Why FOR THOSE WHO LOVE GOD

I. What the my sees: incontestable absolutes

1. Existence. I, you. The creation
(a) Thomas Carlyle (1795-1881) c. a famous philosopher who said, > except only in this, the universe. "I, you, what matter?"
Mathematical truth, astronomical truth, ...

2. The uniqueness of this plant
If we were? without air, strength, water?
The snow? a thousand million times
Out this plant. Just lived here. Did here. Long back here

3. Universality of death.
(a) In misty pad, displayed in my language hall a giving skull. A silent hemisphere, our mortality.
Even the stars hang out.

4. AMONG MEN
Moral neurotizing
no truth in degraded, but sense, right, wrong
(a) Ugo. Darwin, Tierra del Fuego. A missing purity

These absolutes are seen.
But this is more. Another dimension, world necessary.
I. can measure brain but not mind
I. can measure impulses, but not thought
I. can dissect anatomy but not the soul
I. can identify the organs out not the conscience Another world: as we recall those things we've heard of used to in another beyond human common sense

Then I Cor. 2:9
Then I Cor. 2:10 But God hath revealed in Spirit
II what are these marvelous things that are revealed to us who love him, wait for him?

1. That God made us, created us in His image we are not a blind, ignorant, fantastic being, but created in the image of God, for His glory, praise, and joy, nobility in the creation, people know only

3. That God changes us. The miracle of the new birth
His promise in our hearts I Cor. 5:17
for Paul, Phil, Col, Peter SA were him.

4. That God has a Kingdom for His redeemed
"He shall not fail nor be discouraged till He hath set justice"
9. growth, "Carry up 7 down from grace, for that shall surely rise" in the dust, a finer dust, justice.

5. I Cor. 15:51, 52
we all are part of it
