Sunday, March 27, 2016 • 10:00 a.m.
Palisades Park • Palisades Park, N.J.

Home Opener

- Today, Yeshiva hosts John Jay in the home opener at Palisades Park, out in New Jersey. It will be a doubleheader.
- The Maccabees are searching for their first win of the season.
- This will be the first of two scheduled meetings between these two teams. The Maccabees and Bloodhounds will meet again for a single game on Tuesday, April 19. John Jay will be the home team for that contest.
- Yeshiva is coming off a pair of hard-fought losses to New York University, on the road, on Friday.
- In game two, the Maccabees scored three runs in the top of the first to jump out to an early lead. Junior shortstop Josh Gurin started the rally by drilling a single and then stole second. Junior catcher Shmuli Goldis drove him in with a single to score Yeshiva's first run. After Goldis stole second, he scored thanks to junior Elan Paul's double down the left field line. Two batters later, junior outfielder Chaim Rosenberg singled to left, scoring Paul from third to make it 3-0 in favor of Yeshiva.
- After NYU got one run back in the bottom of the first, Yeshiva scored its fourth run in the top of the second, as an error at third base scored sophomore infielder Mordechai Cohen for the Maccabees' fourth run. The Violets would turn momentum into their favor by scoring one run in the home half of the third, and two in the fourth, to take their first lead of the game, 5-4. The home team never looked back as NYU scored two runs in the fifth, and added an insurance run in the sixth, to clinch the sweep.
