LARAMIE, Wyo. (1/30/24) – The University of Wyoming wrestling team puts its three-match dual win streak on the line Thursday. The Cowboys host No. 11 South Dakota State at 6 p.m. inside the UniWyo Sports Complex.

The Pokes diversified the way in which they won their most recent dual. After taking control of duals early in the weeks prior, Wyoming rallied for a 23-16 victory at Northern Colorado on Friday that pushed their record to 6-5 overall and 4-3 in the Big 12.

While head coach Mark Branch was pleased with how his team circled the wagons, of sorts, against the Bears, he knows things must be different Thursday. His team will have to get out to a fast start, in more ways than one.

“SDSU has a very good team,” Branch said. “If we want to make this competitive, we are going to have to wrestle a lot better than we did last Friday. We have got to push for first-period takedowns, and we have to believe in our ability to upset individuals. You want these opportunities at home, and we need to take full advantage of wrestling on our home mat.”

As Branch said, upsets will be necessary to keep the team score close. The Jackrabbits boast a ranked wrestler at every weight, two of which are ranked in the top five.

Game Notes

Breaking Into the Rankings: Freshmen Joey Novak and Cole Brooks broke into the rankings just a month into their collegiate careers. Novak is ranked as high as No. 19, and Brooks No. 31.

Novak's Strength of Schedule: Joey Novak has wrestled 27 matches this season. Fifteen of those have come against ranked wrestlers. He's 6-9 versus those highly-thought-of grapplers.

Offensive Showcase: Jore Volk and Gabe Willochell each lead the team with 33 takedowns apiece. Cole Brooks owns 24 takedowns in his 12 matches, giving him two per match, which is the highest average on the squad.

Comeback Train: Riley Davis is never out of a match. He trailed Northwestern's David Ferrante, 12-0, midway through the second period of a consolation-round match at Cliff Keen. Davis rallied for a 16-14 decision victory. Davis also rallied against his first-round opponent, trailing Northern Iowa's Jared Simma, 8-1, before falling, 11-10, on a riding time point. In a dual against Campbell, Davis trailed Austin Murphy, 10-0, before falling, 16-15, on a riding time point.

Youthful Success: Wyoming's roster is comprised of a plethora of young wrestlers, many of which are in the starting lineup. Cole Brooks (141), Sloan Swan (157) and Joey Novak (197) are all in their first collegiate season and are a combined 36-18.

Misleading Record: Wyoming sits above .500 on the season at 6-5, however, three of the defeats occurred against teams that are currently ranked inside the top six, one that's ranked in the top 25 and another that's receiving votes.

Transfer Portal World: Head coach Mark Branch bolstered his roster with transfers this past offseason. Two newbies, Gabe Willochell and Ethan Ducca, started a season ago for Edinboro and have been in the starting rotation for the brown and gold. Cooper Birdwell is also a starter that transferred in after a reserve role at Oklahoma State, while Stockton O'Brien has seen time in the starting rotation after coming in from Utah Valley.

Racking Up the Points: The 40 points scored against CSU Bakersfield were the most by Wyoming since tallying 42 against SIU Edwardsville during the 2018-19 season.

Drubbing the Roadrunners: The 40-3 victory over CSU Bakersfield marked the largest margin of victory since defeating Buffalo, 39-0, during the 2014-15 season.

New Weight, New Me: Brett McIntosh dropped down from 174 to 165 before the start of the season. The Harrison, Ohio, owns six wins, which is one shy of the season-high seven he had in 2022-23.

Cowboys Far and Wide: Wyoming has an eclectic roster from all over the country. 17 different states are present. The home state is also well represented with a half dozen hailing from the Equality State.

Wyoming	31
Western Wyoming	10

LARAMIE, Wyo. (11/5/23) – The University of Wyoming wrestling team commenced its regular season Sunday at the UniWyo Sports Complex. The Cowboys defeated Western Wyoming, 31-10.

“They are a tough team,” head coach Mark Branch said. “Those guys were coming here to scrap, and I thought they were more aggressive than us across the board. It was the first time competing for a lot of our guys, so you never know what you’re going to get. We know some things we need to talk about and focus on.”

It’s a season largely filled with unknowns for Wyoming. The majority of Sunday’s starting lineup was comprised of transfer portal additions or sparingly-used returnees from a season ago.

Wyoming	40
CSU-Bakersfield	3

BAKERSFIELD, Calif. (11/10/23) – University of Wyoming wrestling head coach Mark Branch wasn’t particularly pleased with his team’s aggressiveness in their season-opening dual against Western Wyoming. That passiveness was put to bed and not present Friday.

The Cowboys were the aggressor, and it led to a dominating 40-3 victory inside the Icardo Center.

“We had several guys that didn’t wrestle in the dual Sunday that got their debut for us,” Branch said. “Part of the reason they got their debut is how they wrestled after the dual Sunday. Some of those same guys that did wrestle in the dual made some adjustments, listened and it paid off. They came out and showed a lot of energy and a lot of aggressiveness.”

RIVERSIDE, Calif. (11/11/23) – The University of Wyoming wrestling team didn’t have much to celebrate during the 2022-23 season. After just one week of competitions, the new-look Cowboys have plenty to be excited about highlighted by a Big 12 victory Saturday night.

Wyoming downed Cal Baptist, 28-12, inside Dan Vyne Gym to log a perfect a 2-0 road trip.

“I thought we wrestled well,” head coach Mark Branch said. “This was a bigger challenge for us than last night. On paper, I think with our youth, we weren’t favored in a ton of matches. But at the same time, we felt good about our guys.”

Air Force	14

LARAMIE, Wyo. (1/12/24) – University of Wyoming wrestling head coach Mark Branch's right hand was sore Friday following his team's dual against Air Force. The fact of the matter was he simply had to give out quite a few exuberant high-fives following an authoritative performance from the Cowboys.

Wyoming started extremely strong and finished well en route to a 30-14 victory inside the UniWyo Sports Complex.

"In the seven matches we won, we scored first-period takedowns, and in most of them we scored pretty quick in that first 30 or 45 seconds," Branch said. "That makes a huge difference. You come out and punch them in the face and you can't stop punching them, and that's what we did, especially at the first five weights."

OREM, Utah (1/20/24) – Sloan Swan hasn't wrestled a whole bunch this season for the University of Wyoming. The 157-pound freshman has competed in a couple tournaments and a couple duals but hasn't been a consistent fixture in the lineup.

Swan made another start Saturday at Utah Valley. And his impressive come-from-behind performance solidified a strong start and catapulted a strong finish for the Cowboys.

Wyoming ended up topping the Wolverines, 22-12, inside Lockhart Arena.

"Sloan was down 5-0 going into the third period and then scored 17 points," head coach Mark Branch said. "That's inspiration, and that really lifted the team up. Those things play a factor in a dual setting."

Greeley, Colo. – Jumping out to a fast start has been the recipe for the University of Wyoming wrestling team during its modest two-dual win streak. That wasn't the case Friday.

The Cowboys dropped their first two bouts of the night and needed to stem the partisan crowd in come-from-behind form. And that's just what they did.

The Pokes rallied for a 23-16 win inside Bank of Colorado Arena.

"We had some gusty performances," head coach Mark Branch said. "It's a win. But I don't feel like we moved forward since our last two duals. We didn't come out and wrestle the way we can."
