Yeshiva Hosts Martime

- Today, Yeshiva hosts SUNY Maritime in a Skyline Conference doubleheader, out at Palisades Park. The Maccabees are searching for their first win of the season.
- Yeshiva is coming off a pair of losses to St. Joseph's College of Brooklyn on Sunday.
- In the opening game, Yeshiva got its lone run thanks to an RBI single by Benjamin Barman that scored Zachary Perl with two outs in the bottom of the fifth. It would not be enough as the Bears scored six runs in the first, on their way to the victory. For the contest, Perl went two-for-two, including a triple. Chad Shapiro launched a double, while Chaim Rosenberg, Shmuli Goldis, and Ari Schanzer each produced a single. Mordechai Cohen started the game and took the loss for Yeshiva, but pitched a complete game.
