

General questions

1. What problems can you identify in this story? Are solutions presented?
2. In what way might this story be relevant in your community?

Further exploration

1. What would a lack of electricity mean for your daily routine?
2. Cheap rooftop solar is a unique solution for off-grid, rural homes. Is there an application for this technology in urban areas?
3. Does the fact that the solar panels are being sold as part of a private, for-profit venture raise any ethical considerations?
4. Should the government be involved in providing this essential need through infrastructure building or subsidies?