Slow Me Down

Slow me down, Lord!
Ease the pounding of my heart
by the quieting of my mind.
Steady my hurried pace
with a vision of the eternal reach of time.
Give me, amidst the confusion of my days,
the calmness of the everlasting Hills.

Break the tension of my nerves and muscles, with the soothing music of the singing streams that live in my memory.
Help me to know the magical restorative power of sleep.
Teach me the art of taking minute vacations . . .
Of slowing down to look at a flower;
To chat with a friend;
To pat a dog;
To read a few lines from a good book.

Remind me each day of the fable of the Hare and the Tortoise —
That I may know the race is not always
to the swift;
That there is more to life than increasing its speed.
Let me look upward into the branches of the towering oak,
And know that it grew because it grew slowly and well.
Slow me down, Lord,

And inspire me to send down my own roots
Deep into the soil of life's destiny.

Come ye yourselves apart into a desert place, and rest awhile.
