10/84

These things happen before me every year, Mary Killeen, Houston, Tx., maternal woman

Her husband died and she & children evicted from her apt. out into the street.
No money. In desolation, sorrow & pain.

She wrote in the days

"With God's help I will rise again!" I am so near ad, dioned, no hope. My & children are I have just been evicted from our apartment. I thought my world had come to an end. I have never been so depressed, so lonely, so forgotten.
I am the sole support of my & children and myself. But I am not going to cry anymore. ^{God will help me.}

I have been happy before. I shall be happy again. Today is the first day of the rest of my life.

I'll set a good example for my children. I'm going to take them to church and teach them about God. I will be the best mother in the world.
I will be somebody someday.

There will be obstacles; there will be setbacks. There may be some detours. But I refuse to let them destroy me. I am going to make it. I'll win the battle. I'll win the war. I will turn this ^{loss into a} conversation of my life, and I will rebuild again. I will succeed. I will keep going. I won't look back.

My children are depending on me. With God's help, I will rise again."
