

Top 10 Things to Do in Franklin TENNESSEE

Main Street

Anchored by Public Square, this 16-block district is brimming with quaint architecture, historic landmarks, boutique shopping, local restaurants, and more. Don't miss guided experience from Franklin on Foot and Franklin Walking Tours!

Civil War Sites

Tour the historic properties of Carnton, Carter, and Lotz Houses, plus Rippa Villa, to learn about the 1864 Battle of Franklin's unfolding. Visit the March to Freedom statue downtown, which pays homage to "the fuller story" of the U.S. Colored Troops.

The Factory at Franklin

Shop, eat, and be entertained to your heart's content while exploring the eclectic options at the restored former stove factory.

Natchez Trace Parkway

Enjoy a scenic drive through the 444-mile parkway that winds through Franklin, and stop at the iconic double-arch bridge and nature spots, including Timberland Park and Garrison Creek.

Outdoor Adventures

Fish or float down the Harpeth River, and explore beautiful hiking and biking trails across Williamson County, including Bowie Nature Park in Fairview, Owl's Hill Nature Sanctuary in Brentwood, and Preservation Park in Thompson's Station.

NEW! FRANKLIN HOP TOUR

TIP: Experience Franklin to its fullest on this 90-minute tour with live narration! Hop off the vintage trolley at your leisure and learn about more than 50 points of interest along the way.

FRANKLINHOP.COM

Nolensville & Historic Route 31A

Make your way through the rolling hills of Williamson County on Route 31A to explore the community of Nolensville, which holds a bevy of antique shops, hidden-gem eateries, and small-town charm.

Arrington Vineyards

Picnic and find photo-worthy landscapes at Williamson County's esteemed winery. Sample 22 award-winning blends while enjoying the live music or gathering around a fire pit.

Masters & Makers Trail

Immerse yourself in the cherished traditions of local makers and savor the distinct offerings of wine, beer, and spirits crafted along the 70-mile self-guided trail.

Leiper's Fork

This quirky, picture-perfect village has it all: open mic nights, comfort food, antique pickin', curated art galleries, and countryside views.

Southern Food & Live Music

Find real-deal Southern food and unforgettable live music at local favorites like Fox & Locke, Gray's on Main, Puckett's Restaurant, and Kimbros, just to name a few. You never know what future star may take the stage!

FESTIVALS

TIP: Plan your trip around one of Franklin's signature events: Main Street Festival, Pilgrimage Music & Cultural Festival, PumpkinFest, Dickens of a Christmas, and more!

VISITFRANKLIN.COM/EVENTS