Subject: Am I my Brother, Keeper?
Heb. 4:14
"Can I see my Brother Jesus?"

I. The story:
1. Cain, a vegetable offering; Abel, a lamb; favor and favor.
2. Abel: not to do his heart evil. The same.
3. Cain: not, he saw it. Thought, what

II. Our responsibility for others:

Section through 1:6
1. Pray for earnestly; seek, store, unfailingly.
2. Oify, work, gain. Lord gifted apt
3. Call. Read, small, rare
4. Change
III. A brief introduction to the subject of soul responsibility

1. In life, we are responsible for our own actions.
   (Rom. 2:8, 1 Pet. 3:11, 12:21)

2. In death, we are responsible for our actions in life.
   (Eph. 2:1, Col. 3:23)

And we should remember, "There is no other name..."
   (Acts 4:12)

III. The difference between soul and body

1. Matthew 16:29
   John 6:27, 28, 29

2. The difference between soul and spirit.
   (2 Cor. 2:13-14, 15:1-4)
   (1 Thess. 4:13-18)

3. The difference between soul and body.
   (John 5:28, Acts 13:34, 1 Cor. 15:51-53)

   - Our body is temporary, our soul is permanent.
   - Our soul is the seat of our thoughts, not our body.
   - Our soul is the source of our emotions, not our body.

4. The difference between soul and spirit.
   (1 Cor. 15:43-44, 1 Thess. 4:17, 18)

   - Our soul is the part of us that is alive in the body.
   - Our spirit is the part of us that is alive in the soul.
"Am I thy Brother's Keeper?"

The story: applied to physical well-being.

"Think not I have sought what they shall do to the poor, to whom I shall have spoken?"

Of our being, relations there to others we consider:

"Blessed are the meek!"

But the true theme of the story is spiritual, eternal, personal.

Caring, a root word. Many take it for granted.

And, by faith, a bond across. Am I seeking the soul?

(John 3:16, 17) "God so loved the world that He gave His Only Son, that whosoever believe in Him might not perish, but have everlasting life."

His immense, spiritual, infinite, is incredible.

The question: the truth is: "Am I Thy Brother?"

"To me," He answered, "Thine, and Thine also that pertain to Thee."
The church reminded me of a scene. I remember thinking, "This is the land where I lived for a year."

I walked down the street, feeling a sense of nostalgia.

The sky was a beautiful shade of blue, and the sun was shining brightly.

As I turned the corner, I saw a small cafe, and I decided to go inside.

The interior was cozy, with soft lighting and a warm atmosphere.

I ordered a latte and a piece of cake, and I sat down at a table by the window.

Looking out, I watched the world go by, feeling content and at peace.

The memory of that time in my life brought a smile to my face, and I knew that I would always cherish it.
