II Tim. 3: 14-17

THE HOLY SCRIPTURES

The context II Tim. 3: 1, 13. History keeps repeating itself so long as we have the same human nature, same sins, same devil to stir up sin. Will continue until he is chained.

When same sins arise, must apply the same remedy.
of the physician

So Paul here: 3: 14. a single direction. His early training held him like an anchor, saved him from the dreadful drift of the age.

Let us use the same great remedy. Cannot force truth upon men but we can make our teaching clear as diamonds. Point to the work of the cross. Talk to men that human learning is to be met with human learning, that Satan will cast out Satan. <sup>1452</sup>No - left up the longer argument - look and live. no war for the midnight but the rising sun. no hope for dark world but the light of the day, etc. We are to keep to the great plan: sowing the seed of the word.

1. The instruction of Timothy.

- (1) "from a babe"  $\beta\rho\epsilon\pi\omicron\varsigma$  = infant not a youth, well-grown child but a child rising out of infancy the first 7 formative years. Old age remembers what happens less more than the events that first pass truly.
- (2) A great nobleman, a leader in Britain, a goodly nurse taught him the things of the Lord. He tells us he died before he was 7 - yet in that time ...
- (3) The mother of Moses. How long had she?
The opinion that children cannot receive the whole truth of the gospel is a mistake. Old folk must know a little children to learn, to saved.
heart known: the teaching was affectionate. Heaven with the face of sin, with the spirit of a command, on the heart.

(2) His instructors.

II Tim 1: 15 tells us. His father a Heathen Greek but his mother, grand-mother... fulfilling their mission for the Lord as truly as did Sappho in picking bread at Solomon's building the table.

Father, mother, lead their children to Christ, S.S. 74. church, knowledge of the Lord. Not send but bring, let with. God gave hearts with pleasure eyes that see who fill his lands, nurse his babes. Not let with out of of their little men period.

The true believers great reason for his faith is
 "It is written."
 7. & our hearts and the tongues, "It is written?"
 His body full of OT scriptures. Paul. Hebrew. Apudator a power to enter the heart. This the power of the (as India, caravan down left to die. - "wells of your days?" The blood... cleanser for all men?

 Atonement, so far away, so unlettered & young. In his death (put a leg) a work - opened - I feel?
