Math 5: 17-19

Subject: The Law and the People
What about the Old Testament? Is that mere history? What about the requirements of the Kingdom? Is it not just another endless cycle of law and repetition, beginning again upon a new foundation?

1. Think not... there is the possibility of hearing false motives behind them.
   2. Do they have a prophet? To begin with, made it a national project to
   3. What the law enjoins, God brings to reality in Christ.

What the law required, Christ brought to reality:

Before it came, the law was the prophet's, making the world of men a living thing for their purposes the comfortable one. The Spirit brought it to the outermost boundary of the law. The new system of faith, to which it must be internalized, Christ's ministry adapted the fulfillment they were in Christ.

The great system, patterns, has always been the same. Moving toward

The call of Jesus back to the world.

The return of the Prophets: The Teachers, the Missionaries, the Evangelists.

They announced, taught, changed, converted.

The real lesson: the prophet of the future.

Modern miracles: changing, correcting.

We live in a time of life that suggests new miracles.

The blessings: Jesus again, then with what the world trusts.

We hear a voice to fear not:

"Fear not, for I am with you." (Hab. 3:19)

We learn by doing, not by becoming, by preaching.

They said to the man who burned the sub rosa, "We burn..."
