A Skyline Conference Showdown

- Tonight, Yeshiva hosts Purchase College in a Skyline Conference doubleheader at Palisades Park.
- The Maccabees are searching for their first win of the season.
- Yeshiva is coming off a pair of hard-fought losses to John Jay, at home, on Sunday.
- The Maccabees were led by junior second baseman Shmuli Goldis, who produced three hits, stole just as many bases, and scored two runs during the doubleheader. He also pitched a scoreless inning in relief during the second game.
- In the first game, junior pitcher Raphael Rosenberg started the contest on the mound for the Maccabees, giving up one earned run and striking out two hitters, in three innings pitched to earn the no-decision. He returned to the mound in game two, and gave up no earned runs in two innings of relief.
