INTRODUCTION.

—————

What is the good of living if you can't have a good time, or as the proverb goes. Live while you have a chance. You will be dead a long time.

Now the only way to get next to all the good things is to pay particular attention to what this PHAMPLET has to say.

Don't be misguided by touts or gold brick masons, but look for what ever you desire in this book.

This little book contains all the sporting houses in the tenderloin district, both Storyville and Anderson County.

Now to know you are in Storyville, we will give you the boundry, which is as follows:

N. Basin to N. Robertson, Customhouse to St. Louis. This is Storyville.

Anderson County (old tenderloin) is:

Customhouse street to St. Peter, Dauphine to Rampart streets.

The names in this book constitute the Tenderloin "400", one of the grandest sporting societies in existance to-day, including the popular ASTORIA and ARLINGTON.

ATTENTION.

To tell a landlady from a boarder, their names have been printed in Capital Letters.

* The star on the side of a landlady's name indicates a first class house, where the finest of women and nothing but wine is sold.

The letter "B" on the side of a name indicates a house where beer is sold.

The "No. 69" is the sign of French house.

The Jew will be known by a "J."

Wishing you a good time while making your rounds,
I remain yours

— MISS —
Dorothy Denning

132

BURGUNDY ST.,

NEAR CUSTOMHOUSE.

Miss Denning has the honor of keeping one of the quietest and most elaborately furnished establishments in the city where beautiful women, good wine and sweet music reign supreme. Miss Denning while clever to everyone has the distinction of keeping one of the most refined houses in the tenderloin, where one can have enjoyment unmolested and without being seen.

The following are the names of her ladies: Misses Florence Davis, Alice Knoll, Bertha Knight, Nina Jackson, Vivin Stetson and several others whose name can not be published.

MILWAUKEE SALOON,

CORNER

CUSTOMHOUSE & LIBERTY STS.,

STORYVILLE.

Louis Miller who conducts this resort has always made it a point in life to please every one, both women and men and he can do it very easy at the MILWAUKEE.

If it's a good time you are out for with your girl, just bring her to LOUIS MILLER'S, he has private rooms and elegant parlor where one can have fun while the piano plays.

Miss Trilby O' Ferrell,

936

Customhouse St.

To see the tenderloin proper is to visit

TRILBY'S.

Unless' this is done the district has not been thoroughly covered. When it comes to being highly entertained by a refined and clever entertainer, you'll get the best of it from Miss Trilby O'Ferrel who is noted for fun and cleverness the country over.

The women of this establishment are all pretty. Their names are Misses Nina King, Beatrice Cameron, Della Lovett, Ruby Raymond, Florence Delmore, Claud Edmons.

MISS

Ella Schwartz,

331

N. BASIN STREET.

This magnificently furnished establishment better known as the

STUDIO,

has a world wide reputation among the better class of Sporting people.

In fact Miss Schwartz has made it a study to centre fun and frolic at her place so that she could entertain her friends at any and all times.

For singing, dancing etc., Miss Schwartz should be flattered as the following ladies are all entertainers: Miss Bessie Carter, Manager; Marie Gates, Nellie Camp, Myrtle May, Stella Lehman, Maurice Klimpt, Maryland Stewart, Viola Arnold, Yetta Gilbert.

MISS

Lottie * Fisher,

313

N. BASIN STREET.

If it's pretty women and a good time you are looking for—

MISS FISHER'S,

313 N. BASIN ST.,

is the place. Everyone of her ladies are entertainers, who sing, dance and converse; what more does a man want when out for a lark?

MISS FISHER also has one of the coziest places in the tenderloin. Her oil paintings are said to be worth thousands of dollars.

The names of her belles are Misses Bessie Astor, Florence Brooks, Clara Morris, Ethel Dennington, Nora Johnson, Grace Morton, Lena Cameron, Bessie Albright.

Miss Grace Simpson,

MISS

Mossie ARLINGTON,

225 N. BASIN.

It needs but very few words to state the details of Miss ARLINGTON. Her Mansion is said to be the most beautiful and artistically furnished in the United States. This only speaks in short terms as her bric-a-brac, oil paintings and carved furniture is of matchless make. A visit will convince anyone that what we say are facts.

Her beauties who are many are as follows: Misses Ray Owens, Bessie Montgomery, Nellie Gray, Minnie White, Louise Lawrance, Ollie Nicholls, Cleo Strauss, Frankie Sawyer, Blanche Percell, Marie Barrett, Dora Edmonds, Edith Vaughn, Myrtle Rhea, Sadie Martin, Florence Knight, Madeline Vale, and last but not least Miss ANNIE CASEY, Manager.
