

General questions

1. What problems can you identify in this story? Are solutions presented?
2. In what way might this story be relevant in your community?

Further exploration

1. It took decades for the Ponseti method to become standard. What might have caused the delay?
2. Clubfoot is usually corrected early in life in wealthy countries but remains largely untreated in the developing world leading to disability. What impact do you think this has on society?
3. Both the clubfoot disability and awareness of it are practically nonexistent in wealthy countries. What could be done to facilitate more information sharing to tackle this problem in developing countries. Are there other conditions that can similarly be tackled to restore people to full life and health?