I Sam. 16:1-13

The Anointing of David

Intro:

Sweet mirror of Israel, of the world
Anointed of Christ. Isa. 11:1; Rev 5:5; 22:16
The type, precursor of him who was his Son, also his Son Follower of the dynasty of Judah's Anointed
A perfect, inspired, faithful, beloved of the N.E.
a man of the Holy Spirit.

I Sam. 15:35 The story opens with a dramatic contrast between the great king, his son, & the rejection of the will of Saul whose crown was rightly deserved toward his father's line / nation. Saul rejected the word, and - now rejects his own big king.

I Sam. 15:34 From Hebron, Saul up to his own house at...
Saul to Ramoth, a little to the west then his house, there on way, toward the school of prophets, there judged Saul to open. At that moment, vessel for Saul.

- BUT - to those must be done
- divine people cannot stay for such pitying
- we must not cling to the law, the dead part out arise to the will, word of God.

Four great words about the choice of David

1. I saw 13:14 a² the last last night his o. m. ... no one can know the ^{how} way when we passed by, seeing for these vessels, finally people. Scattered, scattered, traced, in deep was not plain.

2. Is. 89:20² I have found David I search.
Ecstasy in the world, like the three repeated found in 29:15.
David was found by before Samuel sent for him.
when? the words of his song?
one dawn - fit ray, left, stayed for first to build, pattern
one morning - in outbreak of faith, required a double lamb from the line of the bear!
One afternoon - sat, watched his flock, fit words?
stayed people in his heart
one night - when returned to the silent speech of the heavens during the day of m.

And how,
of May; how best found found until that? when?

3. Is. 78:70² the chosen David ...
I saw. 13:14² applied his to be + given ARV Said might change, but, said David's life, but from amidst men, his many words to men, David was in joy. we asked it. Promise was for also.
David was sure, his purpose behind his, beneath his, with his, in all the after years.

4. I Sam. 16:1 - I have provided me a boy
 That answers exactly - meets every need, wherever you are the need of the hour, place, for God's work - but how that man usually is some unlikely quarter, a different kind, a mountain side, laborer cottage, God's appointed instrument. As yet the shaft of glory in his guise, in the shadow, as here. But as God's appointed moment appears. 7. for the Baptist, slight, man

 David says nothing of his father but twice speaks of his mother as from his mother's side, nature, deeply religious

 1. No. David's mother. Father not said until part 10 she dwelt there first and the people which have chosen, under the to the father, the law only kept the sheep not with nursing & the religious part. when David fled from Saul, to Samuel not

 But knows then with much diligent care - when Samuel

4. I Sam. 16:1 - I have provided me a sign That answers exactly - meets every need, fulfills every aspect the need of the hour, place, for David's case - but how that man usually in some unlikely quarter, a shepherd's tent, a mountain's side, laborer's cottage, God's appointed instrument. As yet the shaft of glory in his guise, in the shadows, as here. But as God's appointed moment appears. 7. for the Baptist, slight, more

2. His mother
