

Suggested writing prompt (~250 words)

1. India has become the world's most populous country and one of its fastest-growing economies, yet faces deep inequalities and questions about the health of its democracy. Analyze how the story portrays the tension between India's growing global power and its internal divisions—economic, regional, and religious. Consider how leadership, education, and identity shape the country's future.