Rev. 16: 14, 16

The job of Hazai, King of the Canaanites.
 20 years mightily oppressed Israel possessed resources which surrounded the people who lived in the hill country: 900 chariots of iron. In the hills, with, chariots in use. Just the open land - as no sword. But the job with 200 chariots and the word "Israel" as he rode along; the plain made or prepared for him to roll in. The people who prepared along from the north of the north, saw... thought the job a mighty big, stayed by "Israel" with "Israel" submission.
 No doubt the job thought himself a great lord over the earth. Counted Israel among his riches. In early days his store put Israel down at a plain price, said "Israel is my name and is worth so much in the land of my things." But the job name job's only told with Israel, 4: 1. Built a black table with Israel stones to serve the devil in.

Introduced to a new instrumentality in work, and - the ministry of a woman.
 She stands before us in strong contrast to the creature of an time. A woman called to lead in a great national crisis, to stand in the front in both states - morally and war.
 to be no fail, is one a selfless consecrated woman who knows to be no for pay.

 freedom, the despair of the people. the Canaanites under Sisera. Holding the plains, threaten the national existence of Israel. Entrance to all country in Canaanite hands. Land with in turn: Zebulun, Naphtali, all in the north; Ephraim, Benjamin, Judah in the south.

In her wisdom took particular pains to find a man to be the 41st chief officer, his plan, to lead his army. The chief business to find that man in front, then stand by his command, prayer, faith.

A hundred miles up north a man lived named Barak, a soldier. Sent for him. Said "no? Again. Myself:
 "You do not know the war as a soldier knows it. The
