YALE TALE

The Yale football team reaches the midway point of the 2022 season when Bucknell visits Yale Bowl, Class of 1954 Field for a noon kickoff on Saturday. The Bulldogs have won three straight games and sit at 2-0 in Ivy League play as they get set for the final non-conference game of the year.

The Bulldogs (3-1, 2-0 Ivy) are coming off an impressive 24-21 victory over Dartmouth in a game that wasn't decided until Hamilton Moore intercepted Big Green quarterback Dylan Cadwallader with 36 seconds remaining in the fourth quarter. It was the second career pick for Moore. The first came against Howard the previous week.

Offensively, Yale continued to have great success on the ground, rushing for 283 yards. Tre Peterson led the way with 173 yards and one touchdown, while quarterback Nolan Grooms added 90 rushing yards and a touchdown.

Behind an experienced and talented offensive line, Peterson is averaging 7.4 yards per carry, which is seventh in all of FCS. He has posted back-to-back 100-yard rushing games and was selected as the Ivy League Offensive Player of the Week and as the Week 6 recipient of the New England Football Writers Association Gold Helmet Award.

Through four games, the Bulldogs are averaging 247 rushing yards per game, which is fifth in the nation.

In addition, Yale leads the nation with only one sack allowed in four games.

Grooms also had an effective day throwing the ball against the Big Green, completing 19-of-22 passes for 170 yards and a touchdown. Grooms is completing 61.9 percent of his passes on the season and has thrown for 566 yards and four touchdowns.

David Pantelis, who caught all eight balls thrown his way against Dartmouth, leads the team with 19 receptions. Mason Tipton has 17 catches.

Moore's heroics earned him Ivy League Defensive Player of the Week honors. In addition to his game-clinching interception, he led the team with nine tackles, including seven solo stops.

The Bulldogs limited Dartmouth to 20 yards rushing in the game and had two sacks - from Clay Patterson and Tamatoa McDonough. Yale has 15 sacks on the season and is ninth in the country in team sacks at 3.75 per game.

2022 YALE FOOTBALL GAME NOTES

SCOUTING BUCKNELL

The Bison (0-5) have played a challenging schedule thus far, including against FBS opponent Central Michigan and nationally ranked Holy Cross. Quarterback Ethan Grady has thrown for 507 yards and two touchdowns this season. His two favorite targets are running back Coleman Bennett, who leads the team with 11 receptions, and Damian Harris, who has caught 10 passes for a team-high 129 yards. Rushawn Baker is the team's leading rusher with 232 yards. Defensively, Blake Leake tops the Bison with 37 tackles. Bucknell has eight sacks on the season.

HISTORY LESSONS

Surprisingly, Yale and Bucknell are playing for just the fifth time, and the Bulldogs hold a 3-1 advantage in the series. All four games have been played at Yale Bowl, Class of 1954 Field. The last meeting was a 25-24 Bison victory in 1997. In 1996, Yale edged Bucknell 23-21. The first meeting was a 36-5 Bulldog victory in 1902. In 1923, Yale beat the Bison 29-14.

BULLDOGS EARN AWARDS

Two Bulldogs who played key roles in Saturday's 24-21 victory over Dartmouth were honored by the Ivy League on Monday. Tre Peterson, who rushed for a game-high 173 yards, was named the league's offensive player of the week, while Hamilton Moore, who sealed the win with a late interception, earned defensive honors.

Peterson, of Columbus, Ga., had a big day as the Bulldogs edged the defending Ivy League champion Big Green. He carried 28 times in notching his second straight 100-yard plus day, and also scored a touchdown.

On Sunday, Peterson was selected as the Week 6 recipient of the New England Football Writers Association Gold Helmet Award

Moore, of Raleigh, N.C., stepped in front of a Dylan Cadwallader pass along the sideline and made a terrific, one-handed interception with 36 seconds remaining in the fourth quarter. It was the second career pick for Moore. The first came against Howard last Saturday. Against Dartmouth, Moore finished with a team-high nine tackles, including seven solo stops.

BULLDOGS WEAR COMMEMORATIVE UNIFORMS

Yale's illustrious, 150-year football history was on full display when the Bulldogs wore special commemorative uniforms for their game against Dartmouth on Oct. 8 at Yale Bowl, Class of 1954 Field.

The uniforms were modeled after those worn by Walter Camp, an 1880 Yale graduate who is considered the father of American football. Camp, a two-time football captain and later head coach of the Bulldogs, was responsible for reshaping the doctrines of English rugby into American football. His teams as a player boasted a 30-1-6 record, and as a head coach he held an impressive 67-2 record.

