

General questions

1. What problems can you identify in this story? Are solutions presented?
2. In what way might this story be relevant in your community?

Further exploration

1. How could Western consumers impact the workforce decisions of factory managers in Bangladesh?
2. Do consumers have a responsibility to ensure the ethical sourcing of the products they buy?
3. How should the economic welfare of essential workers, like the garment factory employees, be weighed against the health risks of working in close quarters in a pandemic?