season ranked No. 7 nationally in tackles for loss.

As the cornerbacks coach in 2017, Sawvel coached Essang Bassey, who set a sophomore school record with 19 passes defended and earned Honorable Mention All-ACC honors.

Prior to coaching at Wake Forest, Sawvel served as the defensive coordinator at the University of Minnesota where he constructed a Top 25 ranked defense and helped the Gophers to their best record in 13 seasons in 2016. Minnesota posted a 9-4 record in 2016 and defeated Washington State, 17-12, in the Holiday Bowl. In the Holiday Bowl victory, Minnesota held Washington State's explosive passing offense to just 264 yards, 86 yards below its average, and held the Cougars to their lowest point total of the season.

Sawvel spent six seasons as an assistant at Minnesota. He was the defensive backs and special teams coach from 2011 to 2015. After Jerry Kill's retirement as the head coach at Minnesota, Tracy Claeys was elevated to head coach and Sawvel became the Gophers' defensive coordinator.

Under Sawvel's direction, the 2016 Golden Gopher defense was ranked in the Top 25 in a number of defensive categories including: rushing defense (14th), turnover margin (18th), scoring defense (21st), total defense (21st) and sacks (22nd). In addition, Minnesota ranked 27th nationally in team pass efficiency defense.

Sawvel has helped develop several players who went on to play in the NFL. In 2015, two of his players at Minnesota, Eric Murray and Briean Boddy-Calhoun, earned opportunities in the NFL. Murray was a fourth round pick of the Kansas City Chiefs while Boddy-Calhoun signed with the Jacksonville Jaguars as a free agent. In 2014, both Murray and Boddy-Calhoun were named to the All-Big Ten Team following a season in which the Gophers were 18th in the nation in pass defense.

Brock Vereen, a 2014 First Team All-Big Ten selection and another one of Sawvel's pupils, was drafted in the fourth round of the NFL Draft by the Chicago Bears.

For three seasons from 2014 through 2016, Sawvel had at least one of his secondary players selected in the NFL Draft. Sawvel was part of teams that advanced to four conference championships as a collegiate coach.

Prior to his time at Minnesota, he served as the defensive backs coach on Kill's coaching staff at Northern Illinois for three seasons from 2008-10. As secondary coach at Northern Illinois, he mentored Jimmie Ward, a first round pick of the San Francisco 49ers.

Sawvel was a member of the Southern Illinois staff under Kill for seven seasons from 2001-07, working with the secondary and special teams.

His first full-time coaching position came at Ferris State for two seasons from 1999-2000, where he coached the defensive backs and special teams.

Sawvel was a three-year letterwinner and an All-Conference linebacker in 1993 at Division III power Mount Union. He earned a bachelor's degree in 1993 in sports management with minors in business administration, information systems and physical education. He began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at Eastern Kentucky in 1994 and moved to Notre Dame as a graduate assistant coach for the 1996-98 seasons. Sawvel owns master's degrees from both Eastern Kentucky and Notre Dame, where he completed his master's in administration.

Sawvel has two daughters, Mackenzie and Miranda.

Linebackers

Aaron Bohl is entering his third season as the linebackers coach of the Wyoming Cowboys in 2022. He was named the Wyoming Cowboys' full-time linebackers coach in January 2020. He originally joined the Wyoming coaching staff in the January of 2017 as a Defensive Graduate Assistant, making the 2022 season his sixth as a college coach. He was elevated to the position of interim linebackers coach in October of 2019. Bohl has been part of four bowl-eligible teams for the Cowboys in 2017, '18, '19 and '21, and three bowl championship teams — the 2017 Famous Idaho Potato Bowl Champions, the 2019 NOVA Home Loans Arizona Bowl Champions and the 2021 Famous Idaho Potato Bowl Champs.

A former college linebacker himself at Minnesota State Moorhead from 2013-16, Bohl was a four-year starter and three-year captain. Since joining the Wyoming coaching staff as a graduate assistant in January of 2017, Bohl has worked with the Cowboy linebackers.

The Cowboy defense in 2021 was one of the top pass defenses in the nation. Wyoming allowed opponents only 189.8 passing yards per game to rank No. 1 in the Mountain West and No. 12 in the nation. The Cowboy defense was also No. 13 in the nation in defensive touchdowns scored, with three. Wyoming held opponents to 23.7 points per game in the 2021 season to rank No. 5 in the MW and No. 43 in the country out of 130 FBS programs. The Cowboys posted a 7-6 record and won their third consecutive bowl game, with a convincing 52-38 win over Kent State in the Famous Idaho Potato Bowl.

Linebacker Chad Muma was one of six national finalists for the Butkus Award in 2021. Muma earned Second Team All-America honors from the Walter Camp Football Foundation and Pro Football Focus and was a Third Team selection by Associated Press. He was selected as the Sixth Pick in the Third Round (70th overall) by the Jacksonville Jaguars in the 2022 NFL Draft. Muma ranked No. 4 in the nation in tackles (10.9 per game), No. 3 in solo tackles (6.5 per game) and tied for No. 2 in the country in interception returns for touchdowns (2 total).

Muma's accomplishments in 2021 made him the second Wyoming linebacker in three seasons to earn All-America honors, be named a finalist for the Butkus Award and be selected in the third round of the NFL Draft as former Cowboy Logan Wilson achieved all those honors in 2019.

The 2020 season saw Bohl coach Muma as he earned First Team All-Mountain West Conference and led the Mountain West and ranked No. 3 in the nation in tackles, averaging 11.8 tackles per game. The 2020 Wyoming defense was among the best in the country, ranking No. 16 in the nation in total defense, allowing opponents only 328.0 yards per game. UW's defense also ranked No. 21 in rushing defense (125.3 yards per game), No. 24 in scoring defense (21.0 points per game) and No. 29 in pass defense (202.7 yards per game).

In 2019, Bohl coached All-America linebacker Wilson and Honorable Mention All-MW linebacker Cassh Maluia. Wilson was one of six national finalists for the 2019 Butkus Award, honoring the nation's top collegiate linebacker. Wilson earned multiple All-America honors, including being named a First Team All-American by Pro Football Focus, a Second Team All-American by USA Today and a Third Team All-American by Associated Press. Wilson was the No. 1 pick in the third round of the 2020 NFL Draft by the Cincinnati Bengals. In 2022, Wilson was the starting middle linebacker in Super Bowl LVI for the Cincinnati Bengals. Maluia was a sixth round selection by the New England Patriots in the 2020 NFL Draft. UW concluded the 2019 season with an 8-5 record and a 38-17 win over Georgia State to capture the 2019 NOVA Home Loans Arizona Bowl Championship.

The 2019 Cowboy defense ranked No. 2 in the Mountain West and No. 11 in the nation in scoring defense, allowing opponents only 17.8 points per game. The UW defense also ranked No. 3 in the conference and No. 11 in the nation in rushing defense, giving up only 107.1 rushing yards per game to opponents. Wyoming's defense ranked No. 6 in the country in red-zone defense and scored three defensive touchdowns to rank No. 12 in the FBS.

As a defensive graduate assistant in 2018, Bohl helped coach a Cowboy defense that ranked No. 19 in the nation in total defense (allowing opponents only 326.2 yards per game), were No. 25 in the NCAA in rushing defense (129.5 yards per game), ranked No. 28 in scoring defense (giving up only 22.0 points per game) and were No. 32 in pass defense (196.7 yards per game). The UW defense also ranked No. 16 in the country in fewest first downs allowed to opponents (223) on way to a 6-6 record to earn bowl eligibility for the third straight season.

In 2017, Bohl was part of a Wyoming team that posted an 8-5 record and won the Famous Idaho Potato Bowl Championship. Bohl aided in coaching a defense that ranked No. 1 in the nation in takeaways in 2017, forcing 38 opponent turnovers. The Pokes ranked No. 9 in the country in scoring defense, allowing opponents only 17.5 points per game. UW ranked No. 1 in the NCAA in fumbles recovered (18), No. 2 in the nation in interceptions (20), No. 8 in defensive touchdowns scored (4 TDs), No. 13 in pass defense (174.9 passing yards allowed), and No. 23 in total defense (335.2 total yards allowed).

Bohl came to Wyoming from Minnesota State University Moorhead, where he completed his collegiate playing career in 2016. As a linebacker, he started all 11 games each of his four seasons. Bohl earned Second Team All-Northern Sun Intercollegiate Conference (NSIC) honors his senior season, while recording 71 total tackles (34 solo tackles and 37 assists), 4.5 sacks, 7.5 tackles for loss, two pass breakups, two fumble recoveries and one forced fumble. He helped lead Minnesota State Moorhead to a 7-4 overall record and 5-2 conference record placing third in the North Division of the NSIC in 2016. For his career, Bohl was credited with 273 career tackles, 8.0 sacks, 22 tackles for loss, eight pass breakups, one interception, two fumble recoveries and four forced fumbles. Bohl graduated in December 2016 from MSUM with a math education degree.

As a high school player at Lincoln East High School in Lincoln, Neb., Bohl was an Honorable Mention All-State honoree and earned All-Conference and All-City honors. He served as a team captain in high school, earning three letters in football. Bohl also lettered in basketball and track.

He and his wife, Anna, have two young daughters, Brynnlei Mae and Aubree Marie. Bohl is the son of University of Wyoming head coach Craig Bohl.

BENNY BOYD

(Aurora '00)

Co-Special Teams Coordinator/Cornerbacks

Benny Boyd will coach the Wyoming cornerbacks and serve as co-special teams coordinator for the third season in 2022. He originally joined the Wyoming Football coaching staff in February of 2020. Boyd came to Wyoming from Eastern Illinois University. He will be entering his 21st season as a college coach in 2022.

The Cowboy defense in 2021 was one of the top pass defenses in the nation. Wyoming allowed opponents only 189.8 passing yards per game to rank No. 1 in the Mountain West and No. 12 in the nation. The Cowboy defense was also No. 13 in the nation in defensive touchdowns scored, with three. One of those interception returns for a TD was a 50-yard return by one of Boyd's defensive backs, nickel back Keyon Blankenbaker. Wyoming held opponents to 23.7 points per game in the 2021 season to rank No. 5 in the MW and No. 43 in the country out of 130 FBS programs. The Cowboys posted a 7-6 record and won their third consecutive bowl game, with a convincing 52-38 win over Kent State in the Famous Idaho Potato Bowl.

Among Wyoming's six defenders who earned All-Mountain West Conference honors in 2021 were both of the Cowboys' starting cornerbacks. C.J. Coldon was named Second Team All-MW by conference coaches and media, and Azizi Hearn was a Second Team All-MW selection by Pro Football Focus.

The 2021 kickoff return team for the Cowboys ranked No. 3 in the Mountain West and No. 39 in the FBS, averaging 23.0 yards per return. Leading that unit was another Cowboy cornerback, Cam Stone, who averaged 40.0 yards per kickoff return and returned a kickoff 99 yards for a touchdown in Wyoming's 44-17 road win over eventual MW champion Utah State. Stone was named an Honorable Mention All-MW honoree by Pro Football Focus.

The 2020 Wyoming defense was among the best in the nation, ranking No. 16 in the country among all Football Bowl Subdivision (FBS) teams in total defense, allowing opponents only 328.0 yards per game. UW's defense also ranked No. 21 in rushing defense (125.3 yards per game), No. 24 in scoring defense (21.0 points per game) and No. 29 in pass defense (202.7 yards per game). Among the Cowboys who Boyd coached in his first season at Wyoming in 2020 was cornerback Coldon. Coldon earned Fourth Team All-Mountain West honors from Phil Steele in 2020.

Boyd coached the cornerbacks and coordinated special teams at Eastern Illinois in 2019. The Panthers' defense ranked No. 30 in the nation in total defense out of 124 Football Championship Subdivision (FCS) teams, allowing opponents only 350.6 yards per game. EIU's defense also ranked: No. 29 in the FCS in fewest first downs allowed to opponents (215), No. 29 in most fumbles recovered (10), No. 29 in tackles for loss (7.2 per game), No. 40 in pass defense (204.1 passing yards allowed per game), No. 40 in turnovers gained (21) and No. 44 in rushing defense (146.5 rushing yards allowed per game).

From 2015-18, Boyd coached corners and special teams at Central Washington. He was part of back-to-back Great Northwest Athletic Conference (GNAC) Championships in 2017 & 2018 at CWU. Boyd coached First Team All-America cornerback Tyler Hasty, who ranked second in the NCAA in passes defended in 2018. Boyd's special teams ranked second in NCAA Division II in blocked kicks in 2018. He also coached Chade DeMoor, the 2018 NCAA individual leader in blocked kicks.

In 2017, the Central Washington defense ranked second nationally in interceptions and fourth in the NCAA Division II in total defense. Boyd coached several All-Conference selections on defense and special teams while at CWU.

In 2014, Boyd served as defensive coordinator and special teams coordinator at his alma mater Aurora (Ill.) University.

He was the special teams coordinator and defensive backs coach at North Dakota for the 2011-13 seasons. UND led all FCS teams in blocked kicks all three seasons he coordinated the special teams, and he coached an All-America kick returner in 2012 and All-America kicker in 2013.

Prior to North Dakota, Boyd was the associate head coach and defensive coordinator at Luther College in Iowa from 2002-10. In 2010, he was a finalist for the AFCA Division III Assistant Coach of the Year. He coached four Division III All-Americans and three Aztec Bowl participants (Division III All-Star Game) while at Luther College. A total of 19 of his players earned All-Conference honors during his time at Luther College.

Boyd played football at Aurora (Ill.) University from 1996-99. He was a two-time All-Conference selection and held the school single-season record for passes defended. Boyd earned his bachelor's degree in social work from Aurora University in 2000 and added a master's degree in social work, also from Aurora University, in 2002. He has completed Bill Walsh Fellowships with four NFL teams during his career (Houston, Seattle, Oakland and Pittsburgh). Boyd is a native of Dixon, Illinois.

MARTY ENGLISH

(Northern Colorado '86)

Defensive Ends

In February 2020, Wyoming Football welcomed back Marty English to the Cowboy coaching staff. English will be coaching the Wyoming defensive ends for the third season in 2022. He also recruits the state of Colorado for the Pokes. English previously coached at Wyoming for nine seasons from 2003-11. English will enter his 36th season as a college coach and his 12th season at the University of Wyoming in 2022.

The Cowboy defense in 2021 was one of the top pass defenses in the nation. Wyoming allowed opponents only 189.8 passing yards per game to rank No. 1 in the Mountain West and No. 12 in the nation. The Cowboy defense was also No. 13 in the nation in defensive touchdowns scored, with three. Wyoming held opponents to 23.7 points per game in the 2021 season to rank No. 5 in the MW and No. 43 in the country out of 130 FBS programs. The Cowboys posted a 7-6 record and won their third consecutive bowl game, with a convincing 52-38 win over Kent State in the Famous Idaho Potato Bowl.

Among the six Wyoming defenders to earn All-Mountain West Conference honors in 2021 was defensive end Garrett Crall, who was named an Honorable Mention All-MW selection by conference head coaches and media. Crall went on to sign a free-agent deal with the Miami Dolphins following the 2022 NFL Draft.

In English's first season back with the Cowboys in 2020, the Wyoming defense was among the best in the nation, ranking No. 16 in the country in total defense, allowing opponents only 328.0 yards per game. UW's defense also ranked No. 21 in rushing defense (125.3 yards per game), No. 24 in scoring defense (21.0 points per game) and No. 29 in pass defense (202.7 yards per game).

English was part of many successes during his previous time coaching at Wyoming. He helped the Cowboys win the 2004 Las Vegas Bowl over UCLA, win the 2009 New Mexico Bowl over Fresno State and earn a bid to the 2011 New Mexico Bowl versus Temple. English coached the Wyoming linebackers from 2003-08. He was elevated to defensive coordinator for the 2009-11 seasons while continuing to coach the Poke linebackers.

His impact on recruiting and coaching at Wyoming was key to the Cowboys' success. Among the players that English either recruited or coached at Wyoming were: future NFL players Mark Nzeocha, Mike Purcell, Mitch Unrein and Eddie Yarbrough; and All-Conference performers Ward Dobbs, John Fletcher, Tyler Gottschalk, Brian Hendricks, Dusty Hoffschneider, Gabe Knapton, Purcell, Unrein and Yarbrough. Several of those Cowboys were recruited from the state of Colorado, including: Fletcher, Hendricks, Hoffschneider, Knapton, Purcell, Unrein and Yarbrough.

English returned to Wyoming in 2020 after serving as associate head coach, defensive coordinator and linebackers coach at his alma mater, the University of Northern Colorado, for the 2018 and '19 seasons. The first time English joined the Cowboy coaching staff in 2003, he also moved up the road to Laramie from UNC after serving as an assistant coach for 16 seasons (1987-2002) at his alma mater.

From 2012-17, English coached at Colorado State University. Highlights during his time at CSU included five consecutive bowl game appearances from 2013-17. English was the co-defensive coordinator and linebackers coach from 2012-14 under then CSU head coach Jim McElwain. He was retained by new head coach Mike Bobo in 2015 and served as the linebackers coach in 2015 before taking over as defensive coordinator for the 2016 and '17 seasons.

In English's final season as Wyoming's defensive coordinator in 2011, the Cowboy defense concluded the regular season on a high note, recording a 22-19 victory over archrival Colorado State on the road in Fort Collins. The Pokes went on to earn a bid to the 2011 New Mexico Bowl and post an 8-5 record. The year prior in 2010, English's defense recorded a dominating 44-0 shutout of CSU in Laramie to end the season. It marked only the second shutout of CSU by Wyoming since 1959. English was also on the defensive staff in 2006 that shutout the Rams, 24-0. English's 2011 defense included five Cowboys who earned Second Team All-Mountain West honors. Those five were: senior defensive ends Josh Biezuns and Gabe Knapton, senior linebacker Brian Hendricks, senior safety Tashaun Gipson and junior safety Luke Ruff. Freshman cornerback Blair Burns also earned Honorable Mention All-MW honors in 2011.

