

Discussion Questions

1. Between climate change and failed infrastructure, which factor do you think had a bigger impact on worsening the flood's devastation?
2. What role did the inequitable social structure in Pakistan have on the flood's impact?
3. Kaiser Bengali says change in Pakistan is difficult given the powerful elite's investment in the status quo. How might that change?
4. Researcher Nazish Brohi compares Pakistan's climate displacement to refugee movements that changed European politics. What might large-scale climate migration mean for the world?
5. What is the purpose of the "loss and damage" fund agreed to at COP27, and what challenges might arise in distributing that aid fairly?