

Suggested writing prompt (250 words)

The Coordinated Care Clinic approach shown in this story treats more than the immediate health care needs of the patient. If this holistic approach was the norm, how might health care look different for patients and providers? Are there any challenges or downsides to this approach?