Two Cowboy defenders were named Second Team All-Mountain West in 2010. Senior free safety Chris Prosinski and junior defensive end Josh Biezuns both earned Second Team honors. Three other Cowboy juniors earned Honorable Mention All-Conference honors on defense. Those three juniors were: cornerback Tashaun Gipson, linebacker Brian Hendricks and defensive end Gabe Knapton. Prosinski was drafted in the fourth round of the 2011 NFL Draft by the Jacksonville Jaguars. He was the 121st overall selection in the 2011 Draft, and concluded his career ranked No. 4 in career tackles at UW with 373.

English's 2009 Cowboy defense may best be remembered for a dramatic goal-line stand in the New Mexico Bowl. In the first overtime of the New Mexico Bowl, Fresno State had a first and goal at the Wyoming one-yard line, but the Cowboy defense held on four straight plays and UW went on to win 35-28 in double overtime.

The 2009 Cowboy team featured four seniors recruited by English who went on to sign NFL free-agent contracts. Defensive tackle John Fletcher (Baltimore Ravens), linebacker Weston Johnson (Atlanta Falcons), defensive end Mitch Unrein (Houston Texans) and offensive tackle Ryan Otterson (San Diego Chargers) were all recruited by English. Fletcher earned First Team All-Mountain West Conference honors as a defensive tackle in '09, while Unrein was an Honorable Mention selection.

Wyoming was the only team in the nation with three individuals ranked among the Top 25 in the nation in tackles in 2009. Free safety Chris Prosinski ranked 10th (10.8 tackles per game), inside linebacker Brian Hendricks was 12th (10.5) and inside linebacker Gabe Knapton ranked 19th (9.8). In terms of total tackles, Prosinski (140 total tackles) and Knapton (128) posted the fourth and ninth best single-season tackle totals, respectively, in UW school history. Both Prosinski and Hendricks earned Second Team All-Mountain West Conference honors in '09.

In 2008, English helped guide a Wyoming defense that ranked No. 38 in the nation in total defense, allowing only 329.7 yards per game, and ranked No. 31 in pass defense, giving up only 189.5 yards per outing. He coached 2008 First Team All-Mountain West Conference linebacker Ward Dobbs, who concluded his career ranked No. 5 in career tackles in Wyoming school history, with 343.

The 2007 season saw UW's defense rank 22nd in the country in total defense (332.1 yards per game) and quarterback sacks (33 total sacks). The Cowboys also were among the best teams in the nation in defending the run, ranking No. 27 (122.8 yards per game), and against the pass, ranking No. 30 (209.3 ypg).

During the 2006 season, the Cowboy defense moved to a 3-4 alignment, and was one of the best defenses in the nation. In total defense, the Cowboys ranked ninth out of 119 NCAA Division I-A teams, allowing opponents only 262.9 yards per game. UW ranked even higher in pass defense, giving up only 156.3 yards passing per game to rank No. 8 in the country. Wyoming also ranked in the Top 25 in rushing defense at No. 23 (106.6 yards per game), and was 36th in the NCAA and No. 2 in the MW in sacks (2.42 per game).

Wyoming's defense ranked among the Top 40 teams in the nation in two defensive categories in 2005. UW was No. 40 in the nation in pass defense, allowing only 207.4 yards per game through the air, and the Cowboy defense also intercepted 14 passes to rank No. 34 in the NCAA in that category. The Pokes were very effective at forcing turnovers in 2004, ranking No. 13 in the country in most turnovers gained (28). Wyoming's defense recovered 14 fumbles to rank No. 10 in the NCAA, and intercepted 14 passes to rank No. 34.

For three seasons (2000-02), English served as the defensive coordinator and linebackers coach at Northern Colorado. His 2002 defensive unit ranked in the Top 10 in the nation in five defensive categories. UNC ranked No. 8 in total defense, allowing only 249.8 yards per game; was ranked No. 5 in pass defense efficiency, with a rating of 86.9; and ranked No. 9 in three categories — scoring defense (15.0 points allowed per game), rush defense (85.3 yards per game) and turnover margin (+16). Anthony Dunn, a defensive end on the 2002 squad, earned First Team All-America honors, and signed a free-agent contract with the Tennessee Titans of the NFL.

Through his years at UNC, English coached on NCAA Division II National Championship teams in 1996 and '97. He also helped guide the Bears to the NCAA Division II Playoffs in eight different seasons, including advancing to the semifinals of the 2002 NCAA Division II Playoffs.

As a player, English began his career at Idaho State in 1981, the year the Bengals won the NCAA Division I-AA National Championship. English then transferred to Northern Colorado, where he was a three-year letterman at linebacker. His senior season of 1985, he served as a team captain, and received All-North Central Conference honors. He earned his bachelor's degree in recreation management in 1986 and his master's degree in physical education in 1989 — both from Northern Colorado. A native of Lakewood, Colo., he was an All-State football player at Alameda High School.

He and his wife, Suzie, have one daughter, Kelsey, and one son, Tyler. Kelsey is a graduate of the University of Wyoming. Tyler is a graduate of Colorado Mesa University in Grand Junction, Colo.

OSCAR GILES

(Texas '91)

Defensive Run-Game Coordinator/Defensive Tackles and Nose Tackles

Oscar Giles joined the Wyoming coaching staff in February 2022 to serve as Defensive Run-Game Coordinator and Defensive Tackles Coach for the Cowboys. Giles most recently coached at his alma mater, the University of Texas. Giles will be entering his 23rd year in college coaching in 2022.

"Oscar (Giles) and I have known each other for 30 years. I tried to recruit him to Wisconsin, but he stayed home and went to Texas," said Wyoming head coach Craig Bohl. "We've stayed in touch through the years. I've followed his career and admired his work as a defensive line coach and recruiter in the state of Texas. He has an impeccable reputation, and without a question is going to bring great value to our defensive coaching staff."

"I'm excited to be a part of the Wyoming football family," said Giles. "Coach Bohl has created a culture of winning and developing young men to be great football players and great leaders in their respective communities. I'm excited about the opportunity to assist in the development of our student-athletes in the defensive line room. Let's Go!"

Giles served as an assistant coach at Texas on two different coaching staffs. He originally coached on the staff of Texas head coach Mack Brown for nine seasons from 2005-13. During that time, Texas won the National Championship in 2005 and played in the BCS National Championship Game at the conclusion of the 2009 season, finishing as the national runner-up. For four seasons from 2017-20, Giles returned to Texas to serve as the defensive line coach on the staff of head coach Tom Herman.

While serving as the defensive line coach at Texas from 2017-20, Giles helped the Longhorns win four consecutive bowl games, including: the 2020 Alamo Bowl (winning 55-23 over Colorado); the 2019 Alamo Bowl (defeating Utah 38-10); the Sugar Bowl at the conclusion of the 2018 season (winning 28-21 over Georgia); and the 2017 Texas Bowl (defeating Missouri 33-16). UT's 2017 defense ranked No. 8 in the nation in rushing defense, allowing opponents only 106.8 rushing yards per game and holding seven of 13 opponents under 100 yards rushing. For three consecutive seasons from 2018-20, Texas ended the season ranked in the Top 25 — No. 9 in 2018, No. 25 in 2019 and No. 19 in 2020. During that time, Giles coached 2020 Consensus All-America defensive end/outside linebacker Joseph Ossai.

Prior to returning to his alma mater, Giles served as the assistant head coach and defensive line coach at the University of Houston under Herman for the 2015 and '16 seasons. Houston concluded the 2015 season with a 13-1 record, were ranked No. 8 in both the Associated Press and Coaches final polls and defeated Florida State, 38-24, in the Peach Bowl. The 2015 Cougar defense ranked No. 8 in the nation in rushing defense (108.9 yards allowed per game) and ranked No. 20 in scoring defense. In 2016, Houston posted a 9-4 record and played San Diego State in the Las Vegas Bowl. The Cougars defeated No. 3 ranked Oklahoma (33-23) in the 2016 season opener and later in the season defeated then No. 3 ranked Louisville (36-10).

Giles spent one season coaching the defensive line at Louisiana Tech in 2014. The Bulldogs posted a 9-5 record, won the Western Division of Conference USA and defeated Illinois (35-18) in the Heart of Dallas Bowl. La Tech's defense led the nation in turnovers gained (42), ranked No. 4 in tackles for loss (8.1 per game) and ranked No. 17 in rushing defense (118.2 rushing yards allowed per game).

For nine seasons, from 2005-13, Giles coached the defensive ends and assisted with special teams at the University of Texas. During that time, Texas won the National Championship at the conclusion of the 2005 season, defeating USC, 41-38, in the Rose Bowl and posting a perfect 13-0 season. The Texas defense ranked No. 8 in the nation in scoring defense (16.4 points per game) and No. 10 in total defense (302.9 yards allowed per game). In 2006, the Longhorns finished with a 10-3 record and a 26-24 win over Iowa in the Alamo Bowl.

The 2007 Longhorns also compiled a 10-3 record and defeated Arizona State, 52-34, in the Holiday Bowl. The Texas defense allowed opponents only 93.4 rushing yards per game in 2007 to rank No. 6 in the nation.

Giles 2008 defensive end group was led by unanimous All-America selection Brian Orakpo. Orakpo also won the Nagurski Award (nation's top defensive player), Lombardi Award (nation's top lineman) and Hendricks Award (nation's top defensive end). He was named the Big 12 Defensive Player of the Year and was a finalist for the Lott Trophy (nation's top defensive IMPACT player). Orakpo was a First Round pick of the Washington Redskins. Texas enjoyed an outstanding 12-1 season in 2008 and defeated Ohio State, 24-21, in the Fiesta Bowl. UT ended the season ranked No. 4 in the final Associated Press poll.

The 2009 campaign saw Texas go undefeated in the regular season before finishing as the national runner-up after losing to Alabama, 37-21, in the BCS National Championship Game at the Rose Bowl. The Longhorns finished the season with a 13-1 record and a No. 2 ranking in the national polls. Senior defensive end/linebacker Sergio Kindle became the first player in college football history to be a finalist for both the Hendricks Award (nation's top defensive end) and Butkus Award (nation's top linebacker) during the 2009 season. Kindle earned First Team All-America honors in '09.

In 2010, senior defensive end Sam Acho won the William V. Campbell Trophy as the nation's top scholar-athlete, won the Wuerffel Trophy and the ARA Sportsmanship Award. He also earned Academic All-America honors for the second straight year, and was drafted in the fourth round by the Arizona Cardinals. Texas ended the season with a 5-7 record for the 2010 season.

The 2011 campaign saw Texas post an 8-5 record and defeat Cal, 21-10, in the Holiday Bowl. Defensive end Alex Okafor earned AFCA All-America honors and was a unanimous First Team All-Big 12 selection.

Texas went 9-4 in the 2012 season and defeated Oregon State, 31-27, in the Alamo Bowl.

Giles defensive line group in 2013 included Jackson Jeffcoat, who won the Hendricks Award in 2013 and earned First Team All-America honors, while being named Big 12 Defensive Player of the Year. Texas finished the 2013 season with an 8-5 record and played Oregon in the Alamo Bowl.

In 2003 and '04, Giles coached the defensive line and special teams at the University of Houston. The 2003 Houston Cougars earned a bid to the Hawai'i Bowl. That was preceded by a three-year stint as the defensive line and special teams coach at SMU from 2000-02.

He was a graduate assistant at his alma mater, Texas, in 1999 and was part of a coaching staff who led the Longhorns to the Cotton Bowl. His first college coaching position was at Southwest Texas State (now Texas State) in 1998.

Giles was a four-year letterman at Texas from 1987-90. He was a three-year starter and earned Associated Press All-Southwest Conference (SWC) honors his senior season as he helped lead Texas to a 10-2 record the 1990 Southwest Conference Championship and an appearance in the Cotton Bowl where the Longhorns played Miami (Fla.). Texas was ranked as high as No. 3 in the Associated Press poll during the 1990 season and ended the season ranked No. 12 in the final AP poll. He also was part of Texas' 1987 team than ended the season ranked No. 19 in the nation and captured a 32-27 victory over Pittsburgh in the 1987 Bluebonnet Bowl.

Giles was a semifinalist for the Outland Trophy and was a two-time GTE Academic All-SWC selection. He led Texas in sacks in 1988 (6.5) and '89 (7.0), finishing with 22.0 career sacks to tie for No. 10 on the Texas career list. He also recorded nine career fumble recoveries to tie for No. 2 in UT school history.

He later played professionally with the Atlanta Falcons as a defensive end and linebacker, and also played in the Canadian Football League from 1994-97. He was part of the Toronto Argonauts Grey Cup Championship team in 1996.

Giles and his wife, Kim, have two daughters, Olivia and Kourtney. A native of Palacios, Texas, he earned his bachelor's degree in speech communication from the University of Texas in 1991.

GORDIE HAUG

(Bemidji State '09)

Running Backs/Director of Player Personnel

Gordie Haug will coach Wyoming's running backs for the fifth consecutive season in 2022, and he will continue in his role as Director of Player Personnel. In previous years at Wyoming, he has served as the Director of Recruiting and wide receivers coach.

Each of Haug's first three seasons coaching the Wyoming running backs, UW had the league's No. 1 rusher and a First Team All-Mountain West selection — Xazavian Valladay in 2019 and '20 and Nico Evans in 2018. The 2021 season saw Valladay and Titus Swen share carries to form an extremely effective tandem. Valladay recorded the second 1,000-yard rushing season of his career (1,070 yards) and Swen rushed for 785 yards. Both earned All-Conference recognition in '21. Valladay received Second Team All-MW honors from head coaches and media. Swen was a Second Team selection by Pro Football Focus. Valladay ranked No. 3 in the Mountain West in rushing yards (82.3 yards per game) and recorded four 100-yard rushing games during the season (172 at San Jose State, 145 at Utah State, 101 at Northern Illinois and 101 at UConn). Swen ranked No. 2 in the MW and No. 26 in the nation in yards per carry (5.95) and had two 100-yard rushing games in 2021 (169 at Utah State and 166 vs. Colorado State).

UW's 2021 rushing attack ranked No. 2 in the Mountain West and No. 20 in the NCAA, averaging 211.7 yards per game. UW's passing attack was fourth best in the MW and No. 38 in the nation in average yards per completion (13.06 yards). The Cowboys posted a 7-6 record and won their third consecutive bowl game, with a convincing 52-38 win over Kent State in the Famous Idaho Potato Bowl. The 52 points scored in the bowl victory was a school record for a bowl game. Wyoming scored 40 or more points four times during the season in victories at Northern Illinois (50 points), vs. Ball State (45), at eventual MW champion Utah State (44) and vs. Kent State.

Wyoming's 2020 offense again featured one of the most effective rushing attacks in the country among FBS teams. The Pokes ranked No. 14 in the nation in rushing, averaging 219.5 rushing yards per game. UW's passing attack also ranked No. 7 nationally in passing yards per completion (14.84 yards per pass completion). The Cowboys ranked No. 24 in fewest turnovers committed (9 total turnovers) and were No. 32 in red-zone offense (converting 23 of 26 red-zone opportunities into points). Valladay averaged 110.0 rushing yards per game to lead the Mountain West and rank No. 17 in the nation. He also averaged 131.00 all-purpose yards per game to rank No. 27 nationally. Valladay had two 100-yard rushing games in the five games he played in 2020. He ran for 147 yards at Colorado State and had 163 rushing yards versus Hawai'i.

In 2019, the Cowboy offense ranked No. 23 in the nation in rushing offense, averaging 214. 8 yards per game. Valladay rushed for 1,265 yards to lead the league. He averaged 105.4 rushing yards per game to rank No. 18 in the nation. He also led the conference and ranked No. 26 nationally in all-purpose yards, averaging 124.08 yards per game. Valladay's 204-yard performance in Wyoming's 38-17 NOVA Home Loans Arizona Bowl victory earned him a spot on the 2019 Associated Press All-Bowl Team. He also caught three passes for 91 yards in the bowl win and scored one touchdown rushing and one receiving while accounting for 295 all-purpose yards. Valladay was one of only three running backs in the nation named to the AP All-Bowl Team, joining Penn State's Journey Brown and Florida's Lamical Perine. Valladay rushed for 100 or more yards seven times in the 12 games he played in 2019, and he rushed for over 200 yards twice. His best games were 206 rushing yards vs. Nevada and 204 against Georgia State in the Arizona Bowl. His other five 100-yard rushing games included: 118 vs. Missouri, 127 vs. New Mexico, 124 at Boise State, 114 at Utah State and 154 vs. Colorado State. Valladay showed his potential in the final game of his redshirt freshman season of 2018 when he carried the ball 22 times for 192 yards and scored two rushing touchdowns in a 31-3 road win over the New Mexico Lobos.

The 2019 Cowboy offense ranked No. 10 in the NCAA in passing yards per completion (14.75 yards per completion), No. 14 in fewest tackles for loss allowed (4.62 per game), No. 26 in fewest fumbles lost (6), No. 32 in third-down conversions (43.3 percent), No. 32 in fewest sacks allowed (1.62 per game) and No. 33 in fewest turnovers committed (15). The Cowboys concluded the season with an 8-5 record and captured the Arizona Bowl championship.

In his first season coaching the Cowboy running backs, Haug worked with 2018 senior Nico Evans, who led the Mountain West and ranked No. 4 in the nation in rushing as he averaged 132.5 rushing yards per game. Evans also led the MW and ranked No. 12 in the NCAA in all-purpose yards (139.1 yards per game). His 1,325 net rushing yards ranked as the No. 4 best single season in University of Wyoming history. Evans earned First Team All-Mountain West honors and played in the NFLPA Collegiate Bowl, an All-Star game for college seniors leading up to the NFL Draft. He signed a free-agent deal with the Philadelphia Eagles following the 2019 NFL Draft.

