

General questions

1. What problems can you identify in this story? Are solutions presented?
2. In what way might this story be relevant in your community?

Further exploration

1. If you lived in the U.S. under a TPS program, how would you feel about the proposed mass deportation?
2. One argument is that the program should end because it was considered temporary. Based on the El Salvador TPS program, how should future TPS programs operate?
3. Even after the earthquake, TPS has been repeatedly been extended because the country is not safe to return to. What conditions are preventing the safe return to El Salvador?
4. Mass deportation would overwhelm the resettlement NGOs in El Salvador. What are some other ways a mass influx of people would impact El Salvador?
5. What are the ethical implications of ending the TPS program for El Salvador?