

General questions

1. What problems can you identify in this story? Are solutions presented?
2. In what way might this story be relevant in your community?

Further exploration

1. How do you think attitudes about aid donations have changed in the last 10 years?
2. Lloyd says not all disasters are created equal in donors' minds. Why do you think some crises are more attractive for donors than others?
3. What could change the way skeptical donors perceive the impact of their aid?