JESUS AND HIS BIBLE
JESUS AND THE HOLY SCRIPTURES

A. The three Jewish divisions of the Old Testament Scriptures

1. כְּתוּבִים Total. The five books, Moses, The Law.

2. נְבִיאִים & סְפָרִים Nesivim The Prophets

3. קְטוּבִים Kethuvim. The Hagiographa. The (Holy) writings
The Psalms the most prominent part.

B. Jewish reverence for the Holy Scriptures

(a) Tomb of David, Mt Zion. After war (1950) made into a museum. The old Balbos, brass, hats, kissing hands (scroll, rolling hands) and so on, kissing scrolls, scroll heavily replying in art.

C. Jesus reflects that Jewish reverence for the Bible his Bible then - ours today. 39 books.
all of it God's word.

(1) Jonah. Suffered? Ridiculed? (at Bob Allen, "Jesus and" etc) ^{language}
Jesus sign of the resurrection. Matt 12:39, 40; 16:4; Mk. 11:29, 30
(a) L. R. Scarborough in his little book

(2) Daniel. A prophet? Ridiculed.
Jesus "the prophet Daniel" Matt 24:15; Mk. 13:14
Read See Sermon

(3) Adam, Eve. A myth?
Jesus Matt. 19:4-6 = Gen 1:27; 2:24

(4) Even the Jews and the Gentiles misperceived.
Matt. 5:18 Fulfillment more certain than continuation of physical creation.
This is why "ful promises unfulfilled will be something."
L. R. 31:35-37; 32:37-43

John 10:35 "The Scripture..."

His life lived according to the Word of God.
 Found in them the way marked in which he had to walk
 Lk. 22: 37... have fulfillment" Matt. 26: 51-54
 24: 44

The life of Jesus in human flesh & are inseparably connected.
 His words, 2d in human speech "according to the Scriptures" & lived
 "..." & died
 "..." & rose again.
