

General questions

1. What problems can you identify in this story? Are solutions presented?
2. In what way might this story be relevant in your community?

Further exploration

1. One of the students encourages other students to break free of the “comfortable suburban sanctuaries” to engage in reality. Why do you think the student feels like their normal environment is sheltered from “reality?”
2. Are there any ethical considerations to take into account when visiting an impoverished country from a wealthy country?
3. How does the legacy of Mother Teresa impact the way the seminarians view circumstances in Calcutta?