Haug also coached running backs at North Dakota State in 2012 and '13. Over his six previous seasons coaching running backs (2012, '13, '18, '19, '20 and '21), Haug has had seven running backs rush for 1,000 yards in a single season. The 2012 and '13 NDSU teams had two running backs rush for 1,000 yards in each of those seasons.

In 2018, Wyoming's rushing attack ranked No. 4 in the Mountain West and No. 39 in the NCAA in rushing as a team. UW's offense also ranked No. 1 in the MW and No. 4 in the nation in fewest turnovers, committing only 11 total turnovers for the year. In spite of the Wyoming offense being in transition with two young quarterbacks in Sean Chambers and Tyler Vander Waal guiding the offense after former Cowboy Josh Allen moved on to the NFL as the No. 7 overall pick in the 2018 NFL Draft, the Wyoming offense hit its stride during a four-game winning streak to end the 2018 season. During that four-game win streak, UW's offense averaged 31.0 points and 415.5 yards per game.

Haug has been very innovative in directing recruiting efforts for Cowboy Football. He has also coordinated summer camps for Wyoming Football in the past, and has built a very extensive and productive summer satellite camp program.

In 2015 while maintaining his duties as Director of Recruiting, Haug also coached the Wyoming wide receivers. Junior wide receiver Tanner Gentry was named to the Biletnikoff Award Watch List in 2015.

Haug came to Wyoming from North Dakota State where he was a member of head coach Craig Bohl's coaching staff for the 2012 and 2013 seasons, working as an offensive assistant.

In Haug's two years on the NDSU staff, the Bison posted a combined overall record of 29-1 and a Missouri Valley Football Conference record of 15-1, while capturing back-to-back Football Championship Subdivision (FCS) National Championships.

The 2013 NDSU squad became the first undefeated (15-0) FCS National Champion since Marshall went 15-0 to win the 1996 title. That 15-0 record by the Bison also set a North Dakota State school record. NDSU extended its winning streak to 24 consecutive games with the 2013 FCS Championship. That tied both the FCS and NDSU records for consecutive victories. The University of Pennsylvania set the FCS record of 24 consecutive wins from 1992-95. Montana later tied the record from 2001-02. The NDSU record was originally set from 1964-66.

Haug coached the running backs at North Dakota State in 2012 and '13. Each of those two seasons, NDSU had two individuals rush for over 1,000 yards. In 2013, Sam Ojuri rushed for 1,398 yards and John Crockett rushed for 1,277 yards. The 2012 season saw Ojuri rush for 1,047 yards and Crockett rush for 1,038.

In 2013, the North Dakota State offense ranked No. 10 in the nation in scoring offense (38.7 points per game), No. 7 in rushing offense (257.3 yards per game), No. 14 in total offense (457.5 yards per game), No. 1 in third-down efficiency (55.4%), No. 3 in passing efficiency (164.9) and No. 6 in red-zone offense (89.2%). The 2013 NDSU offense also was one of only 12 FCS teams to average 200+ yards rushing and 200+ yards passing per game. The 2012 Bison offense ranked No. 7 in the nation in third-down efficiency (50.7%) and No. 16 in red-zone offense (89.2%).

Before joining the North Dakota State staff, Haug spent five years (2007-11) coaching at his alma mater, Bemidji State University in Minnesota. He began as a student assistant for two years (2007-08), working with the linebackers. Haug then moved into a graduate assistant role for two seasons (2009-10), working with the running backs. He became a full-time assistant coach on the staff his final season (2011), coaching the defensive line.

At Bemidji State, Haug was also involved in recruiting and assisted with the strength and conditioning program.

He earned his bachelor's degree in community health in 2009 and master's degree in sports science in 2011, both from Bemidji State.

SHANNON MOORE

(Black Hills State '00)

Co-Special Teams Coordinator/Tight Ends/Fullbacks

Shannon Moore will enter his fourth season coaching the Wyoming tight ends and fullbacks and coordinating special teams for the Pokes in 2022. He joined the Wyoming coaching staff in January 2019. Moore came to Wyoming after spending the previous three years at East Carolina University. He will be coaching in his 20th season in 2022.

The 2021 Wyoming rushing attack ranked No. 2 in the Mountain West and No. 20 in the NCAA, averaging 211.7 yards per game. UW's passing attack was fourth best in the MW and No. 38 in the nation in average yards per completion (13.06 yards). The Cowboys posted a 7-6 record and won their third consecutive bowl game, with a convincing 52-38 win over Kent State in the Famous Idaho Potato Bowl. The 52 points scored in the bowl victory was a school record for a bowl game. Wyoming scored 40 or more points four times during the season in victories at Northern Illinois (50 points), vs. Ball State (45), at eventual MW champion Utah State (44) and vs. Kent State.

Moore's tight end and fullback group had a productive 2021 season. Treyton Welch caught 19 passes for 163 yards. Parker Christensen had 13 receptions for 127, while Colin O'Brien caught two passes for 27 yards and Jackson Marcotte added one reception for six yards. Combined, the four tight ends caught 35 passes for 323 yards, and they all return for the 2022 season.

That 2021 tight end group helped block for Wyoming's No. 2 all-time career rusher Xazavian Valladay and sophomore Titus Swen, who combined for an extremely effective season. Valladay recorded the second 1,000-yard rushing season of his career (1,070 yards) and Swen rushed for 785 yards. Both earned All-Conference recognition in '21. Valladay received Second Team All-MW honors from head coaches and media. Swen was a Second Team selection by Pro Football Focus. Valladay ranked No. 3 in the Mountain West in rushing yards (82.3 yards per game). Swen ranked No. 2 in the MW and No. 26 in the nation in yards per carry (5.95).

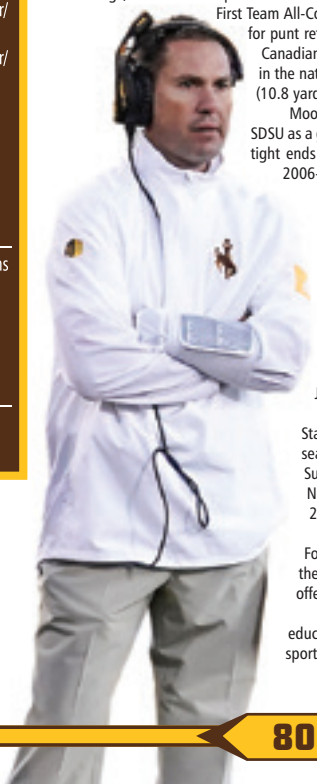

The 2021 kickoff return team for the Cowboys ranked No. 3 in the Mountain West and No. 39 in the FBS, averaging 23.0 yards per return. Leading that unit was Cowboy cornerback, Cam Stone, who averaged 40.0 yards per kickoff return and returned a kickoff 99 yards for a touchdown in Wyoming's 44-17 road win over eventual MW champion Utah State. Stone was named an Honorable Mention All-MW honoree by Pro Football Focus.

Wyoming's 2020 offense again featured one of the most effective rushing attacks in the country among FBS teams. The Pokes ranked No. 14 in the nation in rushing, averaging 219.5 rushing yards per game. UW's passing attack also ranked No. 7 nationally in passing yards per completion (14.84 yards per pass completion). The Cowboys ranked No. 24 in fewest turnovers committed (9 total turnovers) and were No. 32 in red-zone offense (converting 23 of 26 red-zone opportunities into points). The tight end group combined for 12 catches for 184 yards in six games, with sophomore Treyton Welch leading the group with five receptions for 95 yards. Moore's tight ends and fullbacks were key in opening holes for junior running back Xazavian Valladay, who earned First Team All-Mountain West honors and led the league in rushing for the second consecutive season. Valladay averaged 110.0 rushing yards per game to not only lead the Mountain West but rank No. 17 in the nation. He also averaged 131.00 all-purpose yards per game to rank No. 27 nationally. Valladay had two 100-yard rushing games in the five games he played in 2020. He ran for 147 yards at Colorado State and had 163 rushing yards versus Hawai'i.

In 2019, the Cowboy offense ranked No. 2 in the Mountain West and No. 23 in the nation in rushing offense, averaging 214.8 yards per game. The Cowboy offense also ranked No. 10 in the NCAA in passing yards per completion (14.75 yards per completion), No. 14 in fewest tackles for loss allowed (4.62 per game), No. 26 in fewest fumbles lost (6), No. 32 in third-down conversions (43.3 percent), No. 32 in fewest sacks allowed (1.62 per game) and No. 33 in fewest turnovers committed (15). The Cowboy fullbacks and tight ends helped block for running back Valladay, who earned First Team All-Mountain West honors for the 2019 season. Valladay rushed for 1,265 yards to lead the league. He averaged 105.4 rushing yards per game to rank No. 18 in the nation. He also led the conference and ranked No. 26 nationally in all-purpose yards, averaging 124.08 yards per game. Valladay was one of only three running backs in the nation named to the Associated Press All-Bowl team. Moore's tight ends combined for 29 receptions for 391 yards and four touchdowns in 2019, and were led by senior team captain Josh Harshman from Casper, Wyo., who had 20 catches for 264 yards and two TDs. On special teams, Wyoming ranked No. 1 in the Mountain West and No. 4 in the nation in kickoff returns, averaging 27.73 yards per return. UW was No. 4 in the MW and No. 34 in the NCAA in punt returns, averaging 10.76 yards per return, and senior punt returner Austin Conway ranked No. 2 in the conference and No. 14 nationally in punt returns (10.8 yards per return). Conway was named Second Team All-Mountain West as a return specialist in voting by conference head coaches and media.

He came to Wyoming from East Carolina University, which is a member of the American Athletic Conference. Moore coached at East Carolina for three seasons from 2016-18. His first two seasons, he coached the tight ends and coordinated the special teams for the Pirates, including coordinating the field goal, punt and kickoff return and punt and kickoff coverage teams. In 2016, punter Worth Gregory earned All-American Athletic Conference honors and place-kicker Davis Plowman ranked No. 2 in the AAC in field goals made per game and in field-goal percentage. The 2017 season saw punter Austin Barnes lead the AAC in punting and rank No. 19 in the nation, while place-kicker Jake Verity ranked No. 2 in the AAC and No. 33 in the nation in field goals made per game. Punter Worth went to mini-camp with the Jacksonville Jaguars when his college career ended in 2016, and tight end Stephen Baggett earned a spot in the Cleveland Browns' preseason camp following his senior season of 2017. Moore's final season, he continued to coach the tight ends, while also being given the responsibility of being East Carolina's recruiting coordinator.

Before joining the East Carolina coaching staff, Moore coached for two seasons (2014-15) at Florida International University where he served as the special teams coordinator both seasons. His 2014 Panther special teams' units ranked No. 1 overall in Conference USA in special teams combined rankings, and his 2015 special teams were No. 3 overall. Punt returner Richard Leonard led Conference USA in punt returns both seasons and earned First Team All-Conference honors as a punt returner in both 2014 and '15. Leonard set a new FIU single-season school record for punt returns in 2014, averaging 23.76 yards per return. Leonard went on to play for the Hamilton Tiger Cats of the Canadian Football League. The Panthers ranked No. 1 in C-USA in punt returns as a team in 2014 and ranked No. 2 in the nation. Moore's 2015 special teams led the league and ranked among the country's best in punt return average (10.8 yards per return), most blocked kicks (four) and fewest blocks allowed (zero).

Moore coached for eight seasons as a full-time assistant coach at South Dakota State (2006-13) and two years at SDSU as a graduate assistant (2003-04). During his time at South Dakota State, he coordinated special teams and coached tight ends his last four seasons from 2010-13. Prior to that, Moore coached the running backs and tight ends from 2006-08, before taking on the duties of special teams coordinator and quarterbacks coach during the 2009 season.

During his tenure with the Jackrabbits, Moore coached four All-Conference running backs and a pair of All-Conference tight ends. At running back, Kyle Minett developed into a two-time All-America honoree while ranking second in career rushing with 4,277 yards. Anthony Watson and Cory Koenig also ended their careers in the top five on SDSU's career rushing chart. Moore played an instrumental role in the development of two-time All-Great West Football Conference tight end Chris Wagner, who later signed as a free agent with the Oakland Raiders. Moore also served as a mentor to tight end Colin Cochart, who earned First-Team All-Missouri Valley Football Conference honors in 2010 and later signed with the Cincinnati Bengals. The Jackrabbits consistently ranked among the top teams in the Missouri Valley Football Conference in several special teams categories under Moore's direction. SDSU ranked first or second in kickoff coverage in 2010 and 2011, while ranking among the Top 20 nationally for net punting in those respective campaigns. The Jackrabbits also ranked ninth nationally for kickoff returns with an average of 23.86 yards per return in 2010.

In addition to his coaching duties, Moore performed a key role in the academic success of the South Dakota State football program, which led its league in the number of Academic All-League selections in each of his eight seasons. Six Jackrabbits earned Capital One Academic All-America honors, two received Football Championship Subdivision (FCS) Athletic Directors Association Postgraduate Scholarships and another pair were bestowed with NCAA Postgraduate Scholarships. Moore previously served as a graduate assistant at SDSU during the 2003 and 2004 seasons, working with the running backs, tight ends and special teams.

Before returning to Brookings, he served as head coach of the Wyoming Cavalry of the National Indoor Football League, where he compiled an 18-11 record over two seasons in 2004 and '05. In 2005, Moore led the Casper-based Cavalry to a franchise-best, 10-5 record and a playoff berth, while also serving as the team's offensive coordinator.

Moore played three seasons at Black Hills (S.D.) State, where he earned a bachelor's degree in secondary education in 2000. Moore completed his master's degree in educational administration in 2005 and his master's in sports administration in 2007, both from South Dakota State.

A native of Gordon, Neb., Moore and his wife, Lindsay, have one daughter, Mackenzie Rose.

JOE TRIPODI

(Northwestern '06)

Offensive Line

Joe Tripodi joined the Wyoming Football coaching staff as the Cowboys' offensive line coach in February 2022. Tripodi previously coached the offensive line at Temple University for three seasons from 2019-21 and coached nine seasons at Northern Illinois from 2010-18.

Tripodi is a former starting offensive lineman himself at Northwestern University of the Big Ten. He started the final 24 consecutive games he played for the Wildcats and was part of two Northwestern teams to earn bowl bids — the 2003 Motor City Bowl and the 2005 Sun Bowl. He was the co-recipient of the inaugural Randy Walker Wildcat Award in 2006, which is awarded to the player with the best work ethic, toughness and warrior attitude.

"We're excited about adding Joe Tripodi to our offensive staff. He brings a great deal of experience coaching the offensive line," said Bohl. "We had a chance to coach against Joe in the 2016 triple-overtime game between us and Northern Illinois. He enjoys a great national reputation, and he is obviously a bright guy, having graduated from Northwestern.

"Our offensive lineman are really going to enjoy his mentoring and coaching, and our offensive staff will gain a great deal of experience and perspective from Joe's previous years in our business."

"My family and I are super excited to join the Wyoming Cowboy family," said Tripodi. "I have a great deal of respect for what Coach Bohl has been able to accomplish throughout his career at multiple schools — obviously at North Dakota State and at Wyoming. When I was at Northern Illinois, we had a chance to play here back in 2016, and I gained a lot of respect for what Wyoming had going on then and what they've accomplished over the past several years. When this opportunity came up, I was really excited for it.

"Tim Polasek and I have had a relationship throughout our coaching careers, and I had an opportunity to work with Tim at Northern Illinois. I'm really looking forward to working with him and the rest of the coaching staff and getting to know the players as soon as possible. As I said earlier, my family and I are super excited to join this program."

During Tripodi's three seasons at Temple from 2019-21, he coached First Team All-America center Matt Hennessy in 2019. Hennessy was also a finalist for the 2019 Rimington Trophy, which is awarded to the nation's top collegiate center each season. The Owls' earned a berth in the 2019 Military Bowl. Tripodi coached five All-America Athletic Conference players at Temple, and had two of his offensive lineman go on to the NFL, including Hennessy, who was a third-round pick of the Atlanta Falcons.

Prior to Temple, Tripodi spent nine seasons at Northern Illinois. In his last three seasons at Northern Ilinois from 2016-18, Tripodi was the Offensive Run-Game Coordinator and Offensive Line Coach for the Huskies. NIU ranked 17th in the nation in rushing offense and 31st in total offense in 2016, while allowing only 8.0 total sacks to opponents to rank No. 2 in the country in that category.

Tripodi was the offensive line coach at NIU from 2013-15. He coached the tight ends and fullbacks in 2012, and was an offensive graduate assistant coach in 2010-11.

Over his nine years on the Huskies' coaching staff, NIU captured four MAC Championships in 2011, '12, '14 and '18, and won seven MAC West Division titles in 2010, '11, '12, '13, '14, '15 and '18. He coached 19 All-MAC offensive linemen at NIU, had one William V. Campbell Finalist (symbolic of the nation's top football scholar-athlete), and coached six All-America players. Tripodi also had five players earn opportunities with NFL teams, including Max Scharping, who was a second round pick of the Houston Texans.

Tripodi was a member of eight bowl teams at Northern Illinois in nine seasons, highlighted by an appearance in the Orange Bowl at the conclusion of the 2012 season. The Huskies won the 2010 uDrove Humanitarian Bowl, the 2011 GoDaddy.com Bowl, and played in the 2013 Poinsettia Bowl, 2014 Boca Raton Bowl, 2015 Poinsettia Bowl, the 2017 Quick Lane Bowl and the 2018 Boca Raton Bowl.

He and his wife, Rachel, have one daughter, Emma, and one son, Roman. Tripodi completed his bachelor's degree in communications from Northwestern in 2006 and his master's degree in adult and higher education from NIU in 2011.

