Yeshiva Hosts Vaughn

- Tonight, Yeshiva hosts Vaughn in a non-conference doubleheader, out at Palisades Park. This is the final scheduled game of the season. The Maccabees are searching for their first win of the year.
- Yeshiva is coming off a pair of losses to Mount Saint Mary on Tuesday afternoon.
- In the second end of the doubleheader, Yeshiva scored four runs in the opening inning to take a 4-0 lead. Shmuli Goldis started the rally by drilling a single through the right side, scoring Elan Paul to give Yeshiva a 1-0 lead. After Ari Schanzer reached base on a single, Zachary Perl blasted a triple to right center, scoring two runs to extend Yeshiva's lead to 3-0. He would eventually score on a sacrifice fly by Chaim Rosenberg to make it 4-0 in favor of the Maccabees. However, Mount Saint Mary scores six unanswered runs to win the contest, 6-5.
