

General questions

1. What problems can you identify in this story? Are solutions presented?
2. In what way might this story be relevant in your community?

Further exploration

1. What social and economic conditions led to the liberation theology movement?
2. How has liberation theology left its mark on Latin American politics?
3. How has the legacy of liberation theology and the appointment of Pope Francis, the first pope from Latin America, shifted the Catholic Church's global role?
4. What influence has liberation theology had, if any, on political developments in Latin America over the past three decades or so?