ERIC DONOVAL

(Wisconsin-La Crosse '10)

Director of Sports Performance/
Head Football Strength and Conditioning Coach

Eric Donoval is in his third year serving as Director of Sports Performance for Cowboy Football and his fifth overall year at Wyoming. Donoval has been a member of the Wyoming Football strength and conditioning staff since January of 2018. He was the Associate Director of Sports Performance for Wyoming Football in 2018 and '19 before being promoted to the head position in January of 2020. In his current role, he oversees all strength and conditioning training for the Cowboy Football program, including supervising a staff of five full-time assistants and graduate assistants coaches that work directly with football.

His first two years at Wyoming, Donoval was instrumental in working with the Cowboy Football skill positions, tailoring their strength and conditioning programs specifically to their position needs. During that time, he was very successful in helping Wyoming achieve bowl eligibility each of those two seasons and win the 2019 NOVA Home Loans Arizona Bowl Championship.

In 2021, Donoval developed the Cowboys on way to a 7-6 season and a dominating 52-38 win over Kent State in the 2021 Famous Idaho Potato Bowl. It was Wyoming's third consecutive bowl victory.

Donoval came to Wyoming from Louisiana State University (LSU) where he was an Assistant Strength and Conditioning Coach for the LSU football program from 2013-17. He worked directly in training the Tiger defensive backs and wide receivers. Donoval also created and taught the speed workouts for the entire Tiger football team. He was the head of the Polar GPS monitoring system utilized by LSU football to monitor and evaluate student-athletes' physical activity during both training sessions and competitions. He worked with the highly-respected strength and conditioning coach, Tommy Moffitt, at LSU. Donoval and his staff also use the Polar GPS system at Wyoming to monitor the performance of Wyoming Cowboy Football student-athletes.

Donoval has had the opportunity to work with some elite athletes at both Wyoming and LSU. At Wyoming, he has trained a number of players who went on to the NFL. The most recent of those Cowboys was linebacker Chad Muma, who in 2021 earned Second Team All-America honors from both the Walter Camp Football Foundation and Pro Football Focus and received Third Team All-America recognition from Associated Press. He was also one of six national finalists for the Butkus Award. Muma was the Sixth Pick in the Third Round (70th overall) by the Jacksonville Jaguars in the 2022 NFL Draft. Among other former Cowboys who Donoval worked with who went on to the NFL were: Marcus Epps, Carl Granderson, Tyler Hall, Cassh Maluia, Logan Wilson and Andrew Wingard. Donoval also worked with a number of high NFL Draft picks at LSU, including: Jamal Adams, Odell Beckham Jr., Leonard Fournette, Jarvis Landry, Tyrann Mathieu, Patrick Peterson, Devin White and Tre'Davious White.

Prior to becoming a full-time assistant at LSU, Donoval served as a graduate assistant strength and conditioning coach for the Tigers starting in the summer of 2010 through 2012. He worked with the sports of football and baseball as a graduate assistant, while serving as the head strength coach for both women's volleyball and men's golf.

During his time at LSU, the Tigers won the Cotton Bowl at the conclusion of the 2010 season. LSU played in the BCS National Championship game following the 2011 season, finishing as the national runner-up to Alabama. In 2012, LSU appeared in the Chick-Fil-A Peach Bowl. The Tigers won the Outback Bowl following the 2013 season and appeared in the Music City Bowl in 2014. LSU captured the Texas Bowl Championship in 2015, won the Buffalo Wild Wings Citrus Bowl in 2016 and appeared in the Citrus Bowl following the 2017 season.

Donoval was a student strength and conditioning coach and mentor at his alma mater, Wisconsin-La Crosse, from January 2008 to April 2010 while completing his undergraduate degree.

He was an accomplished college running back and return specialist at Wisconsin-La Crosse, earning First Team All-Conference honors as a return specialist and Honorable Mention All-Conference honors as a running back as a senior in 2008. Donoval was named his team's MVP in 2008. He also earned Honorable Mention All-Conference honors as a return specialist as a junior in 2007. He lettered in football all four years (2005-08) at Wisconsin-La Crosse. He also lettered in track and field his freshman year of college before giving up that sport to focus on football. He competed in the 100 meters, 200 meters, 4 x 100-meter relay and 4 x 200-meter relay.

Following his college career, Donoval played football for the Wisconsin Wolfpack of the Continental Indoor Football League (CIFL) in Madison, Wis., from January 2009 to April 2010. He was a starting running back and slot receiver for the Wolfpack. Donoval led the CIFL in rushing and was a league MVP nominee in 2010.

The Sheboygan, Wis., native completed his bachelor's degree in exercise and sport science with a concentration in strength and conditioning from Wisconsin-La Crosse in 2010. He received his master's degree in kinesiology and sport pedagogy from LSU in 2012.

Donoval and his wife, Lindsay, have one daughter, Marli.

NICK FULTON

(Sioux Falls '04)

Associate Athletics Director for Football Operations

Nick Fulton was announced as Wyoming's new Associate Athletics Director for Football Operations in January 2022. Fulton brings with him 17 years of college football coaching and administrative experience. He most recently was the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Colorado Mesa University in Grand Junction, Colo. Fulton served as a graduate assistant football coach at Wyoming in 2010 and '11.

"We're excited to have Nick come back to the University of Wyoming," said Bohl. "He's a Laramie native and previously served here as a graduate assistant coach. He has tons of experience at many different levels of collegiate football. He is going to be a great resource as he becomes an integral part of our football staff."

"I appreciate Coach Bohl giving me the opportunity to come back to Wyoming," said Fulton. "I'm very excited to work for and represent the great tradition that is Wyoming Football."

Fulton will be responsible for a variety of administrative duties with the Cowboys, including planning team travel, monitoring the football budget, serving as a liaison with the UW Athletics academic counseling staff and helping coordinate a number of team functions.

He replaces long-time Wyoming Associate A.D. for Football Operations Brent Vernon, who accepted the position of Chief of Staff for Washington State University Football in December of 2021.

Having worked for the Cowboy Football program previously as a graduate assistant and having grown up in Laramie, Fulton has an excellent understanding of Wyoming Football.

Fulton served as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Colorado Mesa University in Grand Junction, Colo., in the COVID shortened season of 2020. Prior to that, he was the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at the University of Northern Colorado in Greeley, Colo., for the 2019 season.

Fulton enjoyed a very successful four-year run at Colorado School of Mines from 2015-18. The Orediggers advanced to the NCAA Division II Playoffs in 2016 and 2018 and captured the Rocky Mountain Athletic Conference (RMAC) Championship both seasons. During that four-year span in Golden, Colo., Mines posted records of 8-3 in 2015, 10-3 in 2016, 7-4 in 2017 and 10-2 in 2018.

In 2016, Mines posted a 10-3 record, were champions of the RMAC and advanced to the Second Round of the Division II Playoffs. Fulton coached 2016 Harlon Hill Award winner, quarterback Justin Dvorak. The Harlon Hill Award is presented to the NCAA Division II football player of the year each season. Fulton's offensive unit ranked No. 1 in the nation in total offense, averaging 566.8 yards per game, ranked No. 1 in the country in first downs (373), ranked No. 2 in passing offense (359.8 yards per game) and ranked No. 3 in scoring offense (47.5 points per game).

The 2018 Orediggers recorded a 10-2 record, won the RMAC Championship and advanced to the NCAA Division II Playoffs for the second time in three seasons. Mines' offense again led the nation in total offense, averaging 556.8 yards per game, ranked No. 2 in first downs (307) and passing offense (331.9 yards per game) and ranked No. 4 in the country in scoring offense (47.2 points per game).

Fulton also coached Harlon Hill Award candidate Cameron Mayberry at running back in 2017. Mayberry averaged 156.6 rushing yards per game that season to rank No. 3 in the nation in rushing, and he averaged 200.0 all-purpose yards per game to rank No. 3 in the nation in that category.

Prior to coaching at Colorado School of Mines, Fulton spent three seasons (2012-14) as the offensive coordinator, recruiting coordinator and football academic coordinator at Black Hills State University in Spearfish, S.D. While at Black Hills State, Fulton's offense set a school record for total offense in the 2014 season, averaging 433.3 yards per game, and quarterback Ward Anderson ranked No. 6 in the country in total offense (337.5 yards per game). Fulton coached the Yellow Jackets offensive linemen in 2012 and '13 and coached the quarterbacks in 2014.

Fulton was a graduate assistant coach at the University of Wyoming for the 2010 and '11 seasons. He worked primarily in assisting Wyoming's offensive coordinator in practices and games, including aiding in coaching Cowboy quarterbacks and wide receivers. On game days, Fulton was involved in signaling in offensive plays. In addition to his coaching duties, he also was actively involved in assisting Wyoming's recruiting coordinator in all aspects of the recruiting process. Fulton was part of a 2011 Cowboy team that finished the season with an 8-5 overall record and finished third in the Mountain West behind only TCU and Boise State. The 2011 Cowboys earned a bid to the 2011 New Mexico Bowl.

In the summer of 2006, Fulton was hired as an assistant coach at Doane College in Crete, Neb. For four seasons from 2006-09, Fulton served in several roles on the Doane staff including: offensive line/tight ends coach, interim director of football operations and head junior varsity coach. He coached nine offensive linemen who earned All-Conference honors at Crete.

Fulton's first college coaching job was at his alma mater, the University of Sioux Falls in Sioux Falls, S.D. He served as the offensive line coach for the Cougars for the 2005 season. Sioux Falls advanced to the semifinals of the 2005 NAIA Playoffs and finished the season ranked No. 4 in the national rankings. Upon graduating from Sioux Falls with a bachelor's degree in communications, Fulton served as an admissions counselor at Sioux Falls from July 2004 to August 2006.

Fulton played his college football at the University of Sioux Falls following his graduation from Laramie High School. He was a standout offensive lineman during his college career from 1999-2003. Fulton earned All-Conference and Honorable Mention All-America honors as an offensive lineman. He was part of three consecutive conference championship teams in 2001, '02 and '03 at the University of Sioux Falls. The 2001 team played in the NAIA National Championship Game in 2001, finishing as the national runner-up.

Fulton and his wife, Becki, were married in December of 2014. They have two young daughters, Gwenna and Mara.

IAN McGREW

Tennessee-Martin ('15)

Director of Recruiting

Ian McGrew will be entering his fourth year as Director of Recruiting for the Wyoming Football program. McGrew was elevated to that position in the spring of 2019 after serving as the Assistant Director of Recruiting for Cowboy Football in 2018. McGrew is entering his eighth season overall at Wyoming, previously serving as a recruiting graduate assistant. He originally served as an intern with the Cowboy Football program in 2015.

As Director of Recruiting, McGrew coordinates the evaluation of potential recruits and organizes coaches' recruiting schedules, as well as schedules recruit visits to campus. McGrew also serves as the Wyoming coaching staff's liaison to NFL scouting staffs when they visit the UW campus.

Among his duties as Wyoming's Assistant Director of Recruiting were: updating Wyoming's recruiting database, organizing and assisting in evaluation of potential recruits' videotape for review by the Cowboy coaching staff, helping coordinate campus visits by recruits and overseeing recruiting materials that were sent to potential recruits.

McGrew has been part of a Wyoming program that earned bowl eligibility in four consecutive seasons (2016-19), has made four bowl appearances and won three bowl games. During his time on the Wyoming staff, the Cowboys captured the 2021 Famous Idaho Potato Bowl Championship, won the 2019 NOVA Home Loans Arizona Bowl Championship, won the 2017 Famous Idaho Potato Bowl title, were the 2016 Mountain Division Champions of the Mountain West Conference, hosted the 2016 MW Championship Game and went on to earn a spot in the 2016 San Diego County Credit Union Poinsettia Bowl. UW also earned bowl eligibility in 2018.

McGrew interned with the Arizona Rattlers of the Arena Football League prior to coming to Wyoming. He assisted with scouting and football operations with the Rattlers.

McGrew earned his bachelor's degree in sport business from the University of Tennessee-Martin in 2015. He is originally from Union City, Tenn.

JAKE CHAPMAN

Director of Recruiting Operations/Video Coordinator

Jake Chapman is entering his ninth year as a member of the Wyoming Football staff. He accepted the additional responsibility of serving as Director of Recruiting Operations for the Wyoming Football program in the Spring of 2019. Chapman will provide technical support to the recruiting efforts of Cowboy Football, while continuing to serve as the Video Coordinator for the UW football program.

Chapman originally joined the Wyoming Athletics Department in January of 2014 as video coordinator for Cowboy Football. Chapman coordinates filming of all practice and game footage for Wyoming Football, and supervises a group of student filmers. He is proficient in utilizing XOS Thunder and DragonFly Software for editing practice footage. He posts edited video footage with the use of XOS ThunderCloud IPad software and makes that footage available to members of the Wyoming Football coaching staff and players for film study. Chapman also coordinates recruiting video on potential recruits, which is utilized by the Cowboy coaching staff in all recruiting efforts. He provides video content for a variety of recruiting events during the year. Management of UW Football meeting rooms is one of Chapman's other responsibilities. He also assists television networks when they arrive on campus by providing video footage for review by TV announce crews.

Prior to Wyoming, Chapman served as the football video coordinator at North Dakota State from 2012 through 2013. His responsibilities at NDSU mirrored those he performs as video coordinator at Wyoming. In addition, Chapman helped conduct facility and campus tours and assisted with coordinating recruit visit schedules for coaches.

Chapman's first video coordinator position came while he was a student at Ohio University. He served as the football video coordinator from 2009-12.

In 2011, Chapman served as a ballpark operations intern at Goodyear Ballpark in Goodyear, Ariz. His initial work in minor-league baseball came as director of player operations and equipment manager for the Southern Ohio Copperheads from 2009-10.

He earned his bachelor's degree in sport management with minors in business administration and economics from Ohio U. in 2012.

DAVID KERNS

Head Football Athletic Trainer

David Kerns was hired as Head Athletic Trainer for Wyoming Football in the spring of 2019. The 2022 season will mark his fourth year at Wyoming and his 38th working as an athletic trainer at the collegiate level. Kerns will oversee all athletic training operations for Cowboy Football, including supervising a staff of full-time athletic trainers and a group of student interns who will work directly with the football team.

He has been a Board of Certification (BOC) certified athletic trainer since 1985.

Kerns will work with student-athletes to help prevent, identify, manage and rehabilitate injuries, while also collaborating with Wyoming Football team physicians to provide the best medical care for UW student-athletes.

For 25 years from 1994-2018, Kerns served as head football athletic trainer at West Virginia University in Morgantown, W.Va. In addition to serving as the head football athletic trainer at West Virginia, Kerns also was a classroom and clinical instructor for the Athletic Training Approved Curriculum Program in the WVU College of Physical Activity and Sport Sciences.

Before joining the West Virginia Athletics Department, Kerns was an Assistant Athletic Trainer and Instructor at Ohio University for seven years from 1987-'94. While his title was Assistant Athletic Trainer, he served as the Head Athletic Trainer for the Bobcat Football team.

He began at Ohio U. as a graduate assistant athletic trainer from 1985 to 1987, working with the men's basketball team.

Kerns earned his bachelor's degree in health and physical education with an emphasis in athletic training from Penn State in January 1984. He also received his teaching certificate upon his graduation. He worked as the head athletic trainer at Redland High School in Lewisberry, Pa., for the 1984-85 academic year before entering graduate school at Ohio U. in 1985. Kerns completed his master's degree in physical education with a specialization in athletic training from Ohio in 1987.

Throughout his career, he has made numerous presentations at the state and district levels and has served on several National Athletic Trainers' Association (NATA) committees.

Kerns is originally from Harrisburg, Pa. His wife is Kelly Kerns.

HALEY WALSH

Cowboy Football Office Manager

Haley Walsh is entering her 12th year as office manager for the Wyoming Football program, having joined the athletic department in June of 2011.

As one of the first staff members that visitors to the Wyoming Football program meet, Walsh is an important contributor in projecting a positive image for Cowboy Football. Included in her responsibilities are: helping coordinate coaches' travel, handling financial transactions for the program, assisting in preparing materials for practice preparation, maintaining coaches' schedules, aiding with recruiting, maintaining information on players and coaches and helping with summer camps.

Walsh came to the Cowboy Football program from the University of Wyoming Foundation where she worked from October of 2009 until June 2011. While at the UW Foundation, she was an administrative assistant to the major gift officers. Prior to that, she worked for the City Engineer in Sheridan, Wyo. for one year, and worked at the Albany County Clerk's Office in Laramie, Wyo., from 2003-08 as an election clerk.

Walsh is a 2001 graduate of Laramie High School. In December of 2019, she completed her bachelor's degree in general studies from the University of Wyoming. Walsh grew up on her family's ranch west of Laramie. Her husband, J.T. Walsh, is also a Laramie native and a graduate of the University of Wyoming. He is a local realtor.

GRADUATE ASSISTANTS

Jonathan Celestin

Defensive Graduate Assistant

Jonathan Celestin enters his first season as a defensive graduate assistant with the Wyoming Football program in 2022. Celestin played his college football at the University of Minnesota where he was a linebacker for the Gophers from 2014-17. He was selected as the Gophers' Linebacker of the Year in 2016. In his senior season of 2017, Celestin was named a team captain and went on to be named his team's Defensive Most Valuable Player. He was also one of the recipients of a 2017 Big Ten Sportsmanship Award. Celestin was part of Minnesota teams that played in the 2014 Citrus Bowl, won the 2015 Quick Lane Bowl and won the 2016 Holiday Bowl.

Celestin's NFL career included time with the Atlanta Falcons, Los Angeles Chargers, New York Jets and Carolina Panthers between 2018-21. He also played for the XFL's D.C. Defenders in the 2020 spring season.

He served as a graduate assistant strength and conditioning coach at the University of Minnesota in the summer of 2021.

Prior to joining the Wyoming Coaching staff, Celestin also spent time as a special education paraprofessional at Eden Prairie High School in Eden Prairie, Minn., starting in September of 2020. He served as an outside linebacker coach for the Eden Prairie High football team, was an assistant coach for the high school basketball team at Eden Prairie and was the head coach for the junior varsity basketball team.

