Improving the modern workplace by exploring the intersection of learning, technology & design.

With over two decades of real-life, in-the-trenches experience, designing and delivering learning experiences, I understand that effective learning isn't about the latest fad or trendy new tools. Known for my practical, street-savvy style; I am a regular and highly rated speaker at industry events and continue to work with the best and brightest in the learning field and beyond.

I look forward to each opportunity to work together to help make it easier for people to do their work, present it to others clearly and be insanely effective! Let's do this!

What people are saying...

“Everyone talked about your session throughout the rest of the event. Your session was memorable and impactful. You made your points with some great examples and I think it made an impact on our audience, so great job!”

“I didn't check email once - great job!”

“I was at your full presentation and "lightning" course last week...and it was insanely helpful!”

“I really enjoyed your Art and Science of E-Learning webinar. Its difficult to convey the breadth of what we know about what works in E-learning in a relatively short timeframe, but you nailed it!

“Excellent session! Validating & wonderful conversation!”

“An abundance of immediately useful information.”

“Excellent! Great speaker with awesome knowledge!”

“Loved the use of polling to get audience involvement. Great engagement!”

“Both very enthusiastic and practical.”

“...I thoroughly enjoyed the seminar. I love how these are taught and I was shocked by fast the time goes.”

“Great interactive session with real world experience and hands-on tips!”

“Please make sure Mike comes to every conference. So much great, relevant information!”
