JOSH PURDUM

(Northern Colorado, '11), Second Season
Cowgirl Soccer Head Coach

Purdum is entering his second season as the head coach of Cowgirl soccer. He owns a career record of 4-6-9.

Purdum's inaugural year with the brown and gold was a noteworthy one. The 2024 Wyoming squad defeated a ranked foe for the first time in program history, blanking No. 11 Utah State, 2-0, in Laramie. The Aggies entered the match unbeaten and as the second-highest scoring offense in the country. That shutout was one of nine for Haley Bartel, which was a school best for a single season. The Cowgirls also held No. 3 BYU scoreless in an exhibition match Wyoming won, 1-0, in Provo. It doesn't stop there, as Wyoming shut out Big 10 foe, Washington, 0-0, in Seattle. Purdum also helped coach two of best to ever hail from the Equality State. Ayssa Bedard, from Rock Springs, and Maddi Chance, from Lander, ended No. 7 and No. 11, respectively, on the all-time goal scorer list with 17 and 15 goals scored.

Prior to taking the head job at Wyoming, Purdum was at Colorado State as an assistant coach for two-plus seasons. He's also had coaching stops at North Dakota State – for four years, one of which was as the associate – Eastern Kentucky for two years and Drake for one.