Celestin earned his bachelor's degree in kinesiology from the University of Minnesota in May of 2018.

Taylor Lucas

Offensive Graduate Assistant

Taylor Lucas will begin his first season as an offensive graduate assistant with Wyoming Football in 2022. Lucas comes to Wyoming after serving as the offensive coordinator and coaching the offensive line at his alma mater, the University of Wisconsin-Stevens Point (UWSP) for the 2021 season. Wisconsin-Stevens Point competes at the NCAA Division III level.

Before returning to Wisconsin-Stevens Point, Lucas coached at Saint Anselm College in Manchester, N.H. He coached at the NCAA Division II school for three seasons from 2018-20. Lucas was the offensive line coach and recruiting coordinator for the Hawks. During his time at Saint Anselm, he coached a pair of NE10 All-Conference selections in Alex Casey and Brian Kosicki.

Prior to coaching at Saint Anselm, Lucas spent two years (2016-17) at NCAA Division III Carroll University in Waukesha, Wis., where he coached the tight ends and fullbacks. He also assisted the offensive coordinator and offensive line coach and served as the Academic Coordinator for the Pioneers, overseeing study tables as well as academic meetings. Under Lucas' oversight, the team GPA of the Pioneers hit a record 3.005 in the Spring 2017 semester.

Upon graduation from college and before joining the Carroll coaching staff, Lucas spent the spring semester of 2016 assisting UWSP with game day operations while assisting the football staff.

Lucas was a four-year starter on the offensive line for the UWSP Pointers from 2012 to 2015. He was the first two-time Academic All-America selection in the UWSP football history, earning the honor in 2014 and 2015. He was a three-time recipient of Academic All-District honors. Lucas was named a team captain for UWSP his senior season of 2015, and he was a key contributor to the Pointers 2014 team that was nationally ranked.

A native of Brookfield, Wis., Lucas graduated from UWSP in December 2015 with a degree in business administration. He completed his MBA at Carroll in 2018.

Austin Maus

Offensive Graduate Assistant

Austin Maus will be serving as a Wyoming graduate assistant for his second consecutive year in 2022. Maus was the Offensive Quality Control Graduate Assistant for Wyoming in 2021 and will be an Offensive Graduate Assistant Coach in 2022.

In 2021, Maus assisted the tight ends/fullbacks coach in practice preparation, creating practice plans and compiling scouting materials on upcoming opponents to provide to the Cowboy coaching staff as they prepared game plans. Maus was also involved in providing information to the coaching staff on game days.

In 2022, Maus will assist the tight ends and fullbacks in skill development, will break down weekly opponent film, will lead scout team meetings with Wyoming's scout team players and coach them during practice to simulate opponents' plays. He will also create opponent scouting reports, generate practice scripts and daily drawings for position groups, participate in game-plan meetings with the coaching staff each week and meet with prospective student-athletes on recruiting visits.

Before coming to Wyoming in 2021, Maus was a recruiting assistant with the University of Iowa football program from August 2017 to March 2019 and then became a student assistant with Hawkeye Football from March 2019 through June 2021.

Maus earned his bachelor's degree in management with a minor in sports and recreation management from Iowa in May 2021.

Keaton Wilkerson

Defensive Graduate Assistant

Keaton Wilkerson begins his second season as a graduate assistant with Wyoming Football and his fifth overall year as part of the Cowboy Football program, having begun as a student assistant in July of 2018. Wilkerson was Wyoming's Defensive Quality Control Graduate Assistant in 2021 and will be a Defensive Graduate Assistant Coach in 2022.

As a graduate assistant in 2021, Wilkerson worked with the defensive line coaches in preparing for practices, creating practice plans and compiling scouting materials on upcoming opponents to provide to the Cowboy coaching staff as they prepared game plans. He was also involved in providing information to the coaching staff on game days.

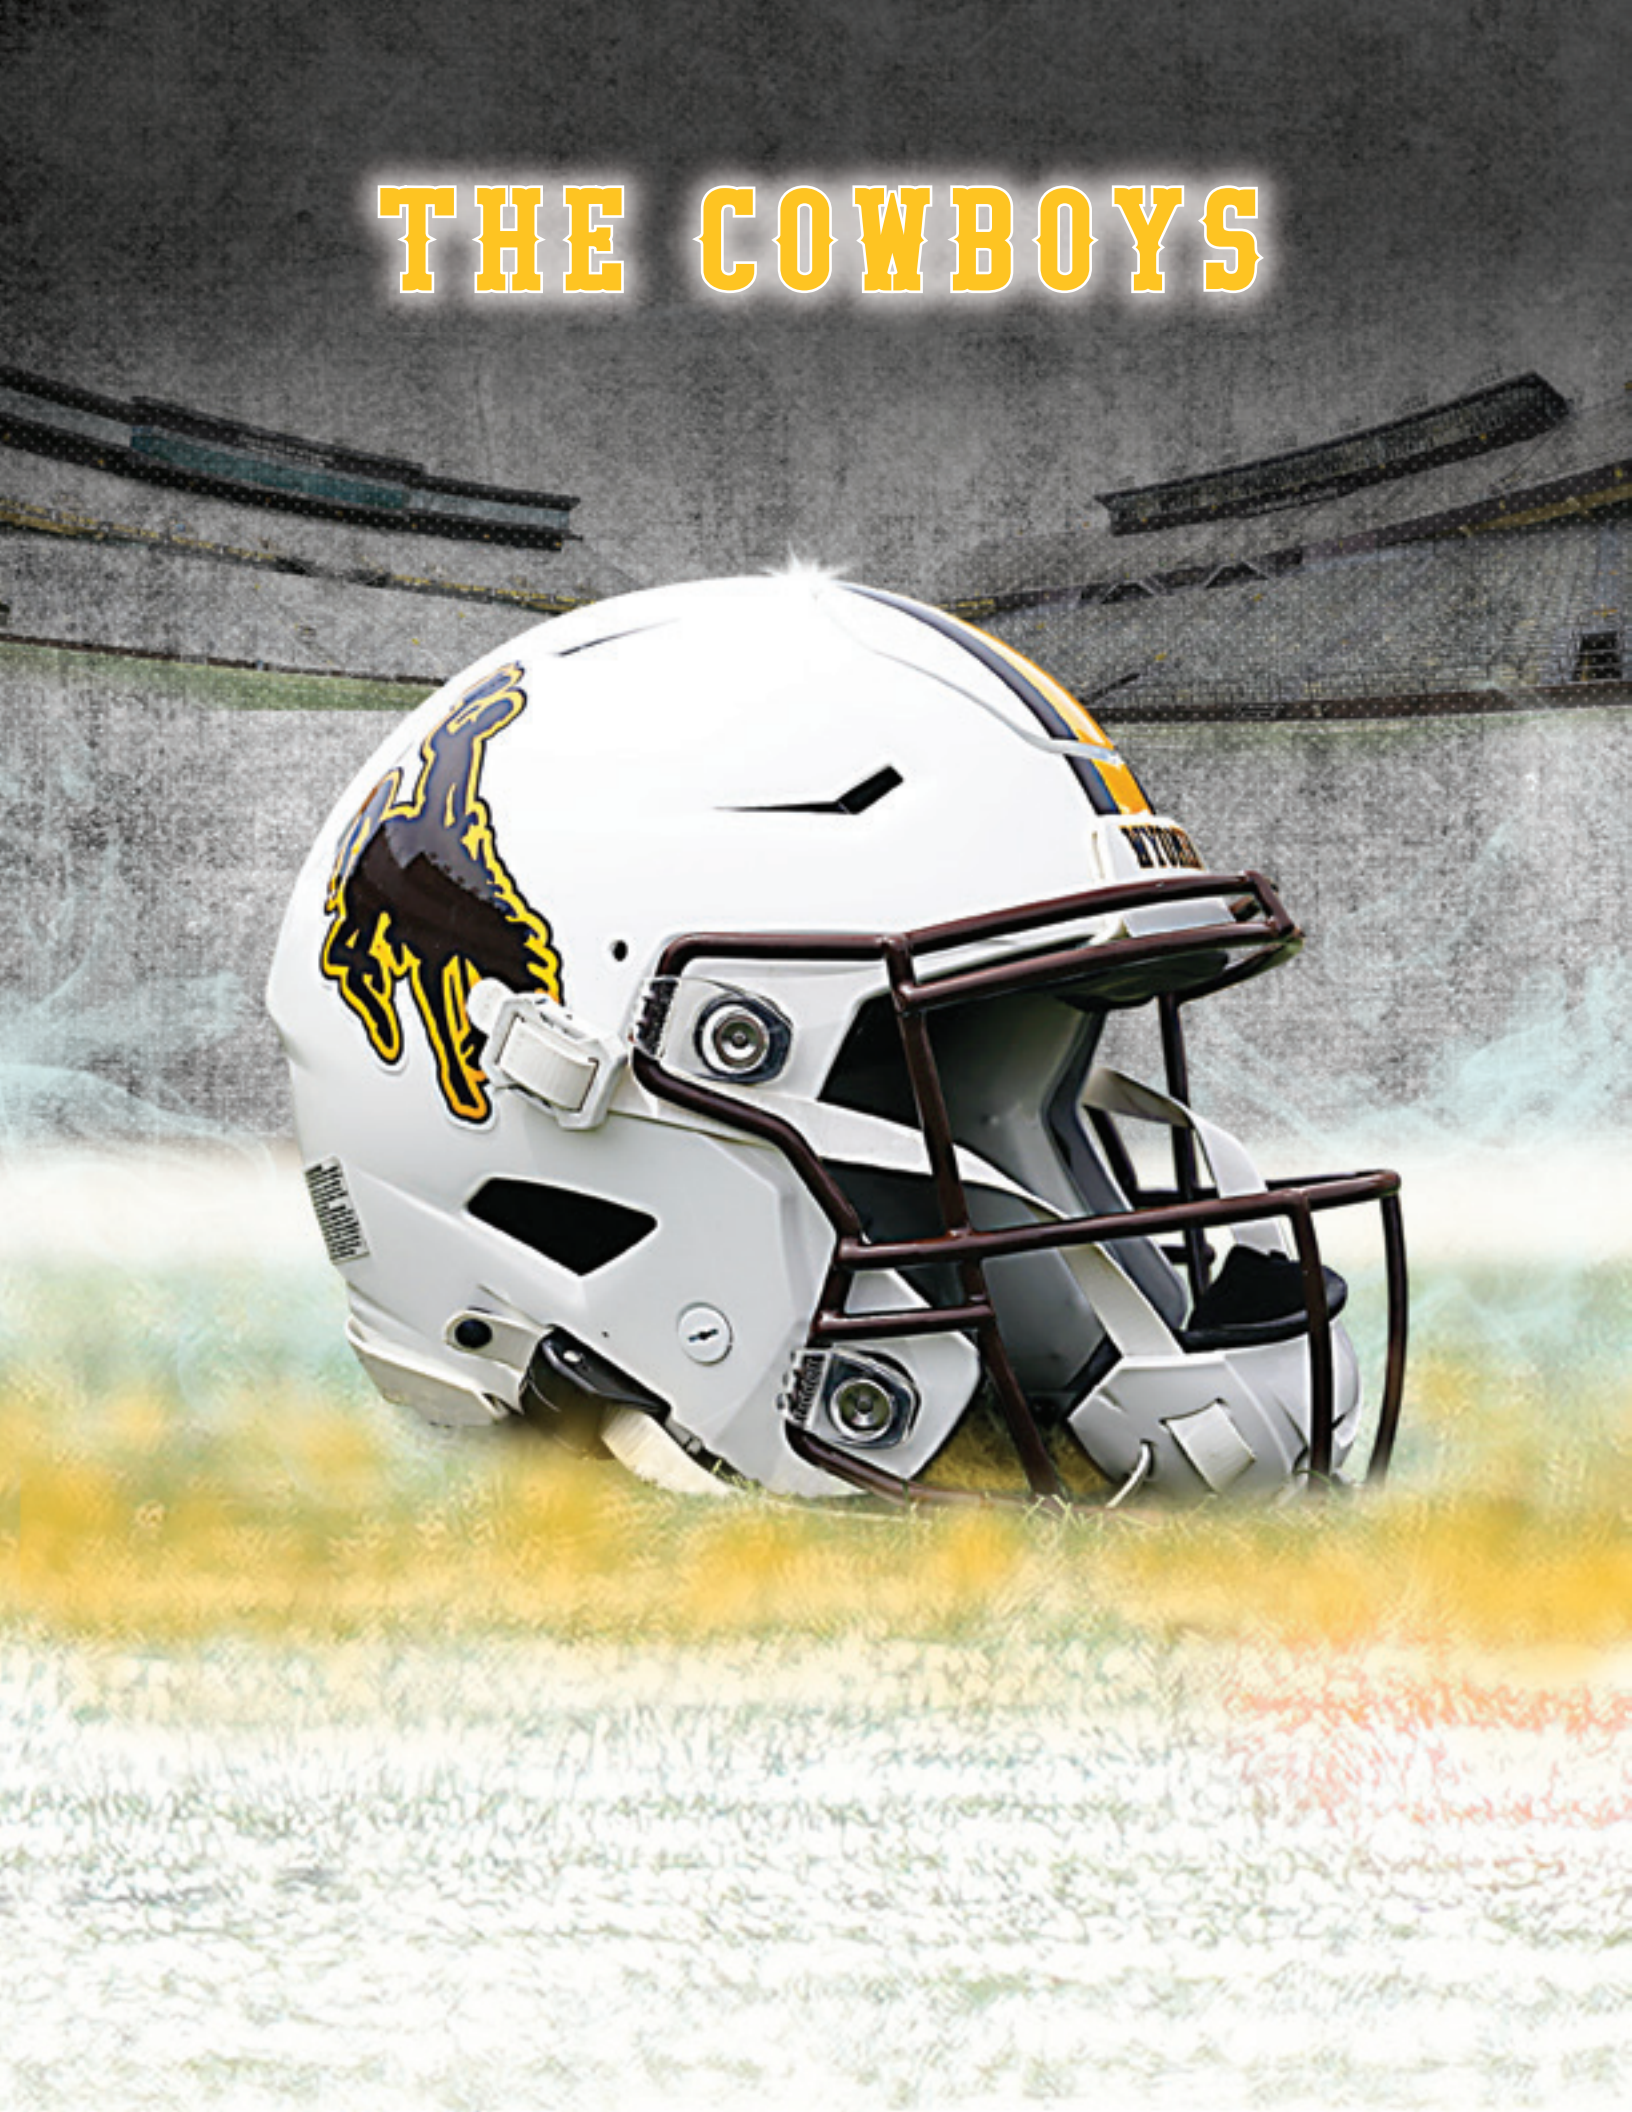

During his time as a student assistant at Wyoming from 2018-20, Wilkerson was involved in a wide variety of tasks. He did everything from signaling in defensive calls during practices, to breaking down film on upcoming opponents, to producing weekly scouting reports for coaches that were then provided to Cowboy players, to assisting position coaches in practices with on-field drills and producing Scout Team cards that were used in practices to help educate Cowboy players on opponents' plays.

Wilkerson was the salutatorian of his Thunder Basin High School graduating class of 2018 in Gillette, Wyo. An outstanding high school player himself, Wilkerson played in the 2018 Wyoming Shrine Bowl Game as a safety. He earned his bachelor's degree in business administration with a minor in management from the University of Wyoming in December of 2020. After graduation from UW, he briefly served as a graduate assistant coaching the tight ends at Chadron State College in Chadron, Neb., for the spring semester of 2021, but he was quickly hired back by the Wyoming coaching staff in the fall of 2021 as a graduate assistant with Cowboy Football.

RECAP: The Wyoming Cowboys and Montana State Bobcats waged a war of wills against each other on Saturday in Wyoming's War Memorial Stadium. In the end, it was an eight-play, 75-yard drive by the Cowboys that gave Wyoming a 19-16 lead with only 47 seconds remaining in the game to give UW the victory. Montana State fought to the very end, running out of time on its final possession of the game at the Wyoming 40-yard line.

The two teams entered the fourth quarter with Montana State holding a 7-3 lead, but in the first five possessions of the fourth quarter the two teams scored on each of those five drives -- the Cowboys scoring two touchdowns and a field goal, while the Bobcats converted a 53-yard field goal and a 75-yard TD drive.

Wyoming scored 16 of its 19 points in the fourth quarter, with scoring drives of 52, 67 and 75 yards.

Outstanding middle linebackers Chad Muma for Wyoming and Troy Andersen for Montana State didn't disappoint. Each ended the game with 11 tackles for the teams. Muma added one fumble recovery, one blocked field goal, a huge sack and 2.0 tackles for loss. Anderson had a pass breakup to go with his 11 tackles.

On special teams, Wyoming's Hoyland continued his outstanding play from a year ago, converting both of his field-goal attempts on the day from 37 and 25 yards out to improve his career field-goal statistics to 15 of 16 field goals made (93.8 percent). Cowboy redshirt freshman punter Ralph Fawaz had an amazing career debut, punting six times for a 45.7 yard average while placing five of his six punts inside the MSU 20-yard line and hitting a long punt of 54 yards on two different occasions.

Since taking over as head coach of the Cowboys in 2014, Bohl returned the Cowboys to their traditional brown jerseys and gold pants for home games and white jerseys and gold pants for road games. On Saturday against Montana State, the Cowboys wore new gold jerseys and white pants.

Senior wide receiver Eberhardt said he felt the Cowboys were confident going into the game and were confident when they began the game-winning scoring drive. He also gave a lot of credit to the 27,007 fans who showed up for the season opener on Saturday.

