43:1 The pressure of poverty, necessity
The famine drove them back; what not show to show some concern.

: 3-7 are first land request

: 8-14 general security for Joseph. Reuben already lost priority as not lost the aged father yielded. No alternatives.

44: 9-13 each brother must have received the cup from in of the rod, near his own, rather than Joseph.

: 14 "fell down before him on the ground"

seems impossible, when the cup drowned, 17 years to seems impossible, young people accept Christ, but they would have the sheaves made obedience to his sheaf.

44: 18-24 Jesus speaks. throws himself upon mercy of Joseph. In all literature, no more pathetic appeal. when Jesus' voice ceases to plead, Joseph will refrain himself no longer.

45: 3 "I am Joseph!"
The words the "under bolt" in their ears. They they have fallen into the hands of, indeed. "Joseph!" Well might they have been terrified. At midnight, as if also rising from the dead. Come as conquerors. From his reply long standing doubt. Come into answer, he said again. "I am Joseph!"

: 4 "Come near..." They are gone further, further, crying in fear.
7. Our Lord's dealings with contemptuous. We are not to see a trace of punishment. Near at hand of "Come boldly. We who were for the" are made up, by the slow moments, of the unspoken.
: 15, 14 "kiss all his brethren" - "Simon, yes" "Peter, yes" "those who had tried his hands & washed his feet, yes."

This scene... when Joseph reveals himself... Father in contentment and with his.

- 7. Jesus to James, Jude..
- 7. Jesus to Peter, "our hour is at hand"
- 7. Jesus to "his brethren" when bread shall be set with tears into his when we had nailed to a cross. when look on his when they have pierced. John 12:10 Rev. 1:7