From 1879 to 1925, Camp was a member of every football rule convention and rules committee. He is credited with introducing the concepts of the play from scrimmage, the use of a quarterback, set plays, point values and first downs.

For the commemorative uniforms, the details were meticulous. The jerseys are cream colored, the same as Yale's famed varsity sweater, and Walter Camp's rules of football from his famous 1893 book are written in the jersey numbers. The helmets and pants are traditional Yale Blue. The helmets also feature a cream Y with Heisman Trophies on each side, honoring Yale's two Heisman winners - Larry Kelley '37 and Clint Frank '38. The two classic Yale stripes on the helmet list the last name of every Yale football captain since 1872.

Yale played its first football game on Nov. 16, 1872, a 3-0 victory over Columbia in a game that featured 20 players on each side. In their renowned history, the Bulldogs have amassed 923 victories, the seventh most of any college or university in the nation and the most by any Ivy League or FCS school.

IFESINACHUKWU SEMIFINALIST FOR CAMPBELL TROPHY

Yale standout defensive end Osorachukwu Ifesinachukwu has been selected as a semifinalist for the National Football Foundation & College Hall of Fame's prestigious 2022 William V. Campbell Trophy, college football's premier scholar-athlete award.

Celebrating its 33rd year, the Campbell Trophy recognizes an individual as the absolute best football scholar-athlete in the nation for his combined academic success, football performance and exemplary leadership.

Ifesinachukwu, who is an NFL prospect, is certainly a deserving candidate. He already has made a major impact through two games this season, notching two sacks against both Holy Cross and Cornell. Last year, he was limited to six games due to injury but still compiled 17 tackles, two sacks and forced a fumble. In 2019, he started all 10 games on Yale's Ivy League championship team and contributed 28 tackles and 2.5 sacks.

Ifesinachukwu, a biomedical engineering major with a 3.67 GPA, has excelled off the field as well. At Yale he has worked as a Design Aide for the Center For Engineering and Innovative Design where he helped members maintain safety regulations. In addition, he has been involved with the Global Teaching Project, traveling to Mississippi to tutor physics for bright and gifted underprivileged high school students and also serving as a summer camp counselor.

Ifesinachukwu also is an accomplished artist.

The NFF will announce 12-14 finalists on Oct. 26, and each of them will receive an $18,000 postgraduate scholarship as a member of the 2022 NFF National Scholar-Athlete Class Presented by Fidelity Investments. The finalists will travel to Bellagio Resort & Casino in Las Vegas for the 64th NFF Annual Awards Dinner Presented by Las Vegas on Dec. 6, where one member of the class will be declared as the winner of the 33rd Campbell Trophy® and have his postgraduate scholarship increased to $25,000.

NICKERSON TO INTERN WITH HOUSTON TEXANS

Defensive lineman Reid Nickerson wants to work for an NFL team when his college career is over, and after he graduates in December, he will get his chance when he begins an internship in the front office of the Houston Texans.

A native of Friendswood, Tex., a suburb of Houston, Nickerson grew up a huge fan of the Texans and the Houston Astros. With the Texans, he will be working on the technology side, while also dealing with analytics and stats.

Nickerson said his ultimate dream is to become an NFL general manager. He worked hard to line up the internship and received assistance from his coaches.

"I did mass emailing last year (around the NFL). I was also writing everyone in the Texans' department," Nickerson said. "Coach Cahill (Yale's offensive coordinator Kevin Cahill) had a contact in the Texans front office and Coach Reno called the person who ended up being the guy who hired me. It was about reaching out, networking and my coaches did a great job for me."

BULLDOGS SET FOR TWO NATIONAL TV APPEARANCES

Yale is set to make two national television appearances as part of the 2022 Ivy League on ESPN football linear package. The Bulldogs' game at Columbia on Friday, Oct. 28 at 6:30 p.m. will be broadcast on ESPNU, and the 138th edition of The Game on Saturday, Nov. 19 at Harvard will air at a time and ESPN network to be determined.

This is the 14th consecutive year that the league will feature a national football television package. For the fourth-straight year, each program will make at least one appearance in the schedule. The slate consists of five consecutive Friday night games on ESPNU before The Game on Nov. 19.

All other Ivy League home football games outside of this six-game package will air on ESPN+, while select games will also be available through a variety of regional sports networks.