RECAP: The Wyoming Cowboys got off to a fast start and held off the Northern Illinois Huskies in the final minutes to earn a 50-43 win on the road in Huskie Stadium in DeKalb, Illinois on Saturday. Wyoming moved to 2-0 on the young season, as the 50 points was the most in a road contest since scoring 66 in three overtimes against UNLV during the 2016 season.

The Pokes held a 42-16 lead in the third quarter, but the Huskies anwsered with 27-straight points to take a 43-42 advantage with just under five minutes remaining in the contest.

Wyoming responded with a 10-play, 75 yard drive that ended in a nine yard touchdown rush from Sean Chambers that proved to be the game winner. Chambers found sophomore wide receiver Isaiah Neyor on a 30-yard pass to the NIU four-yard line to set up the score.

Chambers had a career day completing a career-high 13 passes for a career-high 204 yards, as he also tied a career-best with two touchdown throws. Neyor also hauled in four catches with a career-high two touchdown receptions, as he also rushed for one score on the day. It was the first multi-touchdown game through the air for a receiver since Austin Fort against New Mexico on Oct. 28, 2017. Senior runnin back Xazavian Valladay added 101 yards rushing and had two catches for 50 yards.

The Cowboy defense was paced by linebackers senior Chad Muma and sophomore Easton Gibbs, as both added 10 tackles. Muma also recorded a pick six for the first interception returned for a touchdown by the Cowboys since Logan Wilson against Utah State in 2019. Senior Miles Williams and Junior Rome Weber each added interceptions on the day for the Cowboys, as it marked the first time since the 2019 season against UNLV that the Pokes recorded three interceptions in a game.

The Cowboys recorded 395 yards of total offense for the game. Wyoming threw for 204 yards in the game and rushed for 191. The Pokes extended drive for the game going 9-of-13 on third down.

The Huskies recorded 477 yards of total offense in the game. NIU rushed for 244 yards on the afternoon and threw for 233 yards. Running back Harrison Waylee recorded 179 rushing in the game and became the first back to rush for over 150 yards on the Cowboy defense since Royce Freeman of Oregon during the 2017 season.

RECAP: The Wyoming Cowboys improved their record to 3-0 on Saturday, with a convincing 45-12 home win over Ball State. Wyoming's offense accumulated 378 yards of total offense, scored four touchdowns and a field goal. The Cowboy defense was outstanding, forcing three turnovers and returning two interceptions for TDs -- those two "Pick Six" were scored by nickel back Keyon Blankenbaker and linebacker Chad Muma.

Offensively, quarterback Sean Chambers completed 61 percent of his passes on the day (14 of 23) for 201 yards and one touchdown pass to tight end Treyton Welch. Wyoming utilized eight different receivers and four different running backs in the game, concluding the day with 177 rushing yards. Running backs Xazavian Valladay and Dawaiian McNeely each scored a rushing touchdown -- the first of McNeely's career. Chambers added a TD run of his own. Valladay had 61 rushing yards and 43 receiving for 104 all-purpose yards on the day. Wide receiver Isaiah Neyor caught four passes for 84 yards to lead the Pokes. The Cowboys committed no turnovers, compared to three by Ball State.

The Cowboy defense made a real statement with one of the best performances in recent history. UW's defenders not only scored two touchdowns of their own but they forced another huge turnover right before halftime. With the ball at the Wyoming 47-yard line, defensive lineman Victor Jones sacked Ball State quarterback Drew Plitt and knocked the ball loose. The ball bounded toward the Ball State end of the field and Cowboy defensive end Jaylen Pate recovered the ball all the way down at the Cardinals 31-yard line with only 42 seconds remaining in the half. That led to a Chambers one-yard rushing touchdown five plays later to give UW a 31-0 halftime lead.

The two "Pick Sixes" by the Cowboys was the first time a Wyoming defense had accomplished that since Sept. 23, 2016, when safety Marcus Epps and linebacker Logan Wilson each had interception returns for TDs against Eastern Michigan.

RECAP: The Wyoming Cowboys once again showed their resilience and comeback ability on Saturday, as they improved to 4-0 on the season and concluded their non-conference schedule undefeated, heading into a bye week.

Unlike last week, when Wyoming built a 31-0 halftime lead at home over Ball State on way to a 45-12 victory, the Cowboys started slow on Saturday at UConn. But as they've done twice before this season, against Montana State and Northern Illinois, the Pokes fought back from a 13-3 deficit at halftime to out-score the Huskies 21 to nine in the second half and record a 24-22 road win.

Wyoming's comeback was keyed by a critical defensive stand by the Pokes early in the fourth quarter. Trailing 13-10, the Cowboys saw the Huskies put together a long drive of 74 yards, moving all the way down to the Wyoming five-yard line. It was critical that UW hold UConn to a field goal and keep the game a one-possession game. The Wyoming defense would rise to the occasion. On a third and five from the Wyoming five, Cowboy defensive end Solomon Byrd combined with safety Rome Weber to sack Huskie quarterback Tyler Phommachanh for 12 yards, pushing the ball back to the 17-yard line. UConn place-kicker Joe McFadden entered the game and made a 35-yard field goal -- his third on the day -- to extend the Huskies' lead to 16-10. But allowing only a field goal meant the Cowboys were still within one touchdown of taking the lead.

Wyoming concluded the game with 352 yards of total offense (203 rushing and 149 passing) compared to 281 for UConn (110 rushing and 171 passing). Cowboy running backs Valladay and Swen combined for 185 for the 203 rushing yards for Wyoming. Valladay recorded his 12th career 100-yard rushing game and second of the season, running for 101 yards on 22 carries and one TD Saturday. Swen racked up 84 rushing yards o 15 carries and also scored one touchdown. Swen led the Pokes in all-purpose yardage with 168, including 84 rushing yards, seven receiving and 77 on kickoff returns. Valladay accounted for 134 all-purpose yards -- 101 rushing and 33 receiving.

The Cowboy passing game saw Chambers complete 58 percent of his passes (15 of 26 passes) on the day for 149 yards, one TD and two interceptions. Eberhardt caught three of those passes for 40 yards. Valladay, fullback/tight end Parker Christensen and wide receiver Joshua Cobbs also each had three receptions. Wide receiver Isaiah Neyor had two catches for 24 yards and the one receiving touchdown for the Cowboys.

Nickel back Keyon Blankenbaker led Wyoming in tackles, with seven, including six solo tackles. Defensive end Byrd had six tackles, 1.5 sacks and two quarterback hurries. Cornerback C.J. Coldon recorded five tackles, 1.0 tackle for a loss and one pass breakup, and defensive end Garrett Crall also had five tackles and four QB hurries. Safety Weber was credited with four tackles, 0.5 sacks and the huge pass breakup on UConn's two-point conversion to preserve Wyoming's two-point victory (24-22).

RECAP: It was a typical, hard-fought meeting between the Wyoming Cowboys and Air Force Falcons on Saturday night at Falcon Stadium on the Air Force Academy campus. In the end, Air Force prevailed 24-14 to hand Wyoming its first loss of the season. Wyoming moved to 4-1 and 0-1 in conference play. Air Force improved to 5-1 and 2-1 in the Mountain West.

The first half began with Air Force taking a 14-0 lead, but the Cowboys fought back to score two touchdowns in the final 4:38 of the half to tie that game at 14-14 and grab the momentum heading into halftime.

In the second half, Wyoming began with a promising drive that stalled at the Air Force 36. The Falcons took their opening drive of the third quarter and turned it into their third TD of the game to regain the lead at 21-14. Air Force would engineer its fourth scoring drive of the game on its first possession of the fourth quarter, driving 67 yards in 15 plays and capping it off with a 26-yard field goal to conclude the scoring 24-14.

"We played inconsistently tonight and we got beat by a good football team," said Wyoming head coach Craig Bohl. "We were going to need to get some turnovers and stay on the field offensively tonight, which we weren't able to do.

"To Air Force's credit, they threw the ball well in the second half and we weren't able to stop that.

"I'll be guarded in my comments until we can evaluate things on tape, but our players are disappointed and our coaches are disappointed. In the end, we will learn from tonight and get back at it tomorrow..

"We knew this was going to be a hard-fought game. Our players fought hard, but we weren't able to make enough plays at critical times, and Air Force did a good job of coming up with plays when they needed them."

RECAP: The Wyoming Cowboys fell for the first time at home this season as the Fresno State Bulldogs captured a 17-0 win on Saturday in Laramie. The Cowboys are now 4-2 on the season and 0-2 in the Mountain West Conference. Fresno State improved to 5-2 overall and 2-1 in the conference.

Wyoming's defense held Fresno State to 259 yards of total offense. That was half of what the Bulldogs were averaging on the season. Fresno State came into the game averaging 519.8 yards per game. UW's defense also held FS 22 points under its season scoring average of 39.0 points per game.

But the Pokes turned the ball over five times on four interceptions and one lost fumble. Three of those turnovers led directly to Fresno State's 17 points. Two of the three turnovers in the second half gave the Bulldogs the ball at the Wyoming six-yard line, leading to a touchdown, and the 27-yard line, setting up a 41-yard field goal. The 17-0 shutout marked the first time Wyoming had been shutout since 2010 when they lost at TCU by a score 45-0.

"I thought our guys played hard, but we've got to play smarter and we've got to do a better job of taking care of the football.

"Obviously, we have to generate some points. It's important that I don't make any broad-based comments right now until we watch the tape, but if you look at productivity you've got six (consecutive) quarters without scoring any points, and that's going to make it hard to beat anybody.

Wyoming ended the game with 271 yards of total offense (128 rushing and 149 rushing) to out-gain Fresno State. The Bulldogs accounted for 259 yards of total offense (163 rushing and only 96 passing).

Chambers completed 8 of 23 passes for 111 yards, threw three interceptions and lost one fumble. Williams complete 1 of 7 passes fo 32 yards and threw one interception. Fresno State's Haener completed 15 of 28 passes for only 96 yards, but did throw two TD passes.

Chambers led Wyoming in rushing with 51 yards on 12 carries. Swen added 36 yards on seven carries, and Valladay had 35 rushing yards on nine attempts. Bulldog tailbacks Jordan Mims and Ronnie Rivers rushed for 78 and 73 yards, respectively, for a combined 151 yards.

Valladay moved into fourth place on Wyoming's career rushing list in Saturday's game. He now has 2,682 career rushing yards and moved past former Cowboy running back Wynel Seldon, who accounted for 2.672 rushing yards during his career from 2005-08.

Defensively, the Cowboys were led by linebacker Chad Muma and free safety Esaias Gandy, who were credited with 11 tackles each. Wyoming defensive end Solomon Byrd added six tackles and recorded UW's lone sack on the day. Fresno State free safety Evan Williams recorded seven tackles to go with his two interceptions.

RECAP: The Wyoming Cowboys were unable to overcome a 14-3 halftime deficit and fell to the New Mexico Lobos on Saturday by that same score as neither team scored points in the second half. Wyoming is now 4-3 on the season and 0-3 in the Mountain West Conference. New Mexico improved to 3-5 overall and 1-3 in the conference.

For the second consecutive week, the Cowboy defense held the opposing offense in check for the majority of the game, giving up only 14 points and 259 total yards to New Mexico. The week prior, UW's defense held Fresno State to only 17 points -- 22 under its scoring average -- and 259 yards of total offense -- half of its average of 519.8

Also for the second straight week, Wyoming's offense generated similar total yards to its opponent -- 255 total yards for Wyoming to 259 for New Mexico. The previous week, the Cowboys out-gained Fresno State 271 to 259.

But for the fourth straight week Wyoming lost the turnover battle as UW threw one interception and lost a fumble to the Lobos. New Mexico didn't commit any turnovers on the day.

Wyoming's defense was led by linebackers Easton Gibbs and Chad Muma. Gibbs was credited with 11 tackles on the day, including eight solo tackles. Muma had 10 tackles, including 1.0 tackle for a loss of three yards. Defensive end Garrett Crall added nine tackles, and nose tackle Cole Godbout recorded seven.

Offensively, Chambers completed 11 of 23 passes for 96 yards and threw one interception. Williams completed 3 of 7 for 51 yards and had one fumble. Valladay led the Cowboys in rushing with 41 yards on 14 carries. Wyoming's leading receivers were: Christensen with three catches for 24 yards; Neyor with two receptions for 45; Eberhardt had two for 31; Cobbs caught two for 19; and Valladay had two for 10 yards.

RECAP: The Wyoming Cowboys dropped a 27-21 road decision at San Jose State on Saturday afternoon at CEFCU Stadium in San Jose, Calif. Running back Xazavian Valladay rushed for a season-high 172 yards, but the Spartan defense stopped the Pokes late to earn the victory. The Pokes fall to 4-4 overall and 0-4 in the Mountain West, as the Spartans move to 5-4 overall and 3-2 in conference play. `"It came down to one possession there.," UW head coach Craig Bohl said. "There's certainly some things that we did better in the game, but we weren't big enough to meet the moment. It was back and forth during the game, and we got to get better. There's some positive things out of this game but none the less we came up with the loss."

Valladay recorded his 13th career 100 yards or more rushing contest. It was the most in a game since he had 204 yards in the Arizona Bowl. He is less than 100 yards from being the second Cowboy to rush for 3,000 career yards. Wide receiver Isaiah Neyor had three catches for 72 yards tying a career-high with two touchdown receptions. Quarterback Levi Williams was 12-of-22 passing for 129 yards with two touchdowns and two interceptions in his first start of the season. He also rushed for 35 yards.

Linebacker Chad Muma led the team with 10, as he went over 200 in his career. Muma also has 10 or more tackles in seven of the eight games this season. Defensive tackle Cole Godbout tied a career-high with eight tackles in the game.

Wyoming outgained the Spartans 400-388 on the afternoon. Wyoming recorded 148 yards of offense in the third quarter. The Wyoming defense held the Spartans to 27 yards in the fourth quarter. The Pokes rushed for 271 yards and passed for 129 yards. The Spartans rushed for 238 yards and added 150 yards through the air.

Wyoming held the edge in time of possession in the game at 32:14-27:46. The Cowboys were 6-of-15 on third down and held the Spartans to 3-of-11 on third down.

"The effort and the resolve is there," Bohl said. "I've got to coach them up better I've to encourage them more and put ourselves in a better position." By in large I thought are guys played hard, they're a good team and I knew they were going to be difficult to beat."

RECAP: It was the type of game the Wyoming Cowboys have wanted to play all season long. A game where they got a lead, were able to run the ball successfully and have their defense force turnovers and limit scoring opportunities. In the end, Wyoming came away with a 31-17 home victory over rival Colorado State in the 113th edition of the Border War.

Wyoming's win improved its record to 5-4 on the season and 1-4 in the Mountain West. Colorado State fell to 3-6 and 2-3 in the conference. It was the 113th overall meeting in the Border War between the two rivals and the 54th time they played for the Bronze Boot traveling trophy. Wyoming now holds a 29-25 advantage in the Battle for the Bronze Boot, while CSU leads in the overall series 59-49-5. The two teams played for the 76th consecutive season since 1946. Over those last 76 meetings, Wyoming leads with 44 wins to Colorado State's 32.

Saturday's game was played before a crowd of 24,926.

"A great win. We have tremendous respect for Colorado State," said Bohl. "We knew it was going to be a hard fought, physical game, which it was. I thought our guys played really well. From my vantage point on the sidelines, I was really pleased with them in all three phases.

"That is a great rivalry. It's great to get the Boot back. It means so much to our state and our students.

"Nothing cures a lot of ills better than a win -- and just playing better too. We've seen emerging signs of it and we felt like this was a week we could capitalize on being really physical.

RECAP: The Wyoming Cowboys traveled to Boise, Idaho, for a Friday night meeting against the Boise State Broncos and the game followed a similar script as Wyoming's recent appearances in Albertsons Stadium as the game was another close one. A late interception by Boise State helped the Broncos secure a 23-13 home victory.

Wyoming was moving the ball midway through the fourth quarter and was trailing only 13-7 at the time when a tipped pass was intercepted by Boise State's Demitri Washington, who returned it 37-yards down the sideline to the Wyoming 13-yard line. Two plays later, Bronco running back Andrew Van Buren carried it in from the 12 yards out to give Boise State a 20-7 lead with 7:39 remaining in the game.

Boise State would add a field goal with 59 seconds left in the contest, while the Cowboys scored a final TD on a 74-yard pass and run from Wyoming quarterback Levi Williams to wide receiver Isaiah Neyor with four seconds remaining in the game to make the final 23-13.

The Cowboy defense played outstanding all night, forcing the Broncos into two field goals in the second and third quarter to keep the Pokes within striking distance at 13-7. Cowboy linebackers Chad Muma and Easton Gibbs led the way with 14 and 12 tackles each.

Offensively, running back Xazavian Valladay became only the second Cowboy to surpass 3,000 career rushing yards. Valladay now has rushed for 3,008 yards in his career. The only other Poke to accomplish that was Brian Hill.

Wyoming is now 5-5 on the season and 1-5 in the Mountain West Conference. Boise State improved to 6-4 and 4-2 in conference play.

RECAP: The Wyoming Cowboy offense erupted for 604 yards of offense, which saw balance on the ground and through the air in a 44-17 win over Utah State in Maverik Stadium in Logan, Utah on Saturday. The Pokes are now Bowl Eligible for the fifth time in the last six seasons. The 604 yards of offense was the most in a game since 694 yards against Fresno State on Nov. 1, 2014.

"I thought it was our most complete game of the year," UW head coach Craig Bohl said. "We played well in all three phases with explosive plays on offense and on defense we stopped the run and challenged their receivers. We did some effective things on special teams, and this was a big win for us." This is what we wanted, and we hit our stride. This was an important game and we hit a good rhythm tonight."

The Cowboys retained the Bridger's Rifle Trophy for the third time in the eight meetings since the trophy was introduced.

The Pokes rushed for 362 yards and passed for 242 yards. The Cowboy defense held the aggies to 362yards and only 178 yards passing. Utah State averaged 468 yards of offense per game on the season and 315 yards passing. The Pokes held the Aggies scoreless in the second half, Wyoming also shut out New Mexico in second half earlier this season.

