

Dean M. ...
4/7/29

-2-

... taking out case to Jesus, admitting
1. Blind to the power of God
... Jesus and his servant
2. Blind to the presence of God
Jesus living in Nazareth
The witness in Nazareth

JESUS IS PASSING BY. EVAN

Luke 18:37 "And they told him that Jesus of Nazareth passed by." HIS ONE OPPORTUNITY - could so much the more.

1. Passing here - through Galilee, Samaria, Judea, Capernaum, Lydian, Jerusalem.
Christening to him as he went - Andrew, John, Mary Magdalene, the other disciples.
Letting him pass - the rich young ruler, Pilate, Judas.
Before him they lay - rich, increased....
Behind him they leaped, praised God.....

2. Jesus passing through the ages.
Generations, after generations, after generations have seen Jesus come and go. Some accepting, clinging, believing.
Others rejecting, disbelieving.

3. Jesus passing now - our way

1. His nearness - those men of David have mercy on me. Shaking off the dust of their feet against them - that would have been a terrible thing to do to the family of David.
- the justice I can; Jesus with me.
2. His readiness to save "And it shall come to pass in those days that whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved."
Jesus heeding every cry -

The story of the one condemned to be ~~hanged~~ <sup>hanged</sup> for a crime that he did not commit. The sheriff allowing him, before the black cap was placed over his head, to speak. Before the man of people looked him, he began to sing, "Pass me not, O gentle Davison. Hear my humble cry...." As he sang, one in the audience came forth, heard his cry, confessing himself the guilty party. He had saved - Jesus remembering, just forgiving.

3. His foot steps growing fainter - his form more distant.
Jesus is passing. The years - harder to find, see, track. Hardened.
"Seek ye the Lord, while he may be found." A time when he shall not be found.
a) One of the men for whom we pray - One, but now.
b) My plea for Babe Bamcock.

70th. W. H. H. J. J.
4/32
Caldwell
1/1933

Chis
2/140

Moody's story:

The man in business suit
& die Mrs. Bollock a X2 told with her, friends, mother, Mrs.
the man must die! "But don't touch, & strike, to man, "But don't told him, until after I am gone. I am now alone with him." Bollock talked young. "If you mean to shoot, I'll were the man in hand?" Mrs. Bollock turned deathly pale, threw up hands said: "Oh, please, please, please, please I would have fallen down at his feet and asked for pardon, for life. O Sir, the God has been here and I did not know it."
One has quite than the God.

Paul Ott - young man, about Chis Oil Co. Not in us - told to no. Chis hospital - strip throat unconscious - called me at 12 o'clock night, dead. Name a chance.

Weeks - for a year I pondered (for years) commission. (Working hard for hundreds) I am to live - young man. Did not know I had come. No remembered.

33
367

When the Leads Me
123

Pass me Not 311

JESUS IS PASSING BY

This is the season of hope and grace,
Jesus is passing by,
This for salvation the time and place
Jesus is passing by. John 6:2

Chorus:

Jesus is passing by,
Jesus is passing by,
Give Him thy heart ere in grief He depart
Jesus is passing by.

This is the moment to seek the Lord
While He is passing by,
This is the time to believe His word
Jesus is passing by.

This is the hour for your soul's release
Jesus is passing by,
Trust Him and thou shalt go forth in peace
Jesus is passing by.

Come to the Lord with your soul's deep need
Jesus is passing by,
And you will find Him a friend indeed,
Jesus is passing by.

Lk. 18:35-43

Jesus 2 Passing By

The story

The road - Beer, Jordan, Jericho, Jerusalem.

The blind man - Bartimaeus. Begging.

His one great opportunity - Jesus & Nazareth is passing by.

- told to heal his crying. Cried so much the more.
- his sight and soul restored.
- indeed, your name came any more. Crying is for

The application

A picture of life - a road, a way - we expect it - the Son of Man passing by. - through the years - generations, centuries - and finally to us.

Some cling to him. Believe in him. Become his disciples. Follow him. Like an Andrew a Peter; a Matthew; a Mary, Martha, "his own." f. Triumphant entry. Shouting, singing. So thru the years - "his own."

Some reject him. Hate him - sell him out - crucify him. a Judas, a Caiaphas, a Pilate. So thru the years. Abuse, Judas. Murder; Injurious. Soviet cartoon: hammer after word.

But the great host - just let him pass by.

1. Don't care. "sitting down, they watched him there." (a) Paul etc.

2. Do not know. Realize. (a) Gov. Pollock of Pennsylvania.

3. Overreactive. His call, figure, fainter, and fainter. Not used

But thank God for those who like the blind man - cry out to Jesus for help & hope. 4. Like this blind man - can't see him, can't see him, tried in a way, would like to. But haven't been able yet to meet him. "Cry out all the more, O thou Son of David, have mercy on me." (a) A story, picked up in the west.

2 minutes mark '43

③ But most of us - just let them pass by.

(1) Indifferent, do not care.
 (a) Paul Ott. "I am not interested. Do not bother me" to the hospital - midwife - too late. I do by deed.
 (b) Sweden - I am just not interested. Remember those 9 words:

(2) Do not realize.
 (a) Mrs. Pollock.

(3) Disinterested.
 Childhood - youth - adult world.
 Not getting points - from more indifferent impressions with no deep - sound - hand.
 (a) Down, "The Dialect" Difficult, washed out with stress of identity.

This is the reason of how and how you is passing by
 This for realization the thing is plain you is passing by.

Jan. 55:6
 II Oct 6:2

5
 1111

D 2/67

O 8/63

D 51/59

2/69

Back to pastor

Dearest Pastor; Jh. 18: 35 Monday.

Thank you for your precious sermon last night. That portion of scripture has spoken so sweetly to my heart, each time I hear or read it.

A while back the account in Mark 10 just seemed to show me of the sweet concern that the Lord held in His heart for people. People who just fade in and out, of no consequence. Blind, maimed, dull witted. All it made me think how needy we all are. I pulled the car off the street, under the shade of a tree - and wrote -

Please Precious Lord - stand "still" for me!
as Thou didst for him
who could not see!
Oh Thou! Son of David,
have mercy on me!

Mine eyes are not blind,
but my heart of ten faints.
I need the assurance that blesses the saint.

(over)

My sin - is my faith.
So small, so often true.
Lord, make me to know,
That I am wholly Thine.
Now, Precious Lord,
Hear this my humble plea
Let the Power of Thy Word,
Be thy portion to me.
And Thy indwelling Spirit,
My blessed comfort be.
Oh Thou! Son of David!
Have mercy on me!

It is amazing how many different truths can be gleaned from the same scriptures.

Thank You again - you are the answer to every prayer, for my spiritual need.

You shall ever be - so dear to my heart!

In The Bonds of Calvary,

Mrs Eddie (Pat) Berofsky