

General questions

1. What problems can you identify in this story? Are solutions presented?
2. In what way might this story be relevant in your community?

Further exploration

1. Why are fistulas still so common even though they're nearly 100 percent preventable?
2. How does having a fistula exclude you from regular society?
3. Experts say that there needs to be a shift from treating fistulas to preventing them in the first place. How are education and law enforcement key factors in prevention?