"We thought we were going to have some good matchups along the offensive line and we were pleased with their effort," Bohl said. "Our defense leveraged our corners tonight and we had great play in the deep middle tonight."

Wyoming's offense was paced by running backs Titus Swen and Xazavian Valladay as they both rushed for over 100 yards for the second time in three weeks the Pokes have had two 100 yards rushers in the same game. Swen rushed for 169 yards including a 98-yard touchdown run, which was a school record. Valladay ran for 145 for his 14th career 100-yard game.

Quarterback Levi Williams completed 12-of-15 passes for a season-high242 yards. He also added two touchdown scores. Wide receiver Isaiah Neyor recorded four grabs for 125 yards and one touchdown. Fellow wide receiver Josh Cobbs recorded a career-high six catches for 76 yards with his first career touchdown.

The Wyoming defense was paced by linebacker Chad Muma with 17 tackles coming one shy of his career-high of 18. It was a season-high for the All-American candidate. Cornerback C.J. Coldon added seven tackles with six from Cole Godbout, as the defensive tackle also added a career-high three pass breakups. Safety Issac White recorded his first career interception in the fourth quarter.

RECAP: The Wyoming Cowboys concluded the 2021 regular season with a 38-14 home loss to Hawai'i on Saturday to finish the season with a 6-6 record. Hawai'i finished the regular season 6-7. Although the Pokes' regular-season ended with a loss, they posted their fifth bowl-eligible season in the past six years and will now await a bowl invitation when those announcements are made surrounding conference championship games that will be played in the coming week.

Wyoming head coach Craig Bohl acknowledged the disappointment of Saturday's loss after the Cowboys had played one of their best games of the season just a week ago in a win at Utah State. He also gave credit to Hawai'i for its strong performance on Saturday.

"I want to congratulate Hawai'i," said Bohl. "Coming over here, that's always a difficult trip and their quarterback (Chevan Cordeiro) played outstanding. Coach Graham calls the defense and had us off kilter. They beat us in all three phases. One time I heard Lou Holtz say you bring a different football team to the stadium every Saturday. Today I agree with him.

"We are going to lick our wounds. Hopefully we have an opportunity to continue to play. Those decisions are obviously not made by us. I know this locker room is disappointed right now but deep down inside they want to keep playing. We have elements of being a good football team.

Wyoming linebacker Chad Muma and cornerback Azizi Hearn echoed their coach's comments on the team wanting to play in postseason.

"We still have a game left -- God willing -- so that's what I'm going to focus on," said Hearn. "A bowl game would mean a lot to all of us, from the players to the coaching staff. We lost some tough games, but we won some games people didn't think we'd win this year. I'd be surprised if we didn't get a bowl game. I think we deserve one."

In Saturday's regular-season finale, Hawai'i jumped out to a 24-0 lead on the play of quarterback Chevan Cordeiro, who finished the day completing 19 of 31 passes for 323 yards, three touchdown passes and one interception.

RECAP: The Wyoming Cowboys concluded their 2021 season with their biggest offensive performance of the season, scoring 52 points in a 52-38 win over Kent State in the Famous Idaho Potato Bowl on Tuesday in Boise, Idaho. The 52 points were the most Wyoming had ever scored in a bowl game and were the most UW had scored this season.

It was Wyoming's third consecutive bowl victory and second Potato Bowl Championship, having also won the 2019 NOVA Home Loans Arizona Bowl and the 2017 Famous Idaho Potato Bowl.

Wyoming's offensive attack was led by quarterback Levi Williams, who scored four rushing touchdowns and threw for a fifth TD while rushing for an even 200 yards and completing 9 of 11 passes for 127 yards and no interceptions. Williams became the first quarterback in college bowl history to rush for 200 yards, score four rushing touchdowns and pass for one TD in a bowl game. He also tied the Famous Idaho Potato Bowl record of four rushing TDs and set a Potato Bowl record for rushing touchdowns by a quarterback. Williams was named the MVP of the game.

The 200 rushing yards was a single-game career-high for Williams. It was the second 100-yard rushing game of Williams career and his first 200-yard rushing game. He had 116 rushing yards in a home win over Colorado State earlier this season. Williams also rushed for the most touchdowns in a single game by a Cowboy since Alvester Alexander had five against Colorado State on Nov. 20, 2010.

Running back Xazavaian Valladay became only the fourth Wyoming Cowboy in the 125-year history of Cowboy Football to record two 1,000-yard rushing seasons. His 87 rushing yards against Kent State gave him 1,071 rushing yards this season. He rushed for 1,265 yards in the 2019 season. Only Brian Hill (1,860 yards in 2016 and 1,631 in 2015), Ryan Christopherson (1,455 in 1994 and 1,042 in 1993) and Dabby Dawson (1,119 in 1988 and 1,005 in 1989) had rushed for over 1,000 yards in multiple seasons prior to Valladay. Valladay also added a three-yard TD run in the win over Kent State.

RECORDS & HISTORY

NCAA RECORDS

(The NCAA only recognizes regular-season totals, which are reflected here. School records throughout the rest of this section include bowl-game statistics.)

MARCUS HARRIS (#23) became the greatest receiver in NCAA history during his career from 1993-96. Harris set NCAA records for most yards receiving (4,518) and most 100-yard receiving games (24). He also became the first receiver in NCAA history to amass 1,400 yards receiving in three different seasons. For his performance, Harris was named the recipient of the 1996 Biletnikoff Award, signifying the top receiver in the country. Harris currently ranks No. 5 in NCAA history in career receiving yards.

ANDREW WINGARD (#28) concluded his Wyoming career with 454 career tackles. That tied him for the Mountain West Conference record, ranked him No. 2 on the Wyoming career list and ranked him No. 20 in NCAA history.

LARRY BIRLEFFI PRESS ROOM

LARRY BIRLEFFI, flanked by former UW Athletics Director Paul Roach (on left) acknowledges the crowd on Oct. 17, 1992, the day UW dedicated the press area in the War Memorial Stadium Press Box as "The Larry Birleffi Press Room".

In 1992 the University of Wyoming Athletics Department honored long-time newspaper, radio and TV personality Larry Birleffi, by naming the working press area in the War Memorial Stadium media facility after him.

For over 50 years, and 1200 events, Birleffi covered the Cowboys and Cowgirls for newspaper, radio and television. While coaches, players and fans have come and gone, Birleffi was there. He was the one common thread through the tapestry that is Wyoming tradition. He carried the word of Wyoming athletics longer, and more effectively, than any other. He was inducted into the University of Wyoming Athletics Hall of Fame in 1996.

Born in Hartville, Wyoming's first incorporated town on April 17, 1918, Birleffi graduated from the University of Wyoming in 1942. He had begun covering the Cowboys for the UW student newspaper the Branding Iron in 1937.

Birleffi died on September 27, 2008.

THE BILETNIKOFF AWARD

Honoring the Nation's Top Receiver

MARCUS HARRIS, 1996

Marcus Harris is presented with the Biletnikoff Award as the nation's top receiver in 1996.

One of Wyoming's most decorated football players, Marcus Harris was a consensus All-American in 1996, being selected First Team All-American by the Associated Press, Football Writers Association of America, American Football Coaches Association, Walter Camp Football Foundation, and Football News. In 1996, he won the Biletnikoff Award (named after former Oakland Raiders receiver Fred Biletnikoff), symbolic of the nation's top receiver. He also finished ninth in the Heisman Trophy balloting in 1996. During his college career, Harris became the NCAA's all-time leader in receiving yards with 4,518 career yards, and he remains the only receiver in NCAA history to have three 1,400 yard receiving seasons. With his 1,650 yards in 1996, Harris led the nation in receiving yards, earned First-Team All-Western Athletic Conference honors for the third straight year, and was named the WAC Co-Offensive Player of the Year.

MOUNTAIN WEST

This is the Mountain West

From its inception in 1999, the Mountain West has been committed to excellence in intercollegiate athletics, while promoting the academic missions of its member institutions. Progressive in its approach, the MW continues to cultivate opportunities for student-athletes to compete at the highest level while fostering academic achievement and sportsmanship. Now in its 24th year, the MW has been assertive in its involvement with the NCAA governance structure and has taken a leadership role in the overall administration of intercollegiate athletics.

Quick Facts

- Founded: July 1, 1999
- Members for the 2020-21 academic year: Air Force, Boise State, Colorado State, Colorado College (women's soccer only), Fresno State, Hawai'i (football only), Nevada, New Mexico, San Diego State, San José State, UNLV, Utah State, Wyoming
- Team NCAA Championships: 5
- Individual NCAA Championships: 51
- NCAA Postgraduate Scholarship Winners: 43
- Academic All-America Selections: 208
- All-America Selections: 1,587

History

The Mountain West was conceived on May 26, 1998, when the presidents of eight institutions — Air Force, BYU, Colorado State, New Mexico, San Diego State, UNLV, Utah and Wyoming — decided to form a new NCAA Division I-A intercollegiate athletic conference. The split from a former 16-team conference re-established continuity and stability among the membership within the new league and signaled the continuation of its tradition-rich, long-standing athletic rivalries. Three of the MW's eight original members have been conference rivals since the 1960s (New Mexico, Wyoming and Colorado State), while San Diego State (1978) and Air Force (1980) were longtime members as well. UNLV and TCU entered the fold in 1996 and the Rebels continued as one of the original eight institutions that formed the MW in 1999. TCU re-joined the group with its first year of competition in the Mountain West in 2005-06. With conference realignment sweeping the nation in recent years, the MW has been proactive in addressing membership changes. Boise State University joined the Mountain West in 2011-12, followed by Fresno State and the University of Nevada on July 1, 2012. Also on July 1, 2012, the University of Hawai'i became a football-only member of the Conference. On July 1, 2013, the Mountain West further expanded when San José State University and Utah State University joined the Conference, bringing to 11 the number of full-time member institutions and 12 football-playing members. On July 1, 2014, the Colorado College women's soccer program became the first non-football affiliate member of the Mountain West, expanding that sport to 12 Conference participants.

When the Mountain West officially began operations on July 1, 1999, the new league had in place a seven-year contract with ESPN, giving the broadcast entity exclusive national television rights to MW football and men's basketball, and three-year agreements to send the league's football champion to the Liberty Bowl and a second team to the Las Vegas Bowl. Commissioner Thompson also arranged a third bowl tie-in each of the first three seasons (1999 Motor City, 2000 Silicon Valley, 2001 New Orleans) before securing a four-year deal with the Emerald Bowl in San Francisco in 2002.

Entering the 2021 season, the MW has nine (9) postseason opportunities, including a spot in a New Year's Six Bowl (highest ranked non-autonomous 5 champion), six (6) primary bowl positions with the Jimmy Kimmel Los Angeles Bowl, Arizona Bowl, Famous Idaho Potato Bowl, New Mexico Bowl, SoFi Hawai'i Bowl and an ESPN Events-operated bowl, likely to be held in the Dallas-Fort Worth Metroplex - and two (2) secondary positions.

An innovator in the postseason bowl structure, the MW engineered many "firsts," as league teams have participated in seven inaugural bowl games (2000 Silicon Valley, 2001 New Orleans, 2002 San Francisco (Emerald), 2005 Poinsettia, 2006 New Mexico, 2015 Arizona, 2015 Cure), as well as placing the first non-automatic-qualifying FBS team into a BCS bowl game with Utah's appearance in the 2005 Tostitos Fiesta Bowl and into the College Football Playoff (CFP) with Boise State's selection to the 2014 Tostitos Fiesta Bowl.

Mountain West Commissioner Craig Thompson

Craig Thompson was the Mountain West Conference's first employee when he was named Commissioner on Oct. 15, 1998. Ever since, Thompson has navigated the Conference through the ever-changing landscape of intercollegiate athletics. As the league celebrates its 20th season of competition in 2018-19, Thompson continues to create and improve the opportunities for Mountain West institutions and student-athletes to be successful both academically and athletically.

Since the Mountain West opened its doors on January 4, 1999, Thompson has been committed to excellence in intercollegiate athletics, while promoting the academic missions of its member institutions. Progressive in its approach, the MW has flourished under the guidance of Commissioner Thompson and continues to cultivate opportunities for student-athletes to compete at the highest level, while fostering academic achievement and sportsmanship. He has been instrumental in negotiating nearly $300 million in television revenue and has been an innovator in the postseason bowl structure as MW teams have participated in six inaugural bowl games.

As conference realignment spread throughout the collegiate landscape, Thompson positioned the Mountain West for the future with the additions of Fresno State and the University of Nevada on July 1, 2012, and San José State University and Utah State University on July 1, 2013. The University of Hawai'i also joined the league as a football-only member on July 1, 2012, while Colorado College became a member in women's soccer on July 1, 2014.

Thompson's leadership and vision have helped the Conference enhance its television revenue and exposure through revolutionary agreements with CBS Sports Network and ESPN, becoming the first major collegiate athletic conference to launch a dedicated sports channel featuring exclusive programming around its athletic programs, as well as conference news. In the summer of 2006, the centerpiece of this historic relationship was realized with the launch of The Mtn. – MountainWest Sports Network – the first sports network dedicated to serving a single collegiate athletic conference. The Mountain West was also one of the first conferences to develop its own digital network and in collaboration with Stadium, continues to expand and enhance the league's profile by taking advantage of the latest in digital technology via the Mountain West Network (MWN). As a result, the Mountain West again broke new ground in 2016, becoming the first league to broadcast a football game live on Twitter. The MW was also the first conference to broadcast a live basketball game on the same platform, as well as the first to have a bowl game streamed live on Twitter and Facebook.

Thompson has been instrumental in strengthening the position of the Mountain West in the college football landscape - both in the previous Bowl Championship Series (BCS) format and in the current College Football Playoff (CFP) structure. In 2006, he spearheaded an effort that resulted in better access for the MW and more than doubled the annual BCS revenue on an annual basis for non-automatic-qualifying conferences. The MW has been steadfast in its efforts to find a way to make the collegiate postseason football system fair for all universities. Through its first 19 years of competition, the Mountain West has participated in 90 bowl games, amassing a 49-41 (.544) all-time record in those contests.

A 40-year veteran of athletic administration, Thompson has spent all but eight of those years sitting in a commissioner's chair, making him one of only two active FBS commissioners with more than 30 years of experience leading a conference. Throughout his career, Thompson has been an integral part of the national landscape in intercollegiate athletics, holding many prestigious posts on NCAA and sport-specific national committees. Thompson currently sits on the CFP Management Committee while also serving as a member of the College Football Officiating Board of Managers, LLC. In June 2017, he was appointed to the NCAA Division I Men's Basketball Committee for the second time in his career, following a five-year term from 1995-2000 that culminated with him serving as Chair of the committee from July 1, 1999 to September 1, 2000.

Over the tenure of his career, Thompson has also been a member of the Executive Committee and the Director's Cup Committee of the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics (NACDA), as well as the governing NCAA Council and various Council subcommittees. In addition, he has played a prominent role in hosting numerous men's and women's NCAA postseason basketball tournaments in St. Louis, Atlanta, New Orleans and Denver.

Prior to his current role, Thompson served as the commissioner of the Sun Belt Conference for nearly eight years and as the only commissioner of the American South Conference prior to the merger of the two leagues in 1991.

While at the Sun Belt Conference, he spent the majority of his time addressing national trends and challenges in intercollegiate athletics, television exposure, issues relating to conference membership and promoting corporate involvement. In 1997-98, the Sun Belt instituted a comprehensive sportsmanship policy, which earned Thompson designation as a 1998 Sports Ethics Fellow by the Institute for International Sport. Under Thompson's leadership, the Sun Belt was active in expansion as it continued to strengthen its posture nationally, adding Florida International University and the University of Denver.

Prior to its merger with the Sun Belt, Thompson served as the first and only commissioner of the American South Conference, which boasted an NCAA national champion in women's basketball during its first year. The American South also gained immediate national cable television exposure on ESPN and sent numerous teams into NCAA postseason play during the conference's four-year history.

Preceding his move to commissioner, Thompson served four years as the Director of Communications for the Metro Conference in Atlanta. While at the Metro, he directed the communications operations and administered conference championship events. Thompson originated the Metro Conference Sportswriters and Broadcasters Association, began a weekly radio program with over 300 affiliate stations, and originated a weekly satellite video program involving all Metro institutions. He also took on administrative duties such as coordination of officials, scheduling of tournament and regular-season play, and handling of legislative rules interpretations.

Thompson graduated from the University of Minnesota with an undergraduate degree in journalism. Following graduation, he spent two years as assistant sports information director at Kansas State University, earning numerous CoSIDA publication awards. He then spent three years as director of public relations and promotions for the NBA's Kansas City Kings.

Thompson and his wife, Carla, have a son (Ted) and a daughter (Emma).

UW ADMINISTRATION

DR. EDWARD SEIDEL

University of Wyoming, President

Ed Seidel began service as the University of Wyoming's 28th president July 1, 2020. The distinguished scholar has led academic, research and innovation programs at multiple universities.

Before coming to UW, Seidel was the vice president for economic development and innovation for the University of Illinois System, building and supporting programs that engage university, public and private partners -- and strengthening the links among higher education, research and business to stimulate economic development across that state.

His long record of leadership experience includes more than three years as director of the National Center for Supercomputing Applications at the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign, where he was among the original co-principal investigators for Blue Waters, a federally funded project that brought one of the world's most powerful supercomputers to Urbana-Champaign.

Seidel spearheaded the creation of the Discovery Partners Institute and the Illinois Innovation Network, for which $500 million was appropriated by the State of Illinois. He also oversaw the University of Illinois System's commercialization pipeline, including the Offices of Technology Management at Urbana-Champaign and Chicago, and the early-stage technology investment firm Illinois Ventures, which has catalyzed over $1.7 billion in venture funding for companies.

