

Suggested writing prompt (~250 words)

Analyze the ethical and economic dimensions of this issue. Why does the United States rely so heavily on foreign nurses, and what pressures drive so many Filipinos to seek work overseas? Discuss how this demand can lead to both empowerment and vulnerability for migrant nurses. In your response, consider what responsibility U.S. institutions, staffing agencies, or governments might have in ensuring fair treatment and safe working conditions for these workers.