

General questions

1. What problems can you identify in this story? Are solutions presented?
2. In what way might this story be relevant in your community?

Further exploration

1. How can Delhi manage the free-range urban cattle to cut down on the nuisance without infringing on their religious sanctity?
2. Who should be responsible for running the cow shelters?
3. How do you think growing beef consumption and religious tension between Hindus and Muslims in India might impact the presence of urban cows?