The glories of youth:
Alexander the Great was 32 when he conquered the world

Isaac Newton was 24 when he formulated
the laws of gravity

Benjamin Franklin was 26 when he wrote "Poor Richard's Almanac"

Charles Dickens was 24 when he began publishing his "Pickwick Papers" was 25 when he wrote "Oliver Twist"

Thomas Jefferson was 33 when he drafted the Declaration of Independence.

Wm Cullen Bryant was 18 when he wrote "Thanatopsis," the first poem of importance written in America.

Cyrus McCormick was 23 when he invented the reaper.

Wolfgang Mozart at 4 years of age was writing great music and at 5 years of age astonished the royalty of Europe with his playing the violin, the organ, the harpsichord.

Richard Wagner at 17 years of age was composing overtures played by some of the greatest ~~musicians~~ ~~musicians~~ ~~musicians~~ of Europe, and soon after was writing symphonies and operas.

The glories of age

Immanuel Kant was 74 when he wrote his first philosophical works.

Verdi was 80 when he produced "Falstaff"

85 when he produced his "Aur Maria"

Goethe was 81 when he completed his "Faust"

Tennyson was 80 when he wrote "Crossing the Bar"

Michael-Angelo was 89 when he completed his greatest work in St Peter's in Rome.

Titian was 98 when he painted the heroic picture, the "Battle of Lepanto"

Thomas Edison at 83 years of age was still filing patents at the U.S. Patent office

President John Quincy Adams
was a vigorous congressman at 84

Gladstone, Palmerston and Winston Churchill were former Ministers of Great Britain in their 80's.

Caleb was 85 when he said to Joshua "This are the mountains" (Joshua,
when he first explored the land)
Joshua 14:6-15
60 years of wilderness he had not drowned his vision
lessened his faith
doubt his youthful zeal
diminished his physical power.

Wm. Lloyd Garrison, still sixty at 75 in age is an opportunity no less than youth, he is another dress
and as he moves twilight fades away,
the sky is belted with stars, invisible by day.

EPILOGUE Robert Browning

The last poem he wrote.
Read to his sister and daughter-in-law
just before his death illness.

One who never turned his back
but marched breast forward.

Never doubted clouds would break.

Never dreamed, though right were worsted, wrong would triumph,

Held, we fall to rise, are baffled to fight better, sleep to wake.