Previously, he was the senior vice president for research and innovation for the Skolkovo Institute of Science and Technology in Moscow, Russia, in collaboration with the Massachusetts Institute of Technology. There, he was responsible for building research capacity, guiding the institute's strategic focus on innovation and entrepreneurship, establishing international partnerships, directing the development of 21st century research facilities and programs, and overseeing quality and compliance.

Before that, he directed the Office of Cyberinfrastructure and led the Directorate of Mathematical and Physical Sciences as National Science Foundation assistant director. The MPS Directorate possesses an annual budget of more than $1.4 billion. Within the Directorate, he oversaw national programs in astronomy, chemistry, materials science, mathematical sciences and physics. The Office of Cyberinfrastructure is responsible for national programs supporting advanced computing environments, software, computer networking and their application for addressing complex problems in science and engineering. He led the launch of new programs in computational and data-intensive science and engineering and the NSF-wide Cyberinfrastructure Framework for 21st Century Science and Engineering. At NSF, he also led emerging activities on data, public access to publications, and catalyzed development of interdisciplinary research programs, including the development of grand challenge programs to attack complex problems in science and engineering.

Prior to joining NSF, he held senior appointments as Floating Point Systems Professor in Physics and Astronomy, and Computer Science at Louisiana State University, where he founded and directed the interdisciplinary Center for Computation and Technology, an interdisciplinary research and innovation center involving more than four dozen faculty across the entire university. He had an integral part in the $50 million Louisiana Optical Network Initiative, connecting six research universities and two medical schools across the state of Louisiana.

Seidel also directed the numerical relativity group at the Max Planck Institute for Gravitational Physics (Albert Einstein Institute) in Germany.

Seidel has played central roles in launching international and regional research consortiums in Europe and the U.S., including the EU Astrophysics Network and GridLab projects that collectively involved a dozen countries.

Seidel is a fellow of the American Physical Society and of the American Association for the Advancement of Science, and has earned a number of awards, including the 2006 IEEE Sidney Fernbach Award, the Association for Computing Machinery's 2001 Gordon Bell Prize, and the 1998 Heinz Billing Prize of the Max Planck Society for his work in research, and the 2018 Business Leadership Award of the America-Israel Chamber of Commerce for work in economic development.

Seidel has supervised dozens of graduate students and postdocs in physics, astronomy, computer science and other disciplines, and has published about 200 papers in professional journals. His work in general relativity and scientific computing is widely cited in scientific literature. His research has focused on Einstein's equations, applications to black holes and gravitational waves, and algorithms for high-performance computing.

Seidel received his Ph.D. in relativistic astrophysics from Yale University, earned a master's degree in physics at the University of Pennsylvania, and received a bachelor's degree in mathematics and physics from the College of William and Mary.

Seidel's partner is Gabrielle Allen, most recently the associate dean for research in the College of Education, professor in the Departments of Astronomy and Curriculum and Instruction, and research professor in the Department of Computer Science at the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign.

TOM BURMAN

University of Wyoming, Director of Athletics

Tom Burman

- One of 13 Members on the College Football Playoff (CFP) Selection Committee
- Has led over $120 million in fundraising projects as A.D. at Wyoming
- In January 2020, Presented Citizenship Award by Wyoming We the People: the Citizen and the Constitution
- Longest Serving Athletics Director in the Mountain West, currently in his 16th Year as University of Wyoming A.D.
- Ten of Wyoming's athletics teams achieved perfect Academic Progress Rate (APR) scores of 1,000 for the most recent academic year measured.

Tom Burman is currently in his 16th year as Director of Athletics at the University of Wyoming. For the past 15 years that Burman has served as Athletics Director, many of the most successful and most memorable moments in Wyoming Athletics history have taken place.

Since Burman was named to the position of Athletics Director on Oct. 9, 2006, he has hired some of the most accomplished head coaches in University of Wyoming history. Academically, Cowboy and Cowgirl student-athletes have achieved at exceptional levels. Fundraising and season-ticket sales have reached record levels and numerous facility projects have been completed. Burman has also scheduled many of the greatest events in Wyoming Athletics history.

"I care deeply about this University, the success of UW Athletics and the well-being of our student-athletes," Burman said upon his hiring. "We will build a program that wins championships, is a source of great pride to our alumni and generates enthusiasm across the state. The future starts now."

Recent Successes

The 2021-22 season saw the sports of football, men's basketball, women's basketball, swimming and diving, track and field and wrestling all conclude their seasons with student-athletes participating in postseason competition. Football won the Famous Idaho Potato Bowl for its third consecutive bowl victory, and Cowboy linebacker Chad Muma was selected in the third round of the NFL Draft. Men's basketball earned a bid to the 2022 NCAA Tournament after posting one of its most exciting seasons in years with a 25-9 record. Cowboy Basketball also achieved its first national ranking since the 2014-15 season. Women's basketball advanced to the third round of the Women's National Invitation Tournament, and wrestling posted a Top 25 finish at the 2022 NCAA Championships, placing 23rd. The sports of football, swimming and diving, track and field and wrestling all had individuals earn All-America honors in 2021-22. Muma earned All-America honors in football. Diver Melissa Mirafuentes achieved All-America status at the NCAA Championships. Cowgirl long jumper Shayla Howell reached All-America status at the NCAA Indoor Track and Field Championships, while Cowboy long jumper Kareem Mersal and discus thrower Nathan Reid both earned All-America recognition at the NCAA Outdoor Track and Field Championships. Cowboy wrestler Stephen Buchanan placed third in the 197-pound weight class at the 2022 NCAA Championships to earn All-America honors for the second straight year.

In 2019, Cowboy Football won the 2019 NOVA Home Loans Arizona Bowl and posted an 8-5 record. That marked the third time in four years that Wyoming earned a bowl bid. Wyoming linebackers Logan Wilson and Cassh Maluia were both selected in the 2020 NFL Draft. Cowgirl Volleyball earned a postseason berth in 2019, advancing to the Second Round of the National Invitational Volleyball Championship (NIVC). The Cowgirls posted a 22-9 record, which was the fifth 20-win season under the direction of head coach Chad Callihan. Senior cross country runner Chris Henry won the NCAA Elite 90 Award for the second consecutive year in November 2019. That award is presented to the student-athlete with the highest cumulative grade-point average participating at the finals of one of the NCAA's 90 national championships. In March of 2021, the Cowgirl Basketball team won the Mountain West Conference Tournament Championship, earning the program's second-ever bid to the NCAA Tournament. Cowboy Wrestling qualified a program tying high of seven wrestlers for the 2021 NCAA Championships, with sophomore Stephen Buchanan earning All-America honors at 197 pounds by placing eighth. The Cowboys finished 26th in the nation as a team. In June 2021, senior discus thrower Colton Paller earned First Team All-America honors by placing seventh at the NCAA Outdoor Track and Field Championships.

In January of 2020, the civic education organization "Wyoming We the People: The Citizen and the Constitution" recognized Burman for his civic leadership in bringing members of the Black 14 back to the University of Wyoming campus in the fall of 2019. In the first 33 years of the organization at the state level in Wyoming, only five of these awards for significant contribution as a citizen have been presented.

The 2018-19 season began with the Grand Opening of the $44 million Mick and Susie McMurry High Altitude Performance Center. Among the most memorable moments of the year were: the men's cross country team placing 12th in the nation at the NCAA Championships; Cowgirl soccer captured a share of its first-ever, regular-season Mountain West championship; Cowboy football earned bowl eligibility for the third consecutive season; Cowgirl volleyball and Cowgirl basketball both earned postseason bids; and Cowboy wrestling qualified seven individuals for the NCAA Championships and finished 34th in the nation as a team. Individually, Paul Roberts earned All-America honors at the NCAA Cross Country Championships placing 20th, while his teammate Chris Henry became the first UW student-athlete to earn the NCAA Elite 90 Award. Cowgirl track and field athletes Jerayah Davis, Ja'la Henderson, Jordan Edmonds and Shayla Howell earned a combined seven All-America honors at the NCAA Outdoor Track and Field Championships. Henderson also earned All-America honors at the NCAA Indoor Track and Field Championships. Cowboy basketball player Justin James was the 40th overall selection by the Sacramento Kings in the 2019 NBA Draft, and Marcus Epps was selected in the sixth round of the 2019 NFL Draft by the Minnesota Vikings.

In the 2017-18 season, Wyoming football appeared in its second consecutive bowl game and recorded a dominating win in the Famous Idaho Potato Bowl, defeating Central Michigan, 37-14. Wyoming wrestling placed 17th at the NCAA National Championships and senior Bryce Meredith captured second place at 141 pounds for the third All-America honor of his career and his second runner-up finish at the NCAA Championships. The Cowgirl Volleyball team earned a bid to the Women's National Invitational Volleyball Championship. Women's basketball went down to the last game of the season battling for the Mountain West Conference regular-season championship and earned a bid to the WNIT. And the Wyoming men's swimming and diving team captured the 2018 Western Athletic Conference team championship -- the program's first conference title in men's swimming and diving in 50 years. Ja'la Henderson earned Second Team All-America honors at the 2018 NCAA Outdoor Track and Field Championships, placing 15th in the triple jump, and she earned Honorable Mention All-America honors in the long jump, placing 17th.

Wyoming quarterback Josh Allen attracted national attention during the 2017 season and through the 2018 NFL Draft as he became the No. 7 overall pick by the Buffalo Bills -- the highest Wyoming Cowboy draft pick in history. In a study by national research firm Joyce Julius & Associates, the media exposure generated by Wyoming Football in 2017-18 was estimated at $159 million.

The 2016-17 year began when Wyoming earned the right to host the 2016 Mountain West Football Championship Game by winning the Mountain Division and being the highest ranked team in the conference to end the regular season. The Cowboys defeated two Top 25 teams along the way, were named the National Team of the Week by the Football Writers Association of America for one of those wins and received votes themselves in the 2016 college football polls. The Pokes went on to post an 8-6 record and earn a bid to the 2016 San Diego County Credit Union Poinsettia Bowl.

In the winter, Cowboy wrestling tied for 21st at the 2017 NCAA Championships, and Wyoming junior Bryce Meredith of Cheyenne placed fourth at 141 pounds and earned All-America honors for the second consecutive season. Meredith had finished as the national runner-up at 141 pounds the previous season as a sophomore in 2015-16.

A young Cowgirl basketball team captured a second-place finish in the Mountain West Conference for the 2016-17 season. The Cowgirls defeated then No. 15 ranked Colorado to conclude non-conference play. Wyoming proceeded to post a 22-10 overall record, and earned a Women's National Invitation Tournament (WNIT) bid, advancing to the second round.

The spring season saw Cowgirl Tennis win a school record 18 matches, and post a perfect 10-0 home record. Wyoming was undefeated (5-0) in conference duals to win the Mountain Division. The Cowgirls advanced to the semifinals of the 2017 Mountain West Championships.

Cowboy golfer Ryan Wallen qualified for the 2017 NCAA Washington Regional, where he placed 38th.

Competitive Excellence

- Burman changed the course of Wyoming football in December 2013 when he hired Craig Bohl as head coach. Bohl had coached North Dakota State to three consecutive FCS National Championships in 2011, '12 and '13, was named National Coach of the Year in 2012 and '13 and was part of two FBS National Championship teams as an assistant coach at his alma mater, Nebraska, in 1995 and '97.
- The Cowboys have made six bowl appearances during Burman's tenure as athletics director. Wyoming won the 2009 New Mexico Bowl, earned a bid to the 2011 Gildan New Mexico Bowl, played in the 2016 San Diego County Credit Union Poinsettia Bowl, won the 2017 Famous Idaho Potato Bowl, won the 2019 NOVA Home Loans Arizona Bowl and won the 2021 Famous Idaho Potato Bowl.
- Burman hired current Cowboy Basketball coach Jeff Linder in March of 2020 and in two short seasons Linder led the Cowboys to the NCAA Tournament and its first Top 25 ranking since the 2014-15 season. Linder will return virtually his entire team from that NCAA team in 2022-23.
- In the spring of 2011, Burman hired Larry Shyatt away from his position as associate head coach at the University of Florida to return to Laramie and take over as head coach of Cowboy Basketball. Shyatt had been part of two National Championships with the Gators in 2006 and '07. Burman's hiring of Shyatt received numerous positive reviews, including an "A" rating from ESPN.com. Of the 19 coaching hires that ESPN.com rated, Wyoming received one of only five "A" ratings. Shyatt's 2015 team won the Mountain West Tournament title and earned an automatic NCAA Tournament bid.
- Cowgirl Basketball achieved a great deal of success under the direction of former head coach Joe Legerski. Wyoming won the Women's National Invitation Tournament (WNIT) National Championship in the 2006-07 season, defeating Wisconsin, 72-56, in the championship game before a sold-out crowd in Laramie. In 2007-08, the Cowgirls earned the program's first-ever NCAA Tournament berth. In the 2020-21 season under the direction of head coach Gerald Mattinson, the Cowgirls won the MW Tournament title and earned the program's second NCAA Tournament bid in program history.
- Head wrestling coach Mark Branch was hired by Burman prior to the 2008-09 season. Branch was part of four NCAA Championships as associate head coach at his alma mater, Oklahoma State, and won two individual NCAA titles as a competitor at OSU in 1994 and '97. Wyoming wrestling joined the Big 12 Conference, beginning in the 2015-16 season. Branch has led the Cowboys to multiple years of success at the NCAA Championships.
- Current track and field coach Bryan Berryhill is a fifth UW head coach who has achieved a national title and was hired by Burman. Berryhill captured individual NCAA national championships in the indoor 1-mile run and outdoor 1,500-meter run in 2001 at Colorado State.

Academic Success

- Under Burman's leadership, University of Wyoming teams have achieved unprecedented academic success, reaching historic levels of excellence in Academic Progress Rate (APR) scores, Academic All-Conference honorees, team grade-point averages and graduation rates.
- The most recent APR scores released in June 2022 saw 10 UW teams achieve perfect APR scores of 1,000 for the most recent academic year measured. All of Wyoming's athletics teams far exceeded the multi-year NCAA benchmark score of 930.
- Wyoming led all 12 Mountain West schools in Academic All-Conference honors in the fall of 2019, with 74 student-athletes earning that recognition.
- Add to that 91 winter and spring student-athletes who earned Academic All-Conference honors and a total of 165 UW student-athletes achieved that prestigious honor for the 2019-20 academic year.
- For the second consecutive year in 2019, Wyoming cross country student-athlete Christopher Henry earned the NCAA Elite 90 Award at the NCAA Cross Country National Championship. That award goes to the student-athlete with the highest cumulative grade-point average participating at the finals of one of the NCAA's 90 national championships.
- The combined student-athlete cumulative grade-point average for all University of Wyoming sports tied an all-time high in the 2017-2018 academic year. That cumulative gpa was 3.13 and marked the second consecutive year student-athletes achieved that mark since the cumulative gpa began being tracked in 2002.

Revenue Generation/Facilities

- Burman has spearheaded over $120 million in facilities projects during his time as athletics director, including: construction of a new $11 million Indoor Practice Facility (Fall 2007); construction of the $22 million Wildcatter Stadium Club & Suites addition to War Memorial Stadium (Fall 2010); extensive renovations to the east side of War Memorial Stadium; significant upgrades to the UniWyo Sports Complex for volleyball and wrestling; completion of a new $3 million Indoor Tennis Facility (Spring 2011); a new $1.2 million golf practice facility (Summer 2014); and Phase I and II of a $30 million renovation to the Arena-Auditorium that was completed in the fall of 2017.
- The new Mick and Susie McMurry High Altitude Performance Center was completed in the summer of 2018 and will provide all UW student-athletes with a world-class training facility. The $44 million facility was funded by $24 million in private donations and $20 million in matching funds from the state of Wyoming that were allocated with the support from the Wyoming State Legislature and Gov. Matt Mead.
- In November of 2017, the Cowboy Joe Club, the fundraising organization for the University of Wyoming Athletics Department, announced that it had reached the 5,000-member plateau, making it the largest annual athletics scholarship fund membership in the Mountain West Conference.
- Wyoming Athletics shattered its annual fundraising record in the 2015-16 fiscal year as $20.4 million in pledges and gifts were made to UW Athletics. That broke the previous record of $12.8 million in pledges and gifts to UW Athletics that was also set during Burman's tenure as A.D. in the 2013-14 fiscal year.
- Cowboy Joe Club annual revenue grew from $2.1 million in 2006 to over $6 million as of the end of the 2017-18 fiscal year.
- In 2011, season-ticket sales for Wyoming Football surpassed the 10,000 season-ticket mark for the first time in school history. That 10,000 season-ticket milestone was reached for only the second time in 2017.

Before becoming A.D. at Wyoming, Burman had previously served as an Associate Athletics Director at UW from 1995-2000. His first position at his alma mater was as Associate Athletics Director for Development, serving as Executive Director of the Cowboy Joe Club from 1995-97. From 1997-2000, Burman was Wyoming's Associate Athletics Director for External Affairs. During that time period, he was instrumental in raising funds for the $9.4 million Rochelle Athletics Center.

He served as Athletics Director at Portland State University from Sept. 2000 through March 2006. Burman returned to UW in March 2006 as Associate Vice President for Institutional Advancement with the UW Foundation, before being selected by President Tom Buchanan as the eighth athletics director in UW history in October 2006.

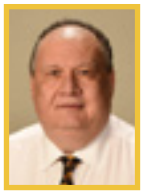

Burman began his intercollegiate athletics career as Director of Marketing and Promotions (1993-95) at the University of Idaho in Moscow, Idaho. Before entering a career in college athletics, he worked as a project manager for the sports management company DeWilber & Associates in McLean, Va., from 1990-92.

He earned a Bachelor of Science degree from Wyoming in 1988 and an M.B.A. from Robert Morris University in Coraopolis, Pa., in 1991. Burman is 56 years old, born Jan. 4, 1966.
