

Job Title: Middle School English Language Arts & Social Studies Teacher (Grades 5–8)

Mission:

St. Peter Catholic School provides students with the keys to:

Learn to their full potential

Love God and neighbor

Live a faith-filled life of service

So they may unlock doors to a better future.

School Type:

Catholic K-8 School

Position Summary:

The Catholic School Teacher for Grades 5–8 is responsible for providing high-quality instruction in English Language Arts and Social Studies while supporting the spiritual, moral, and academic development of students in accordance with the mission and teachings of the Catholic Church. The teacher integrates faith, values, and academic excellence to create a nurturing and disciplined learning environment.

Teaching Assignments:

- 5th Grade: Reading and English Language Arts
- 6th Grade: English Language Arts
- 7th Grade: English Language Arts
- 8th Grade: English Language Arts and Social Studies

Essential Duties and Responsibilities:

- Plan, prepare, and deliver engaging, developmentally appropriate lessons aligned with diocesan, state, and school curriculum standards.

- Integrate Catholic teachings, values, and traditions into daily instruction and classroom culture.
- Assess student learning using a variety of methods and provide timely feedback to students and parents.
- Differentiate instruction to meet the diverse learning needs of students.
- Maintain a positive, respectful, and faith-filled classroom environment.
- Participate in school liturgies, prayer, religious celebrations, and service activities.
- Communicate regularly and professionally with parents/guardians regarding student progress.
- Collaborate with faculty, administration, and support staff to promote student success.
- Uphold school policies, diocesan guidelines, and professional standards.
- Participate in faculty meetings, professional development, and school events as required.

Qualifications:

- Bachelor's degree in Education, English, Social Studies, or a related field.
- Valid teaching certification or eligibility for certification per diocesan requirements.
- Practicing Catholic preferred, with a strong commitment to Catholic education and values.
- Experience teaching middle school English Language Arts and/or Social Studies preferred.
- Strong classroom management and communication skills.
- Ability to integrate technology effectively into instruction.

Personal Attributes:

- Commitment to the mission of Catholic education.
- Positive role model who demonstrates Christian values.
- Organized, flexible, and collaborative.
- Passion for teaching adolescents and fostering academic and spiritual growth.

Work Schedule:

- Full-time, academic year position
- Salary commensurate with experience and salary scale