DOING GOD'S WILL

I. Is it possible to know God's will?

1. "NO" says the agnostic
 a) do not know. + I am ignorant of the will of God
 From knowing nothing & knowing nothing
 (a) agnostic: knows no one of the will of God
 what is it? + not certain about it? + "nobody knows"

2. "NO" says the infidel.
 "you are mistaken? know it? There is some one out there who knows the will of God"
 "mistaken? know it?"
 How does the infidel with a name like that?
 not at all. b. 14:1; 53:1 "The God..."

3. "No" says the worldly selfish interests only care
 of. will calling them: they looked for a city... they cannot see the city - because it does not exist
 "have no ear for the Holy Spirit - as long as we are worldly" This world's hatred against the will of God - as long as they need the world's wealth in a form of money, death - as long as they need the world's wealth in a form of money, death - as long as

zealous heart
faith

1. If any man will let his eye be single, he shall be whole, but if he have an evil eye, he shall be lame, and if he will follow me, he shall never hunger nor thirst, neither will he be smitten of the heat of the sun, nor of the cold of the winter, and I will receive him, and will make him a pillar, and a stone, and he shall not be moved.

2. If any man will take up his cross and follow me, he shall lose himself, and save his life. But whoever denies himself, and takes up his cross and follows me, he shall save himself.

Do we not know God's will - what shall I do?

1. Is it possible to know God's will?

(1) No, say the agnostics.
 do not know; from knowing nothing to anything. I'm not spiritual. to reject (a) Before his conversion, possibly before a thoughtful set man as agnosticism: "I'm not a Christian." "No, but, I'm a man who is not certain of myself." "Ah, I see. Then may I tell you how you you are an agnostic?"
 b. supposed, no. He knows right, admitted? Then some area?
 c. supposed don't know, this may be "No." "Then why? omitted?
 there is some place not known, this may be God.
 "I do not want to know."

do not know God - "I do not want to know."
 b. Heb. 11. How OT writers looking for a city... all this night. They cannot see the city. They do not find any promise, the promise - they say it's gone no ear for the spirit's utterance - or they do not speak they may be whole world in a city, deadness.
