

General questions

1. What problems can you identify in this story? Are solutions presented?
2. In what way might this story be relevant in your community?

Further exploration

1. What long term impact could the TCF school model have on Pakistani society?
2. The Citizens Foundations says all it takes to dramatically improve education results is provide simple amenities such as a clean classroom, books and desks. How do you think your education would be impacted without those things?
3. Why do you think TCF made gender equality part of the curriculum? Should that be standardized elsewhere as well? Why or why not?