Why if Christians had ever taken their children as seriously as do the great,
modern, collectivist states,
such movements as Nazism
(and would add communism) would never have appeared?

— Paul Calvin Payne

Why add "communism"?

John 21: 15

feed my lambs

FEED MY LAMBS

Contradiction from "sheep" Take care of those still growing in maturity, not strong. ^{God's care for little Moses, Samuel, David, John Baptist, Jesus. Said.} formation, gladiolus. ^{But young ones - "feed him."}

What are the casualties of war?

We think of the dead, wounded, hospitalized - beds in a row ^{groves of a row}

Next, possibly, destruction of wealth, property. Ruin, bankruptcy. [Add, this the most material of all punishments - and destroying the most. Our gods turning to ash before our eyes.]

But perhaps greatest casualties those of heart (spirit) and soul. In the heart - hatred, resentments. Years to die with. Centuries.

In the home - beside the rest, children, youth.

(a) The article - "Europe's children" ^{Running over old women. Two prison. Bands, marching. Slavery.}

Reaches us in America, increasingly.

The problems of youth.

(a) The S.S. Board pamphlet. ^{- figures}

(b) Okla. City, this week. 111 juveniles arrested. ^{- questionnaire}

Tulsa, going for City. 1:30 on the 2nd.

Financing us spiritually bankrupt.

Unprepared to wage a relentless warfare against evil.

- like France. Loss of race, false security, moral rotteness. Decay, decadence.

Our people - spiritual parasites. Unable, unwilling, ungrasped
