Since 1931-32, the Cowboys are 276-165-6 at home, a winning percentage of 60 percent.

At neutral sites, Wyoming is 97-66-1 (.591), and 225-205-8 (.513) at away locations.

2022-23 DUAL RESULTS

DUAL 1

NOV. 18, 2022 | Stillwater, Okla.

| WYOMING | 3 |
|-------------------|----|
| #7 Oklahoma State | 34 |

Stillwater, Okla. (Nov. 18, 2022) – The Wyoming Cowboy wrestling competed in their first dual of the season on Friday night taking on Big 12 rival No. 7 Oklahoma State inside of Gallagher-Iba Arena. OSU took the dual 34-3, but Job Greenwood provided a big highlight for Wyoming with an upset win over No. 13 ranked Carter Young

"Job showed heart and guts tonight when he was exhausted." Head Wrestling Coach Mark Branch said, "We know our wrestling shape is in its infancy and that's ok for November, but when you're tired you got to dig deep and that's what Job did."

After moving up a weight during the offseason, Greenwood continued to look like a threat at 141 pounds as he squared off with No. 13 Young. Greenwood struck first scoring the only takedown of the match early on and adding a second period reversal to go up 4-1. After building up his lead, Greenwood showed grit down the stretch denying No. 13 Young multiple times on the edge of the mat to seal a 4-3 victory. The ranked win is Greenwood's first at 141 pounds as he improves to 6-0 on the season.

"You're not going to hear me say this often after a lopsided loss, but I'm proud of these guys. Each guy went out and fought hard and didn't wrestle intimidated." Branch Said, "We had five guys wrestling in their first colledge dual and three guys up a weight class. The odds were certainly stacked against us but we showed heart. Give a coaching staff heart and hard work and you do a lot of work with that."

True Freshman Jore Volk (133) and Logan Ours (157) both looked promising in their dual debuts with each grappler coming up short in tightly contested matches against top 10 opponents.

DEC. 10, 2022 | Colorado Springs, Colo.

| Air Force | 25 |

Colorado Springs, Colo. (Dec. 10, 2022) – The Wyoming Cowboy wrestling squad was in action Saturday night competing in their second dual of the season on the road against Air Force inside Clune Arena. Three Cowboys picked up wins on the night, but the Cowboys dropped the dual 11-25.

"We saw a mixture of great things and not so great things tonight. Darren coming out and setting the tone in that first match with a big win was great." Head Wrestling Coach Mark Branch said, "We still got to grow in the room but it's a work in progress.

The first Cowboy to pick up a win on the night was Darren Green making his first dual start of the season at 141 pounds as he took on Nick Krug. Green got to his offense early scoring the first takedown of the match and never looking back. Green cruised to a 9-1 major decision win over Krug for his first dual win of the season.

At 157 pounds Bryce Dauphin took the mat against Garrett Bowers in his first career dual in the Brown and Gold. It was a gritty bout that saw Dauphin give up the first takedown of the match to trail 2-0. From there Dauphin fired back scoring four straight points and shutting down Bowers in the third period to seal the 4-2 victory and earn his first career dual win at Wyomina.

Competing in just his second competition of the season, No. 14 Hayden Hastings had a return to form in his 9-0 shutout win over Gage Musser. Hastings opened the scoring early with a takedown and then put Musser to his back to break the match open and cruise to the major decision victory.

Up next for the Cowboys is a trip top Reno, Nevada to compete in the Reno Tournament of Champions on Dec. 18.

Ames, Iowa (Jan. 7, 2023) - The Wyoming Cowboy wrestling squad wrapped up their road trip on Saturday with a dual against No. 3 Iowa State in Ames, Iowa. Two Cowboys came away with wins on the day, but the Cyclones took the dual,

"We looked better today, Garrett came out and really fought hard. Even after giving up the first takedown he kept battling and put himself in a position to dominate his match." Head Wrestling Coach Mark Branch said, "We are excited to have a dual back at home now but it only makes a difference if we make it make a difference. So, we have to get back in the room and work on some things and make it happen.

In one of the marquee matchups of the dual No. 9 ranked Jacob Wright faced off against Iowa State's No. 30 ranked Jason Krassier at 157 pounds. Wright established himself early in the match with a takedown and a first period ride out to put himself in control. Wright then opened the second period with a reversal to go up 4-0 before Krassier flipped the script late and tied the match 4-4. However, with a late escape and the riding time point secured Wright came away with a 6-4 decision for his third ranked of the season. With the victory, Wright bumps his career win total to 95 as he closes in on the century mark.

The Cowboys second win of the dual would be provided by Garrett Ricks who went up against Conor Knopick at 125 pounds. Knopick controlled the match early scoring the first takedown and building up riding time on Ricks. However, with 20 seconds left to go in the first period Ricks locked up a cradle reversing Knopick to his back for a six-point move to go up 6-2 against the Cyclone. From there Ricks stayed on the gas cruising to a 12-4 major decision victory for his first dual win at UW.

Up next the Cowboys will have a week to prepare for their first home dual of season as they are set to host reigning Big 12 Champions and No. 4 ranked Missouri next Saturday inside of the UniWyo Sports Complex for a white out. The dual is set to begin at 5 p.m. MT.

| No. 7 Missouri | 28 |

LARAMIE, Wyo. (Jan. 14, 2023) - The Cowboys hosted their first home dual of the season on Saturday night welcoming No. 7 Missouri to the UniWyo for a Big 12 matchup. Wyoming won three matches on the night and True Freshman Jore Volk picked up a top 15 win, but Missouri took the dual 28-10.

"That was a great win for Jore and he really got the crowd into the dual. I think he's still trying to figure out some of the adjustments of the college level but he had some really great moments and he kept the pressure on that kid the entire time and it was a great way to start the dual." Head Wrestling Coach Mark Branch said, "I'm proud of our fight tonight and I think we were able to see that we have the potential to be a better team and these guys have potential to be

The highlight of the night came at 125 Pounds where No. 27 Volk faced off against Missouri's No. 12 ranked Noah Surtin. Volk set the tone of the match with a takedown late in the first period and followed it with near fall points to take a 4-0 lead. From there Volk stayed in control of the match holding of Surtin's attacks and tacking on another take down and nearfall to cruise to a 11-1 major decision. For Volk, it is the first ranked win of his career as he improves to 13-6 on the season.

At 141 pounds, Job Greenwood put his offense on full display against Missouri's Kade Moore. Greenwood scored quick with a take down and four points of near fall in the first period and never looked back. He added two more takedowns and a reversal to down Moore 11-4 for his seventh win of the season

Terren Swartz capped off the night on a high note for the Pokes in his heavyweight battle against Missouri's Ryan Boersma. Swartz had the move of the match in the first period hitting a big double leg on Boersma for a takedown and followed it up by riding out the rest of the period. From there the two grapplers traded escapes but Swartz shut down his opponent's attacks and grinded out a 3-1 victory for his first dual win of the season.

A trio of extra matches were contested after the completion of the dual and Garrett Ricks came away with a win at 125 pounds defeating Missouri's Preston Spray 5-3 with a last second take down.

Up next for the Cowboys will be a Big 12 road trip up north as they travel Fargo, North Dakota to face North Dakota State on Saturday Jan. 21 and follow that up with trip to Brookings, South Dakota to dual South Dakota State the next day, Sunday Jan. 22.
