you read this some years ago — is there a lesson in it?

B A man lived by the side of the road and sold hot dogs. He was hard of hearing so he had no radio. He had trouble with his eyes, so he bought no newspaper. But he sold good hot dogs. He put up a sign on the highway telling how good they were. He stood by the side of the road and called out, "Buy a hot dog, mister," and people bought. He increased his meat and bread order, and he bought a bigger stove to take care of his trade. He got his son home from college to help him. But then, something happened. His son said, "Father, haven't you been listening to the radio? There's a big depression on. The international situation is terrible, and the domestic situation is worse."

Whereupon the father thought, "Well, my son has been to college. He listens to the radio, and reads the papers, so he ought to know." So, the father cut down on the bread order, took down his advertising signs, and no longer bothered to stand on the highway to sell his hot dogs. His hot dog sales fell off — almost overnight. "You are right," the father said to the boy, "we are certainly in the middle of a great depression."

We believers can talk ourselves out of or into most things. Defeated spirits are infectious, but so are exuberant spirits. Defeated spirits reveal, in so many cases, defeated faith.

We need more than enthusiasm if we develop the educational program that will bear the testing of time. We need more than enthusiasm if we are committed to a New Testament program of evangelism, but WE MUST HAVE ENTHUSIASM in both of these ministries if we expect anything to come of our effort.
