3. I must re-think my facts.
 I am interested in facts, realities: not illusions, representations, fables, fictions, fancies, suppositions. But the most amazing fact, all-pervading, in the world is God, and the most astounding fact that ever happened on this planet is Jesus Christ. A life that changed a whole calendar, the destiny of a whole world, dating way they for him, is a considerable fact. A life that saved, comforted, elevated millions... a considerable fact.

What of men who called themselves unprejudiced scholars, scientists, who pride themselves on sticking to the facts, yet shied out from the consideration of the major fact of human existence?
 They see rocks are facts - they build from them the science, geology,
 " stars are facts - deduce astronomy.
 " bones that fossils are facts - deduce paleontology, history of earth.
 But see nothing, deduce nothing from the dominant, towering fact of human history.
 See immense weaknesses in the heavenly bodies.
 " no " " " " " " " " " " " "
