

General questions

1. What problems can you identify in this story? Are solutions presented?
2. In what way might this story be relevant in your community?

Further exploration

1. What impact does a failed educational system have on the broader society?
2. A unique aspect of the Maharishi experience involves facing trauma and finding self-harmony. Should that approach be replicated in other education institutions? Are schools responsible for the mental health and well-being of their students?
3. Apartheid is now officially history, but many of the societal divisions remain. Who is responsible for addressing those issues, especially in education?