

Centered in Christ and committed to excellence, St. Peter's School inspires and prepares students to lead lives of purpose.

School Overview

St. Peter's School is a vibrant and growing Catholic school community serving students from preschool through high school. With increasing enrollment and expanding early childhood and elementary programs, St. Peter's is an exciting place to teach and learn. Our mission—Centered in Christ and committed to excellence, St. Peter's School inspires and prepares students to lead lives of purpose—guides our work each day.

As our early childhood and primary programs continue to grow, we are expanding our faculty to support additional classrooms and enhance student learning. Our collaborative staff and supportive leadership team provide an environment where educators are known, valued, and empowered to make a lasting impact on young learners.
