

General questions

1. What problems can you identify in this story? Are solutions presented?
2. In what way might this story be relevant in your community?

Further exploration

1. Why is employment in the city a more attractive option to many youth in developing countries?
2. How does Meloto say your physical environment impact a person's sense of worth and identity?
3. Do you think the Enchanted Farm model might be replicable elsewhere? Why or why not?